

The strength of Cleveland's baking powder comes from pure cream of tartar and soda only. It effervesces more slowly than powders containing alum, ammonia or tartaric acid.

To have the best results REMEMBER the oven should not be too hot, and it is not necessary to hurry the dough into the oven.

Norrman & Moore FIRE INSURANCE 120 Wyoming Avenue

DON'T Have your COLLARS starched in the old way, when you can have them done with safe, reliable Buttonholes for TWO CENTS EACH.

New and Very Choice Line of

JET Trimmings

Mears & Hagen 415 Lacka. Ave.

If you want Carpets, Draperies, Wall Paper or Window Shades, come to us. We have a full line of goods, and our prices are very low.

Williams & McNulty 127 Wyoming Ave.

CITY NOTES.

The Girls Friendly society of St. Luke's church, gave a pleasant social on the lawn at the church last night. Professor A. Gross, for years organist at St. Peter's cathedral, has opened a musical studio in the rear of 713 Adams avenue. The regular weekly prayer meeting of the Penn Avenue Baptist church will be held this week on Friday evening. No service on Wednesday night. The sacred cantata entitled "Bethany" will be given a few weeks hence in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. The cantata is under the supervision of Professor William Jones. William Connelley yesterday purchased a strip of land having frontage of fifty feet on Washington avenue, alongside of the building recently erected by him, which is occupied by Hill and Connell. The purchase was made from the Alfred Gilmore estate. The young women who frequent the lunch room of the Young Women's Christian association have been enjoying the noon service which Mr. Bliss has conducted. Today at 10 o'clock Mr. Stebbins will conduct a praise service and will sing several selections. All young women are invited. Jesse Mills, teamster for A. M. Atherton, of Providence, met with an accident in returning from Dickson City yesterday, caused by the running away of the horses. The wagon upset and was smashed, and the driver seriously bruised about the head. Dr. Kennedy, of Priceburg, dressed the wounds and he was shortly after conveyed home. On Sunday afternoon Bener's band will give a sacred concert at Laurel Hill park and among the numbers that will thrill the visitors are Rossini's "Stabat Mater" and "Zampa Overture" which is the piece played by the band at the recent musical festival at the park and for which a prize of $500 was offered. The concert may be postponed if the weather is unfavorable and in the event of sunshine provisions are made for accommodating several thousand visitors. Two months ago Henry H. Burschell, a West Side milk dealer, was driving down Spruce street in his van, which was struck by a Providence street car at the intersection of Wyoming avenue. The collision threw him from the wagon and he struck heavily on the curbing, head foremost. The injury was so painful that he has not recovered from its effects yet. Yesterday, through his attorney, E. C. Newcomb, he began a trespass suit, claiming damages in the sum of $5,000. The committee of councils, especially appointed to investigate the Frable charges against South Side members, will meet at the municipal building to-night. Mr. Frable has been requested to be present. Since the committee was appointed it has made several ineffectual efforts to secure Mr. Frable's attendance. If he fails to attend this evening it is probable that the committee will report no evidence and the matter will be dropped. Members Lauer, Thomas and McCann are the select body's representation, and members Golden, Rogers and Simon Thomas, the common council's part of the committee. A Gospel service will be held at the South Side Young Women's Christian association on Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, led by Rev. L. Aldrich, of Grace church, to which all women are invited. A song service of interest will precede the meeting. The gymnasium classes at the association room will open the first week in October, under Miss Shadlow, of Brooklyn. All wishing to enter these classes are requested to give their names with the secretary, Miss Shadlow, who will take measurements this year and give only those exercises as will strengthen each pupil. The terms will be as easy as one can desire.

PARTY'S MILWAUKEE BEER, cool and sparkling, at Lohman's, Spruce street.

PLEASANT SOCIAL EVENT.

Young People Entertained at the Boies Residence. One of the largest and most enjoyable young people's parties of the early season was that given last night by Mrs. H. M. Boies for Henri Garneau, of St. Louis, Mo., the Yale friend of her son, Joseph Boies.

The large reception parlors were cleared and crashed for dancing, and were beautifully decorated with exquisite vari-colored roses tastefully arranged. The broad piazza was lighted by red and blue incandescents. Frenzying was enjoyed in the large conservatory. Music was furnished for dancing by Bauer, and huntington served the refreshments.

Among the guests were: The Misses Archibald, Augusta Archibald, Mudd, St. Louis; Pierson, Law, Pittston; Gearhart, Finch, Anderson, Kingsbury, Grace Kingsbury, Mary Bessell, Jones, Mott, Evelyn Gilmore, Simpson, Kaufmann, Torrey, Bessie Torrey, Sherer, Pennypacker, Hanley, Margaret Hanley, Winton, Hunt, Gould, Seneca Falls, N. Y.; Blair, Hattie, and Alice; Mrs. Alice Matthews, Williams, Jay and Hand; Messrs. Blair, Archibald, Jessup, Wolf, Windsor Decker, Ewan Decker, Bellu, Walker, Fry, Moffat, Ed and James Gearhart, Merrill, Theodore and Ezra Connell, Seiden Kingsbury, Johnson, Percy, Mott, Fred Platt, John and George Brooks, Mortimer Fuller, Frank Fuller, Fred Fuller, Theodore Fuller, Torrey, Hanley, Willis and Harry Kirkpatrick, Jamie Sanderson, Edward Sanderson, Everett Hunt, Albert Hunt, Jones, Knapp, South Norwalk, Conn.

AT THE THEATERS.

That laughable creation of Charles H. Hoyt, "A Texas Steer," will be seen at the Academy of Music to-night. The plays of Charles H. Hoyt are always warmly received in this city, but none of them is a greater favorite than "A Texas Steer."

James B. Mackie's new play, "The Side Show," which will be the attraction at the Academy of Music Thursday evening, is said to be one of the most amusing comedies known to the modern stage. It deals with life as it exists at the present day in the town of Georgetown, Mass., where the scene is laid, especially on circus day. "The Side Show" tells a coherent story, which is carefully adhered to throughout the play. It serves as an excellent medium for the introduction of many pleasing specialties. He has gathered in his support a very strong coterie of comedians, acrobats, singers and dancers, whose efforts to please prove highly satisfactory. The ensemble of the company consists of the following well known artists: George Back, George Steele, Waldo Whipple, George Turner, John T. Hanson, Walter Phillips, H. E. Mosler, Louise Sanford, Kattie Gilmore, Laura Ashby, Miss Annie, Nellie Russell and James B. Mackie, the only Grimesey, Me Boy.

In the galaxy surrounding Mr. Keene are the following well-known names: Edwin Aronson, Frank Aronson, Carl Aronson, Thomas Eagleton, George Buckler, Lawrence Lowell, Lillian Lawrence, Genevieve Beaman, Juliette Downs and Mrs. S. A. Baker. Mr. Keene will be seen at the Academy of Music on Monday evening next in "Richelieu," a powerful and entertaining drama from the fertile pen of Bulwer Lytton. The fine acting of Mr. Keene is well known to Scrantonians, the easy manner with which he handles the different and difficult roles commands the admiration of all. The company, as seen above, is a strong one, and thoroughly competent to give "Richelieu" its proper interpretation. Every attention will be given the little minor details which often make a performance so delightful. This promise to be the dramatic event of the season. Sale of seats will open at the box office on Friday morning at 9 a. m.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

Naturalization papers were yesterday issued to Stephen Gall, Erich Andrian and John Brown. Marriage licenses were issued yesterday by Clerk of the Courts John H. Thomas to John R. Jones and Jennie Probert, of Olyphant; John F. Joyce and Kittie Mabon, of this city. The Dunmore Gas and Water company, through Attorneys Watson & Diehl, began equity proceedings yesterday against the Moccasin Mountain Coal company and the Moccasin Mountain Water company. The hardware firm of Foote & Shear, of this city, yesterday began an action in replevin against Thomas Kutulus for the value of one cook stove detained by defendant, which is claimed by the plaintiff. T. E. Davis, P. F. Griffin and J. D. Richardson, co-partners in the firm of Davis & Griffin, began in the office of Prothonotary Pryor yesterday additional assumpsit suits against three insurance companies, namely, the Singara Fire Insurance company, of New York, for $200; the Bellian Insurance company, of Philadelphia, for $2,500; and the Firemen's Fund Insurance company, of San Francisco, for $2,000.

WOOD'S COLLEGE

Of Business and Short-hand. The best business since the college was organized. Both sessions largely attended. Both sessions largely attended. $5,000. This year a large number of people find it inconvenient to pay for the scholarship on entering. The management has set aside of $5,000 to accommodate those who wish to pay on the installment plan. Persons interested are invited to call. F. E. WOOD, Principal. Miss Hardenbergh's Pianoforte School Re-opens Monday, Sept. 17. A thoroughly high grade school for the study of the piano-forte, theory, harmony, musical history and analysis; in the famous Mason system technique, Virgil Practice Clavier and the higher art of musical interpretation. A special training course for teachers. 487 Wyoming avenue.

OXFORD, Bagster, International and family Bibles. PRATT'S BOOK STORE.

It's a Go. The great sale of Binghamton shoes at the 5-Bro.'s shoe store. Regular prices are cut square in two. Don't miss this chance to get some of the bargains.

EXPERIENCED NURSE

would like to have engagements for September and October. Reference from doctors. MRS. THIEL, 223 Penn. avenue.

City and School Taxes, 1894.

The city and school tax duplicates for the year 1894 are now in my hands for collection. Persons wishing to pay can do so now, or any person requiring statements of taxes by giving ward and location of property will be promptly answered. R. G. BROOKS, City Treasurer. Municipal building, Washington avenue. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., except Saturday, this office will be closed at noon.

WHY NOT TO-NIGHT?

Was the Subject of Evangelist Moody's Impressive Appeal Last Night.

TOBACCO SMOKING DENOUNCED

Farewell Address Will Be Delivered at the Elm Park Church To-night. An Eloquent Address on "The Holy Spirit" Was Given in the Afternoon. Will Be Continued This Afternoon. Plans for the Future.

Mr. Moody resumed his services yesterday, when he addressed a large gathering at Elm Park church at 3 p. m., his subject being the "Holy Spirit." Messrs. Stebbins and Caswallon Davies acted as conductors of the preceding musical services. Mr. Moody in his address said:

There are two scenes prominent in my life which I will never forget as long as I live. The first was when I was born the Holy Spirit and the second when God baptized me with the Holy Ghost in 1871 and as I believe announced to me by service, life since that as well as the work, has been thought of as one. I was an older man in 1871 than I am now and feel myself getting younger every day. I hear of ministers breaking down from overwork. If I were to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewildered and confused. I prefer to ask the question "What did Christ come to the world for?" almost every child could readily answer that he came to seek and save that which is lost, but if I ask what is the work of the Holy Ghost a large number of the audience would be bewild