Albert Laskowski was yesterday discharged from the county jail under the provisions of the insolvency act. Some time ago Laskowski was charged with slandering Mrs. Amelia Luck and a board of arbitrators directed him to pay her $25 as damages. He did not like the idea of giving up any of his hard earned cash as a bail for Laskowski's wounded feelings and sought refuge in the insolvency act.

A little 2-year-old girl, barefooted, bareheaded and clad in a light blue dress was found wandering in the vicinity of the city building yesterday afternoon by Chief of Police Simpson. He brought her to the office in police headquarters awaiting the call of her parents. A short while afterward a gentleman casually dropped around to the office, recognized the child and brought her home. She lives on South Washington avenue.

HELD AS PRISONERS.
Mrs. O'Horo's Novel Way of Collecting Rent—Locked Mrs. Munley and Children in House.

Michael Munley, of Dunmore, rushed into the prothonotary's office yesterday afternoon and in an excited manner wanted to know where he could find the chief of police.

"My wife and children are locked up in the house and I want to get them out," he explained and then went on to give the corroborative details.

Five weeks ago he moved from the South Side to Dunmore and rented apartments from Mrs. O'Horo at the rate of $4 per month. No lease was executed between the parties and Munley therefore paid no rent.

Yesterday he went about to move his household effects into an adjoining house which he had rented and Mrs. O'Horo asked him to desist until he had paid the rent that was due.

He paid no attention to her request and therefore she decided that the time had come for vigorous measures.

She locked the house and made prisoners of Mrs. Munley and her two children, who were with her in the house at the time, and declared that she would keep them as hostages until she received her $4.

Munley sought the aid of the chief of police of Dunmore, who informed him that it was not such a case as he could interfere in. After declaring that there was no justice in Burgess Dugan's town Munley proceeded to the court house.

He was sent to police headquarters in the municipal building and there again related his woes. The city police authorities informed Mr. Munley that they had no jurisdiction in Dunmore and that gentleman went sorrowfully back to his home to make his peace as best he could with his irate landlady.

THAT PINE STREET PAVE.
It Is Probable That It Will Not Be Laid This Year.

Clerk W. L. McLean was busy yesterday serving notice on the Pine street property owners, ordering them to put down curbing within thirty days.

The ordinance providing for the paving of Pine street gives the property owners thirty days from date of notice from the street commissioner in which to put down curbing, or reset curbing already laid.

The lines are not yet given by the city engineer and will not be until the property owners request it. When the thirty days have expired the city will begin to put down the curbing for those who have omitted to do it, and it will be charged per foot to each owner in the same way as paving is done.

The time granted to property owners on this street for laying curb will not expire until the cold weather sets in, and then it will be too late to begin paving, so that the work will be postponed until spring.

The Barber Asphalt company cannot begin to lay concrete until the curbing is down. All the indications are that Pine street will not be paved this year.

MACKIE AND HIS NEW FARCE.
The Side Show Introduced Some Good Specialties.

James B. Mackie made his appearance at the Academy of Music last night in his new farce, "The Side Show."

Mackie is the same "Grimesy, Me Boy," as of yore, with the same antics and facial contortions that first won him fame in "A Banish of Kays."

MR. NOONE'S MINORITY

The Common Council's Majority Was Against Him.

WANTED THE MAYOR CRITICISED
For His Action in Renewing a Franchise—The Common Body Shows an Antagonism to an Increased Police Force—Committee Will Investigate an Old Bill for Detective Services—Details of a Lengthy Meeting.

Last night's meeting of common council was marked by a deluge of business which lasted until 1:00 o'clock, and a heated discussion of Mayor Connell's letter recalling his action in revoking a South Side franchise of the Scranton Traction company. The absentees were members Golden, Morris, Robinson, Davies and Hickey.

Mr. Noone presented a resolution bearing upon the mayor's renewing a South Side franchise of the Traction company after it had been revoked by council. The resolution in substance stated that the mayor's action had been made known to council only by the press; that common council protested against his action; that, even though his course was lawful, he should have ended council's courtesy of informing them of his intention. Mr. Noone moved the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Robathan's amendment to the resolution was referred to the judiciary committee was carried as follows:

Ayes—Thomas, Robathan, Godfrey, Moir, Wenzel, Sweeney, Nealis, Schadt, Williams, Battle, Norton.
Nays—Grier, Rogan, McLean, Howe, Noone.

THOSE DETECTIVE BILLS.
The auditing committee presented without recommendation a detective bill for $150, accompanied by a written opinion of the city solicitor that council had the same right to ratify and to authorize such expenditures whether or not the bill contained a provision for withdrawal. A motion was made by Mr. Robathan and seconded by Mr. Godfrey that the bill be paid. Mr. McLean contended that inasmuch as the bill was for expenses during a search for an absconding tax collector, the bill could not be paid until the collector was arrested and his bonds forfeited. Mr. Battle's amendment that the bill be referred to the judiciary committee prevailed.

The report of the joint committee specially appointed to investigate the Frable charges was accepted. Following is an extract of the report.

We are of the unanimous opinion that Mr. Frable in making an attempt to improve upon the board of trade the extent of his knowledge of municipal matters, simply exposed his ignorance; that his statement of the corrupt practices of the South Side or other councilmen cannot be verified; that he lacked the manhood to appear before your committee to verify or retract the statements which he made; and that we consider his knowledge of municipal matters very limited and what he said was not for the purpose of promoting the public welfare.

AGAINST PARK POLICEMEN.
A communication from the mayor, and an accompanying resolution passed in select council that two policemen be engaged to patrol N. Y. Ave. park the balance of the year was referred to the park committee on the strength of a sentiment against the increase evinced by the remarks of Members Moir, McLean, Battle and Sweeney.

Select council ordinances were referred to committee as follows: Creating Sewer district No. 21, providing for the extending of Wyoming avenue. Select council ordinances passed first and second readings as follows:

Providing for 5-foot flagstone sidewalks on Academy street, Hyde Park, and on North Main avenue; providing for 5-foot flagstone walks, curbs and gutters on North Main avenue. Common council ordinances amended in select council passed first and second readings providing for stone sidewalks on Monsey avenue and Fellows street.

Ordinances providing for the purchase of a lot for Cumberland hose house and providing for the establishing of grades of Sixth ward streets, passed first and second readings. Ordinances providing for sidewalks on Monroe avenue between Gibson and Myrtle streets, and for electric lights on Von Storen avenue at Green Ridge and Marion streets, passed third and final reading.

The recommendation of the streets and bridges committee that the roadway of Pine street be narrowed to 34 feet and the sidewalks widened to 13 feet at no expense to the city, was adopted.

REPAIRS OF PROVIDENCE ROAD.
Mr. Moir asked for the passage of the ordinance providing that repairs to the Providence and Abington turnpike be made under the supervision of the street commissioner and that $1,000 for the purpose be appropriated from the fund fund. Mr. Robathan urged that the matter be postponed, as West Side citizens are working toward the elimination of the viaduct movement, which would be deprived of $1,000 if the ordinance passed. His motion prevailed to postpone the ordinance indefinitely.

Adjournment was made until next Thursday night.

SCRANTON ORATORIO SOCIETY.
Organized Last Evening and Will Commence Work Immediately.

The Scranton Oratorio society was organized last night at a meeting held at the armory on Adams avenue.

The society was a representative one but owing to other engagements the majority of subscribers, who already number over seventy, were unable to attend. Professor Lindsay explained the plan of organization in which he said that his endeavor would be to imitate the Handel-Haydn society, of Boston, although he could not expect to enroll so large a number of members. Honorary or non-singing members would pay an annual subscription of $12 and be entitled to two tickets to each performance.

On the motion of Dr. Leete it was decided that the meeting formally pledge itself to assist Professor Lindsay and assure him of their support. The meeting was adjourned to meet at the professor's residence, 822 Mulberry street, on Tuesday at 8 p. m. All those present signed the roll of membership.

BURTA IS DISPLEASED

Thinks That All Offenders Against the Law Should Be Treated the Same.

HIS CHARGES AGAINST LUKENS
Says the Latter Conducts a Hole-in-the-Wall—Police Officer Rodham Confirms the Accusation—Charge He Made on the Police Blotter Concerning a Recent Assault That Occurred in the House.

There is trouble among the unlicensed liquor dispensers of Lloyd street, North End, because of the action of Constable Bernard Davis in returning Albert Burta for selling liquor without a license.

Burta is minus an arm and an eye, and says it is impossible for him to do any kind of manual labor. He is not complaining that the return Constable Davis made to court regarding him is an injustice, but he does declare most emphatically that all offenders should be treated alike.

John Lukens, he says, runs a "hole in the wall" close by and although it is a notorious fact that an illicit business is being conducted there, he is not molested.

Burta believes this is such discrimination against him as warrants the severest condemnation. He charges that he was returned to court at the instigation of a North End liquor dealer who has refused to patronize Lukens' place, is well known to the police. On Sept. 7 John Lososke was injured in the place by being struck on the head with a glass by Frank Krich while both men were in an intoxicated condition. Krich was arrested by Police Officer Rodham, who made the following entry on the police blotter with regard to the case:

"They were drinking in John Lukens' on Lloyd street which is a damnable resort for such characters. He is selling without a license and I suppose gives inducements to draw trade."

Here is a case in which the police court the next day the injured man refused to prosecute his assailant who escaped with a $2 fine.

Lukens became alarmed when the man was arrested in his house which may account for the haste displayed in settling the case out of court regarding him.
