CAPT. FLANNERY STRIKES BACK

He Dresses President Mangan Down to the Queen's Taste

SOME BEWILDERING CONVERSIONS

Three Times in One Day Does the Lord High Executioner of Pittston's Councilmanic Destiny Alternate the Emotions of His Heart in the Matter of Street Paving, and Captain Flannery Is Prepared to Prove It.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. PITTSTON, Sept. 19. PRESIDENT MANGAN, it appears, has again put his foot in it, as the appended card, addressed to THE TRIBUNE and signed by Captain John T. Flannery, will show.

"In last evening's Gazette Johnnie Mangan, president of the borough council, is represented by the reporter of that paper as sending in a communication in which he charges me with being a 'base fabricator,' etc., because I had stated truthfully that the Lilliputian statesman had, on the afternoon of Thursday, previous to the vote by which the council registered its selection of the asphalt pave, informed me that he had up to 2 o'clock that afternoon favored brick, but that his views had undergone a change about that bewitching hour.

WILL PROVE EVERY STATEMENT. This is a truthful statement of the backsliding of our diminutive president. Every statement I have made with reference to his conduct, touching this councilmanic scandal, I am prepared to verify and fortify by affidavit. I have never reported him as having bribed others nor as having been bribed himself.

Nicholson. On account of our schools being so overcrowded, the directors were obliged to find other quarters for one grade. Consequently they are having room fitted up in the "rink" Miss Fannie Stephens is to take charge.

Archbald. Everyone who admired the manly stand of Burgess Burke last year, when he refused to sign an ordinance granting exclusive privileges to the Carbon-dale Traction company, will be disappointed to learn that he has signed an order, scarcely less obnoxious, by which the best streets in the borough have been donated to the Lackawanna Traction company.

BRIDGE GAVE WAY. A Man, Team and Wagon Fall Into the Paupack River. Special to the Scranton Tribune.
