STILL ANOTHER TICKET

Prohibitionists of the County Hold a Convention at the Frothingham. W. H. RICHMOND FOR CONGRESS

THE TICKET. Congress—WILLIAM H. RICHMOND, Priceburg. Judge—EDWARD CAMPBELL, Uniontown, Fayette county.

The Prohibitionists of Lackawanna county met in the Frothingham theater yesterday afternoon in mass convention to nominate a county ticket.

While the committees were preparing their reports Rev. John Davy was called upon for remarks. He said that the Prohibitionists had right upon their side and must ultimately win.

W. W. Lathrop was next called upon. He said that when a person sits down to calmly consider the condition of affairs in this country it seems that our republic is on the high-road to ruin.

While the prohibitionists of Lackawanna county, Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, made the following declaration of principles, and ask the voters to ratify them at the polls on Nov. 6:

Resolved—That we are working for the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and we demand the abolition of the saloon because it is the citadel of the forces that corrupt the individual and the state; because it is a parasite upon industry; because it is the arch-enemy of labor; because it is the robber of the many, including innocent women and children; because it transforms good grain into poison; because it employs men in the destruction of their fellows; because it deals out disease and death for the wages of honest toil; and because there is no real value in it.

G. Thomason, H. M. Walton, Tallie Morgan, of Scranton; William Watson, of Moscow; Ira Davis, of Ransom; John L. Stone, of Waverly; C. C. White, of Peckville, C. D. Winter, of Jermyn; Pierce Butler and H. J. Hockenbury, of Carbondale; Amos Washer, of Dunmore; D. W. Hornbaker, of Madisonville; J. E. Loveland, of Moscow; A. B. Clay, of Easton; and D. J. Whiteford, of Taylor.

At this point Mrs. C. D. Simpson and Mrs. Clara Hoffman made their appearance in one of the boxes on the right of the theater and were greeted with cheers.

A greeting from the Women's Christian Temperance union in session at Moscow, was read and W. W. Lathrop appointed a committee to telegraph the convention's response to the greeting. Mrs. Clara Hoffman was then requested to address the convention.

The other nominations made were: Sheriff, Joseph E. Loveland, Madison township; Treasurer, William Atherton, Clark's Great prothonotary; Charles H. Chandler, Scranton; district attorney, W. W. Lathrop, Scranton; clerk of the courts, James A. Lennon, of Olyphant; recorder of deeds, Edwin S. Williams, Scranton; register of wills, John M. Hughes, Scranton; John R. Colvin, Blakely.

A vote of thanks was extended to Arthur Frothingham for the use of the Frothingham theater for the convention and then the body adjourned.

Pierce Butler chairman. After the convention adjourned the county committee met and elected Pierce Butler chairman of the county committee. It then adjourned to meet in Tallie Morgan's office on Oct. 1, to name candidates for legislature and the senate.

SIXTY CAR LOADS OF FLOUR. A Big Sale on One Brand. Since Aug. 7, 1893, we have bought sixty car loads (7,500 barrels) of one brand of flour, "Our Best," and out of that 7,500 barrels we do not think we have had several complaints or one barrel in 1,000, and in no case has anyone wished us to take a barrel back.

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED. Supposed to be a Resident of This City. A man supposed to be Anthony O'Connor, a miner from this city, was run over by a railroad train and killed at Pittsburgh Wednesday.

WOOD'S COLLEGE NOTES. Miss Shea is succeeding well with Martin & Delany. Frank Battle has secured an excellent position as stenographer in Wilkes-Barre.

Evangelist Schiavera yesterday noon addressed over 500 men at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western car shops upon the subject, "The Wages of Sin is Death."

In May, 1893, the Rushbrook Coal company executed a mortgage of $11,917.50 to Thomas E. Jones, executor of the estate of Edward Jones, and to James J. Williams, administrator of the estate of George Simpson. Subsequently a partial payment of $1,086 was made on the mortgage, but the amount was not credited.

NAY AUG PARK VIEWS

Some Are Beautiful in the Extremes, and Others Are Not.

THE IMPASSABLE APPROACH. The New Boulevard is a Magnificent Addition to the City's Attractions, but You Will Not Be Able to Enjoy Its Beauties Until Mulberry Street is Put into Navigable Shape—Building Lots in Great Demand, but Grade Diggers Scarce.

A trip to Nay Aug park is interesting just now. It is especially interesting if you try to make it in a carriage, driving over the contemplated approach to the Nay Aug and Elm-bur-st boulevard.

By the time you reach Taylor avenue and look down into the expanse of mud, mud streaked with tracks and sidewalks, and dirt heaps, just beyond you will begin in earnest to feel discouraged.

Here and there, at odd intervals, the hand of man has jabbed into the surface of the earth in a faint and fluttering attempt to make a beginning at the promised grading; but the scene of operations was utterly deserted yesterday, when a TRIBUNE tourist traversed the lonely trail; and if the street is to be put into any suggestion of usefulness before the snow flies, it will require some first class, old style, Electric City hustling.

A DELIGHTFUL DRIVEWAY. The boulevard company has laid out and graded a beautiful driveway from Arthur avenue onward to the new bridge, which, by the bye, is rapidly nearing completion.

Grading at a standstill. No one seems to know to a certainty just why this work of grading is not begun and kept up. Street Commissioner Kirat says he is ready to do his share of the contract; but still he remains passive.

The name of Anthony O'Connor does not appear in the city directory and yesterday the police department had not succeeded in finding his friends or relatives.

Mary Reedy has accepted a position with David New Bros. as bookkeeper and stenography. The stationery for the new business practice has arrived and the work will be introduced at once.

Miss Teresa Tensant, a most excellent young lady, is stenographer for the West Ridge Coal company.

Grace Doud has accepted a position with the Bay City Publishing company. Messrs. Kinsella and Reddington are publishing men.

Still booming. The great sale of Binghamton shoes at the 5 Bros. shoe store. Regular prices cut in square in two. Values scattered to the winds. Don't miss this chance to get some of the bargains.
