Factoryville.

The office of the Factoryville Tidings has been moved from its old quarters in the Brick Hall to a new home on Main street.

Dr. Reeves, 412 Spruce St., Scranton, cures all French diseases. 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

The yearly meeting of the Six Pric Baptist church closed on Sunday evening after a three days' session.

The lecture of Rev. W. R. Turner, of Binghamton, is not next Friday evening, as stated in last week's items, but on Friday evening, Oct. 5.

The Mind Pond Peepers and the Wyomings or the Factoryville "kickers," as they are termed, played their second game of base ball on the Peepers' grounds at Fleetville last Saturday afternoon. The Wyomings then and there proved that they were far superior to their opponents, and that the Peepers are not in it all for as base ball is concerned. A colored gentleman umpired the game and his decisions were unbiased. Score 13 to 23 in favor of Wyoming. Notwithstanding the false statements by the Fleetville reporter in the Scranton Republican of Sept. 19, the Wyomings still lead. A large number of people witnessed the game, about one-half of which were Factoryvillians, while Dalton and Waverly were largely represented. Quite a number of the Peepers' adherents were anxious to stake the hard earned cash on the results of the game, and found ready money to cover all they had among the kicker crowd.

Dr. C. A. Hall, of Danmore, will come to reside here in place of Dr. H. D. Baldwin, who is to locate elsewhere.

René & Williams played an "Arabian Night" to a good sized audience at the armory on Saturday. Last night the audience was much larger and all were much pleased with the presentation of the "Clemenceau Case." The company is first class and the managers are to be congratulated upon securing such an attraction for the entertainment loving people of Montrose. Tonight the company will appear again, the house will no doubt be filled.

Hawley.

The heavy rains of the past week have swollen the streams in this section. The water is much larger and its beautiful fall of water of over 100 feet, dashing its spray high in air, and the surrounding scenery affords a magnificent sight to the many spectators who frequent that place. The many manufacturing establishments, viz: D-xter, Langley & Co., will appear again in operation. J. S. O'Connor & Sons cut glass works and Taft & Pierson's grist mill are all operated by that stream, while along its banks for nearly two miles would be a most suitable site for the erection of other mills.

Dr. Reeves, 412 Spruce St., Scranton, cures scrofula and all eruptions. 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

The Silver Lake quartette, which will be here Oct. 3, should have a full house. They sing in the Academy of Music in Scranton on Oct. 2.

C. D. Winter is doing jury duty this week.

The Republican convention for the Fourth legislative district will be held in the McKinley club rooms at 3 p. m. today.

The annual parade of the Father Mathew societies of Luzerne and Lackawanna counties will take place in Jermyn Oct. 10. A great deal of business pertaining to the order is to be transacted, and a large number of societies are expected to be present. The citizens are requested to decorate their residences and places of business on this occasion.

A rebate of 5 per cent will be allowed by Tax Collector Lure to all who pay up before Oct. 13.

Hogarth's Temperance band members have received their new uniforms and look very trim in them. The cap is marked H. T. B. They will make their first appearance in them on Oct. 10, accompanying the Father Mathew parade. Although the members of this band vary in size ranging from 3 feet 2 to 6 feet 3, and in weight from 55 pounds to 218 pounds, there is no such difference in the ability of the players, the twenty different pieces harmonizing very nicely.

Miss Lizzie Lovering, of Greenwood, who has been visiting in Wilkes-Barre the past two months, returned home yesterday.

The funeral of Mrs. John Fitzhery at 9 o'clock yesterday morning was a worthy tribute to the memory of the deceased, who in life had been respected as a model type of a good Christian mother. The remains were borne to St. Joseph's church where a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. D. H. Green. Interment was made in Minooka Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Bridget Pullin, of this place, passed yesterday in Wilkes-Barre, where she will enter upon a novitiate in the order of Sisters of the Immaculate Heart.
