A reply from Professor T. J. Davies to George B. Carter's communication of yesterday has been received by THE TRIBUNE. It will appear tomorrow.
The ladies of the Green Ridge Baptist church will serve a supper at the church Thursday evening. First tables ready at 6 o'clock. Price, 35 cents. All are cordially invited.
The adjourned inquest to inquire into the death of Thomas Ryan, who was burned by an explosion at the Pine Brook shaft a few weeks ago will be held at the court house tomorrow night at 8 p. m.
At a meeting of Celestial lodge, No. 833, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, held Monday evening, the following officers were chosen: Noble Grand, Thomas Williams; vice-grand, John W. Benjamin; secretary, E. A. Biddleman; assistant secretary, William H. Cooper; trustee, Linus Snooker; representatives to grand lodge, S. W. Corwin. They fell into line and their officers will take place on Monday evening, Oct. 22.
Before mustering for parade yesterday those of the police force who were not stung out for duty marched from the office of Chief of Police Simpson through the Mulberry street entrance and marched to Washington avenue fronting the building and formed in line. They fell into line and formed double and open rank. Mayor Connell, Colonel E. H. Ripple and members of councils inspected the column from front and rear and bestowed flattering comments on their showing.
The Young Ladies' society of the First Presbyterian church will hold a missionary social tea on Thursday evening of this week from 5 until 10, at Dr. Farber's, 323 Washington avenue. The object is twofold, primarily to raise a working fund in connection with the coming fair. It is hoped that all will bring their mite. A second object is that Dr. and Mrs. McLeod may meet with all their parishioners in an evening of social intercourse and enjoyment. They will be glad to welcome to all the members of the church and congregation.
The Lithuanian people of this city had a feast of pleasure and good cheer at Music hall last night. At 8 o'clock the programme began with the presentation of a comedietta written by P. A. Szek, of 575 Lackawanna avenue. The title of the piece is "George Kustidate." It was well staged for an amateur presentation thoroughly, and lasted a little over an hour. A speech was delivered by Rev. Father Zalinski, of Plymouth. The proceeds of the entertainment will go towards building a house of worship in the North End, on the Providence road near the Tripp estate.

VAUGHAN FOR SENATOR
Resolutions Passed Endorsing Watres for United States Senator.

THE OTHER CONVENTIONS HELD
Charles P. O'Malley Had Almost a Walk-Over for the Legislative Nomination in the Fourth District—Alexander T. Connell Named in the Second District—Democrats of the Third District Place George Nelson Van Fleet in Nomination.
Four conventions were held in the county yesterday, three by Republicans and one by the Democrats. The nominations made at these conventions complete the tickets of both parties. At the Republican conventions Alexander James C. Vaughan was nominated for state senator, Alexander T. Connell for legislature in the Second district and Charles P. O'Malley for legislature in the Fourth district. The Democrats of the Second district nominated George Nelson Van Fleet of Benton for legislature. At the Republican senatorial convention the suggestion of John S. LaTouche that Lieutenant L. A. Watres would make a splendid successor for Senator Cameron was taken up with enthusiasm. The resolutions endorsed him for the office and pledged the candidate of the convention to support him if elected. In the afternoon the Fourth district Republican convention at Jermyrn warmly endorsed Mr. Watres for United States senator. It was one of the uppermost topics in political circles yesterday.

JAMES C. VAUGHAN FOR SENATOR.

Nominated at the Republican Convention Held in the Court House.
There was a large and lively attendance of delegates at the Twentieth Senatorial district convention, which met in the arbitration room of the court house immediately after the Second legislative district convention had adjourned. The liveliness was due to the harmony and enthusiasm which this year are constantly in evidence wherever Republicans gather. When Chairman John S. LaTouche called for the convention to come to order and Secretary H. M. Hansen read the call, the room was crowded and every district was represented. Among the well-known Republicans present from out of town were William E. Lloyd, of Blakely; Alderman S. S. Jones, of Carbondale; Lewis Jones, of Covington; G. O. Rogers, of Dickson City; James B. Morgan, of Fall township; Benjamin Parry and S. J. Matthews, of Olyphant; James Strong, of Winton; John McKenzie, of Avoca; Thomas Davis, of Hughestown; Daniel R. George, of Marcy, and J. W. Ziegler, of Pittston township.

THE RESOLUTIONS

Chairman Thomas H. Dale of the committee on resolutions reported as follows: The Republicans of the Twentieth Senatorial district, in convention assembled, declare: First—That we endorse the platform adopted and the ticket nominated by the recent legislative district convention and pledge to the candidates our most earnest and united support. The principles enunciated in that platform are the guiding principles of Republicanism, on the success of which depends the progress of the republic and the happiness of the American people. Second—That in General Daniel H. Hastings we have the ideal candidate for governor of Pennsylvania—a man great in all the attributes of manhood and noble in all the instincts that constitute the true leader among men. And in his associates on the state ticket we recognize only men worthy of such a leader. Third—We heartily endorse the splendid tickets nominated by the late Republican conventions of Lackawanna and Luzerne counties and pledge ourselves to do whatever lies in our power to aid in the election of each one of the candidates. Fourth—That in the renomination of Hon. Joseph A. Scranton, the efficient and always reliable representative in congress for the Eleventh district, we feel special gratification. The great service he has rendered this district, the care and thoughtfulness with which he has guarded the interests of his constituents, and the steadfastness with which he has adhered to and upheld Republican principles and measures until he to the support of every man who appreciates faithful service in a national representative. Fifth—We renew our fealty to the great doctrine of protection to our American industries, and denounce and denounce the unnecessary agitation of the tariff question by the Democrats in power which has brought so much distress and suffering upon the country. Sixth—Realizing the need of electing to the United States senate in 1897 a Republican who is in cordial sympathy with the principles and the membership of his party, and who would bring to the duties of that high office qualifications suited to their satisfactory discharge, we take great pleasure in presenting for the consideration of the voters of this commonwealth, the name of our distinguished fellow-townsmen, Lieutenant-Governor Louis A. Watres, to whose support we pledge the nomination of this convention, and during eight years as senator from this district, and four years as the Republican lieutenant-governor to a Democratic governor, Colonel Watres has demonstrated both his popularity and his fitness for responsible public and party trusts; and the Republicans of this district, themselves, unanimously and with confidence to his neighbors of all political faiths to unite with them in bringing deserved promotion to him, and distinction to a portion of the great industrial commonwealth which has never yet been accorded representation in the senate of the United States. A motion to adopt was carried unanimously, amid great enthusiasm. The plank announced by Lieutenant Governor Watres' candidacy for the United States senate was received with notable favor, cheer upon cheer greeting Mr. Dale's impressive reading of it. It was some time before the convention adjourned in tranquility, and when the adjourned, expecting, as Attorney Zimmerman aptly said, "to hear from Mr. Vaughan in November."

O'MALLEY IS THE NOMINEE.

Nominated Amid Great Enthusiasm in the Fourth District.
Charles P. O'Malley was nominated yesterday for representative by a convention of Fourth legislative district Republicans at Jermyrn. He received 42 votes on the first ballot against 18 votes cast for J. C. Turner, of Mayfield. The meeting was in an upper room of the hotel, and on the call of order at 3:30 o'clock until the adjournment two and a half hours later. The preliminary meeting was presided over by William J. Schumbel in the McKelvey club rooms. Old Fellows hall. The roll call revealed the presence of fifty-four delegates and absentees from the following districts: Jefferson township; Carbondale, Third ward, First district; Danmore, Second ward, Second district; First ward, Second district. There being no other candidates, the chairman announced that a presidential committee would be superfluous. Pursuant to a prevailing motion he appointed a committee of five upon resolutions as follows: J. W. Dimock, Carbondale; Thomas T. Palmer, Danmore; E. A. Jones, Carbondale; Michael Roberts, Jermyrn; W. W. Watkins, Blakely. After a fifteen minute recess the convention reconvened and in affixing a permanent organization the strength of the O'Malley contingent became the topic of the day. The resolutions endorsing the mere mention of the young man's name evoked thunders of applause and shouts. Dr. W. E. Lloyd, of Olyphant, the O'Malley candidate; Michael Roberts, of Jermyrn, not forward by the Turner force, and John Solomon, of Jermyrn, independent, were candidates for chairman. The ballot recorded by Tellers A. B. Jones, Carbondale; P. Parry, Olyphant; T. P. Palmer, Danmore, showed forty votes for Dr. Lloyd, ten for Mr. Roberts and three for Mr. Solomon.

DR. LLOYD BECOMES CHAIRMAN.

Dr. Lloyd then assumed the chair and S. S. Jones was elected secretary by acclamation. The report of the resolutions committee was received and adopted unanimously as follows: The Republican delegates of the Fourth legislative district in convention assembled at Jermyrn, Tuesday, Sept. 25, 1894, do hereby declare the following as the expression of our convictions: Resolved, That we declare our continued and unwavering adherence to the party that under the leadership of Blaine and Harrison gave this country the most prosperous years in its history, and particularly as residents of this mining and manufacturing region, we declare ourselves unalterably in favor of a tariff for protection not only to capital, but to the laboring man who forms so large a portion of this district, and we pledge our moral and financial support to the tariff tinkerers of the Democratic party, which has already brought the country into financial straits and economic calamity. Resolved, That we pledge our earnest support to Joseph A. Scranton, our able candidate for congress to General Daniel H. Hastings, the hero of Johnston, our gallant and brave leader in the war, and several nominees of the party for the administration of the county's business and to J. C. Vaughan, our nominee for state senator, whom we desire to support. Resolved, That we specially condemn the course of our party representative, M. T. Burke, on the free trade book bill, the best law passed for the workmen in many years, at the recent session of the legislature, in failing to work or vote for that bill.

O'MALLEY AN INSPIRATION.

Following the announcement of the chair that nominations for the legislature were in order, Burgess Samuel J. Matthews, of Olyphant, nominated Mr. O'Malley. The delegates were on the tip of expectancy waiting for the first mention of the candidates name and when it was pronounced by the speaker the session broke into prolonged and tumultuous applause, which also constantly interrupted the second speech of J. W. Dimock, of Carbondale. In substance Mr. Dimock referred to Mr. O'Malley as one who in the face of a humbling and beginning anti-Disadvantage had demonstrated moral and intellectual courage to educate himself and rise to prominence as a law student and finally as an attorney. He said, "Mr. O'Malley is a man well informed in the law, popular everywhere, of wide acquaintance, magnetic and of pleasant personality, he can go before the people with the slogan 'From the breaker to the state house,' and sweep this district, and he will do it. Give him the opportunity and he will make himself useful to us among the law makers of the state at Harrisburg, and it is for these reasons that I wish to second the nomination for representative of Charles P. O'Malley." In nominating Mr. Turner, John E. Finch, of Carbondale, alluded to the candidate's war record, mature age and stalwart Republicanism. Mr. Turner's candidacy was favored and ordered by the second speech of W. H. Stevens and John Eldorick. The result of the balloting showed that of the fifty-four votes cast, Mr. O'Malley had been chosen by forty-two votes as the nominee.

ACCEPTS THE NOMINATION.

In response to the clamor for a speech Mr. O'Malley appeared before the convention and thanked them for the honor conferred—an honor to represent his fellowmen and an honor, particularly, at this time of life. He would willingly represent the party of advancement, honesty and the school house. He was glad that Blaine's death had occurred before the Stars and Stripes had been lowered by a rebel hand, and that Sheridan and Sherman had passed away before the disgraceful treatment of the old soldier by Hoke Smith. Mr. O'Malley promised to devote his time, ability and resources toward his own election and the success of the entire ticket. He pledged himself that every educational or other bill which may be presented in the legislature for the good of the people will receive his support if he is elected. Mr. O'Malley paid a graceful tribute to Mr. Turner, the defeated candidate, who he said was entitled to only favorable comment and who had flattered open and clean in the preliminary campaign. After Mr. O'Malley's nomination the delegates broke forth in this chorus and made the hall resound: Hurrah! Hurrah, for O'Malley! Hurrah! Hurrah, for his majority! Twelve or fifteen hundred strong, it will surely be. When we are voting in November.

When Mr. O'Malley arrived in Olyphant last evening he was tendered a serenade by the Peckville Glee club and Olyphant Brass band. Men, women and children in the vicinity of his home went wild over the young man and gave him a monster ovation.

SECOND DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Alexander T. Connell Unanimously Received Republican Nomination.
At a convention of the R-republicans of the Second legislative district held in the Arbitration room yesterday morning Alexander T. Connell was nominated by acclamation for legislature. W. S. Miller, chairman of the district standing committee, called the convention to order at 10 o'clock a. m. After the credentials had been handed in by Secretary Kolb. Delegates Fred W. Flitz, John T. Howe and George Bogden were appointed a committee on resolutions. Mr. Miller was then elected permanent chairman and Dr. Kolb permanent secretary. Mr. Miller made a brief but pointed address that created much enthusiasm. He predicted that the Republican candidate for the legislature in the Second district will be triumphantly elected in November. Mr. Flitz at this point read the report of the committee on resolutions and it was adopted. The resolutions are as follows: We, the Republicans of the Second legislative district of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled reaffirm our devotion and loyalty to the cardinal principles of the Republican party as enunciated in the last national and state platforms. We heartily endorse the Republican state congressional and county tickets and believe that the admirable selection made, the sterling qualities and peculiar fitness of our several candidates entitle them to the active support of every citizen. We are in favor of good, honest local government and intelligent representation in the councils of the state and nation. We arraign and condemn the Cleveland administration for its unscrupulous record of infamy, perjury and dishonor which in eighteen months has plunged the country from a height of prosperity which was the admiration of the world into the depths of the greatest financial depression of our times. We endorse the official acts of the Hon. Frank T. Ogden in the representation of this district in the legislature, and point with pride to the admirable record which he made during his short public career, which demonstrated his integrity, integrity and ability to the satisfaction of the district. We pledge our active and energetic support to the candidate this day nominated, believing that his record in this district will be surpassed by his election. We hail with delight the signs of the times which presage the election by an overwhelming majority of every citizen candidate from governor down to jury commissioner, and pledge our every effort to assist in bringing about the magnificent victory of the self-confessed record of the Republican party in November next.

MR. CONNELL NOMINATED.
Nominations for the legislature were asked for and Fred W. Flitz named Alexander T. Connell in a speech in which he predicted that Mr. Connell would be elected by the largest majority ever given a candidate in the Second district. No other candidate was named and Mr. Connell was unanimously chosen. He was brought before the convention by Mr. Flitz and Mr. Davies, and in a short speech accepted the nomination and said he would use every honorable means to keep the Republican column on the South Side and is one of the most popular young men in that part of the city. He is at present serving as select councilman from the Twentieth ward and is recognized as the best legislator in the upper branch. Mr. Connell was a strong candidate and when elected an able representative.

DEMOCRATS IN CONVENTION.

Named George Nelson Van Fleet in the Third District.
The Democrats of the Third legislative district held a convention in this city yesterday. It was not large or enthusiastic, or anything of that kind. A number of delegates met at the court house and then adjourned to Ziegler's hotel, on Franklin avenue, in a back room of which George Nelson Van Fleet, of Fleetville, was nominated for legislature. There will be a grand opening of the Messes Jenkins & Morris, milliners, at 406 Spruce street, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. GENTLEMEN'S Driving club races Thursday, 3 o'clock p. m. ROYAL GOOD FELLOWS

Middletown's Clever Fireman Can Complain Again.
MONHAGENS MADE AN IMPRESSION
They Have Been in the City Since Monday, Accompanied by Distinguished Citizens—They Are Satisfied with Scranton and Scranton Wants No Better Company—Features of the Visitors' Sojourn in the City.

Since Monday afternoon the Monhagen Hose company, of Middletown, N. Y., accompanied by its honorary members and many distinguished guests, have been in this city as the visitors and friends of the Crystal Hose company. When the Monhagens start on their return trip this morning they will carry with them only pleasant memories and a deep seated spirit of friendship for their entertainers and the citizens and city officials who in various ways tended to make their visit an enjoyable one. During the stay of the visitors in Scranton every effort to entertain them was heartily received. On their arrival Monday they were formally welcomed in the name of the city by Mayor Connell. In the evening many visited the mines and steel works and for a frappe the younger element topped off the night with the "Owls," an organization of gay Scranton firemen of whose doings a person of temerity or incapacity of enjoyment cannot exactly comprehend.

HOW THE DAY WAS SPENT.

Yesterday morning the various points of interest that the city were visited and in the afternoon the Monhagens occupied the position of honor in the annual parade. It was along the line of march that the visitors created the most pronounced expressions of compliment. Seen together the company of interest and the intellectual appearing body of men whose personnel and general excellences could not but help win the plaudits of the spectators. After the parade many repaired to Central Park garden where the Volunteer Fireman's picnic was in progress during the day. Probably the most happy-free and jovial feature of the Monhagen stay was the banquet tendered them last evening at the Westminster by their hosts, the Crystals. The main dining room and reading room were occupied by the two organizations, city officials and invited guests. The discussion of the tempting array of viands began at 10 o'clock, and with the toasts incident to the occasion, did not terminate until several hours later. Space forbids the deserving mention of the flow of wit and amusing speeches. An idea of the quality of the remarks may, however, be gleaned from the list of toast responders: Of Middletown, Mayor Stansbury, Rev. Dr. Robinson, T. N. Little, ex-Mayor Eisman; of Scranton, Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons, Judge R. W. Arebald, P. F. Smith, C. E. Clatenden, Chief Furber, President Daniel Newman, and many others of both cities. Fred J. Widmayer, C. E. Pryor, E. E. Robertson, T. Filicoff, A. J. Colborn, F. H. Clemons and others were among the Scranton guests. Military Opening. A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies of Scranton and vicinity to attend the fall opening of Pattern Bunnets and Hats, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 27th, 28th, 29th. J. E. FULLER, 514 Spruce St., Opposite Court House. J. Frank Siegel's Academy of Dancing, now open for the reception of pupils. Office at hall, Traders National bank. Opening social Tuesday night Oct. 2nd. All former pupils and friends invited. Siegel's opening social Tuesday night, Oct. 2.
