

THE LATE Josh Billings said he had read a number of good essays on "Milk," but the best thing he had ever seen on it was cream. Now, Then That is what we have to say of our new stock of FALL AND WINTER DRESS GOODS—its the cream assortment of foreign novelties in Dress Patterns, at from $5 to $30 a pattern, Of American production, the cream assortment of novelties, in two-toned effects—and we certainly feel proud this season of what American manufacturers can do. We know you are not ungrateful, and when you see these novelties at 50c. and 75c. a yard, you'll say you never saw anything like them for the price.

In Silks Art and economy are combined—the colors and designs plain and fancy weaves throughout are exquisite, dainty and most attractive in the matter of prices.

In Housekeeping Linens All previous seasons' showings are undoubtedly surpassed. As a starter for early fall wear we offer a lot of Bleached Cotton Towels SIZE 20x40. Price, 12 1/2c. Each Honesdale. The Wayne county fair opened yesterday under more auspicious circumstances than ever before. The exhibits throughout are of the finest character. Those of the various Granges deserve especial mention, as it is the largest and best exhibit of fruit and vegetables in many years. The principal events of the day were the trotting races. The Reno and Williams company, that gave such a fine exhibition here a few weeks ago, is playing its return engagement here this week. This troupe is composed entirely of artists and deserves the best patronage of the town. It is playing simply on its merits, which is its own drawing card. "An Arabian Night" last night. Tonight "The Cleomecene Case," by Dumms. The Hall Brothers' orchestra, whose music was so much appreciated by Honesdale people several months ago, are attending the fair. Hon. Galusha A. Grow delivered an address at the court house last evening. The house was well packed and Mr. Grow was cheered heartily throughout his speech. The Fowler Harlow company, of Port Jervis, accompanied by the Emmet band, passed through Honesdale yesterday on its way to Carbondale. The band rendered some excellent selections while in town.

Miss Emma Gray, of Thompson, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Gray. Forest City. S. M. Lewis, a popular young man of Scranton, was the guest of his uncle, Druggist Alf. Davis, Tuesday. Miss Lizzie Melvin returned Tuesday evening from her extended visit at St. Paul, Minn., and other places in the West, woefully west. Dr. B. E. Bailey, of Carbondale, was professionally engaged in this place yesterday. As the long, dark evenings are approaching and there is not much chance that we will have the electric lights this year, would it not be a great improvement to have a few more street lamps? Horace G. Likely, of Carbondale, was a caller in this place Tuesday morning. The bustling newboy of The Tribune, Dennis Allen, delivers the papers bright and early every morning. Miss Lucila Crawford, state organizer for the Young Women's Christian Temperance union, will deliver a lecture at the Baptist church next Monday evening. All are cordially invited. Mr. Benjamin May is visiting relatives in Gibson and will attend the Hartford fair at Hartford today. Rev. Dr. T. C. Edwards, of King street, delivered his lecture on "Some Poets and Orators" at the Methodist Episcopal church last Monday evening before a large and appreciative audience. The lecture was well received and very much appreciated. The proceeds were for the benefit of the Welsh Congregational church. Dr. Edwards was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Evans during his visit here.

Archbald. In St. Thomas church yesterday afternoon, Miss Bridget Loftus, of the East Side, was married to William Ball, of Main street. The ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock by Rev. T. J. Carver, pastor of the church, and was witnessed by hundreds of friends of the young couple. The bride and her bridesmaid, Miss Maude Murray, looked charming in neat fitting gowns of brown whipcord, trimmed with velvet, with head dresses of large and small roses. The groom and his attendant, John Kane, of New York city, wore the customary black. The ushers were Thomas Loftus, a brother of the bride, and Thomas Munley. As the bridal party entered and left the church, Miss Nellie Carver, of Scranton, played a wedding march on the organ, and the party enjoyed a short drive, after which a reception was held at the home of the bride. Here many friends and invited guests assembled and made merry for several hours. The wedded couple received many valuable presents. A Mr. and Mrs. Ball were among the young people. Both are held in high esteem by a large circle of acquaintances, whose best wishes will be extended to them at this happy time. Dr. Reeves, 412 Spruce St., Scranton, cures all diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat—9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Miss Nellie Carver, of the East Side, was in town yesterday. ALLEGED BRIBERY. Taking of Testimony in the Pittston Cases Continued Yesterday.

PITTSBURY, Sept. 25.—The taking of testimony of the alleged bribery in connection with the awarding of the contract to pave the Erie and Water streets was resumed today and proved fully as interesting, for its ridiculousness, as that of yesterday. Counselman Henry Knowles was the first witness. He testified in substance as follows: "I had a conversation with Mr. Tigue hereafter called a bribe by the Sexton stood ready to offer $8,000 for eight votes. I never offered Tigue $900 to vote for Barber asphalt. O'Brien said to me that if money was to be used Halwood money was just as good as any and I being a alley employe could vote for the bribe. Knowles denied having received any money, or having offered any money, in connection with the contract. Borough treasurer on being sworn said Agent Townsend approached him and offered him $5,000 with which to buy congressional votes for Knowles (Townsend's) brick. "I refused to have anything to do with his money." Borough Secretary J. E. Dempsey was next called to the stand. He refused to take the oath, but consented to make a statement. He said: "I never heard of any bribe being offered by any paving agent, nor did I hear any councilman being offered a bribe to vote for any particular pave. Knowles told me that Townsend wanted to put $4,000 in his (Knowles) hands, but he declined to handle it. Knowles also told me that O'Brien of Wilkes-Barre had telegraphed for him, and when he went down was told that if he voted for the Halwood block there would be something in it for him. Dempsey O'Brien told me that if the Halwood block was not adopted, Townsend was going to serve an injunction against the borough to prevent them from executing the contract. Clifford told me that Townsend had offered him a consideration, but Clifford declined to have anything to do with him.

John Connell, proprietor of the St. James hotel on North Main street, was next sworn and said: "I heard Councilman Tigue talking to Joseph Fahy, R. B. Cutler and his son Charles, also Charles Curry and James O'Brien, Councilman Hennigan, C. R. Patterson and a dozen others were there. Tigue said Knowles told him there was a bribe of eight councilmen by which they had to give each $100 to the secretary. He said, meaning Tigue, Mike Langan offered him $500. He said Thomas English approached him, but did not offer him money. Tigue also said the asphalt man, he thought Furman, offered him $500. Some days afterward I told Tigue he ought to be careful of what he said to Langan, and then he denied having spoken as quoted. I told him he did. Then he said, what he meant to say was that Langan had said there was $8,000 for six councilmen, interest being shown in the preliminary work and there is every prospect that the fair will be a success.

McKeezie leaves today for Pennsylvania university to resume his medical studies. John Rodgers, son of Thomas Rodgers, of this town, who is located at Everett, Wash., has been nominated for coroner on the Democratic ticket. A paper from that town pays him a glowing recommendation. Mr. Rodgers is a young man who was raised in this town and who took the advice of Horace Greeley, "Go west, young man." He went and today is well fixed financially. J. W. Snow died Tuesday night at the home of his son, Shepherd Snow, on Union street. He was among the early settlers of this thriving borough. He was 60 years of age and esteemed highly by all who knew him. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church. Interment in the Presbyterian cemetery. Rev. E. L. Santee, of South Scranton, will officiate.

FEEL KNOCKED OUT. Pottsville Ties the Series of Championship Games with Harrisburg. POTTSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 26.—Pitcher Wilson, of Pottsville, won his own game today. He not only pitched a beautiful game, but he hit the ball every time he went to bat. In fact, the whole team redeemed themselves as batters. Fee was knocked out of the box in the fourth inning and was succeeded by Huston. This victory for Pottsville brings the championship series up to an interesting tie. Score: Pottsville..... 3 2 3 0 7 0 0 0-16 Harrisburg..... 0 2 0 1 0 0 0 0-9 Hits—Pottsville 23, Harrisburg 6. Errors—Pottsville 5, Harrisburg 2. Batteries—Wilson and Diggins; Fee and Wentz.

Hood's Saved My Life I Can Honestly Say This "For years I was in a very serious condition with catarrh of the stomach, bowels and bladder. I suffered intensely from dyspepsia, and in fact was a miserable wreck, merely a skeleton. I seemed to go from bad to worse. I really wished I was dead. I had no rest day or night. I did not know what to do. I had taken so much medicine of the wrong kind that it had poisoned me, and my finger nails began to turn black and come off. For six months I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had faith in the medicine, and it did more for me than all prescriptions. I have gradually regained perfect health, an entirely free from catarrh of the bowels, and pain in my back. My recovery is simply marvelous." W. R. YOUNG, Potter's Mills, Pa.
