GONE TO WISCONSIN.

Farewell Party Tendered to Professor Daniel Protheroe.

A farewell party was tendered to Professor Daniel Protheroe last night at the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church upon his departure from Scranton for Milwaukee, Wis.

Rev. Hugh Davies, pastor of the church, presided, and Judge Edwards acted as conductor. Judge Edwards referred to the objects of the meeting in an appropriate speech, after which Mrs. D. B. Thomas' lady choir gave an excellent selection. Rev. P. D. Jones, of the Tabernacle church, in a Welsh address referred to the loss which would be felt in Scranton by the departure of Professor Protheroe and wished him well in his future location.

Rev. Dr. W. H. Pearce, of Elm Park church, in a brief address referred to the excellent qualities of Professor Protheroe and passed an eulogium upon his abilities, and was followed by the Rev. J. T. Morris, who, in a Welsh address, spoke of the valuable work accomplished by Professor Protheroe during his residence in Scranton, and in bidding him God speed, prayed that he would be blessed with happiness and prosperity.

Rev. N. J. McManus, of the Holy Rosary church, in well chosen remarks referred to the many acts of kindness for which he was indebted to the professor, and wished him and Mrs. Protheroe a pleasant journey and prosperous career. Richard H. Williams followed and in amusing terms discussed his intimate friendship of eight years with the hero of the evening, and in warm terms placed his successful efforts in elevating choral singing on the West Side.

Among those who rendered selections during the evening were Miss Lydia Sauer, who was heartily applauded in her rendition of the "Nightingale," Elwin Bowen, Mrs. B. T. Jayne, Mrs. Barnes, Miss Elsa Powell, of Dunmore, and Professor Protheroe sang one of his excellent songs. Miss Sadie Jones recited "Good Bye, God Bless You."

At the social which followed the meeting the professor bade farewell to the large company and left midnight for Milwaukee, Wis., where he intends to reside in the future. He will lead a choir at Columbus, O., tomorrow.

A large crowd were at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot when the professor conducted a few selections on the platform.
