SCHIVEREA MISSION NOTES.

At noon Evangelist Schiverera will address the men at the Dickson Manufacturing works, Penn avenue.

Today's meeting at the Gospel tent will be 7:30 p. m., mass meeting for children; 7:30 p. m., meeting for men.

Hundreds in Scranton will be glad to hear that Messrs. Schiverera and Weeden have definitely arranged to visit Scranton next summer.

On Thursday evening Evangelist Schiverera, referring to newspaper reports of the mission work, gave very favorable mention of THE TRIBUNE.

Evangelist Schiverera referred to his address last night to a visit to a mine. He and Mrs. Schiverera were plotted through the Pine Brook mine yesterday morning by Outside Foreman Hess.

At a meeting of the campaign committee it was decided to request Evangelists Schiverera and Weeden to remain another week. The Wyoming valley general committee have purchased one of the tents for a mission campaign.

Yesterday at noon a splendid meeting was held at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western car shops when the evangelist excelled his previous records in powerfully directed appeals to working men. He spoke most earnestly upon the question of thrift and the striking illustrations made deep impressions.

In the afternoon his address was mainly directed to a middle-class audience, and his truths were told with painful precision. An important and well delivered feature of his address was the waste of money upon luxuries, which, if the people were awakened would, instead of spending on cards, cigars and plays, be sent to heaven lands for the propagation of the Gospel. Another point fully worthy of consideration was his question: "Do you know of a mother who has saved her children by cards, dances or plays?" He illustrated this by the case of a mayor's wife, who burnt all the playing cards rather than the seeds of gambling should be sown in the minds of her sons "right in their own home." The manner in which he placed the question was one which compelled his hearers to think over it after leaving the meeting.

Last night the attendance at the gospel tent was larger than ever, and Evangelist Schiverera made a most successful appeal of his sermon. During his address he introduced the question of "free will," from which emanated the query: "Why sinners should not go to heaven unsaved." In reply he used illustrations which were certainly forcible, to use a mild term. "Take a saloon-keeper," said he, "and let him go to heaven tonight he would want to be down in Scranton again by 4 o'clock in the morning for an 'eye opener.' Heaven would be hell for him. Take the money grabber who would see the sidewalk covered with gold, he would want a chisel and bag to bring the gold back to Scranton. Take the drunkard who, when he found there were no saloons, would say, 'how can I get back to Scranton?' Take the girl who will waste valuable hours in dressing before her mirror, a girl who will do anything for a small waist, put that bunch of vanity in heaven where she will find that there are no 'hops,' no light waists, why she would soon exclaim: 'I'm going back to Scranton.'" With numerous similar illustrations he impressed his arguments upon his audience and closed with an earnest appeal to make a bargain with Christ while there was time for salvation.

MEDAL WON BY DAVIS

He Killed 32 Out of 35 Birds at the Pigeon Sweepstakes Yesterday.

DR. HOUSER TAKES SECOND PRIZE

The Third Prize, a Gold Stop-Watch, Goes to Will Evans—Story of the Biggest Match in the History of Wing Shooting—Darkness Intervenes Before Ties for Other Prizes Can Be Shot Off.

Sim Davis, of the West Side, won first prize, a $75 gold medal, at the pigeon shooting sweepstake match yesterday at the base ball park under the auspices of the Green Ridge Gun club; Dr. J. W. Houser, of Taylor, won the second prize, a $65 hammerless gun, and Will Evans, of the West Side, won the third, a $45 solid gold stop watch.

Owing to darkness the residue of the prizes were not awarded, as there were at least two shooters tied for each one of them, and for some as many as six.

It was the largest and most exciting pigeon shooting match that has yet been held in this city, and some declare it was the biggest ever held in the United States; that in no other match has there been so many entries and the number of birds shot at.

There were thirty-eight entries and each man was to shoot at twenty-five birds. When the program opened in the morning at 9 o'clock the first man on the list walked up to the mark and shot at five birds. The distance from the mark to the traps was twenty-one yards. There were five salvaged iron traps set near the third base line, and the mark where the shooter stood was on a line with the ticket office of the park. David Reese, of the West Side, was referee, and Frank Fuller, of this city, was official scorer.

MANY CRACK SHOTS ENTERED.

The officers of the Green Ridge Gun club are: President, F. M. Spencer; vice president, Dr. C. S. Hill; secretary and treasurer, H. D. Swartz, and Captain, A. C. Monies.

Some of the best wing shots in Lackawanna and Luzerne counties were entered, notably Thomas J. Eley, of Wilkes-Barre; Clem Marsh, jr., Dr. J. W. Houser, W. H. Davenport and W. G. Fry, of Taylor, and F. M. Spencer, H. D. Swartz, J. C. Highfield and C. J. Maddox, of this city.

About 1,900 pigeons were brought to the park in cages and it would require every one of them to finish the match if the ties were shot off. When the match was ended the score stood as follows:

F. M. Spencer, 21; H. D. Swartz, 21; A. C. Monies, 18; W. H. Davenport, 22; Clem Marsh, jr., 19; J. C. Highfield, 21; Fred Mason, 16; L. Young, 21; Will Fry, 21; C. J. Maddox, 20; J. D. Mason, 20; Philip Williams, 14; R. J. Grimes, 15; F. H. Clemens, 18; E. A. Highfield, 19; C. J. Stackhouse, 10; J. A. Van Bergen, 18; T. J. Eley, 22; Robert Wallace, 17; John Coyne, 21; Sim Davis, 32; Dr. J. W. Houser, 21; David J. Davis, 19; W. G. Fasold, 21; Thomas Carter, 13; Will Evans, 29; L. Bunnell, 7; R. W. Kistler, 12; C. M. Brownell, 10; R. J. Annaman, 13; W. H. Wiest, 10; R. J. Grimes, 15; Thomas Lewis, 19; Sal Jones, 21; John H. Hughes, 19; William Thomas, 8; Charles Gardner, 19; Robert Clayton, 17.

SHOOTING OFF A TIE

T. J. Eley, of Wilkes-Barre; W. H. Davenport, of Taylor, and Sim Davis, of the West Side, were tied for first prize. Davenport took his turn first and shot at five birds. He made a clean score, killing the five, and was followed by Eley, who missed the last and was dropped. Sim Davis tied Davenport again and another round was necessary. Davenport dropped the first four birds in jig time, but missed the fifth, an easy shot, and lost the prize to Davis, who killed all of his. He was carried around the diamond for five minutes on the shoulders of his admirers, amid great excitement.

There were eight ties for second prize. F. M. Spencer, H. D. Swartz, C. J. Highfield, W. G. Fry, Dr. J. W. Houser, W. G. Fasold, L. Young and Sol Jones, having twenty-one apiece to their credit. Spencer killed his five, Swartz missed the second and was dropped, Highfield killed five, Young and Fry missed a bird apiece, and Houser and Jones killed five. In the second round Spencer killed four, Houser killed five, and Jones missed. The prize went to Houser.

There were three ties for the third prize and required two rounds to decide it. C. J. Maddox, J. D. Mason and Will Evans had twenty apiece. Maddox killed his five on the saw off, Mason missed one and was dropped. Evans followed by shooting all of his and tied Maddox. On the second saw-off the latter missed two out of five and Evans killed four, winning the watch.

Tied for fourth prize (a leather gun case) are Clem Marsh, jr., Police Officer T. V. Lewis, E. A. Highfield, Robert Wallace, David J. Davis and John H. Hughes, with nineteen birds apiece to their credit. The darkness prevented the settlement of this match, as well as the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth prizes.

TO DECIDE THE TIES.

Secretary Swartz, of the Gun club, will announce through the papers when the ties will be decided. It would be decided today but for the foot ball game this afternoon.

The fifth prize, a split bamboo fishing rod, stands between six who shot eighteen birds apiece, A. C. Monies, W. H. Whately, Frank H. Clemens, James Twiss, J. A. Van Bergen and Will Annaman. The sixth, a Remington rifle, is a tie between John Coyne, of Minooka, and Robert Clayton.

The seventh prize, a hunting coat, was given to Fred Mason, who killed sixteen and had no share for the honor. The eighth and last, a silk handled umbrella, will have to be decided between R. J. Grimes and Charles Gardner.

It was one of the best day's sport that was ever witnessed by the 1,000 spectators who were present. The remarkable shooting of Sim Davis, who killed thirty-two out of thirty-five, considering that the wind was unfavorable at times during the day, was commented upon by many.

Next Saturday a match for $50 a side between ex-Sheriff Robinson and Alex Dunn, jr., neither of whom scarcely ever handled a gun, will be pulled off at the park.

FERRIS WAS ENTERPRISING.

Used His Portion to Fatten His Pocket Book.

George Ferris, late coachman, gardener and "all-round-man" to Dr. C. H. Fisher, was committed to jail by Alderman Fitzsimmons yesterday upon a charge of larceny.

Ferris had been Dr. Fisher's "all-round man" for some time and abused the confidence which the doctor placed in him. He had charge of the cow which grazed in the pasture three miles away, and it is alleged led the cow with a rope and fastened her to the va-

THAT FIND STAMPS.

Postmaster F. M. Vandling Believes They Were Stolen from the Post-office at Factoryville.

Postmaster F. M. Vandling made a thorough examination yesterday of the stamps found near Chinchilla, Thursday afternoon, and came to the conclusion that none of them were stolen from the Scranton postoffice.

When Mr. Vandling and Captain Edwards visited the scene of the find Thursday night they discovered in the hole from which the stamps were taken four heavy manilla envelopes in which stamps are sent from the department at Washington to post offices throughout the country. All of these envelopes were directed to the postmaster at Factoryville, Wyoming county, showing that they must have been stolen from the office.

With these envelopes were found several dollars worth of postage due and newspaper and periodical stamps, which in the natural course of events, fall into the hands of anyone but post-office employes.

A large part of the stamps found by the two boys, James Jennings and Michael Levey, were also of the postage due variety. The greater portion of them they burned up.

It is the theory of the postmaster that the Factoryville postoffice was robbed some time ago and a quantity of stamps taken. The regular stamps, which could be converted into cash, were carried away by the burglars, and those that can only be used in post-offices, and which would be a splendid clue to their detection, were hid in the old wall where the boys found them.

Mr. Vandling yesterday notified the postoffice inspector at Philadelphia of the finding of the stamps.

208,000,000 POUNDS OF TEA.

The Amount Consumed by Great Britain Annually.

The Scranton Cash Store does not expect to sell that quantity of Garden of Eatin' Tea this year. But if its sales continue to increase right along as they have been doing for the past two or three weeks it will get there in time. (Don't hold your breath till then.)

While a comparative stranger in Scranton, it is being called for frequently every day, and owing to its fine drinking qualities and low price (85 cents a pound) it will soon be the most popular tea in the market. Have you tried it?

Dr. Gibbons, of New York city, will be in his Scranton office, 411 Wyoming street, on Monday from 8 to 12 in the morning until 9 in the evening.

There will be a grand opening of the Misses Jenkins & Morris, milliners, at 406 Spruce street, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The championship gold medal and the gold stop watch to be shot for on Sept. 28, are now on exhibition in the window of Phelps drug store.

Stated by H. B. Cochran, druggist, Lancaster, Pa. Have guaranteed over 300 bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters for dyspepsia, sour stomach, bilious attacks, liver and kidney trouble.

Buy the Weber and get the best. At Guernsey Bros.

Singer's opening social Tuesday night, Oct. 2.
