MUGWUMPS WILL NAME A TICKET

They Are Not Pleased with the Nomination of David B. Hill.

FAIRCHILD TO HEAD THE BOLT

The Lone ex-Follower of the Stuffed Prophet Have Until Tuesday to Make Up Their Abie Minds, and May Therefore Yet Back Down, but ex-Mayor Grace Thinks Not—The Ticket Forecast.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The return of William R. Grace to this country is followed by an announcement, made in positive terms by the Hon. John Eagle, that the factions excluded from the Democratic state convention will run a state ticket of their own, with Charles S. Fairchild heading it, and will run independent municipal tickets in New York, Brooklyn, and other cities. According to the Eagle this ticket is not to be nominated by any convention. It is late for that. Instead, according to the plan set forth, the disgruntled leaders will meet the latter part of the present week—probably in Syracuse—for the purpose of agreeing upon a ticket, or, rather, upon the candidates for lieutenant-governor and associate judge of the court of appeals, as it is more agreeable to all that Mr. Fairchild should head the ticket.

Mr. Grace came up yesterday from his country home at Great Neck and held conferences which were attended by Messrs. Fairchild, Carl Schurz, Dr. Joseph H. Senger, Shipping Commissioner Maurice J. Power, Aqueduct Commissioner Francis M. Scott and Messrs. Shepherd, Patterson and Edwards from the Kings county sheep-fold. Just what the decision of the conference, if any was reached, was not learned last night from those who were present. Mr. Fairchild remained at his home, 76 Clinton place, and refused to receive the card of, or a message from, any newspaper reporter. Grace was seen at Great Neck, last evening, and confirmed the report of the conference held. He would not say what was the result of yesterday's conference, but hinted that the question would not be definitely decided until Tuesday next.

Among the strongest opponents of an independent ticket are Oswald Ottobender and his friends of the German Democratic party. Mr. Ottobender declares that such a course will lead to the political death of Mr. Fairchild, and he and his friends say that the German Democrats cannot be got to vote against the ticket regularly nominated.

The independent ticket indicated by Mr. Shepard's friend, Editor McKelway, points to the nomination of Mayor Robinson, of Elmira, Franklin D. Locke, of Buffalo; ex-Judge Countryman, of Albany; ex-Mayor Fitzgerald, of Troy, for lieutenant-governor, and either John C. Milburn or Herbert S. Bissell, both of Buffalo, for associate judge of the court of appeals. As has been said, it is too late to nominate such a ticket in convention for the purpose of securing the printing of official ballots; but, as Mr. Shepard pointed out yesterday, a nomination by petition, signed by 3,000 electors of the state, can be made at any time before Oct. 12.

WILL OWN THE TOWN

Baltimore Base Ball Club to Be Greeted With Red Fire.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 30.—Nothing in recent years has so aroused the enthusiasm of Baltimore's people as the winning of the championship pennant by the Oriole base ball team. Ever since the decisive game was won the city has been in a ferment. The players will be given a glorious reception on their return Tuesday evening. It will be one of the greatest popular demonstrations ever seen here. Music, fireworks, by the mayor's special permission, a parade through the principal streets, a reception at the Fifth regiment armory and a banquet at Rembert's is the programme.

Wednesday afternoon Manager Hanlon and his championship team will occupy boxes at Ford's theatre for the benefit performance tendered by Manager Charles H. Ford. At night Harris' Academy of Music will be packed with base ball enthusiasts. Manager Dean has arranged a special performance for the benefit of the ball players, in which they will all appear as "living pictures."

SEVEN ARE DROWNED.

An Intoxicated John Drives His Team Into a River.

CHARKA, Minn., Sept. 30.—Seven persons were drowned here last evening, Louis Scharff and family, who had attended the fair, started home at 7 o'clock. Scharff was intoxicated and was driving fast. When within a block of the river he was stopped by C. Knorr, who told him to drive slower. Scharff promised to do so, but no sooner was he released than he whipped his horses furiously and dashed down the river bank, over the ferry and into the river.

His wife, five children and Miss Mary Roskus, Mrs. Scharff's sister were drowned as were the horses. Scharff clung to the wagon box and was rescued. The bodies of Mrs. Scharff and two of the children were recovered.

MASKED ROBBERS' WORK.

Four People Are Bound and Robbed of Watches and Cash.

TIPPECANOE, O., Sept. 30.—Four masked men approached the home of Levi Kaler, a wealthy farmer at Reed township, last evening at dusk, and successively secured Mr. and Mrs. Keller, their hired man and a neighbor, who came to their home on an errand, and bound them to four separate beds. After ransacking the house and secur-

FIGHT WAS FREE.

A Prize Battle in Oklahoma Ends Propriety.

PERRY, Okla., Sept. 30.—The prize fight between Jim Davis, of Chicago, and Sam Smith, of Denver, broke up in a row here last night. Smith let off with a heavy left out on Davis' heart, and Davis floored Smith with a heavy blow on the jaw. Smith arose quickly, but before he got straight Davis pushed him through the ropes against a wall. Smith was badly stunned.

A regular tumult followed and almost instantly fifty men were in the ring fighting like wild. The police quelled the riot. The referee decided the pushing of Smith against the wall was accidental. Time was called and Davis responded, but Smith was unable to do so. The prize was $1,000 and gate receipts.

RUNAWAY ENGINE.

It Collides with the New York and Washington Express on the Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—The New York and Washington express on the Pennsylvania railroad, which left Broad Street station at 12:03 a. m., collided with a runaway shifting engine at Thirtieth street and six persons were hurt and all aboard the express badly shaken up by the shock. None of the injured persons were seriously hurt and with one exception were able to go on to their destination. The injured are:

J. A. COCKLEY, of Baltimore, engineer of the express, bruised about the abdomen.
DARIUS HAMMON, of Baltimore, fireman of the express, cut on the neck.
P. J. McDONNELL, of Jersey City, postal clerk, badly bruised about the head, back and legs; in the Presbyterian hospital here.
H. J. WICKERT, of Rahway, N. J., substitute postal clerk, bruised about the neck.
Mrs. G. C. GOVERNATOR, of Baltimore, face and head cut and bruised.
UNKNOWN COLORED WOMAN, arm badly bruised.

The shifting engine that caused the accident was run for a siding by the engineer when a freight train overtook it and struck the tender. The engineer and fireman of the shifter, believing this engine was about to be crushed, jumped when the collision took place. The blow received by the tender, however, started the shifter quickly forward, and without a restraining hand on the throttle it ran swiftly along.

Before it had gained any great speed the express swung around a curve and the smash came. Fortunately the express too was running at a comparatively slow speed. The shifting engine was badly smashed and the front of the baggage car was smashed in. After a short delay the train proceeded.

KILLED WITH A CLUB.

Fearful Thief Receives a Death Blow from an Italian.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 30.—William Conlon, 19 years old, died in St. Michael's hospital today from the effects of a blow inflicted by an Italian fruit vendor, from whose stand he took a few pennants. His assailant, Tony Milaro, was arrested immediately after the fatal blow was struck and committed to await the result of Conlon's injuries. Milaro kept a stand at the corner of Belleville avenue and Broad street, and was, he asserts, grievously pestered by the men and boys who could not pass without surreptitiously helping themselves to his pennants.

Thursday he resolved to effectually check this practice no matter what the consequences might be, and for that purpose he made a long club of a broomstick handle. Young Conlon happened along and, it is alleged, stole a few pennants. Milaro rushed from his stand in pursuit of Conlon, who started to run, and overtaking the lad, dealt him several stunning blows which fractured his skull and felled him to the pavement.

Terror and remorse seized Milaro when he saw his victim fall to the floor and he offered no resistance to arrest. Milaro when informed at the jail today of his victim's death fell to the floor in a faint. He is guarded closely to prevent an attempt at suicide.

TARIFF RESULTS.

The Government Will Lose $80,000 on Tin Plates.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 30.—There are over eight million pounds of tin plates in bond at this port. The importers have allowed the stock to accumulate and remain in bond until the new tariff law which reduces the duty one cent a pound, should go into effect. Under Secretary Carlisle's ruling the new tariff provision becomes effective tomorrow and the customs officials expect the greater part of the eight million pounds of tin plate to be taken out of bond this week. The reduction in the tariff will result in a loss to the government of $80,000.

BUT THE UMPIRE ESCAPED.

Base Ball Players Followed by Succession of Disasters.

KENT, O., Sept. 30.—During a ball game at Deerfield in the eastern part of this county yesterday, the pitcher in one team broke his arm while throwing a ball.

Another player was at the bat and the ball hit him on the head, driving him insane. He became violent and had to be locked up.

FLYING JIB NOW IS KING

The Famous Gidding Races a Mile in Less Than Two Minutes.

ALL EARTHLY RECORDS BROKEN

The Horsemen of Chillicothe Astonished at the Wonderful Time Made by the Celebrated Pacer—Robert J.'s Record Lowered, Though Not Officially—The Track Undoubtedly the Fastest in the Country.

CHILlicothe, O., Sept. 30.—The name of Flying Jib is on the tongue of every horseman here tonight on account of the wonderful mile paced by this celebrated gelding at the kite track today. Flying Jib paced by a running mate a mile in the phenomenal time of 1:59, lowering the record of 2:01 made by Westmont in Chicago in 1884 at this style of racing by 21 seconds. The performance does not constitute a record, as this method of pacing is not recognized as legal, and has no bearing on Robert J.'s valid record of 2:01.

At 10 o'clock the "Jib" was brought on the track and in the presence of 1,000 people was sent a warming up heat in 2:15. In a few minutes his again came on the track driven by Andy McDowell, and after scoring once his driver decided for the word "go." Up the track the feet of the animal went without a skip, while the spectators held their breath in amazement. In he came to the home stretch apparently going faster every step. When the time of 1:59:12 was announced the spectators could scarcely believe it and still more dumfounded were they when the last half of the mile was announced as being made in 53 1/2 seconds. This demonstrates very clearly that the Chillicothe track is undoubtedly the fastest in the country, it being smooth as a table.

The visiting horsemen here, and the city is full of them, say if the weather is favorable this week more records will be smashed at this meeting than at any meeting held this year.

BIG GALE BLOWING.

Havoc Created by Winds at New Foundland.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Sept. 30.—The great gale which has been ravaging the Atlantic coast of the United States for the past week, reached here last night and raged fiercely today. No messages from outlying places have been received yet, but it is believed that considerable damage has been done, especially to the fishing fleet on the Grand banks. Four vessels anchored off the mouth of the harbor are in a very dangerous position. Two of these are the barges Viola and the Belle of Exe from Brazil. The third is an American schooner name unknown, and the fourth is a local schooner laden with fish. All are unable to enter the harbor owing to the head wind.

AN OPEN SWITCH

Causes a Fearful Crash on the Wabash Pacific Road.

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 30.—While going at the rate of fifty miles an hour the Wabash Pacific express due here at 7:25 a. m., ran into an open switch a mile west of Maumee shortly before 7 o'clock this morning. Engineer F. Smith was instantly killed and Fireman A. H. Day received injuries which will likely cause his death. The locomotive left the track and it entered the switch and turned over, pinning Smith and Day underneath.

CZAR'S COMPLAINT.

The Russian Monarch Is in a Critical Condition.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The Standard's correspondent in Berlin is authority for the statement that Professor Leyden diagnosed the case of the czar's ailment as "Bright's disease" in an advanced stage.

On the other hand the Vienna Tagblatt, maintains on the authority of a Russian diplomat that the czar is suffering from neurasthenia, coupled with anæmia in addition to kidney disease. The czar's condition, it is said, was made worse by a cold which he caught two nights before leaving at St. Petersburg. He went to the telegraph office in the winter palace at 1 o'clock in the morning and directed a message to Abbas Tammam, in the Caucasus, concerning the health of his favorite son, George, and waited an hour and a half in the dark, bare office for a reply from the doctor. He was not satisfied with the reply, and returning to his bed room threw himself into an arm chair and wept. He cried "Oh God, what have I done to be so severely punished."

The czar could not sleep through thinking of his son, George. During the first night of his stay in George's residence in Spain, the czar arose from his bed, went to his son's room and watched his sleeping so for a long time. When returning to his room he went through a cold passage and was attacked with rheumatism, which made his condition still worse. It is said that he greatly prefers George to his czarevitch.

MEMORIAL STAKE.

Peculiar Provisions of the Will of the Late Moses H. Kutzemberger.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 30.—A week ago Moses H. Kutzemberger, one of the leading representatives of the Hebrew race in the south and president of the Mechanic's Saving Bank of Memphis, died in this city. Yesterday his will, covering many hundred thousand dollars worth of property was filed for probate and it proves a remarkable document.

The testator displays the utmost liberality in bequeathing to relatives, servants and public institutions. One bequest is to the New Memphis Jockey club, it being cash for a stake to be contested for each year to be known as the Kutzemberger memorial stake, to be run for as long as there is a racing association in this country.

The will says: Should there be a boy born to either of my sisters-in-law, Cora and Lizzie, and I hope there will be, then such male issue is to take share and share alike of all my fishing rods and tackle except a line and a few hooks to be buried with me in order that if there is any fishing in the other world it will be provided with tackle to enjoy the sport which has afforded me much delight in the present mode of existence.

CONCERT TOUR IS A SUCCESS

Miss Kaiser, in a Fourth Letter, Continues Her Series of Gossipy Observations Upon Welsh People, Welsh Scenery and Welsh Customs—Hospitality That is Genuine—The Land of Antiquities—Some Notable Collieries—Other Bright Paragraphs of Travel.

Special Correspondence of the Tribune.
PONT-Y-PRIDD, S. W., Sept. 18.—MY last letter I tried to give a pretty fair idea of what concertizing is like, and I must say as we go on, night after night, all the concerts seem to be the same, or very like each other, at least. We go from Pont-Y-Pridd every day to the town in which our concert is to be held in the evening, and upon arriving at the hall we prepare for work, and go through the programme. Of course the audiences differ somewhat from each other and the concert halls are also rather different in different places. But there is one thing to be said in favor of the halls, and that is they are invariably well built, all of good size, some of them, indeed, being very large, and in acoustics perfect. It is very seldom that we perform in a hall the acoustic properties of which are bad.

Our audiences, as I said before, are appreciative and sometimes are roused to tremendous enthusiasm over a bit of good work. I had heard, before coming over, that the Welsh were rather fond of other nationalities, but I have found that I was very much misinformed, for I never met such genial, generous, large-hearted people as I have over here. They admire our work, and say so too, and not only talk well about us, but in their actions as well. They show their generosity and hospitality. They give us literally open doors to their hearts and homes to us, and we can all truly say that we have been beautifully entertained.

MINERS' OIL CLOTHING

Introduced to Caradog.

Sunday night we sang the service, besides two anthems, in St. Catherine's, the English church here and the people were very cordial in their thanks to us after the service, and we really did sing very well. I suppose they enjoyed it quite as much as they said they did. They have a very fine organ, and I quite a young man, and like a great many more progressive Welshmen and Englishmen, he has the American fever. He played his organ remarkably well, too.

After the service closed, as we were going out of church, we were all presented to that famous Welshman, Caradog, who with his family was present. He is a wonderful old man—remarkably intelligent, and as entertaining as can be. He is very much interested in the success of our company, and is giving us the full benefit of his great influence throughout South Wales.

Tuesday evening we sang an engagement in Mountain Ash to a very fine house. We booked a return date for when we were out of the house at the end of the concert. We sing tonight at Trebarris, where our manager assures us a full house again. After the concert last night we held quite a little reception to a number of our Welsh friends, who came up and congratulated us on our work, afterward escorting us down to the station upon our departure for Pont-y-Pridd. At our next appearance there they are going to give us a complimentary banquet. What! Just think of it!

ALL ARE RESCUED.

The Miners Imprisoned in the Northwest Taken Out Alive Saturday Evening.

SPECIAL TO THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE.
CARBONDALE, Sept. 30.—At 11 o'clock Saturday night the four men who were supposed to have been crushed in the fall of rock in the Northwest colliery of Simpson & Watkins Thursday afternoon, were rescued alive and little worse for their long imprisonment.

The fall occurred in a gangway off from the third slope near a facing at the boundary of the company's property, about three-quarters of a mile from the opening on the surface. No response was made to signals of the rescuing party and all hopes of saving the men were abandoned, although the work of propping and clearing away the fall was pushed with all possible vigor.

Late Friday afternoon the rescuers were surprised to hear the voice of Thomas Mitchell, one of the imprisoned men, and during the night it was also ascertained that John J. Fanning, Andrew Klappesky and George Barney, who also alive and plenty of water but no food. In the meanwhile the tunneling was being carried on through an aperture two feet wide and two feet high, the men lying at full length and passing the rock from one to another back into the gangway.

When word reached the surface that the men had been rescued, the excitement at the mouth of the slope knew no bounds. The men were perfectly well, but were taken in carriages to their homes and were kept busy receiving the congratulations of their friends during the remainder of the night.
