CITY NOTES.

Gentlemen's Driving Races Thursday, 2 p. m. St. Martin's Polish society, of Mayfield, applied to the court yesterday for a charter. The diagram for "Rosedale" opens this morning at the Academy of Music box office. The board of managers of the Florence mission will meet this morning at 10 o'clock. The competition for prizes will be completed by the Green Ridge Gun club on Friday. The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at its rooms on Spruce street this afternoon at 3:30. A charter was yesterday granted by the court to St. Peter's Greek Catholic Beneficial society, of Taylor. The sale of seats for the Sandwich engagement commences at 9 o'clock this morning at the Frothingham box office. A marriage license was granted yesterday to Charles Mansfield Donaham and Ella L. Hummel, of Onondaga, N. Y. Supper will be served in the lecture room of Elm Park church this evening at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited. In the matter of the assignment of John L. Travis, time to show cause why the assignee should be removed was extended to Oct. 5. The Singer Manufacturing company yesterday obtained a writ of replevin to recover a horse valued at $40 from Peter A. Lebhuganc. A Mother's meeting will be held in the prohibition rooms, Green Ridge street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mothers are invited to attend. The members of the Sacred Music society are requested to be at the Linden street tent this evening at 7 o'clock. Bring gospel hymns No. 5 and 6. Yesterday morning John McAlarney, a miner in the Halstead colliery of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western at Dursey, was brought to the Moses Taylor hospital. His leg was fractured from a fall of roof. The drawing for the suit of clothes and silver watch of the Mount Pleasant Accident fund will take place at the Co-operative hall, North Main avenue, tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All holders of tickets are requested to be present. Three new cases of typhoid fever, five of scarlet fever and two of diphtheria, and one of typhus fever were reported to the board of health last week. Twenty-four deaths resulted from all causes. The St. Joseph's Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and Aged Persons, acknowledges with thanks a donation of $450.52 from John B. Smith, treasurer of the subscribers to what is known as the "Johnstown Relief Fund," taken up in Dunmore in June, 1889. T. H. C. Maloney, who was arrested Saturday on a charge of entering the room of a girl in the Roma Hotel on the previous night, was taken before Judge Edgerly yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus. He was allowed to enter bail in the sum of $500 and W. T. Jenkins became his bondsman. Sixty members attended the first rehearsal of the Scranton Oratorio society last evening when excellent progress was made with the opera "The Rose Maiden." Professor Lindsay gave entire satisfaction and the prospects are very bright. The next rehearsal will be held on Thursday at 8 p. m. above Powell's music store. W. T. Jenkins, who some time ago announced himself as an independent candidate for sheriff, entered the county commissioner's office yesterday armed with a formidable looking bunch of papers and accompanied by Attorney E. H. House. The required for the county commissioners. None of these gentlemen happened to be in just then and Jenkins and House departed. The papers Jenkins carried are supposed to have been his nomination papers. Edward E. Howe, organist of the First Presbyterian church, at Hazleton, will give the first of a series of free organ recitals at that place next Wednesday at 4 p. m. Among the selections of interest to be performed will be Gray's "Prayer and Temple Dance," "The Grass Lads," overture, Rossini, "The Dream," from Lohengrin, Wagner and a finale by Lemmens. Last season Mr. Howe gave a series of similar recitals, which proved very popular. Gentlemen's Driving Races Thursday, 2 p. m.

OFFICERS OF UNION.

Elected at a Meeting of City Pastors Held in Y. M. C. A. Hall.

The City Pastors' union held an important meeting yesterday morning at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms. The president, Rev. Warren G. Partridge opened the meeting by reading a portion of scripture, and was followed by R. V. Dr. Price, of Avoca, who offered the following officers:

The following officers were then elected for the ensuing term: President, Rev. N. F. Stahl, of Green Ridge; vice-president, Rev. D. C. Hughes, D. D., of Jackson Street; secretary and treasurer, Rev. M. D. Fuller, of Providence; theme committee, Rev. T. J. Collins, of Scranton Street, Rev. A. W. Cooper, of Hampton Street, Rev. E. McLean, of Elmhurst.

The impending removal of the Rev. D. W. Skellenger of the Westburn Street Presbyterian church was referred to by Rev. W. H. Pearce and a committee was appointed to formulate an address expressing the regret of the union at his departure. Mr. Skellenger briefly thanked his fellow pastors for the unwavering kindness they had shown toward him and expressed his pleasure at the pleasant relations which had always existed between them.

Rev. Thomas Bell, the newly elected pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, was introduced by Mr. Skellenger and was accorded a hearty welcome. Rev. F. A. Dony introduced the question of the Sunday observance movement and explained that efforts were being made to organize a Sabbath union in northeastern Pennsylvania affiliated with the national society and asked the meeting to endorse the movement. The request was accorded to.

The president also explained that the union had appointed a committee to extend the movement in the city, but the majority of the members had declined to act, and the committee requested the pastors to secure representatives from the churches to fill the vacancies.

A FINE PERFORMANCE.

Piner's Farical Romance, The Amazons, Produced by a Clever Company. A. W. Piner's genius as a playwright is demonstrated by the interesting stage production he has made out of the material with which his farical romance, "The Amazons," furnished.

The Marchness of Castellordian is the mother of three daughters: much to her regret. She yearns for a son and her young girl develops into such a passion that she dresses her strict in masculine attire and allows them to hunt, fish, smoke cigarettes and fully act out the male character generally. Her woman's nature cannot suppress, however, and a street brawl which Noelie, the eldest daughter becomes involved in while doing the West End of London in male attire, is the means of opening the mother's eyes. She sees the order her daughters to don their frocks and the curtain rings down at the young ladies, by the request of their mother, Noelie, the eldest daughter, who has acquired a taste for the male dress, acquired garb of womanhood, on the arms of admirers whom they had secretly introduced into their country home during the absence of the head of the family in London.

The masculine young ladies are impersonated by Miss Johnstone Bennett, Miss Isabel Irving and Miss Elaine Edson. The latter is the most homely of the trio and makes her first appearance on the stage by vaulting over a four bar fence attired in male riding attire. She has all the port phrases and manners of the young man of the period to perfection, and makes a thoroughly manly little fellow. Next to her in point of masculinity is Noelie, Isabel Irving, a most clever and winsome actress, while the youngest sister, Wilhelmine, or "Billy," a sister familiarly call her, acknowledges that she believes that she is very effeminate and becoming more so daily.

The performance was delightful and merited a much better audience than it received.

BOARD OF APPEALS.

Those Selected at Last Night's Joint Meeting of Councils. Pursuant to a call by the mayor the select and common councils met in joint session last evening and elected a board to hear appeals from this fall's assessment for taxes to be paid in 1895. Mr. Chittenden, president of select council was chosen to preside over the joint session. He announced, on assuming the chair the law's provision that the board should consist of two select councilmen and three from the common body. Four nominations were made by the common council and three by the select. The balloting resulted as follows: Thomas, select, 15; Noone, common, 13; McCann, select, 11; McLean, common, 11; Golden, common, 9; Lauer, select, 9; Goufroy, common, 7. The chair announced that the board should consist of Members Thomas and McCann, of the select council, and Noone, McLean and Golden, of the common body. Appeals will be heard during March and the opinions of the board must be delivered on or before April 1.

COMPETITION FOR PULLMAN.

Late Employees Looking for an Eastern Site for a Plant. Following the great Pullman strike of last summer a report has been circulating in commercial circles to the effect that the corporation was looking for a favorable location in the east to establish a branch of the western plant. A letter from the Scranton board of trade asking the truth of the rumor and suggesting this city as a desirable location brought a decided denial from George M. Pullman's secretary. The report was stamped as false and without foundation. It has appeared, however, since the Pullman letter was received that there was a plausible foundation for the story. Former employees of the company have been in conference with business men in various towns of New Jersey with the object of establishing a plant for the manufacture of palaces and sleeping cars of a design which it is said does not conflict with existing Pullman patents. J. Frank Stage's Academy of Dancing, now open for the reception of pupils. Office at hall, Traders National bank. Opening social Tuesday night Oct. 2nd. All former pupils and friends invited. Closing out russet, cxfords and russet dusters at reduced prices. Also ladies bog, foxed, congress, razor toes, pretty styles. A. C. NETTELTON & Co., Commonwealth building.

BARGAINS.

- Best Flour.....$3 75 Best Pastry..... 2 75 Feed..... 1 20 Corn..... 1 20 Meal..... 1 20 Hams..... 1 23 California Hams..... 95 Bacon..... 92 Fresh Eggs..... 15 Butter Crackers..... 5 Canned Oyster..... 5 Canned Tomatoes..... 7 White Wax Beans..... 9 30 lb. Fall Jelly..... 1 25 20 lb. Fall Preserves..... 1 25 Bristol Shoe Brush..... 15 Bixby's Blacking, 3 Large Boxes..... 10 Liberty Sewing Machine..... 9 95

Every article in the above list is warranted strictly first class in every respect.

We only mention a few figures but will state that all our prices are very low and will be kept so during the remainder of 1894.

There are a few things that we wish to speak of specially, first of these "Our Best" brand of flour of which we are selling about 1,000 barrels and sacks a month and hearing nothing but most favorable reports from all sources. Then our Tea Department is worthy of mention, we have the finest line of teas that is possible to get together. Our garden growth teas at 85c per pound are a thing of beauty and a joy forever. We also have a package tea at 30c, a pound with a splendid solid nickel spoon in each pound, this is a decided bargain. We think we have the largest retail coffee trade of any store in the state. Nothing has built up this big trade but the excellency of our coffees and the low figures at which we sell them.

In confectionery we always have a fine stock of fresh, pure candies of all kinds and as in all other departments at very low prices. And last but not least our butcher shop is worth the price of admission in itself, always well stocked with the very best grade of meats at prices about 25 per cent. below regular rates. Remember our new delivery plan is in operation now—all orders going out as soon as received.

SCHIVEREA MISSION NOTES.

The Silver Lake quartette sang "He Died for Me" and was greatly appreciated. Sixty men stood up last night in the gospel tent to swell the large army of Schiverea's work. Today's meetings are Bible reading, "Christ, Our Great Master," means you go to Him. Why live in sin when there are brighter prospects, great benefits, joyous hopes? Why ruin body and ruin your soul? Why not accept the invitation tonight!

There is yet another "Come," "Come ye Weary." This includes all the wealthy and poverty-stricken, you all want rest. There is only one way to get rest and that is by throwing your burden on the Lord. Weary soul, Jesus is ready He will give you rest. Will you come? The invitation is for all tonight, the best and the worst. Don't let it pass you by! When? Now! My friends this very night the invitation is ringing out to all! Not tomorrow. Not next week, but now, this night!

TEACHERS MAY DIVIDE

Plan to Have City and County Teachers Hold Separate Sessions

NOT YET FULLY DECIDED UPON

If the idea is Carried Out the City Teachers Will Meet in Young Men's Christian Association Hall and Those from the Remainder of the County in the Court House—Some of the Instructors.

This year the institute of the teachers of the county will be held during the week beginning Oct. 29. It is probable that this year the county and city teachers will meet in different places, but the matter has not yet been fully decided upon. Professor Taylor, superintendent of the county schools, favors such a plan.

It is decided to hold separate institutes the county teachers will meet at the Court house and the city teachers at Young Men's Christian Association hall. Both bodies will be addressed by the same instructors though on different phases of educational subjects, the idea being to give the different classes of teachers information and instruction along lines that will be most valuable to them.

Among those who will address the teachers are Dr. White, of Columbus, O., author of works on school management, and Rev. Dr. Schaeffer, state superintendent of public instruction. On Thursday, Nov. 1, the directors of the county will hold an important meeting and be addressed by several of the institute instructors. Hon. John R. Farr and Hon. M. T. Burke will address the directors on the subject of compulsory education.

CONVENTION AT YORK.

Big Gathering of Christian Endeavorites at that Place on Oct. 27, 18 and 19.

An effort will be made by the Scranton delegation at the State Christian Endeavor convention at York, Oct. 17, 18 and 19, to have this city selected for next year's convention. The Scranton city union will meet Friday evening at the Young Men's Christian Association building to select nineteen delegates.

The convention at York bids fair to eclipse all previous gatherings of the kind, whether in this or in other states. In point of numbers it is an assured success. Already five counties promise to send more than a hundred delegates. There are yet sixty counties to be heard from. Preparations are being made on an immense scale. The many hundreds of visitors who will come to the city will all be taken care of. The Entertainment Committee is busy engaged every day in making arrangements for the accommodation of the expected thousands. The highest rate for entertainment in private homes will be $1.50 per party.

The programme is one of surpassing merit, a clear advance on the very good programmes of preceding years. It embraces all the departments of Christian Endeavor, practical reform, and religious advance. Aside from the brilliant array of Pennsylvania speakers there will be two notables from outside of the state, Rev. J. A. Rondthaler, D. D., of Indianapolis, whose vigorous speaking has earned for him the soubriquet of "The Indiana Crotona," and S. L. Merabon, of Evanston, Ill., the famous leader of the Missionary Extension Movement. Dr. Rondthaler also conducts the "Open Parliament" on the lookout and prayer meeting committees.

Wood's College of Business and Short-hand. We are grateful to our friends, to the old students and to the business men who have aided us so materially. To have September of 1894 lead all former years in point of numbers and volume of business is a source of great joy to the management. Patrons and prospective students are invited to call.
