GOV. MCKINLEY'S MANY ORATIONS

Greeted with Enthusiastic Demonstrations in Western States.

GREAT SPEECH IN KANSAS CITY

He is Booked for Twelve Speeches. Besieged at His Hotel by Representatives from All Over the State. Immense Meetings Addressed—An Audience of 3,000 People Listens to His Talk in the Republican Wigwam at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 2.

GOVERNOR MCKINLEY'S reception in Kansas City today was in the nature of a continuous ovation. From the hour of his arrival at the union depot this morning, until he retired tonight, after witnessing the priests of Pallas parade that marked the inauguration of Carnival week, his every appearance in public was the signal for enthusiastic demonstrations. While at the hotel his rooms were besieged by representative Republicans from all over the state as well as from Kansas. In the afternoon he spoke to three immense meetings. At five in the morning he leaves for Topeka and Hutchinson.

THE GOVERNOR'S SPEECH

In his speech the governor said, among other things: "We are already reaping the work of those who endeavored to tear down the defenses to home industries. Every foreign product upon which the duty has been reduced is floating in and each displaces so much American product."

FAULKNER HOPEFUL

Admits That There is a Strong Feeling Against Wilson in West Virginia.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1.—The election in the Second West Virginia district, in which Mr. Wilson is the candidate, is attracting a great deal of attention at the headquarters of the Democratic campaign committee. Mr. Faulkner, chairman of the committee, said this afternoon that Mr. Wilson could at once plunge into the work of the campaign immediately upon his arrival, and that when he reached his district he would find things well advanced and the interest growing day by day.

SCHAEFER'S FATE

Falls in a Fit Upon a Lamp and is Burned to Death.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Oct. 2.—Jacob Schaefer, an upholsterer living in East Somerville, met a horrible death last night by burning. Schaefer, who was subject to fits, was alone in his house at about 9 p. m., when he fell across a table in a convulsion, upsetting a burning oil lamp. While he lay in an unconscious state the lamp ignited his clothing.

SHORTLIFFE IS WORSE

Strain of the Murder Trial Too Much for His Nervous System.

CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 2.—Dr. Richardson, physician in charge of the male department at the Norristown Insane asylum, was in Media yesterday and reported that Professor S. C. Shortliffe, accused last week of murdering his wife because of insanity, has taken change for the worse.

LOWER COURT AFFIRMED

Decision is Handed Down in the McLaughlin Case.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 2.—News was received here today that the supreme court has affirmed the judgment of the court be### low in the McLaughlin homicide case.

The trial took place in April, following the death of James Gilchrist, and McLaughlin was convicted of manslaughter in 1893. A motion for a new trial was granted in November following. McLaughlin was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and undergo five years and five months at hard labor. On Nov. 28, 1893, McLaughlin was released on $10,000 bail. John J. Mangano, R. H. Hughes, Con Donnelly and Joseph H. Glendon became his security.

The Investigation in the Alleged Boogie Cases Goes Merely On.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 2.—The investigation inquiring into the alleged crookedness of the paving contract deal was resumed today.

THE PLAYERS AND THE COMMITTEE

The players and the committee of 300 representing the larger business interests of the city, took carriages and led a procession of enthusiasts and "rooters" through the business district of the city, ending at the Fifth regiment armory. The line was divided into eight divisions with floats and decorated wagons distributed throughout. Fire works were discharged from an enormous platform wagon in advance of the procession. Mounted police and a band of music proceeded the marshal and his aides, mounted on horseback. In the rear of the committee of 300 came the main group in the show, Manager Hanlon and the champion base ball club of the United States.

SUICIDE FOR LOVE

An Alleged Scrantonian Seeks Relief With a Rope.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—Sadie G. Missinger, said to have been the wife of a well-to-do resident of Scranton, hanged herself this morning in her room in a house frequented by colored persons, at 1123 Wood street. Her dead body was found by one of her colored associates, when she went to call her for breakfast.

FLASHED FROM THE WIRES

There is snow three inches deep in sections of Minnesota.

Detectives mistook Myron L. Green, a milk peddler, for a horse thief in a Saratoga suburb, and shot him.

Mrs. Katherine Roberts celebrated her centennial at Topeka, Kan., on Sunday, in a gown she had worn at 18.

CONDENSED STATE TOPICS

While gunning for rabbits at Shamokin, Thomas Wilkinson was shot dead by the accidental discharge of his gun.

TO FIGHT ALL CORNERS

Corbett Will Give the Unknown a Chance Before Retiring.

BOSTON, Oct. 2.—James J. Corbett issued a statement to the public this evening in which he says that his contracts will prevent him from fighting anyone before July 1 next. He says he will immediately post $10,000 with David Blanchard, of Boston, as a guarantee of good faith that he will meet all comers for one week after July 1 next. He declares that he will fight one man every night during that week and

BALTIMORE SHE BLOWS HERSELF

Enthusiastic Reception to the Victorious Oriole Base Ball Club.

The Sluggers Are Greeted by a Committee of Three Hundred Citizens and Untold Quantities of Fireworks—After Handshaking at the Armory a Banquet is Held at Hotel Rennett Which is Attended by the Governor, Mayor of the City, Clergy and Judges, Who Make Appropriate Remarks.

RED PAINT COVERS THE TOWN

THE reception which the Baltimore Base Ball club, champion of the United States, received on its return home tonight surpassed anything of the kind ever attempted in this city. And not alone to the city of Baltimore was the enthusiasm confined, but adjoining cities and states were largely represented in the throng.

DEADLOCK BROKEN

Sixteenth District Republican Conference Rescues a Dark Horse from Potter.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 2.—The longest, hottest and most stubborn Republican congressional deadlock that the Sixteenth district ever knew, came to an end at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when Frederick C. Leonard, of Potter county, received the unanimous vote of the conference and was declared the nominee. There were 573 ballots taken during the month that the conference was off and on in session.

CYCLONE'S WORK

The City of Little Rock Swoop by a Terrible Hurricane—Houses Torn Down.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 2.—A terrible cyclone swept over the business portion of this city at 7.40 o'clock tonight, carrying death and destruction in its path. Shortly after dark a heavy storm came from the west, accompanied by vivid flashes of lightning and heavy claps of thunder. The sky suddenly cleared and the storm was thought to be over when suddenly a heavy gale from the southwest appeared and for three minutes the city was on the throes of death and destruction. The wind was terrific in the extreme.

POWDERLY AND POPULISM

The Labor Leader Addresses a Meeting at Newark.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 3.—T. V. Powderly and Samuel Gompers addressed a Populist mass meeting at the Essex Lyceum tonight. About 200 Populists applauded the utterances of the labor agitators. Joseph R. Buchanan, the Populist congressional nominee, said he was confident of success and believed their party would poll at least 700 votes in Essex county.

COUNTY CAMPAIGN OPENED

Monster Ratification Meeting at the Frothingham Under Auspices of Central Republican Club.

STATE AND COUNTY TICKETS ENDORSED

Spirited Resolutions Adopted and Stirring Addresses Delivered by Hon. George B. Orlady, of Huntingdon, and Hon. Galusha A. Grow, of Glenwood—In Plain and Concise Language They Described the Condition of the Country Today and the Forces That Have Brought About This Paralyzing of the Industries of the Land. Sage of Glenwood Received a Great Ovation—Some of the Well-known Men Who Were Present.

Never before have the voters of the country been confronted with so many mournful monuments as the result of blundering in the conduct of national affairs, and there is a determination all along the line, among all kinds and conditions of people to administer a proper rebuke to those who have so heartlessly trifled with the prosperity of the country.

REPRESENTATIVE GALUSHA A. GROW
The Father of the Homestead Law.

At 8 o'clock E. P. Kingsbury, president of the Central Republican club, advanced to the front of the stage and opened the meeting by a few remarks. He said that he would not consume time by any extended remarks for he felt that the audience would be much better entertained by the well known speakers it would be his privilege to introduce to them. After briefly outlining the purpose of the gathering, Mr. Kingsbury called upon Major Everett Warren to read the ratification resolutions.

The resolutions were direct and forcible and as Mr. Warren finished reading them and moved their adoption, there was a warm outburst of applause. Attorney A. J. Colborn, jr., seconded the motion to adopt the resolutions and they were adopted with enthusiasm. The resolutions were as follows:

PARTY PLATFORMS ENDORSED.
The Republicans of the state of Pennsylvania assembled in convention at Harrisburg last May, to define the position of the party on national and state questions; the recent conventions of the party in this county adopted that platform, adding such changes as were local in their character. These conventions selected candidates for the various offices to be filled at the coming election; and the Republicans of the county of Lackawanna being now assembled in mass meeting to take action upon the platform and candidates, do hereby resolve:

First—We enthusiastically subscribe to the platform declarations of the several conventions, and unanimously endorse the just condemnations of the present national administrations, executive and legislative, for a policy of perfidy and dishonesty, which imperies the rich, impoverishes the poor, undermines individuals and commercial development, and, if not checked, will squander the accumulated resources of thirty-two years of Republican administration.
