EXPLOSION OF MINE BOILERS

Twenty-seven Steam Generators Blown to Pieces.

ACCIDENT FATAL TO FIVE MEN

Without Any Apparent Cause All But Nine of a Nest of Boilers at the Henry Clay Colliery at Shamokin Explode With Terrific Force, Dealing Death on All Sides—Five Men Are Killed and Several Others Seriously Injured.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 11.—TWENTY-SEVEN of a nest of thirty-six boilers at the Henry Clay colliery, exploded about 7:30 this morning, completely destroying the boiler house, killing five men, seriously injuring two and slightly injuring four. The list of the killed and injured is as follows:

THE KILLED.
THOMAS CABR, fireman.
WILLIAM BOYLE, stoker.
WILLIAM L. BRENNAN, breaker boy.
FRANK HANCOCK, laborer.
J. J. DEBIAM, water boss.

THE INSURED.
J. F. DEBANSITT, fireman, seriously.
FREDERICK DICKSON, stoker.
WILLIAM QUINN, lamp cleaner.
DENNIS BRENNAN, breaker boy.
THOMAS HARRIS, laborer.
FRANK HANCOCK, laborer.

At the time of the accident there were, as far as is known, seven men around the boiler house. Nobody seems to be able to give a correct statement as to the cause of the explosion. Without a moment's warning the last boiler on the west side of the nest went up, and it was followed by the others in rapid succession. The workmen were knocked in every direction, and what had been but a few minutes before, a strong corrugated iron building disappeared as if by magic, and all that remained was a tumbling mass of bricks and timbers, besides numerous pieces of twisted pipe and battered boiler iron.

At the time of the explosion the mine remaining boilers were so injured that they will never be used. Pieces of heavy steel were carried hundreds of yards, while half of a boiler was found over a quarter of a mile away up the mountain. The terrific report was heard for miles, and it was scarcely a minute before all of the employees of the colliery were upon the scene of devastation and at once set to work to liberate the men who were under the debris. Three were dead when taken out and the remains of some, as well as being crushed were frightfully burned by coming in contact with the heated iron and coals from the fire.

Carr, Boyle and Elick were dead when found in the debris and McLaughlin and Dedman died soon after being removed to their homes. Fireman Diebanstiss is internally hurt, besides having several fractured bones and it is feared he cannot recover. Peter Heck was knocked senseless by flying brick. His scalp is badly torn and he is severely bruised.

The disaster, coupled with the calamity of Tuesday at the Lake Eider shaft, has plunged this city into mourning. The brokers were working at the time of the explosion this morning, and the scenes were many and thrilling. The colliery is operated by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company, and is the best equipped place of the company in this region. The pecuniary loss by the explosion will reach $100,000. Sixteen hundred men and boys are thrown out of employment.

A GAY OLD BOY.

MASCOUATAH, Ill., Oct. 11.—Henry Arnold and Mrs. Louisa Hodo were married at Smithton last night. The groom is a widower of 72 years, and the bride a widow of 60. The groom achieved some notoriety lately on account of a peculiar lawsuit in which he is defendant. Plaintiff is Louis Timm, who alleges that he was employed to secure a wife for Arnold.

Timm avers that he spent three months in search of a wife for his employer. According to Timm's statement, he found a woman at Plackneyville who was willing to marry Arnold, but the letter ruined his own prospects by flirting with other widows. Timm presented a bill for $100, which Arnold refused to pay. A sympathetic jury allowed Timm $55 for his services, and Arnold promptly took an appeal to the St. Clair county court, where the case rests at present. It appears that after Arnold discharged his matrimonial agent he set out on his own hook in search of a wife. The marriage is the result. Both parties are wealthy.

PALTRY HALF DOLLARS.

The Chicago Souvenir Coins Will Be Placed in Circulation.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11.—The Chicago souvenir coin of the great World's fair is to become a current half dollar. It was at one time supposed that these coins would command fancy prices as souvenirs. This expectation was not realized. The whole issue authorized by congress would have been turned over to the World's fair managers but for their violation of an agreement which was made a condition of the gift in respect to opening the fair on Sunday. In consequence of this breach of engagement $1,795,989 in souvenir halves remained in the treasury at the close of the fair.

A demand having recently sprung up for them at their face value, Secretary Carlisle today issued an order to the sub-treasurers directing them to pay out on demand the silver coins at the same rate as the legalized half dollars of the United States, namely, at par with gold.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

Twelve Hundred Delegates Assembled at Washington.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Twelve hundred earnest looking men, most of them young, compose the delegates to the ninth annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which began today at Metzrodt Music Hall. The convention will last until Sunday when a mass meeting will be held. Delegates are present from Scotland, Canada, and nearly every state in the union.

In the absence of President Houghaling, of Chicago, G. Harris Davis, of Philadelphia, the first vice-president of the brotherhood, called the convention to order. Prayer, by Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, of New York, was followed by an address of welcome to Washington by Hon. John W. Ross, president of the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia.

SMITH WAS MODEST.

Took Only Fifty Thousand Postage Stamps from the Government at One Time.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—William B. Smith, of Elizabeth, N. J., aged 32 years, an employee of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, was arrested here at 3 o'clock this afternoon by Andrew McWilliams, chief clerk of the secret service, for stealing 50,000 2-cent postage stamps from the bureau. Mr. Smith was appointed three months ago to a subordinate position in the treasury department and assigned to work in the bureau of engraving and printing. In his position he helped to mail packages of postage stamps and fill orders of postal masters. On Sept. 26 last he was given an order to fill from the postmaster at Ionia, Mich. The order called for two packages of two cent postage stamps of 50,000 each. Smith put up only one package instead of two, although he took two packages of fifty thousand stamps each, secreting the other about his person.

On last Saturday the postmaster at Ionia, Mich., informed the proper officials here that only one package of 50,000 stamps had been received by him although he had ordered two packages of 50,000. The postoffice authorities and bureau of engraving officials could not account for the discrepancy as their books were all right.

They placed the matter in the hands of Mr. McWilliams at 1 o'clock this afternoon and at 3 o'clock Mr. Smith was behind the bars and $90 worth of the stamps he had stolen had been recovered in one place, and smaller quantities found at two other places. The secret service officers believe that Smith had a confederate and expect soon to effect his arrest. The theory is that Smith, after he stole the stamps, by means of confederates got rid of them at various places about the city.

Smith, by direction of Secretary Carlisle, was summarily dismissed from the service of the treasury late this afternoon. Fears are expressed that other packages of postage stamps may be found missing, and the robbery may be more extensive than now appears. Postmasters will be asked to report if all orders for stamps made by them recently have been filled.

GOV. CURTIN'S WILL.

His Entire Possessions are Bequeathed to His Wife.
BELLEFONTE, Pa., Oct. 11.—The will of ex-Governor Curtin was probated today. It is a very concise document, not filling one side of a sheet of legal cap. Mr. Curtin bequeathed everything of which he was possessed to his wife, her heirs and assigns forever. His son, W. W. Curtin, of Philadelphia, and John Blanchard, of Bellefonte, are named as executors.

It is not known exactly how much of an estate Governor Curtin left, but it must be the biggest part of a million dollars. He held a controlling interest in the stock of the Erie V. R. R. and was a large stockholder in the first national and central county banks in this place, and in the Blair county bank at Tyrone. In addition to this he had a large amount of other securities, and was possessed of considerable real estate. The will was dated Sept. 4, 1894.

DEBS INDICTED AGAIN.

Grand Jury Unanimous in Holding Him and His Associates.
MILWAUKEE, Oct. 11.—Twenty-five railway men, including Eugene V. Debs, the head of the American Railway Union, were indicted by the United States Grand Jury yesterday.

The jury was unanimous in its decision to hold Debs and his Milwaukee associates for trial at the October term of the district court. Twenty-one witnesses were examined, who testified as to the orders issued by Debs.

Praetorius Family Skeleton Is Dances in Open Court.

A PATENT MEDICINE ALLIANCE

Former Residents of Wilkes-Barre Threaten to Figure in a Divorce Suit—A Frivolous Quartette Embarks Upon a Voyage Along the Raging Canal to Rochester—An Early Call at a Hotel at Which Sunday Bits of Furniture Floated upon the Air.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11.—A BUFFALO dispatch to the Philadelphia Record gives a sensational account of a domestic drama at that city, in which a former resident of Wilkes-Barre and his wife appear as the chief actors, as follows:

A scandal which has been extensively circulated in local clubs and has been made public by the beginning of a suit for $25,000 damages by Herman S. Praetorius against V. Mott Pierce, son of ex-Congressman Ray V. Pierce, of the World's Dispensary Medical Association, and the Pierce patent medicine.

The action will be for the alienation of the affections of Mrs. Elizabeth Praetorius, the well-known public singer. The domestic troubles of the Praetorius family are already in court through a dispute over the possession of the 8-year-old girl Elena. This will come up for settlement in the Supreme court and will be followed by an action for divorce and one for damages.

The episode which led to this situation happened about two months ago. In the absence of Mr. Praetorius from the city it is alleged that the wife and Mr. Pierce planned a pleasant journey in the latter's yacht along the canal to Rochester and then to Ontario Beach. They were accompanied by another couple, whose names are likely to figure in the case to the extent of starting another divorce suit.

According to the story, the party was followed by a private detective, who, when he had located them at the Ontario Beach hotel, telegraphed to Mr. Praetorius to come on. He came, and the two broke into a room in the hotel at an opportune time, and found Mr. Pierce and Mrs. Praetorius there. The men fought and a number of pieces of furniture were broken. The proprietor of the hotel caused the arrest of Mr. Praetorius and he was taken to court. He settled with the hotel man for the damage done, and Mr. Pierce declined to appear against him on the charge of assault.

STOLE THE CHILD.

Mr. Praetorius returned to Buffalo and about three weeks ago abducted the daughter, Elena, and placed her where her mother could not find her. Mrs. Praetorius went to court with an application for an order requiring her husband to produce the child. She charged in her petition that she was holding the child in order to secure the return of her husband from a period of misconduct with Mr. Pierce, an accusation which she denied. His idea was, it is said, to secure a divorce as quietly as possible, and he knew that with the confession from the wife he would have no difficulty in getting the decree.

The court ordered him to produce the child, but he has been obeying her. Mrs. Praetorius is living apart with a well-known law firm, which is said to be drawing papers for the two suits, one for divorce and one for damages, which will be precipitated when the return of the child is effected.

Mr. and Mrs. Praetorius are prominent in musical circles in Wilkes-Barre several years ago. She sang at the seancefest in that city about two years ago and her voice has been much admired in solo work in several of the Wilkes-Barre churches.

SLAIN BY THIEVES.

A Woman and Her Niece Murdered by Thieves.
QUINCY, Ill., Oct. 11.—A double murder was committed near Liberty, this county, yesterday. J. C. Lou Miller, a blind man, who some years ago was a beggar, but is now quite wealthy, lives on the Henry place. Tuesday evening he went home, leaving his wife, an estimable woman of thirty-five years, and her niece, aged ten years, alone. When he returned yesterday morning both were dead, having been murdered. The skulls of both were crushed to a pulp. Robbery was evidently the object of the murders, as $4, a gold watch and a revolver are missing. In the vicinity of the tragedy it is believed that the robbers were recognized and known by the woman and the girl, and that the thieves killed them to shield themselves.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

Increased Attendance at the Congressional Gathering at Madison.
MADISON, Wis., Oct. 11.—An increased attendance marked this morning's session of the great Congressional missionary meeting. Rev. Judson Smith, of Boston, made the Central address. It was an urgent plea for the fullest intellectual preparation for missionary work. President D. W. Agell, of Ann Arbor, and Dr. Washington Fladden, Columbus, O., talked along the same line as Dr. Smith.

FATAL BOSTON FIRE.

A Swede Killed Jumping from a Blazing Lodging House.

BOSTON, Oct. 11.—One man was killed and two others were seriously injured by jumping from the third story windows of a Swedish lodging house on Hanover street, which caught fire just before 2 o'clock this morning. The house was damaged about $5,000. The killed and wounded are: Killed—Swenson, Swede, a tailor.

The fire started in the basement and spread rapidly. The building is badly wrecked. A cigar factory and a tobacco store on the first floor, owned by Lewis Jansson, was burned out.

ALTOONA POW WOW.

Great Gathering of Representative Democrats in that City.

ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. Representative Democrats from all over the Keystone State for a number of days gathered in this mountain county tonight to attend the sixth annual assembly of Democrats, those having thus far arrived being David F. Magee, of Lancaster, the candidate for auditor general; John S. Rilling, of Erie, candidate for governor; and Henry M. Rorer, of Pittsburgh, and Thomas Collins, of Pittsburg, candidates for congressman at large.

The delegates are being entertained in a lavish manner by the Tammany club and the Central Democratic association of this city. The assembly will be called to order by the speaker, Hon. Chanancy F. Black, of York, the president, with a gavel, from the head of which is wood from a tree that shaded the grave of Mr. Pierce and the handle of a hickory, from the grave of Andrew Jackson. Mr. Black in his address, told the delegates that they stood the issues there would be no question about "Clearing our excellent state to sweeping victory in November" in addition to carrying every congressional district which is now represented by a Democrat. The president will say that "cents have not only stood the issue there would be no question about 'Clearing our excellent state to sweeping victory in November' in addition to carrying every congressional district which is now represented by a Democrat.
