SOUTH SIDE

GENET STREET A SIGHT

A Broken Water Pipe Lets Loose a Flood of Water. The broken water pipe on Genet street needs fixing at once in justice to the residents of Cedar avenue, whose pipes are suffering from the volume of water that rushes down Genet street and has already left considerable damage to cellars and fences between the intersection of Genet street with Pittston avenue and Cedar avenue.

HAD A TOOTHACHE

Queer Actions of a Sobri Man Last Night. The rough and rascally ebbles sidewalk on Pittston avenue, where it crosses Cherry street, is commented on by many who wonder that pedestrians do not fall and break their necks when using it; but it remained for the oddish conduct of a man, whom no one knew, to give the spot an added reputation for travelers to be on their guard.

SOUTH SIDE JOTTINGS

Michael Walsh, of Honesdale, is the guest of John Loftus, of Pittston avenue. Miss Alice Moran, of Locust street, is visiting her uncle, Thomas Coddington, of Jessup.

DUNMORE

SUPPLIES FOR TYPEWRITERS

Mysteries of the Processes for Making Ink Ribbons and Colored Papers. The manufacture of typewriter supplies is a first class mystery. It would seem that the making of such articles as ink ribbons, carbon paper and manifold paper is hedged around with secrets.

Shakespeare and Mollere

A correspondent finds these notable points of resemblance in the careers of Shakespeare and Mollere: The father of each was in trade, and apparently destined his son to follow his occupation.

Marketing in Southern France

Until you go to an open air market in the south of France you do not know what genuine pleasure can be obtained from the usual prosaic proceeding. Just imagine great, beautiful cherries at eight cents a pound, strawberries about five cents a pound, grapes, plums, pears, peaches, all in the perfection of beauty and luscious flavor, sold on the same small scale according to our American ideas.

Consolation For General Tarnsey

Tarring and feathering was once a legal punishment for theft. It is said to be found in the statutes of both England and France about the time of the crusades.

An Electric Bootjack

Lightning tore the shoe off the left foot of Fred Dreyer, a Chicago railroad flagman. Dreyer suffered no physical damage.

When Baby was Sick, we called her Castoria

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Man, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
