MRS. THOMAS WOULDN'T ACCEPT

When She Declined to Be Leader the Recently Formed Union Choir Disbanded.
Banquet of the Chi Upsilon Society—Other News Notes.

A few nights ago the members of the old Cymadorion Choral society and Mrs. D. B. Thomas' ladies' choir, met in St. David's hall for the purpose of organizing a choir of mixed voices to compete at the Allentown eisteddfod on Thanksgiving Day. On Wednesday evening last the choir, now called the Cambro-American Choral society, met in Co-operative hall to rehearse the competitive selection. "We will Never Bow Down." Mrs. D. B. Thomas, conductor of the Ladies choir, was selected at the first meeting as the leader of this society.

Mrs. Thomas, however, declined to act for the reason that she thought it unbecoming for a lady to lead male singers, even if in company with ladies. At this announcement the members, not seeing their way clear to procure another and as efficient a leader as Mrs. Thomas, decided to disband.

Mrs. Thomas is a leader of much ability, and her action in this matter is causing much comment.

Chi Upsilon Banquet.
The members of the Chi Upsilon society, an organization composed of young men, met at the home of William Frink last evening, where a banquet was served by the Ladies' Aid society, and her action in this matter is thoroughly enjoyed. The proceeds will go to the Ladies' society for furnishing church. George Waters was toastmaster of the evening. The program of the exercises of the evening is as follows: Toasts "Woman," Charles Helms; "Lake Winola," Arthur E. Morse; "The Chi Upsilon society," Charles Battenburg; "Peculiar Bumps of the Skull," C. H. Hall; "Base Ball," Archie Mears; "Our Last Excursion," George Waters; "Initiatory Ceremonies," Frank Thornton; "The Press," Robert Monks; "Possibilities of the Society," Rev. D. W. Skelinger. The musical selections were: Vocal quartette, C. J. Helms, D. A. Stone, George and Herbert Waters; guitar duet, Charles Battenburg and C. H. Hall; violin duet, George and Herbert Waters; accompanist, Walter Davis.

TOOK FLOWERS FROM A GRAVE.

On Monday last Mrs. Ruane, an aged lady residing on the South Side, was interred in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The old lady had a large number of friends who placed choicest flowers upon the grave. This action incurred the enmity of a woman residing in the neighborhood, and the day following she visited the grave yard and transferred the floral gifts from Mrs. Ruane's grave to that of one of her relatives. Mrs. Ruane's friends heard of this and secretly resolved to teach the woman a lesson.

A party of them repaired to the grave yard, and procuring the flowers, carried them home. The same night they placed them against the door of the woman who had transferred them. She was very much terrified when, on opening the door the next morning, to find what she supposed to be evidence of a ghostly visit from Mrs. Ruane, during the night to punish her for desecrating the grave.

AN EVENING ENTERTAINMENT.

Camp 128, Patriotic Order Sons of America, a patriotic entertainment, the first of a series to be held during the next six months in its rooms on South Main avenue, last evening. The room was prettily adorned with flags and bunting. James Stanton was chairman of the evening. The affair opened with an address by Rev. H. C. Homan on the order's motto, "God, Our Country and Our Order." This was followed with a musical selection by Messrs. Scott and Davis. Attorney A. J. Colburn addressed the society on the subject of "Patriotism and Fraternity." A musical selection was rendered by Messrs. Gindadee and Scott, after which Professor James Hughes, principal at No. 14 school, spoke on "Our Flag." The entertainment closed with a selection, "Star Spangled Banner," by the society.

BRIEF NOTES OF INTEREST.

John D. Jones, of the Continental is visiting New York state on business.
Mrs. Nelly McGarry, has returned home from a visit with friends in West Pittston.
Miss Lillian Thomas, of Conklin, N. Y., is the guest of Miss Hattie Evans, of Jackson street.
Mrs. Nora Tyfield, of Washburn street, has been called to New York by the illness of her niece.
A social was conducted in the parlors of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church last evening.
A ribbon social will be held this evening in the Jackson Street Baptist church under the auspices of the Sabbath school classes.
Bert Davies, of Binghamton, N. Y., returned home yesterday from a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benson Davies, of Lincoln avenue.
"Y Drych," a popular Welsh paper, published at Treva, N. Y., contained in its issue yesterday very fine portraits of the Republican candidates John R. Jones and Thomas D. Davies.
The West Side Women's Christian Temperance union will meet in the Welsh Philosophical rooms this afternoon. An urgent request is made for all members to be present.
Michael Smith, of Luzerne, and Miss Barrier, daughter of the late Stephen Barrier, of Archbald, were married on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Father Whelan at St. Paul's church.
The ladies of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will hold a church social at the parsonage on North Hyde Park avenue this evening. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited.
Thomas McNulty was arrested yesterday by Special Officer William Morgan for jumping cars. He was given a hearing before Aderman T. T. Morgan and committed to jail in default of a fine of $5.
The Republican was in error yesterday in announcing that the ball of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics occurred on Wednesday evening. The ball in question will occur on Wednesday evening, Oct. 24.
The oyster supper given in the school room of St. David's church by the ladies of the parish was well attended last evening. The supper began at 6 p. m. and was served in an excellent manner. The affair will be repeated this evening.
The program for the Welsh Philosophical society tomorrow evening will be a continuation on the question "What is the reason why vegetables that thrive in the spring wither in the fall under the same temperature?" by Daniel J. Evans. A talk on Virginia and Washington will be given by James A. Evans.
Miss Minnie Hines, of Fairview avenue, was tendered a surprise party on Wednesday evening. Among those present were: Miss Minnie Hines, Lillian Wolf, Nellie Clark, Emma Fetherman, Daisy Boyce, Minnie Boyce, Kate Steiner, Stella Barber, and William Danesley. Young, John Anderson, Jake Fetherman, E. Thomas, Bert Kellow, Joe Thomas, H. Hines and J. Thomas. Refreshments were served.

NORTH END BRIEFS.

Miss Bessie Conway, of Waverly, is visiting friends in this part of the city. The Keystone Social club will hold one of their socials this evening in Company H armory.
Thomas Jones will occupy the pulpit of the Park Place Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday.
Rev. Dr. Hawhurst, of the Park Place Methodist Episcopal church, is enjoying a two weeks vacation.
Mrs. D. P. Thomas and Miss Mary Pugh, of Church avenue, are visiting Mrs. Thomas' sister, Mrs. A. Reese, of Kingston.
The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Silkman.
George Klein was lifting a piece of coal into a car yesterday morning when the Marvins shaft when the piece broke and badly lacerated his left hand.
The opening gun of the Democratic campaign in Providence was fired last evening at the rally held in St. Mary's hall, under the auspices of the Providence Young Men's Democratic club.
A number of people left here yesterday morning for Lake Winola, where they spent the day in gathering chestnuts. They were driven by George Pierston and made their headquarters at Colonel T. D. Lewis' cottage, "The Hiawatha."
About 125 men, each with a Japanese lantern, headed by the Excelsior Cornet band, marched from St. Mary's hall to the square to meet the candidates and escorted them to the hall. Thomas Cullen introduced Robert E. O'Boyle, the president of the club, as the chairman of the evening. Lemuel Amerman was the chief speaker of the evening, and in his address he reviewed the career of the Democratic party and its stand on the tariff in the past. It was for protection the same as the Republican, and never was for free trade. Ex-Judge P. P. Smith, Edward Merrifield, Senator M. E. McElroy, and John J. Fahey made addresses.

RALLY AT ARCHBALD.

Biggest Political Meeting in the History of the Borough—Many Eloquent Speeches Made—Kreim Spoke in German.

Archbald was aglow with red fire and political oratory last night, the Republicans having a monster rally there. Early in the evening the McKinley and John R. Jones clubs, under whose auspices the rally was held, made a grand demonstration and awakened such great enthusiasm that Linde's hall was not large enough to contain the crowd that had assembled to listen to a discussion of the issue of the campaign. Presided by the Senator M. E. McElroy, the united clubs and several hundred citizens with torches marched through the principal streets, shooting rockets and burning red fire as they marched along. On arriving at the hall the assembly was called to order by D. J. Gilmarin, who, in a few brief remarks, stated the purpose of the meeting and introduced a vigorous and able district attorney, John R. Jones.

CHEERS FOR MR. JONES.

Mr. Jones was greeted with great enthusiasm when he arose to speak, and his address, which was a clear and forcible presentation of live issues of pending campaign, was received with respect and generous applause. He was followed by Attorney C. W. Dawson, who briefly reviewed the tariff legislation of the past years and vigorously criticized the pension policy of the present administration. Attorney Harris' address was similar in tenor in its treatment of the national issues. He pleaded for a vigorous effort in behalf of the local candidates and advanced many arguments to show that the interests of the people are safest in the hands of Republican county and state officials.

Mr. Scranton Speaks.
Congressman Scranton's address, though very brief, was forceful and convincing. He was very severe in his denunciation of the American Protective association, and scathingly condemned those who sought to make it an issue in the present campaign. The Republican party, Mr. Scranton said, may be depicted as a form of typhoid or wherever it manifests itself, as it has stamped all the other hateful sins that have periodically appeared in the history of our government.
His remarks were received with every evidence of approval.
Charles B. Kreim, of Philadelphia, made an address in the German tongue and R. A. Zimmerman followed in English. Brief remarks were made by several of the candidates who were present and the rally, which was undoubtedly the largest Republican rally ever held in Archbald, was brought to a successful close.
Besides the speakers there were present Judge Archbald and Messrs. Clements, Hopkins, Vaughan and O'Malley.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Republican Members of the P. O. S. of A. Will Not Support Koehler.

HE IS A DEMOCRAT, THAT IS WHY

Sons of America Believe They Owe a Greater Duty to the Republican Party.
Little Boy Killed by Falling from a Wagon.

Henry T. Koehler, Democratic candidate for re-election to the office of register of wills, was elected three years ago by a majority of a single vote. He was a prominent member of the Patriotic Order, Sons of America, and on the South Side alone the complimentary vote cast for him through fraternity regard amounted to not fewer than 300 votes. In other parts of the county where the order is numerically strong, such as Taylor, Moosic and Peckville, the returns exhibited gains in his favor; so that all told through his connection with the Sons of America, Mr. Koehler, doubtless, succeeded in winning the suffrages of 500 Republican voters. This year Mr. Koehler, will have to do without the support of his Republican brethren of the Sons of America.

He may, however, delude himself that his friends in the order are as numerous now as they were three years ago. If they care to look over the ground he will find to his satisfaction a verification of this statement: A Tribune reporter had interviews with members of the Patriotic Order, Sons of America, and their feelings are not very pleasant. Although it is a praiseworthy impulse to help along a fellow member and assist him to all honorable advancement, he believes that there is a greater duty owing to their party. This is the reason why Mr. Koehler will find himself bereft of votes on which he is, perhaps, figuring in his total.

The announcement of this decision by the Sons of America of the South Side has been made after due consideration, and there is no flexibility to their resolution. Mr. Hopkins, the regular nominee, will receive their votes to the war, will receive their votes to a man.

HUMORS OF A BIG LAND PURCHASE.

An unconfirmed rumor to the effect that the Delaware and Hudson Canal company is about to buy up the strip of land between Brook street and the steel works depot, bounded by Remington avenue and the main line of railroad, is talked of quite freely by the people of the Twentieth ward. It is said that when the company becomes the owner of the land that a new depot will be built on extra facilities made for handling freight. Some time ago an agent of the railroad had a talk with the owners of the property in the enclosed area and was led to believe that the deal will be made before many days. What appears to be the greatest setback is the exorbitant figure of value set upon the land by the owners. If a reasonable estimate could be mutually agreed upon it is said that the company would buy up the land without delay.

LITTLE BOY'S SUDDEN DEATH.

By falling head first from a wagon, Leo, the 4-year-old son of James Mullen, of Hemlock street, was instantly killed yesterday at noon. His neck was broken by the force of the fall. A wagon was standing on Stone avenue a short distance from where the boy's parents live. With other youngsters, Mullen climbed into it, and when he tried to get out he fell and his head struck the ground crushing in the skull, and lacerating the brain. A doctor was summoned, but death came so quickly that medical assistance was useless.
