OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES. Tribute to His Memory by the Local Library Society. The Scranton Oliver Wendell Holmes society have passed the following resolutions referring to the death of the late poet.

TAKEN BACK TO INDIANA Thomas A. Lucas Tripped Up by a Prospective Grandmother-in-Law. MADE LOVE TO LILLIE IRWIN Then He Married a Young Woman from Massachusetts and Advised Lillie to Forget Him--Been in Scranton Since September 12.

Thomas A. Lucas, age 23 years, was arrested at Wyoming avenue and Mulberry street yesterday morning at 7.30 on the authority of a warrant issued by Governor Pattison in response to a requisition received from the governor of Indiana.

Three months ago he left Chicago in response to a message from his home at Howard, this state, informing him of the death of his mother. He attended the last rites and after his mother had been buried wrote to Miss Irwin stating that he thought he would go south with his sister who, he said, was in feeble health.

Mr. Lucas obtained a position in the School of Mines conducted on Wyoming avenue by the Colliery Engineer company, and with his wife went to board at 428 Wyoming avenue. In the meantime Mrs. Johnson had a warrant issued for his arrest and the authorities of Valparaiso traced him to Howard and then to this city.

Lucas was thoroughly surprised but made no objection to accompanying Officer David Roche to police headquarters, where his wife visited him a short time later. She was much overjoyed and broke down and wept when she saw her husband under arrest.

At 10 o'clock Lucas was taken before Judge Gunster to have the requisition papers properly indorsed. The accused was represented by Attorney Joseph O'Brien and W. H. Jessup, Jr. An application was made for a writ of habeas corpus in his behalf which Judge Gunster issued and made return at 1.30 in the afternoon.

Lucas was taken back to police headquarters and at 1.30 made his appearance in court again with his attorneys. Mrs. Lucas was also present, and her face showed that she had spent the interval between the hearings in crying.

Attorney O'Brien asked for the discharge of Lucas from custody on the ground that no copy of the indictment on information accompanied the governor's warrant. This Mr. O'Brien contended constituted a defective return, and the length of it he asked for the discharge of Lucas.

He admitted that he frequently visited Mrs. Johnson's home at Valparaiso, Ind., to call on the lady's grand-daughter, and said that on these visits Mrs. Johnson repeatedly asked him if he could invest some money for her. At length he decided to do so, and received from her sums aggregating $2,400.

By the agreement between them Lucas was to invest the money as he saw fit and pay Mrs. Johnson one-half of the amount earned. To protect her from possible loss he gave her his notes for the amount received. One of these notes, he said, became due several weeks ago. It has not yet been paid.

tended as a dower for Lillie. At the time the World's fair was in progress Mrs. Johnson determined that the girl should have the money to hold the exposition that has passed into history as one of the wonders of the world, and accordingly placed Lillie in a boarding house at Jackson park, Chicago.

She says she promised to marry him and acquainted him with the financial affairs of her grandmother. He became a frequent visitor to the Johnson home at Valparaiso, and according to the old lady's statement called her "grandma" and Lillie "honey." He told them, she alleges, that he had large investments in real estate in Chicago and Denver, being there connected with two multi-millionaires, Hall & Pierson, who would back him for any amount.

Lucas was arrested in Chicago by a reporter on the Chicago Tribune, and an official reporter in one of the criminal courts of Cook county, Ill. Mrs. Johnson further states that Lucas told her he would never marry her and ceased to visit Valparaiso.

Lucas said yesterday at police headquarters that he had no intention of defrauding Mrs. Johnson, and that he would have married Miss Irwin had not the young lady's conduct made it impossible.

MAGNIFICENT PIPE ORGAN. Description of the New Instrument at Second Presbyterian Church--To be Used in Tomorrow's Services. For over three months workmen have been engaged in rebuilding and enlarging the organ at the Second Presbyterian church, but today the work will be finished and the organ will be used for the first time this morning and evening.

The organ, as it now stands, is virtually a new one; the old front with additions has been used and also the pipe work, but a third manual, or keyboard, has been added and the action has been made pneumatic throughout. The following is a brief summary of what has been done, with a scheme of the organ as it now is.

Swell organ--stopped diapason, 8 feet, 58 pipes; cornet, 8 feet, 58 pipes; viola, 8 feet, 58 pipes; cornet, 8 feet, 58 pipes; bourdon bass, 16 feet, 13 pipes; oboe, 8 feet, 58 pipes; flute, 8 feet, 58 pipes; violin, 8 feet, 58 pipes; cornet, 8 feet, 58 pipes; bourdon treble, 16 feet, 45 pipes.

How Railroad Men Feel. Evidenced by the Way They Placarded an Engine. The engine that draws the Saratoga express on the Delaware and Hudson railroad presented an unusual appearance as it steamed into the station in this city at 4.55 yesterday afternoon in charge of Engineer John Bailey and Fireman John Kearney.
