

WINTER Underwear and Hosiery

No other store can compete with our prices and qualities. Superior knowledge of value, unlimited facilities and constant enterprise keep us ahead of competition at all times.

Ladies' Fine White Ribbed Merino Vests and Pants, excellent make and finish, recommended as being non-shrinkable; 50c. the garment; real value, 75c.

Ladies' Superfine Natural Gray Vests and Pants, especially recommended for warmth; $1.00 the garment; formerly $1.25.

HOSIERY AND GLOVES

Sanitary Black Hose for Ladies; best qualities at low prices; Children's Black Hose; double knee and double toes, soles and heels.

GLOVES

Our fall importation is large, including all the styles for out-door and evening wear.

Ladies' Plain and Ribbed Seamless Wool Hose, 25c; were 35c. Children's Heavy Seamless Ribbed Cotton Hose, double knees, extra heel and toe, sizes 6 to 8 1/2; price,

15c. Per Pair, Or 2 Pair for 25c.

THE NOTION DEPARTMENT

Carries a greater diversity of goods than any other department in the house.

Of the thousand or more articles always to be found in this department there probably is not one piece that is not used by every family.

GORMAN'S Grand Depot.

DR. REEVES

412 Spruce St., Scranton.

Dr. Reeves is now fully established at 412 Spruce street, Scranton. He has performed some wonderful cures and has gained the confidence of the public. He has come to STAY and will remain PERMANENTLY at his Spruce street parlor. He has had long and varied experience in hospital and private practice and treats all acute and chronic diseases of men, women and children.

He gives advice, ser- Free of Charge. Fees and examinations. No one is turned away.

He, with his assistants, treat all diseases of the nervous system, diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, dyspepsia, rheumatism, lost vitality, premature weakness or decay in both sexes, nervous debility, catarrh, tumors, cancers, scurvy, blood poisoning, fits, epilepsy, indigestion and arrows of youth, lost manhood, eczema, scrofula, St. Vitus' dance, asthma, diseases of the heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, bladder, stomach, etc.

OFFER TO THE PUBLIC FOR "CATARRH." Any one suffering with "Catarrh" who wishes to be PERMANENTLY and QUICKLY cured may receive FOUR MONTHS' TREATMENT FOR ONLY TEN DOLLARS. This offer holds good for thirty days. The doctor has discovered a SPECIFIC for this distressing disease. You can treat and cure yourself and family with it at home. It never fails to cure. A trial treatment free. Office hours: Daily, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Sundays, 10 to 12 and 1 to 4. Take elevator in Christian's hat store, or steps.

Remember the name and number.

DR. REEVES

412 Spruce St., Scranton.

CARPETS

Oil Cloths, Linoleums, Curtains, Window Shades and Wall Paper.

All the Latest Designs.

J. Scott Inglis

419 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

four doors above Wyoming House.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!! Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Bad Drains cause much sickness, and bad blood and improper action of the liver and kidneys is bad drainage to the human system, which Burdock's Blood Bitters remedy.

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY CARBONDALE.

A very pleasant social event occurred on Friday evening at the home of Alderman William Williams, the occasion being the celebration of the eighteenth birthday of his daughter, Gertrude. The evening was one long to be remembered by the guests. At midnight an elegant repast was served. Those whose privilege it was to enjoy the festivity are as follows: Misses Hattie and Dora Staples, of Green Grove; Miss Jennie Solomon, of Jermy; Misses Bertie and Minnie Phillips, of South Canaan; Misses Annie White, Ida White, Ella Shreen, Emma Wills, Rose Chubb, Mabel Stanton, Kate Birmingham, Agnes Reardon, Ruth Fears, May Smith, Alice Thorpe, Annie Tonkin, Alta Rankin, Altha Rankin, Mary Haley, Florence Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. Honey, Mrs. Owen, Mrs. Thorpe, William Marvin and William Staples, of Green Grove; Fred Smith, of Jermy; Dr. Whitehead, Willie Williams, George Gordon, Arthur Finson, George Schrader, Eugene Shaffer, Tom Rankin, Joe Hawkins, Thomas Hunter, Ernest Dalton, Henry Lewis, Frank Reardon, George Honey, Eddie Woodard, Willie Wills, Thomas J. Thomas.

Will Evans, of Chicago, a former Carbondale resident, is visiting friends in this city.

Benjamin Maxey, of Forest City, was a caller in Carbondale on Saturday. John C. Blower, of Scranton, spent the Sabbath in this city.

Dr. John Niles, who has been attending a course of lectures and clinics under Dr. Price, of Philadelphia, will return home today.

On Friday week will occur the ball of E. E. Hendrick lodge, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, in W. W. Watt's building.

The concert which will be given at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening of this week will be one of unusual interest. It will be produced by a quartet composed of the following talented singers: Mrs. B. J. Jayne, Scranton's leading soprano, now soloist in the choir of the Second Presbyterian church in that city; Mrs. Boston Williams, renowned as a contralto singer; Lew Herbert, the great basso, and William D. Evans, Carbondale's unusual tenor.

Miss Flora Allen, of Forest City, and Charlotte Giles, of this city, will leave on Wednesday of this week to visit friends in Wyoming, where they will witness the marriage of Miss Mary E. Davis to Charles E. Penny. The bride is well known in this city.

Miss Annie Spruks, of Honesdale, spent Sunday as the guest of Mrs. D. W. Humphrey, of Salem, Pa.

Mrs. C. P. Hallock and Mrs. Warwick, of Gilbert street, are guests of Pittston friends.

Frank Henry, who has been in Philadelphia during the past few weeks, has returned home again.

This afternoon in St. Rose church at 4 o'clock will occur the marriages of Misses Mary and Annie Golan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Boland, of Dundaff street. The former will be married to Thomas Hosie, of Farview street, and the latter to Michael Marion, of Canaan street.

This afternoon General Daniel H. Hastings, the Republican candidate for governor, will come to Carbondale, and the party of distinguished men who will accompany him will come from Scranton on a special train at 2:15 p. m. over the Delaware and Hudson railroad. At 4 o'clock a speech will be made in front of Hotel Anthracite.

Joseph Mattinos, a Poland, was instantly killed in the Northwest mine yesterday morning by being beneath a fall of rock.

Miss Mae Hallock went to Wilkes-Barre yesterday and on Wednesday of this week she will attend the wedding of her cousin, Fred Taylor, a young man well known in Carbondale.

Messrs. Frick and Copeland, of this city, and Freeman, of Scranton, were appointed by court to lay out a road through the township, over the ground yesterday morning. The proposed road would run through the Morris and Warren tracts to Richmondville. A considerable grade was encountered at some points and the probabilities are that the construction of a suitable thoroughfare would cost $2,000.

Some of the residents and corporations of that section are, however, willing to defray any extra expenses that may be necessary to put the road in the best condition.

Miss Hattie Hutchins, of Washington street, passed the Sabbath with friends in Honesdale.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Reynolds, of Terrace street, spent Sunday in Scranton as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. Rice. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Reynolds have moved into their new home on Wyoming street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clarke have been called to Berwick by the sad intelligence announcing the death of Mrs. Clarke's sister.

James E. Morrison, of South Main street, was struck and knocked down yesterday morning by a Delaware and Hudson locomotive. His injuries, although painful, are not serious. He was walking up the track on his way to work on the Hendrick works.

William Pell, of Honesdale, has accepted a position as prescription clerk with Druggist A. W. Reynolds.

The annual meeting of the Societa Giovinetti Italia occurred at their hall on Sunday afternoon and the following officers were elected: President, Gabriel Pugliano; vice president, Nicola Roggiaro; treasurer, Santo Figliano; secretary, Joseph J. Cerra; recording secretary, E. Barbieri; vice recording secretary, L. Romani.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mohr, of Park street, spent Sunday in Honesdale. The Alhambra Social club will hold a social in the Keystone hall on the eve of Thanksgiving Day, Wednesday, November 28.

BUCKNELL NOTES.

Registrar W. C. Gretzinger is spending a few days in Philadelphia. President J. H. Harris gave a discourse at Northumberland on Saturday last.

There is talk of chartering a car for Scranton on Saturday next to witness the game between Colgate university and Bucknell.

Bucknell met her old enemy, Franklin and Marshall, upon the Bucknell athletic field on Saturday. The Franklin and Marshall men came up confident of victory and were placing bets 4 to 1, that Bucknell would not score. But in the first line up after the kick-off Bucknell sent Wolfe around the right end for a touchdown. From that time the game was not in doubt. Twice Franklin and Marshall got the ball to Bucknell's two-yard line on kicks but she was not able to shove it over owing to quick work in the rush line. For Bucknell Wolfe, Bunnell, Collins and Megarage carried off the honors, while Crane, Hartman and Baker did well for Franklin and Marshall. Score, Bucknell, 42; Franklin and Marshall, 0. Touchdowns, Wolfe, 3; Bunnell, Megarage, 1; Elliott, 2 Goals from touchdowns, Bunnell, 7. Referee, Apple (Franklin and Marshall); umpire, Young (Cornell); linesman, Huple (Harvard).

PECKVILLE.

John Jayne, of Nanticoke, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Swales last Sunday.

Mrs. Mark Sherwood, of Jermy, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Jacob Depey.

Mrs. John Barnes was pleasantly surprised last Friday night at her residence on Main street by about seventy friends, including the ladies of the Woman's Relief corps, of Scranton, of which Mrs. Barnes is a member. Mrs. J. E. Stone, of Scranton, presented her with a beautiful silver casket and napkin ring, as a remembrance for her many friends in

HONESDALE.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Russell are absent on a trip which will include Washington, D. C., and a number of cities in Virginia and neighboring states. The fire alarm sounded at 1 o'clock Saturday and the streets were immediately filled with people about to begin their work. The fire proved to be a shed owned by Guckenberger Bros. and used for sheltering their pump engines and as a store house for goods belonging to their grocery store. Loss was about $200. No insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have originated from fire used in heating pitch for tarring kegs, which was near the building.

Court was taken up Saturday with the case of Mrs. Nicholas Mathew, Jr., against her husband for divorce and alimony.

George F. James, who has been passing some time with his parents here, returned to his home in Carbondale Saturday.

A special train leaves here this morning over the Gravity railroad with a large number of passengers to meet General Hastings. General Hastings will speak in the court house this evening.

The New York Celebrities appeared at the opera house Saturday night and proved a most miserable failure in the musical line; but for the appearance of Miss Knowlton in the entertainment would have fallen flat. Miss Knowlton's rendition of "The Chariot Race" from Ben Hur, was most admirable, and was the only part of the performance that either deserved attention or was praised. The entertainment was for the benefit of the Ladies' Improvement society and was well patronized.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gardner and son, Perry, have returned home after an extended visit with relatives at Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crossley, Jr., of Forest City, passed Sunday with their parents here.

Superintendent Derr and Roadmaster E. T. Reiser, of the Erie railroad, were callers here yesterday.

Adam Metzger, Jr., traveling salesman for the Honesdale Shoe company, was home over Sunday.

DURYEA.

The new company houses being built for the Connell Coal company are nearing completion.

The Electric Railroad company is improving the road here by giving its road bed a coat of ashes.

The work of pumping out the water at the Hallstead mine is nearly completed.

Miss Anna Mahwaring, of West Pittston, formerly of this place, called on friends here Friday afternoon.

T. E. Dills, the popular liveyman, has been making extensive improvements to his undertaking establishment.

Ben Welden has removed to the house recently occupied by James Fibbs, near the Brick church.

The public schools are closed this week on account of the annual teachers' institute to be held at Wilkes-Barre.

Politicians are giving our peaceful citizens many friendly visits of late.

HAWLEY.

The front wall of the silk mill has pulled back in its place with a windlass and cables. The work is being pushed rapidly; nearly half of the building now has the roof on.

J. S. O'Connor and Son are making some new improvements at their cut glass works.

A series of revival meetings are being held in the Methodist Episcopal church. Special services for men were held Sunday afternoon.

John Kuhlback, Democratic candidate for representative of Wayne county, was in town Friday afternoon.

Many of the stone cutters employed at the silk mill have been financially ruined.

The iron bridge crossing the Lackawanna river at the Eddy is being re-planked.

The Delaware and Hudson Canal company has erected a fence along the tow path between the canal and river bridges at the Eddy.

NEW MILFORD.

Mrs. Robert Gleason is suffering from a severe attack of diphtheria.

Myron C. Hendrick, of Binghamton, was among the visitors in town this week.

The funeral of Mrs. F. J. Tingley, who died at her home in Summerville, Monday, was held in that village yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. L. A. Smith is making preparations to locate in Kingston, Pa.

The poverty social held in the Baptist church Tuesday evening was a great success socially and financially.

C. W. Lilly is moving into the late home of Mrs. L. A. Smith.

Era Beebe, one of our oldest and best known citizens, died suddenly at his residence in this place Thursday morning. He was 74 years of age, and is survived by his wife and two children. Funeral at his home; interment took place at Monroe.

He often "did" his fellow men With confidence sublime; 'Tis therefore, pleasant to reflect That now he's "doing time."

China's young emperor is about to take the field in person. "But you will get his Celestial tin crown nicely Japanned."—New York Journal.

He—"Has your father been vaccinated yet?" She—"He is going to be vaccinated." "But you have it done on the foot."—Boston Post.

Subscriber—"I have just heard that fifty people are coming to settle here." Editor—"Thank the Lord! John, make out the bills."—Atlanta Constitution.

First Clubman—"Have you heard the latest song?" Second Clubman—"No; what is it?" First Clubman—"What is Home Without a Latchkey?"—Boston Gazette.

Miss Irene—"The odious creature! She turned and looked at me after we had passed each other." Cousin Jack—"How do you know she did?"—New York Advertiser.

"Oh, dear! What shall I give Bob for a birthday present?" "Why don't you give him your heart?" He wants it badly enough." "He'll be happy—only he doesn't know it."—Life.

"I think I will take a holiday the next three weeks," remarked the secretary and treasurer of a private company to the chairman thereof. "But you returned from one only two weeks ago." "True; that one was my holiday as secretary. I wish to go now as treasurer."—London Tidbits.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and we couldn't get along without this delicious little bundle of pouts and dimples and tears and frowns and pretty smiles. Now could we?

Little Purple Aster. Little Purple Aster, sitting on her stem, Peeping out the passers-by, beckoning at them, Staring o'er at Golden Rod, by the pasture bars, Giving him a timid nod when he turns his stars.

Little Purple Aster, waits till very late, Till the flowers have faded from the garden gay, Then with all its dreary, see her buds unfurled. Come to cheer a changeful and sombre autumn world. —Little Flower Folks.

Why He Was Saved. "Stay!" cried Pocahontas. "The obedient father paused. "Do you realize," said she, "that if you undertake the job of killing off all the John Smiths you won't even have time to eat?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Please Don't Mention It. From the Philadelphia Record. It takes all sorts of girls to make a world, and