MINE, MILL AND RAILROAD.

Probably the most expert mine official in the Wyoming coal region, according to the Philadelphia Inquirer, is James B. Davies, the general superintendent of the Plymouth Coal company.

ordinary monthly arrangement of the coal sales agents inasmuch as it had the sanction of the presidents of the leading companies, and it was under the impression that in order to save the trade a general observance of the contract would be necessary.

It has, says the Hazleton Standard, been talked about for some time that the Silver Brook No. 1 breaker will be closed down indefinitely on Nov. 1.

MINOR INDUSTRIAL NOTES: It is reported that the Reading company's colliery colliery will be shut down for six or eight weeks in order to make extensive repairs to the inside workings.

Superintendent Bowers, of the Delaware and Hudson collieries in and around Carbondale, received a telegram Tuesday afternoon instructing him to put the mines under his charge on three-quarter time until further notice.

The Hallstead colliery of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company at Durys, that was flooded about a month ago, will be in readiness to resume operations three weeks hence.

One great annoyance in the present method of lighting trolley cars is that every time the trolley slips off the car is left in darkness.

The Pennsylvania railroad reports that the quantity of coal and coke originating on and carried over its lines east of Pittsburgh and Erie for the year thus far has been 12,127,972 tons.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

New York, Oct. 24.—Speculation at the Stock exchange was lifeless today, total sales having footed up only 65,000 shares.

A late electric device, according to the same authority, is a chair to run on a trolley wire. A man can sit in this chair and be carried by the wire.

There is no longer any attempt to restrict anthracite tonnage to the recently made limit, says the Philadelphia Press.

The range of today's prices or the active stocks of the New York market are given below. The quotations are furnished by the Tribune by G. B. Dimmock, manager of William Linn, Allen & Co., stock brokers, 412 Spruce street, Scranton.

WHEN YOU FEEL LANGUID, dull and heavy, it's your liver that's at fault. A sluggish, torpid liver deranges your stomach and kidneys and bowels. It poisons your blood.

The best-known remedy in the world is Carlsbad. People go there, not only for a disordered liver, but for all the diseases that follow it, and for jaundice and chronic liver complaint, and every ailment of the kind.

There's no need for you to go. You get precisely the same treatment in the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt "the water solidified at the Springs" or in the imported waters.
