

DOINGS OF BOTH BRANCHES

Ordinance Taxing Theatricals Passed Three Readings in the Common.

THE BILLS OF MRS. DUGGAN

Ordinance Granting a Franchise to the Rapid Transit Company Meets Death. North End Street Railway Ordinance Passed First and Second Readings.

Show and all kindred events of amusements exhibiting in this city will be required to pay into the city treasury for each performance a tax of $15, and a penalty in the event of failure to comply with the provisions of this ordinance will mean a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100. Thirty days in the county jail must be served in case the fine is not paid.

The following ordinance passed third and final reading: An ordinance establishing grades on First avenue from O'Boyle street to the Lackawanna river, Dodge court from O'Boyle street to the river, Second avenue from O'Boyle street to the river, Third avenue from O'Boyle street to Bellevue place, Dodge court from O'Boyle street to Luzerne streets, Fourth avenue from O'Boyle street to Bellevue place, Moran court from O'Boyle street to Bellevue place, Railroad avenue from O'Boyle street to Fourth avenue, Bellevue lane from Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad to Third avenue, Casey place from Third avenue to Fourth avenue, Kane place from Third to Fourth avenue, and various streets from Fourth to Third avenues, Fellows street from Bloomsburg railroad to Third avenue and O'Boyle street from Railroad avenue to the Lackawanna river; providing for an electric light in Kressler court between Olive street and Vassar street; providing for the transfer of appropriation for the purchase of a lot for the Cumberland Hose company, and the sum of $500 be taken from the appropriation for paving Dix street; that the city controller in hereby directed to transfer from the appropriation of approaches of Sweetland street bridge to an appropriation for the paving of ground rent of May Ave public park, the sum of $1,000; providing that the building inspector be directed to build a barn for the Excelsior Hose company, the cost not to exceed $450.

Pipe Barn on Main Avenue. Mr. Clemons, of the sewers and drains committee, reported a resolution that the street commissioner be authorized to build a pipe drain across the Main avenue down Green ridge street for a distance of about forty feet, the expense of the same to be charged to appropriations for repairs of sewers and drains.

The petitions of Patrick Donnelly, of the Nineteenth ward, and Luke Burns, of the Twelfth ward, for exoneration of dog tax were granted. Honored Across the Sea. Sketch of Reese Watkins from the Western Mail, of Wales. A letter has been received from Reese Watkins, who is now visiting in Wales with his wife, stating that they are enjoying perfect health and having a very enjoyable visit. The Western Mail, one of the leading newspapers of Wales, in a recent number printed a sketch of Mr. Watkins together with a sketch of that gentleman. Among other things the sketch says: "Reese Watkins, of the Thirteenth regiment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, is now on his way to his brother, Samuel Watkins, builder, Fairview Terrace, Merthyr. Mr. Reese Watkins is a native of Brecon, and emigrated to the United States in 1872, taking up his abode at Scranton, where he still resides. He joined the National Guard as a bandsman in 1873, but it was not until the year 1889 that he was handed a rifle, the bandsmen up to that time having been exempted from military practice. He had not long taken to the use of the gun—a Springfield 45-caliber, fitted with Buffington's sight and wind gauge—before he proved himself to be a capable shot, and he has steadily gone on ever since until he now has a record of achievements as a prize winner which we conceive to be quite unique. In respect to military performances in individual contests he has three gold medals, four silver medals and a gold mounted walking stick, besides another gold medal for sharpshooting. He holds a gold medal awarded to him as the premier shot at 500 yards in a competition open to all comers in the states, six gold medals secured in regimental team contests, the team to which he belonged registering this year an unparalleled score; five gold medals won in state brigade team competitions, the number of brigades being three; and three gold medals acquired in team contests for a trophy open to the army, navy and National Guard of America and the Volunteers of Great Britain. Mr. Watkins has acted as coach to all the teams to which he has been attached in the various tournaments in which he has taken part, and on many occasions he has scored highest possible points."

Grading Prescott Avenue. Mr. Williams introduced an ordinance providing for grading Prescott avenue, and it was referred to committee. The sewers and drains committee reported favorably on the ordinance treating the sewerage of the district in the Eleventh, Twelfth, Nineteenth and a part of the Twentieth wards. Mr. Robinson called up the ordinance and it passed first and second readings. A number of resolutions and ordinances that came over from the select council was acted upon favorably. A number of resolutions for erection of electric lights were introduced. Messrs. Howe, Sweeney and McLean were appointed a committee to confer with a committee of select council in relation to the awarding of the contract for paving West Lackawanna avenue between the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad tracks and Ninth street. Before adjourning, the resolution passed by select council awarding the contract of heating the municipal building to the Economy Steam Heat company was concurred in.

Meeting of Select Councils. The special committee appointed to inquire into the matter of the auditing committee refused to recommend payment thereon reported to select council last night; but the report was just as likely to prolong the refusal of the upper branch to sanction the bill if Mr. Clemons had not poured oil on the turbulent sea by a very timely amendment. The committee met in the city clerk's office, and Mr. Duggan and Chief of Police Simpson appeared to testify.

Mrs. Duggan refused to divulge the number or the names of the fallen women for whom she contracted the carriage to transport to charitable institutions. The committee had two reports to make, a majority and minority one. Mr. Clark, who was chairman of the committee, arose in his place and said that Mrs. Duggan had refused to impart the information the council wanted and agreed to withdraw the bills and pay them out of his own pocket. Mr. Thomas, another member of the committee, was very much worked up at Mr. Clark and told council that Mr. Clark was making that report on his own responsibility. He charged Mr. Clark with being late at the meeting and, therefore, the committee did not have the time to deal properly with the case. Mr. Clark moved to continue the committee for another week and the motion was about to involve some heated discussion when Mr. Clemons said that he would offer a motion if Mr. Schwank would withdraw his. Mr. Schwank consented and Mr. Clemons moved to discharge the committee and order the bills paid. The motion was agreed to.

Want Patrol Wagon Covered. Mr. Manly introduced a resolution instructing the chief of police to cover up the patrol wagon when conveying prisoners through the streets of the city or to the county jail. Other resolutions were: That the city clerk be instructed to deliver copies of the new city digest to the following persons: one to each of the clerks or deputies of each city department, each alderman of the city and to all the newspapers of the city; awarding the contract of heating the Municipal building to the Economy Steam Heat company; that

OLYPHANT GOES ON RECORD

An Evidence for Support of Sound Protective Principles FOR REPUBLICAN SNOWFLAKES

Gathering of Wage Earners in Father Mathew Hall Addressed by A. J. Colborn, Ex-Lieutenant Governor Davis and W. Gaylord Thomas.

In the Father Mathew hall at Olyphant last night was held a large Republican meeting which was but a repetition of the ready-made list of similar and successful gatherings attending the present campaign. Blakeley, who is but a stone's throw from Olyphant borough, is the home of John R. Jones, candidate for district attorney, and Charles P. O'Malley, another Republican candidate for legislature from the Fourth district, resides in Olyphant.

From the fact of the meeting being held at the home threshold of two such prominent candidates, it was expected that some sign would be shown for or against party success. The result of the rally cannot but prove source of gratification to the party leaders. Early in the evening the borough was filled with much noise and a corresponding amount of harmony. A torch-light procession preceded the meeting, and the city controller in hereby directed to transfer from the appropriation of approaches of Sweetland street bridge to an appropriation for the paving of ground rent of May Ave public park, the sum of $1,000; providing that the building inspector be directed to build a barn for the Excelsior Hose company, the cost not to exceed $450.

Well Known Men Present. When the meeting opened the stage was occupied by William Davis, ex-lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania, of Towanda; A. J. Colborn, W. Gaylord Thomas and George M. Watson, of Scranton, and the following county candidates: Joseph A. Scranton, for congress; R. W. Archibald, for judge; Frank H. Clemons, for sheriff; John H. Thomas, for clerk of the courts; John R. Jones, for district attorney; Charles H. Foster, for recorder; C. E. Fryor, for probate; R. W. Archibald, for judge; C. P. O'Malley, for representative from the Fourth district; J. C. Vaughan, for senator from the Twentieth district.

At the side of the stage and in the body of the hall were seated many well known Republicans of Olyphant and vicinity. The audience was composed principally of laboring men who work in and about the mines, and a generous sprinkling of former Democrats was noticeable. It was a representative gathering of toiling American wage earners who, during the progress of the speechmaking, lost no opportunity of expressing their good sound Republican axioms with much freedom and vigor. After choosing John Penning chairman and Thomas W. Edwards secretary of the meeting, Attorney A. J. Colborn of Scranton, was introduced as the first speaker.

Owing to an engagement to speak in this city at the Ex-Prisoners of War meeting, Mr. Colborn was compelled to be brief in his remarks, but his words would have wished. In his own crisp, bright and inimitable eloquence he alluded to the strife for the district at large, and the contest between himself, Mr. Jones and Mr. Watson. During the reference he called attention to the many qualities possessed by Mr. Jones which would fit him for the office. The first mention of Mr. Jones brought forth a great deal of long continued applause. The same demonstration attended the speaker's allusion to Charles P. O'Malley, the Fourth district legislative candidate.

Address by Mr. Davis. The address of ex-Lieutenant Governor Davis, of Towanda, was a logical, plain and earnest appeal for support of the Republican party. He presented a graphic vocal picture of the mad Democratic policy and the industrial havoc it has wrought. He made an argument from the present crippled condition of a manufacturing industry in Towanda. That city depends principally upon an agricultural community for its support. Its only large manufacturing being a furniture factory which, from a small shop employing a few hands, increased until its payroll contained the names of over 200 employees. During last winter the factory was closed, its 200 employees discharged and 600 persons deprived of means of support. The product of the shops could not be sold but filled the storerooms of the company. This business which had thrived and grown under tariff protection was stifled when the tariff tinkering began. Recovery was impossible for months ago, and the same condition now exists in other parts of the state.

Other Speeches Made. The speech of W. Gaylord Thomas referred particularly to the Republican county candidates. He emphasized the importance of electing state and national legislative candidates and explained the results which would follow Democratic or Republican majorities of law makers. Of the local candidates he briefly described the qualities and characteristics of the men selected for the various offices. Any mention of a candidate's name or special reference elicited hearty applause which bespoke Republican snowflakes No. 6.

After the meeting terminated it was the general expression among candidates and rank and file that the evening had been an argument and evidence of a sweeping Republican victory.

BOLD STREET ROBBERY.

Watches and Rings Stolen from a Sidewalk Show Case. An audacious robbery was perpetrated last evening on Wyoming avenue while the street was thronged with pedestrians, but the offenders were not noticed nor have they been captured. The glass topped jewelry case standing on the sidewalk in front of the store of Conrad Luthers, 307 Wyoming avenue, was broken at 8:30 o'clock during the excitement made by a passing street parade and six gold watches and several gold rings were stolen.

DEATH OF HENRY SISCO.

Henry Sisco, of South Abington, who was seized with an epileptic fit at Providence Tuesday, died last evening at the home of his son, William Sisco, of 311 Warren street. Mr. Sisco was 75 years of age and resided at South Abington all his life. He is survived by a wife and a number of grandchildren. Notice of funeral will appear later.

MRS. MARY RUANE KILLED.

Met Her Death on the D. L. and W. Track Near the Cayuga Shaft Yesterday. Mrs. Mary Ruane, of the Highwoods, Providence, was killed on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad track near the Cayuga shaft yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Ruane was about 60 years of age and was crossing the street at the time of picking up on this busy track and it is conjectured that she was stepping in front of the cars when she was struck when they were suddenly moved, and the old lady being unable to get clear of the moving train, was crushed to death. The remains were horribly mangled and undertaker A. P. O'Connell was requested to take charge of the remains and prepare them for interment.

FROM THE AUBURN BULLETIN, MAY 5, 1894.

One of the Most Remarkable Cures

That has been effected in years and for which the Bulletin can vouch, has just come to light through the agency of Dr. J. D. Williams & Bro. of Scranton, Pa. A man, a well known stone cutter of long standing, is the fortunate victim of an attack of rheumatism which dated back twenty-eight years, at intervals ever since. Especially during winters and springs of each year he has been a patient sufferer, the disease growing more acute with each succeeding year, until ten years ago he was taken with a most violent attack of an inflammatory nature which he has never since been able to shake off. Preceding this attack, every known remedy that was on the market had been tried, but without success. The best local medical attendance and specialists had been called in, but each successive year the pains grew more acute and painful, until last winter when he was attacked again he was so thoroughly prostrated that he was unable to get out of bed during the entire winter and could only leave when assisted by members of his family. He was helpless and did nothing for himself, and his food had to be fed to him like a child. Reading in the Bulletin of the remarkable cure of Mrs. Ella Nolan, of 208 Elm street, who was also a sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism and had been cured by the use of a few boxes of Dr. Potter's Rheumatic Pills, Mr. Brennan sent to the drugist for a box and commenced their use at once. The rest of the story is told in a nutshell. The cure was almost instantaneous. From a helpless cripple he is now, after less than a month's use, able to go about the house and walk without the use of crutch or cane— hale, hearty and vigorous, a perfect picture of manly vigor.

In his interview with the Bulletin reporter, he said: "I cannot say too much in favor of those pills. They have done everything for me. I feel as well as I ever did. Nothing helped me as they did. I tried all kinds of liniments and every known remedy recommended for rheumatism, but nothing gave me relief. The pain has been so bad that I could not get out of bed, but I have an excellent appetite, while before I took them my stomach was all out of order. I rest at night, and I am not troubled, without pain or ache. I can conscientiously recommend them to all suffering from rheumatic troubles." Dr. Potter's Rheumatic Pills are a radical cure for rheumatism, inflammatory rheumatism, Gout, Rheumatism, Gout, both acute and chronic, and all diseases depending upon or having their origin in rheumatism. Price $1.00 a box. For sale by Matthews Bros. Wholesale and Retail.
