FAREWELL TO REV. SKELLINGER

Honored by Members of the Hyde Park Lodge of Masons - Lodge of Daughters of St. George Organized - Funeral of Mrs. G. Y. Williams.

The comfortable rooms of the Hyde Park order, Free and Accepted Masons, were crowded last evening at the farewell reception which they tendered to their brother member, Rev. D. W. Skellinger, who leaves today with his wife for Washington, D. C. Mr. Skellinger, who was pastor of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, becomes pastor of the Sixth Presbyterian church at Washington, D. C. On the platform were seated William Parsons, W. Gaylord Thomas, Thomas E. Wells, Rev. D. W. Skellinger and E. B. Holmes. Chairman Eaton announced as the opening feature a mandolin solo by Arthur E. Morse. This was excellently rendered. He was accompanied by Walter Davis on the piano. Misses Clara Sanders and Fannie Jones followed with a charming vocal duet entitled, "I'll For Thee." A. B. Holmes, a member of the order, gave the opening address.

The Dickson Banjo and Guitar club, composed of Will Watkins, Charles Sproul, Fred Short and D. Forest Mayo gave a selection which won merited applause. They responded to an encore. A solo was rendered by Miss Clara Sanders in a sweet manner. William Parsons spoke in a pleasing manner in regard to Mr. Skellinger's departure. Mr. Parsons' able address was followed with a soprano solo by Miss Fannie Jones. It was given with great expression and tone. Chairman Eaton announced W. Gaylord Thomas, who spoke feelingly on the subject of Mr. Skellinger's departure. He said: "We are all proud of our acquaintance with Brother Skellinger. He has not been with us many years and has endeared himself to us all by his Christian qualities. I have a great admiration for the preacher. People do not understand the position of a preacher and the difficulties with which he has to contend. I can say that we are very sorry Brother Skellinger is about to leave us. His pleasant and courteous manner has won its way into all our hearts. We wish him success in his future career." Charles Cadwgan gave a humorous recitation entitled, "Setting a Hen." Arthur E. Morse followed with a mandolin solo. Miss Arnot then sang. At 7 o'clock the departure of Mr. Skellinger from the lodge in presenting Mr. Skellinger with a beautiful watch charm, the emblem of the Masonic lodge. Short addresses were made by Revs. L. C. Floyd and A. W. Cooper, of the Simpson and Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal churches. In his farewell address Mr. Skellinger expressed deep feelings of regret at leaving Scranton. He recalled the many kindnesses which had been shown him here. The unity of his church and the good will of all his fellow-men. He will leave today for Washington and will preach to his new congregation Sunday next.

Daughters of St. George. A woman's lodge, which will hereafter be known as the Princess Beatrice lodge, No. 90, Daughters of St. George, was organized yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Co-operative hall on North Main Avenue. Organization was made by D. Elizabeth Kemp, of Luzerne county, a large number of ladies from the district were present. The new society began with sixty names enrolled on the charter. The project was started by Samuel L. Dean, representative of Hyde Park lodge, No. 301, Sons of St. George. A large number of the daughters gave a social in Beers' hall last evening at which refreshments were served. The officers are: Worthy past president, Mrs. Weatherhog; worthy president, Mrs. Cookson; worthy vice president, Mrs. Bell Dean; worthy conductor, Mrs. Morris; worthy treasurer, Mrs. Myers; worthy recording secretary, Mrs. Mary House; worthy financial secretary, Mrs. Jennie Housh.

Mrs. S. Y. Williams Buried. The funeral of Mrs. S. Y. Williams, who died on Tuesday morning, occurred yesterday afternoon. A large number of friends gathered at the home of her son-in-law, J. C. Thomas, on Chestnut street, at 1.30 o'clock, where a brief service was held. The remains were then conveyed to the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. R. J. Jones, of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church, read Scripture and Rev. L. C. Floyd gave a few remarks followed by prayer. Dr. Peck also spoke. The floral tributes were of neat design. Among them were: A clock, with the hands pointing to the hour of her death, and inscribed "Grandmother," a handsome pillow, sheaf of wheat, and several other floral tributes. A choir under the direction of Professor William W. Jones rendered selections. Interment was made in the Washburn Street cemetery. The pall bearers were: Henry D. Jones, William Munson, John Florey, William Denman, S. B. Adkins and D. W. Chamberlain.

Brief Notes of Interest. Mrs. William V. Griffiths, of North Sumner avenue, was the guest of Plymouth friends yesterday. A meeting of the Young Men's Republican League will be held this evening, and every member is urged to attend. An officers' social was conducted in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church last evening. Supper was served by the ladies. Mrs. William A. Shepperson and daughters, Grace and Helen, returned to their home in Danville yesterday after a two weeks' visit with relatives on North Sumner avenue. The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Arthur, of Pleasant street, who died on Wednesday evening, will occur tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. A solemn high mass will be celebrated in St. Patrick's church. Interment in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Arthur was 70 years of age and had a large number of friends. Miss Jessie Owen, of North Lincoln avenue, was tendered a surprise party on Wednesday evening by her numerous friends. Musical selections were rendered by Crad Morris, Emerson D. Owen and the Elsinore Glee club. Mr. Owen announced that the assembly of quaint recitations and witty impersonations. Refreshments were served by Misses Sara A. Jones and May Anthony.

The public will please take notice that Fred Reynolds, formerly in business on Lafayette street, has moved into more commodious apartments at 296 North Main avenue. Throughout the day and evening of Saturday, Nov. 2, he cordially invites all his old patrons and friends, as well as the new, to visit his place and examine his new stock of paints and paper, oil cloths, lace and sash curtains, curtain poles and sash rods, window shades, mouldings, etc. Special prices for the day.

S. N. CALLENDER.

Prohibition Senatorial Candidate for the Twentieth District.

The subject of our sketch deserves to be brought before our readers, and though known to many, the main facts of his history and his personal traits are unknown to more. He has risen out of comparative obscurity, is of humble though honorable parentage, yet he has by degrees risen to a position of eminence as a citizen among the people where he was born and bred. Mr. Callender was born Feb. 28, 1847, in the township of Blakeby. He had but ordinary educational advantages. When the war was going on, like a host of patriotic young men he enlisted in 1864 when but 17 years of age and continued to serve at the front until honorably discharged at the close of the war. He then devoted himself to special studies to prepare himself for a business life.

In 1869 he entered upon mercantile business, and by dint of energy and fitness, succeeded in winning recognition as a man of business capacity. In 1891 he devoted himself to building and loan enterprises, until by this time he is acknowledged as one of the most efficient men in this branch of business enterprises. As a result of this he is now director of the Republic Savings and Loan association of New Jersey and New York, and a leader in several other public enterprises. In June 24, 1874, he married Miss Margaret J. Jones, daughter of the late Edward Jones, of Olyphant. He has a family of six children and his home is a model one. He is an active and influential member of the Blakeby Baptist church, with which he has been identified for the last twenty-five years. He is known to all who know him as clean, honorable, public spirited, energetic and patriotic man. His is bold, fearless and progressive, and as such he has been identified with the Prohibition movement, from the beginning, and now unsought he has been nominated by that party for senatorial representation for the Twentieth district. Let all who desire to honor and promote the worthy give him their support at the polls in the coming election.

DINMORE DOINGS.

Fred Wheatcroft is ill. Customers received daily at Palmer's market. Frank Cullen is visiting in New York city. Mrs. Eva Hess, of Brook street, is visiting in Hawley. Mrs. Rodgers, of Canada, is visiting at L. R. Fowler's, on Cherry street. John Fowler's returned home from spending his vacation at Mohawk, N. Y. Alex Hadden has returned home from Scotland and will make his country their future home. William Harvey and Miss Elizabeth Clemons, were married Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents on Grove street. Engine No. 13 on the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad broke axle yesterday near No. 5 place, Engineer Bergman in charge. Fortunately no serious damage was done. The People's party is looking after votes in this borough. They held an open air meeting at the corners on Tuesday evening. The meeting was addressed by Cornelius Smith and others. A number of the Democratic non-interests canvassed the borough yesterday in their interests. Among them were Hon. M. E. McDonald, Charles Schadt, James J. Healey, John F. Kelly and James G. Bailey. WELL PLEASED AUDIENCES. Saw Lem Kettle at the Academy of Music Last Night. Tim Murphy, George Richards and Eugene Canfield, ex-comedians of Hoyt's company, made their appearance at the Academy of Music last evening in their new play, "Lem Kettle." They gave a very clever performance and highly pleased the rather small audience present. End of Providence Cave-In. The "cave-in" at Providence has ceased. Work will be resumed today at the Von Schuch's company, made their appearance yesterday, no trace of gas could be found. The Keizer Valley railroad has sunk about two feet in some parts. Other places from Pitkin street to the rear of the brick mine have been affected, but no further danger is anticipated. The Driving Park lots will be opened to the public some day next week. The date will be given in Tribune later. Best facilities offered such as street railways, gas and water, etc. Watch The Tribune for the date of opening. Music Boxes Exclusively. Best made. Play any desired number of tunes. Geutlich & Sons, managers, 1009 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. Wonderful orchestral organs, only $5 and $10. NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Fire Destroys the Home of Mrs. Honora Coggins, of Cedar Avenue.

NO INSURANCE ON BUILDING

The Fire Originated from a Defective Flue. Marriage of Miss Lulu Hagen and William H. Walters-Funeral of James Lynott.

The home of Mrs. Honora Coggins, at 2523 Cedar avenue, was burned to the ground last evening. The house was not insured and the loss will amount to about $500. Only a part of her furniture was saved, so quickly did the flames eat up the building. The family can not account for the origin of the fire. It started near the roof and they think that the chimney must have been defective and in that way the fire was communicated to the woodwork. The house was a two-story frame structure and had been built only a few years. The William Cornell and Neptune companies answered the alarm, but when they arrived the house was burned down and there was no danger to adjoining properties. The fire emphasized the need of an alarm station in the upper end of the Twentieth ward. Last night the house was in ashes before the alarm was sounded.

LAMP OPENING

Wedded Last Night. The happy event of the marriage of Miss Lulu Hagen, of Maple street, to William H. Walters, of Cedar avenue, was celebrated last night at the Hickory Street Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. August Lange. At 5 o'clock the bridal party was driven to the church. The maid of honor was Miss Lucy Burshell, of the West Side, and Misses Jessie Hagen and Mary Morgan were bridesmaids. The groomsmen were Albert Westphal, Emil Bonn and John Schauer, Little Ida Hagen and Minnie Meyers were flower bearers, and were attired in white silk gowns. William Wirth, Peter Markor and William Janssen were ushers. After the ceremony a repast was enjoyed at the residence of the bride's parents by a large gathering of invited guests. The presents were beautiful and costly and profusely bestowed. Mr. and Mrs. Walters left at the midnight train on their honeymoon.

Funeral of James Lynott.

This morning the funeral of James Lynott, who was killed in the Foster wreck on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, will be held. The remains will be borne to St. Peter's Cathedral at 9 o'clock and a high mass of requiem begun. Interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.
