CITY NOTES.

Gentlemen's Driving Club races Saturday, 2 p. m.

Beginning Monday night schools will be in session in the following schools building: The employes of the Loggett's Crockery and Marine stores received their October pay yesterday.

The Delaware and Hudson Canal company expects to pay its employes at the VonStorch and Dickson mines this afternoon.

James Conway, who called Officer Palmer very inappropriate names Thursday near the Coyne house, was yesterday sentenced to ten days' imprisonment.

The stock of Berthold Friend, the West Side merchant, whose place was closed by the sheriff, was sold yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Griswold to H. Moses for $85.

Stanley Slikman was yesterday appointed inspector of election for the First district of the First ward and John Fine judge of election in the Second district of the Ninth ward.

The fire last night, which caused the alarm from box 23, was a slight one and was extinguished with a bucket of water. It occurred in the house of J. C. Gallagher on Meridian street.

The clothiers, hatters, shoe dealers and grocers are earnestly requested to attend the merchants' meeting in Clerks' hall, 48 Spruce street, Wednesday evening, Nov. 7, at 8 o'clock.

In the estate of James J. Freeman, late of this city, letters of administration were granted by Register of Wills Koehler yesterday to Mary A. Freeman. The will of Hubert Gordon was admitted to probate. A large audience will witness the contest between the business college teams tomorrow at the base ball park. The game will be called at 2:30. There will be some hustling on both sides.

Thomas Hughes and Thomas McGovern were yesterday arrested by Police Officer Reese G. Jones for creating a serious disturbance by St. Mary's hall, West Market street, and were fined $3 each.

The polling place of the First district of the Seventeenth ward was yesterday changed by the court to a temporary house to be erected by the county commissioners in the rear of the Jifkins property.

The monthly meeting of the City Pastors' union will be held on Monday at 10:30 a. m. in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian association. A paper will be read on "Agnosticism" by Rev. Warren G. Partridge.

Miss Daisy Buckland, stenographer for Attorney Wells and Pratt, illustrates what a girl can do. She took the course at Wood's college and is said to receive from her employers and legal work over $100 per month.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" has drawn a crowd from box 23, was a slight one and during the week will be continued during the night. On Monday "The Countertops" will be produced by the great Bill-Holmes-Forrester combination.

Marriage licenses were granted yesterday by Clerk of the Courts John H. Thomas to Richard E. Zulger and Catherine Korb, Martin J. Rush and Mary A. Flynn, and Charles E. Perry and Katie R. Harding, all of Scranton.

F. W. Pearsall, secretary of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, will preach in the Trinity Evangelical church of Little England on Sunday, Nov. 4, at 7:30 p. m. Men and their families are especially invited to attend.

At the base ball park yesterday a game of base ball was played between the Macflowers of Minooka, and the Moose club. The former won by a score of 7 to 2. One of the runs scored by Moose was a home run made by Hugh Jennings, of the Baltimore club.

The original New York cast, scenery and accessories will appear with Edward Harrigan in his production of "Reilly and the 49" at the Academy of Music on Tuesday evening and "Cordelia's Aspirations" on Wednesday evening. The sale of seats will open this morning.

At the Railroad Department Young Men's Christian association Sunday afternoon reports will be given by the delegates to the state convention. They are Messrs. G. M. Hallstead, Troch, Masters, Nicol, Dunn and Pearsall. All railroad men and their families welcome. Services begin at 2:45 o'clock.

The board of trade have sent to every printer in the city the specifications for their twenty-fourth annual report for 1914. It is to be issued this year, equaling anything of its kind in the country. It will be printed on the finest quality of paper. Profusely illustrated in electrotypes of the city's chief points of interest, depicting its great manufacturing facilities, its wonderful resources, and rapid growth in the past few years, making it altogether a work of art that any progressive city like Scranton may be proud of. There will be 250 copies circulated throughout the country under the direction, who assures the members that every copy will reach where it will be to the best interests of the city and advertisers.

EXAMINATION OF INSANE

Dr. Gunster Suggests That Radical Changes Be Made.

INSANE SHOULD BE ARRESTED
After They Have Been Restrained for a Time They Could Be Examined—Tales of Woe Related for Benefit of the Poor Board.

The poor board meeting yesterday heard a word of advice from Dr. Gunster on the subject of sending physicians to make an examination of insane persons of unbound mind. The insane laws are so lax that two doctors can send a man to an insane asylum and have him confined there for life by simply filling out a statement to the effect that the individual is crazy. There ought to be a change made, he thought, in the position directors take. When a man gives evidence of insanity the proper person should go before an alderman and swear out information to that effect. Then a constable would arrest the insane person and lock him up. When he was prevented by reason of restraint and confinement from violence two physicians could be sent for and an examination into his sanity made.

He told of a case that he visited on the South Side and found the man sitting in a room with access to the kitchen, where deadly carving knives abounded, and if that man desired it was an easy matter for him to do mischief. Another case he knew of in which the insane man had a brace of revolvers and was prevented from murder by a mere accident. Mrs. Swan asked Dr. Gunster if he was afraid to go to the house of an insane man, and he told her he was not, that he did not know what fear was, but it was just like taking one's life in his hands. It was adopted as the sense of the board that hereafter the insane person will be taken to the police station.

Case of Fanning Family.
Mr. Shotten reported the case of the Fanning family in the North End. Six of the children are down with typhoid fever, and the father goes around in a drunken condition. He engaged Miss Jordan, a professional nurse, to attend the case, but thought her prices were too high, $21 a week. On motion of Mrs. Swan the case was referred back to Mr. Shotten with full power to act.

Mrs. Rose Ann Hicks, of Keyser Valley, has a 15-year-old son, George, who is blind and feeble minded, but likes music. She wanted to take Mr. Langstaff over to her house so that he could see him, and she said he would be surprised at the brightness of the boy's mind. The board decided to place the matter in Mr. Langstaff's hands.

Henry Johnson, a gentleman of color, asked for relief. Mr. Johnson's left eye looks to ward the ceiling and his well modulated voice in connection with his upward gaze made his appeal a very supplicating one. He was asked where he lived and answered in this way: "Two alleys above the high school. He works on Hotel Jersey and toils at the rate of 10 shillings a day. Pay day does not roll around regularly enough for him and he asked the board to lend him assistance for a little while. Mr. Tropp said the man's wife came to him and wanted relief, telling him that his husband had left her. Johnson told her to do that as it would excite more sympathy and that was one reason why he came before the board and confessed the truth at the expense of his wife's veracity. The case was referred to Mrs. Swan.

Thomas Graham, who applied at the last meeting for admission to the home was refused because because he was intoxicated. Yesterday he was present again, but pentent and sober, and the board granted him admission to the home.

RESIDENT PHYSICIANS REPORT.

The report of Resident Physician B. F. Evans for October sets forth that on Oct. 1 there were 14 patients in the asylum, and on Nov. 1 the number was the same. Three were admitted and three discharged during the month. There were two births and two deaths.

Dr. Gunster, as out-door physician, made his report: Number of old cases, 25; new ones, 10; visits, 80; insane patients examined, 3. Dr. J. R. Murphy's report was: visits, 28; calls, 25; prescriptions given, 41. Dr. W. A. Paine reported: patients visited, 12; visits made, 63; births attended, 1.

Patrick Tierney, of the South Side, who wants his two grandchildren indentured to him, was satisfied to allow the board to indenture the children to the sisters of St. Patrick's orphan asylum. The management of the asylum, it is understood, will indenture the children to Mr. Tierney upon his application to them.

Superintendent Palmer's report was as follows: Number in home at last report, 149; number now, 149; males, 106; females, 43; number admitted during October, 10; discharged, 11; died, 1.

Mrs. Mary Butterman, now living with her widowed sister in Dunmore, wanted to be sent back to her husband in Indiana. He lived here until a year ago, and then left her and went west. She followed him, but he did not provide for her and she left him. The case was referred to Mrs. Murphy.

The board adjourned to meet next Wednesday at the Hillside Home, leaving on the noon train.

TYPHOID IS DYING OUT.

It Was So Reported at the Board of Health Yesterday.

Just a quorum was present at yesterday's meeting of the board of health. M. J. Kelly presided in the absence of Dr. Bentley. Dr. Allen, health officer, made a verbal report and said that only one case of typhoid fever was existing in the city. The health of the city is very good. His report was accepted.

The report of Secretary Briggs was as follows: Deaths during the month, 94; births, 132; male, 58; female, 74; contagious diseases, 13; diphtheria, 13; typhoid fever, 13; scarlet fever, 3; marriages during the month, 31.

Mr. Briggs also reported that he had spoken to City Solicitor Torrey on the sewer question and was informed that the city would proceed against those who had not connected their sewers. The county commissioners, he said, were asked if they could not find it practicable to use the ashes of the crematory as a fertilizer. They promised to give the matter their attention.

Food Inspector Thomas made 573 official visits and said he found everything in good order. The quality of milk is good.

Superintendent Lottus, of the crematory, reported that he had burned 7,000 lbs. of garbage, 1,982 lbs. of coal, 7,000 lbs. of coal, 28; oil used, 29 gallons. When new business was introduced Dr. Paine said if the board did not want too much for the privilege, George Cooper, from across the mountain, was willing to cart the ashes from the crematory.

Chemist D. W. Humphrey's report on the analysis of two samples of water from the dams of the Providence Gas and Water company was read. It was an itemized statement of the proportion of impurities. Dr. Allen explained that the following week would be made in the funds appropriated for the year: Emergency fund, $1,654.36; incidentals, $16.28; running expenses for crematory, $1,892.72; balance on retaining wall, $69.49; interest on contract, $200; fence, $200.

CLOSE OF INSTITUTE.

Last Remarks of the Instructors—Resolutions Passed by the City and County Teachers.

The closing session of the county institute was held yesterday morning when Professor Epstein concluded his series of lectures on "Music." Miss Lella E. Partridge delivered an address on "The Work of Teachers." A petition was read from the Pennsylvania Teachers' association praying that the legislature make the free teaching of vocal music in common schools compulsory. Principals of schools of this county were requested to sign the petition.

The report of the committee on local institute work was presented by Professor W. A. Peck. It recommended that the county be divided into the following districts: 1. Fell, Greenfield and Carbondale; 2. Mayfield, Jermy, Archbald and Scott; 3. Winton, Blakey, Olyphant, Troop and Dickson City; 4. Lackawanna, Old Forge and Taylor; 5. east side of the mountain, west of the mountain, except Scott and Greenfield. Professor Bovard, a member of the same committee recommended that "Page's" theory and practice of teaching" be adopted for use in the local institutes.

The Resolutions Adopted.

Resolutions were unanimously adopted heartily endorsing the action of the Pennsylvania Teachers' association in furnishing free text books for scholars in public schools; approving of the plan of dividing the institute, inasmuch as it gave better order and instruction; appreciating the holding of the evening entertainments; in the Frothingham, urging that the teaching of recitation to the youth of the land should receive more attention in the public schools; thanking the press for the full reports of the proceedings of the institute; thanking Superintendent Taylor for his impartial conduct in the chair; and expressing the opinion that the minimum annual school term should be increased to eight months. The resolutions were submitted by R. N. Davis, Miss B. T. Mooney, Miss P. D. Repleh, John H. Davey, Miss Grace Sauter and Miss Mary J. McHale, compiler.

The financial report was read by Secretary Lloyd, showing receipts, $355.50; disbursements, $717.95. Superintendent Taylor reported that the total cost of this year's institute, including lectures, was $723; the receipts being $675, including the balance of $127.55 from last year. The deficit was about $500.

Close of City Institute.
At the closing session of the city institute yesterday morning Dr. White concluded his addresses on "Methods and Material of Moral Instruction" and was followed by Mr. Newton, who delivered the concluding series of his musical lectures. Miss Lois Shardlow read a paper on "Physical training in its relation to the life of a woman," and at the conclusion gave a remarkable exhibition of her skill in manipulating the Indian clubs.

The resolutions passed were drafted on the same lines as those adopted by the county institute with the addition that a strong feeling was expressed as to the "exceedingly low rate of salaries which prevails in this city as compared with cities of equal size and importance in this and other states." Profound sorrow was expressed at the death of the late Professor Roney, ex-superintendent of schools.

The institute also passed a strong resolution calling attention to the flagrant violations of the law forbidding employment of children under a certain age. The grievous case of the Scranton Tribune, Truth, Republican and Times in reporting the institute meetings were duly recorded.

PARTIES, WEDDINGS AND TEAS

The Gamut of the Week's Events Sounded in Short Paragraphs—Guests and Entertainers—Personal Mention Reduced to a Compact Compass.

Among the most delightfully arranged, enjoyable and elaborate banquets of the year was that of the Scranton Civil and Club and its guests in the Bicycle club home Tuesday evening. The order of the banquet given Huntington was almost carte blanche. Anyhow, the presence of seventy of the city's men best known in financial, professional and commercial circles, warranted the complete menu and exquisite details. Aside from the banquet proper, there is an idea associated with which cannot but bear fruit when it is agitated the establishing of an industrial school in the Scranton Young Men's Christian association. Industrial training was the topic discussed and the fine Italian head of some philanthropists was apparent in the presence of those of the best known Young Men's Christian association officers of the country. They spoke of the necessity and benefit of manual training and, although no particular reference was made to the needs of the local association in this particular, it is a surprise that the order given surprised if they are asked to support such a project in the near future.

A bright and cheerful gathering of little folks assembled at the house of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johns in Taylor Hall on Tuesday night to participate in a most enjoyable surprise party tendered by their daughter, Miss Norma, in honor of her cousin, Miss Beattie Davies, of Hyde Park, who was her guest. After indulging in the usual games and having several piano selections rendered by Miss Norma, the guests were invited to retire to the dining hall, where refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Norma Johns, Jennie Carter, Dell Williams, Mary Daniels, Maud Davis, Hettie Harris, Annie Boyd, Hannah Powell, Mary Law, Maggie Law, Lizzie Thomas, Lillian Baker, Josephine Carter, Elizabeth Sule, Sule Harris, Bezie Timlin, Fannie Timlin, Nettie Atkins, Mame Timlin, Mrs. Sidney Baker, and Masters Thomas Jones, Eugene Spencer, Lester Reese, Bennie Harris, Lea Griffiths, Oscar Thomas John Baker, Willie Jones, Arthur Hopkins, Eddie David, Arthur Davis.

Any dearth of social activity nowadays is, among thoughtful women, amply balanced by the opportunity given them to discuss politics. It does not follow that because she cannot vote a woman doesn't have her say just the same. There was never a time in the history of county politics when she heard the subject more discussed than now. The qualifications and hopes of the various candidates are on the tip of every man's tongue and it quite naturally follows that his wife should now and then show her interest in the subject. Her discussion of the issues is perhaps rather vague and faulty in particulars, but she never makes the mistake of championing an unworthy candidate, and a man is very obtuse who has the mistaken idea that she should wield a certain power behind the throne. Woman is not knee-deep in politics, but—

During next week Miss Stewart, who conducted last summer's kirkness in Honesdale, will be in the city, and preliminary arrangements will be made for the kirkness to be given next week in the Frothingham for the benefit of the Lackawanna hospital. The entertainment will be one of the important social affairs of the winter, and will include as participants some of the best known young ladies and men of the city. The list of patronesses has not been announced, but the fact that many prominent women are interested is evidence that the kirkness will be a success financially and otherwise.

Among the most delightful discussions of the week was the chrysanthemum reception given by Colonel and Mrs. H. M. Boies, Wednesday afternoon, to the congregation of the Second Presbyterian church and in the evening to the members of the Young Women's Christian association. Aside from the chrysanthemums there were also to be addressed in the kirkness, several rare specimens of ferns of all colors, sizes and shapes, and palms and orange trees. The great reception room, the library and in fact every room in the house was filled with roses, making the whole place a complete bower of beauty. An orchestra played several delicious airs during the evening.

A surprise party was tendered Miss Beatrice Jones at her home on South Summer avenue on Wednesday evening. Games and other diversions were enjoyed until a seasonable hour, when refreshments were served. Among those present were Misses Grace Reid, Beatie Gable, Gustie Fritz, Florence Miller, Grace Rice, Edna Rice, Jessie Fuhrman, Mable Thomas, Pearl Fuhrman, Anna Morton, Bertha Morton, Portia Van Vleet, Perlela Evans, Lizzie Davies, Freda Jones, Bertha Reese and Anna Todd, of Taylor, and Ray Miller, Will Rice, Harry Thomas, Arthur Sumner, Merrill, Harry Sumnerhill, Bert Fuhrman, Purcell Bush, Emlyn Davies, George Morton and Harry Goodrich.

A delightful Halloween party was given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Watkins, of Monroe ave.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

A number of young people from Scranton celebrated Halloween in an enjoyable manner on Tuesday evening at a house party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Hall, of Dalton. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Hall were Mr. and Mrs. Hershal Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shedd, Misses Ruth Dale, Anna Dale, Jessie Dale, Jessie Torry, Margaret Torry and Annie Grant, and Messrs. Ed. Hall, Tom Hall and Alex. Schrier.

For Miss Downs, of Germantown, the entertainment offered included many of the old-fashioned customs of Halloween, which were heartily enjoyed by the small company present, which included Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Mrs. E. L. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Christie, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Courson, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Robertson, Miss Archibald, Miss Dain, B. E. Watson, A. G. Hunt, and S. H. Kingsbury.

One of the most attractive and generously patronized sources of recreation at present is the new boulevard to Elmhurst which on every pleasant day is driven over by scores of stylish turnouts. The beauty of the scenery, enjoyableness of the road and other enjoyable features of the driveway have been commented upon to the extent that the amount of driving is gradually increasing.

The assemblies given last year at the Scranton Bicycle club house will be continued during the coming season. A date near Thanksgiving Day will be selected for the first assembly, to be followed by four others during the winter. Miss Bellin, Miss Hunt and Miss Archibald comprise the committee which is arranging for this popular social feature.

Miss Edith Pierson, of Quincey avenue, gave an informal Halloween party to a few friends. There were present: Miss Simonton, of Danville; the Misses Turrey, the Misses Hanley, and Joseph Boles, Bevan Decker, H. S. and W. H. Kirkpatrick, Ellison Snyder, Will Hanley, Edward Gearhart and Lawrence Fuller.

Mrs. Everett Warren gave a small informal dinner last evening for Mrs. Covington, of Lexington, Ky., who is the guest of Miss Matthews, of Wyoming avenue. Only a few ladies were guests.

A pink and white birthday party was given Monday for Mabel May Sutherland, in honor of her fourth birthday, by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sutherland, of 618 Wacohung avenue. About thirty little ones were present.
