

A rounded spoonful of Cleveland's Baking Powder does better work than a heaping spoonful of others.

Norman & Moore
FIRE INSURANCE,
120 Wyoming Ave.

No Oriental opium-scented linen frayed, fretted and worthless, but all returned fit for wear, ironed with care, and all of it there.

ACKAWANNA
—THE—
LAUNDRY.
33 Penn Ave. A. B. WARMAN.

IF YOU
Want Carpets,
Draperies,
Wall Paper or Window Shades
Come to Us. We have a Full Line of Goods, and Our Prices Are Very Low.
WILLIAMS & McRUALTY
127 WYOMING AVE.

CITY NOTES.

Gentlemen's Driving Club races Saturday, 2 p. m.
All those desiring to know how to read music at sight are invited to unite with the beginners' class at the Scranton School of Music, taught by Tallie Morgan, at 402 Lackawanna avenue, this evening at 8.15.
There will be no meeting of the Sacred Music Society tomorrow evening; the hall being engaged by the Prohibitionists for the receiving of election returns. The rehearsal will take place on Thursday evening.
The sale of seats commences this morning at the Frothingham box office for the Langtry engagement Wednesday evening. Many boxes parties are now organizing. Mr. Laine informs us that he has received quite a number of outside orders for seats. This will be Mrs. Langtry's opening engagement.
Gentlemen's Driving Club races Saturday, 2 p. m.
Pabst's Milwaukee Beer, cool and sparkling, at Lohman's, Spruce street.
Charles H. Schadt, do you believe in libelling, lying about and slandering those who oppose you in politics? If not, why not say so like a man?
CANDIDATE WITHDRAWS.
William T. Jenkins Not to Run Independently for Sheriff.
The Independent Republican candidate for sheriff, William T. Jenkins, of Scranton, has withdrawn his candidacy in favor of Frank H. Clemons, the regular nominee. Mr. Jenkins makes public his action in the following circular letter:
To the Republican voters of Lackawanna County:
This is to certify that I have withdrawn from the contest for sheriff, and I desire to thank my friends for their warm support up to this time and request them all to rally to the support of Frank H. Clemons and the other nominees of the Republican party of Lackawanna county.
William T. Jenkins.
Scranton, Pa., Nov. 3, 1894.
To a Tribune reporter Mr. Jenkins said that he had lost all hope of polling a large vote as an independent candidate, and rather than diminish even to a slight extent the regular vote for Mr. Clemons, he decided to withdraw.
P. P. Smith, do you individually sanction mud-slinging and scurrilous personal abuse of Republican candidates? If not, why not say so like a man?
PLEASED THE AUDIENCE.
Innes Band's "War and Peace" at the Frothingham.
Innes' New York band, in the musical spectacle "War and Peace," delighted a fair sized audience at the Frothingham Saturday evening.
To the delicate ear for music was needed no printed synopsis to follow the ups and downs of the great civil war in the appropriate selections. An artillery operated by electricity, a company of the Thirteenth regiment and a number of Grand Army of the Republic veterans participated in the entertainment. Popular criticism speaks for Innes a crowded house when he next visits Scranton.
GET OUT THE VOTE.
The Democrats are on the run. Get out the vote.
Their campaign of abuse and vilification has reached its climax a week too soon; has burst in all its filthy fury before the ballot harvest could be garnered; and now the smut-throaters of the opposition are brought face to face with an indignant public reaction. Get out the vote.
It is time to bury scurrilous personal abuse as a method of campaigning. This will be done to the height of critical taste if Republicans everywhere will get out and vote.
SEWING MACHINE WAR.
Singer Company and Its Agent Ask an Alderman to Settle Their Differences. Agent Wins the First Suit.
On Saturday a suit was decided by Alderman Fuller of much interest in local sewing machine circles. It was the case of David R. Thomas against the Singer Manufacturing company, and was the latest step in a course of litigation which for some weeks has been raging between the Singer company and certain of its former employees.
During the summer several agents, of whom Mr. Thomas was one, severed connection with the Singer company and engaged with another sewing machine company. The Singer has had trouble with its ex-employees since. Mr. Thomas was sued in replevin for a horse and wagon he claims to have purchased from the Singer company; also for a sewing machine he is alleged to have lost. He is defending both suits, but in the meanwhile he brought suit against the Singer company for accrued commission. Much feeling was exhibited during the trial.
Mr. Mitchell, agent of the Singer company, claimed offset against Mr. Thomas of about $54, but his evidence was contradicted by five witnesses. The alderman gave judgment against the company for the full amount of plaintiff's claim. As Mr. Thomas says several hundred dollars of commissions are still to accrue, and declares he will sue the Singer company every time $1 due him is paid into the office of the company, the chances are that there will be plenty of law business among sewing machine men this winter.
Edward Merrifield, are you satisfied to appear as the abettor and silent beneficiary of blackguard journalism and political slime-squirling? If not, why not say so like a man?
FOR WINTER SKATING.
Rink and Ice Track Being Built at the Driving Park.
An enterprise, which, if properly continued, will meet with the support of a large number of persons, is the winter skating rink now being arranged by a number of business men. Work has been started at the Driving park on the rink proper and an ice track for horses.
It is hoped that the ground will be ready to flood by the time the first continued spell of freezing weather arrives. The grand stand will be altered to contain enclosed waiting and reception rooms and refreshment stand. A band stand will be erected and fourteen are lights distributed over various portions of the rink.
New Surgical Instrument.
Stephen Brodick, of Prospect avenue, was arrested on Saturday night for assaulting his wife. When Officer Coleman was called in Brodick displayed considerable acquaintance with the "vulgar tongue," and threatened to remove the officer's brains with a stove lid. He escaped with a $250 fine yesterday morning.
When You Sew
and it reminds you that you are in need of a thimble, do not forget Davidow Bros.
Political decency is not dead in Lackawanna county, the Democratic campaign management to the contrary notwithstanding.
DIED AT THE POOR FARM.
John J. Taylor and Hannah Madden Were Two Friendless Inmates.
Two inmates of the Hillside home died Saturday. John J. Taylor, an insane patient, died at the age of 30 years. He was recommended to the Home by W. B. Carr.
Hannah Madden, aged 80 years, died of senility. She was admitted Oct. 8, and for many years had been a domestic in a well known family. Her relatives are unknown.
Davidow Bros.
Banking establishment is the place to secure a loan.
RACING NOT A SUCCESS.
Saturday's Entries Absent and Impromptu Races Substituted.
Only a very small crowd of spectators gathered at the Driving park Saturday afternoon to witness the races of the Gentlemen's Driving Club. The card arranged had to be cast aside and two impromptu events arranged owing to the non-appearance of many expected starters.
Blue, Maggie Davis, Little Agnes and Abigail trotted three half-mile heats in 14.13, 13 and 14.4. Blue won the first and last heats, but Little Agnes made the fastest half in 13, driven by G. M.

THE LIGHT IS TURNED ON

True Statement of Facts About the Morgan Store Company.
LIES OF THE TIMES ANSWERED
Like All Its Campaign Material the Pluck-Me-Store Articles Were Nothing but a Tissue of Falschoods Food for Voters.

The following communications have been received by The Tribune for publication in answer to the malicious and dastardly charges made against Frank H. Clemons, Republican candidate for sheriff:
The fact that the employees of the Blue Ridge Coal company are at liberty to trade where they please and are not discharged for not trading at any particular store is proven by the following statement of facts: Out of the 633 persons employed at the Blue Ridge mine during September, 1894, 281 did not trade with the Morgan Store company during the month. Of those that did trade less than $1 each, 101 traded less than $2 each.
One-fourth of all goods sold during September were sold to persons not employed at the Blue Ridge mine.
Everyone is aware that the quality of goods makes the price. The Times, in comparing our prices (where they have not deliberately misstated them) with Scranton prices, quote our price on best goods and Scranton prices on cheapest goods, which can be proven by simply comparing the price quoted by the Times with the wholesale and retail market prices as published in the Times and other Scranton papers. It will be seen how deliberately malicious and false the comparison is.

We venture to say that we are selling groceries at low prices as the Democratic candidate for sheriff, in whose behalf the malicious and libelous articles have been published. After election, if it can be ascertained that the Times or its management have any pecuniary responsibility we will see if there is any redress under the law. It will not be done as a campaign fake but as a matter of business.
S. L. Rice,
Manager Morgan Store Co.
A Card from the Men.
Peckville, Nov. 3.—We, the employees of the Blue Ridge breaker, do hereby wish to inform the public that the Scranton Times has been misrepresenting our treatment at the hands of the Morgan Store company. We denounce the article printed in the papers of last week as being nothing more than political lies, trumped up to injure the character of one of the most respected officials of the Blue Ridge Coal company, namely, Mr. Clemons; and we further state, that we have always been treated as well, and bought goods at their store as reasonable and of as good a quality as we could have got elsewhere; and also that it was at our own option if we traded there or not—nothing compulsory.

Ziba Tinkiepaugh,
L. M. Stanton,
Fred Williams,
Committee.
Miners and Laborers.
Peckville, Nov. 3.—We, the undersigned miners and laborers of the Blue Ridge Coal company, having this day called a general meeting for the purpose of repudiating the statements contained in the issues of the Scranton Times of the 30th and 31st ult., we pronounce it a base falsehood as far as Frank Clemons is concerned in every respect.
Resolved, As employees of this company we are at perfect liberty to deal where we please, and are not questioned by the foreman; and that no man has ever been discharged for not dealing at the Morgan Store company.
Committee: Henry Carey, Patrick Gallagher, Samuel G. Collins, Paul Shink, Joseph Uplake, Charles Brockman, William Strong, Michael Strucca, Arthur D. Wrightson, John Sinauchek, Stephen A. Smith, Martin McHale, Isaac Marels, William P. Miller, James J. Matuschuck, J. D. White, Fred Jones, John V. James, Henry R. Jones, Patrick Phillips, James F. Cawley, Charles Robinson, Patrick Carey, Peter Dubalsky, John Sanderson, Andrew Hydovick, Anthony Colman, George Harrison, Alfred Stockton, Henry Vones, W. J. Sneldker, Michael Shestac, Urias Richards, Evan Richards, Palletus Sneldker, Thomas Evans, Michael Shegan, Thomas Fort, Patrick G. Curry, Richard Richards, Peter Slaughbaugh.

BIG DAY FOR FOOT BALL.

Scranton College and Wyoming Seminary Beat the Wood's and Lackawanna.
Two games of foot ball were played Saturday which created more or less interest among Scranton admirers. The School of the Lackawanna eleven were beaten by the Wyoming Seminary team at Kingston, and Wood's Business college suffered defeat from the rival Scranton Business college at the base ball park. The latter defeat was in a measure compensated for by Professor Wood, who gave the Wood's Business College eleven a supper at the Wyoming House in the evening. The Scranton College team was banqueted at the Westminister.
The School of the Lackawanna team played gamely against the heavy Wyoming men, Watkins, Courson, Dyer and Reynolds deserving special mention. The teams lined up as follows:
Wyoming. Lackawanna.
Collyer.....right end.....Morgan
Nosier.....right tackle.....Pond
McDermott.....right guard.....Cleary
Johnston.....center.....Clark
Tingley.....left guard.....Trotter
Robertson.....left tackle.....Hull
Reese.....end.....Connell
Watkins, Cap.....quarter back.....Lynch
Courson.....left half back.....Horn
Dyer.....right half back.....Mott
Reynolds.....full back.....Lathrop
Umpire, Penstermacher; referee, Hunman; linesman, Miller.
At the base ball park there was no end of disputing and vocal kicking before the first kick off, which was finally settled at 2.45 o'clock, when the game began. About 300 persons, many of them ladies, were present and by yelling and hornblowing made manifest the intense rivalry between the two factions.
The Wood's men made several long kicks but before the game ended changed tactics and kept the ball on the ground. The Scranton men were the heavier, and when time was called had won by 4 to 0 in one of the cleanest and most exciting games of the season. The men lined up as follows:
Scranton. Wood's.
Thompson.....center.....Cleveland
Zang.....right guard.....Barrett
Barnes.....right tackle.....Williams
Constantine.....right end.....Corcoran
Hauk.....left guard.....Wright
Cummings.....left tackle.....Cram
Matthews.....left end.....Cramer
Kiple.....quarter back.....Owens
Marsh, Cap.....half back.....Steele
Peterson.....left half back.....Hunt
Beck.....full back.....Brug
Thayer, referee; Decker, umpire; Dr. Stein, linesman.
Unconscionable scurrility has overreached itself; watch the reaction tomorrow.
Do You Want Something
in silver metal you never heard of? We have it. Davidow Bros.
Mansfield State Normal School.
An effective training school for teachers. Very liberal provision made for post graduate work and for the preparation of students for college. Students admitted to the best colleges on our certificates. Much attention given to physical culture. Superior advantages for special instruction in music and art. Ample furnished reading room and cabinet. The best and most modern physical apparatus. Five flourishing literary societies. A strong athletic association and fine grounds for sport. Four large buildings all heated by steam. New furniture in the dormitories of both the ladies' building and gentlemen's halls. An elevator in the ladies' building. Prospective teachers receive material aid from the state. Expenses for the junior year (12 weeks) $18. Senior year $18.
Winter Term begins Dec. 2d.
For catalogue address
S. H. ALBRO, Ph. D., Principal,
Mansfield, Pa.
Solid Gold Rings.
Our line of ladies' solid gold rings at $1.00 is large and complete. Beautiful designs. Davidow Bros.
Annual commutation tickets for the use of the Nay Agt Falls and Elmhurst Boulevard for driving purposes can be procured at the office of the treasurer, room 7, Commonwealth building, Price, $14.
Reinhardt's market, 33 and 35 Lackawanna avenue, will receive car load of Catawba grapes this morning.
Ladies, Protect Your Neck
with one of Davidow Bros' sterling silver collarettes. Neat.

KIDNAPPERS IN CUSTODY

Frenchman and an Italian Woman with South American Child.
WOMAN PROFFESSES INNOCENCE
Disposition of the Trio Is Awaiting Advice from the Argentine Consul in New York—Between the Lines Is a Story of Romance and Better Days.

No recent police news has attracted a greater amount of interest than the case of the two South American kidnapers which appeared exclusively in Friday's Tribune. The publicity given the matter induced the police to arrest Simon Sacher, alias "Jacques," a Frenchman, and an Italian woman, Serafina Canate, Friday night. They are accused of abducting a boy from Montevideo, Uruguay, in January, 1893. The trio has been residing in the North End several months and since their confinement in the police station the woman is steadfast in maintaining that the child is hers by birth and that his father is a shoemaker of Buenos Ayres named Pettine.
The police department was notified Oct. 6 by the Argentine consul general in New York city that Jacques or Sacher and the woman, Canate, were living in Bull's Head and had placed the kidnapped child in some institution. Joseph Cassee, the Italian proprietor of a Lackawanna avenue saloon, was requested to locate the kidnapers. For some particular reason he detailed two countrymen to investigate the matter, and they reported that Jacques and the woman had left the city. Meanwhile, Officer Sartor and Mrs. Duggan, the Associated Charities agent, were asked to work on the case.
The abductors were finally found and Patrolman Sartor was instructed to arrest the pair the middle of last week. The arrest was not made, however, until the same day of the case was given by The Tribune.
Effort of the Detectives.
That the abduction of the boy aroused an intense effort to find him was shown in the presence in this city over a year ago of two Italian detectives. They scoured the charitable institutions and Italian quarters without finding even a slight clue. Jacques and the woman had been here previous to the arrival of the detectives, but had departed for Philadelphia, where they resided for a time, and later at Mansfield, returning to Scranton last June. To a Tribune reporter yesterday the woman reiterated her statement that the child is hers, and that his father, Pettine, has made repeated efforts to secure it since she left Montevideo, nearly two years ago. She alleged that he had been on the street and was a worthless fellow. When questioned as to the particulars of her life when she knew Pettine, she said she was a "show-woman" and had fallen. Evidence that the woman has seen better days is offered by Jacques, who carries in his pocket a photograph of her and the boy taken three of four years ago in South America. "The picture shows the woman seated in a chair and the boy standing at her side. She is dressed handsomely and stylishly, and it would be inferred from the photograph that she was a woman of caste and that the well-dressed little fellow at her side was happy and well provided for." If, as is supposed, the woman in the picture and the one under arrest are the same, further particulars of the case may contain interesting and romantic facts.
Take Their Arrest Coolly.
The pair have not been locked up in the cells, but have been kept under surveillance in the mayor's court room. They take their arrest coolly, protest their innocence and have the boy with them. Mrs. Canate denies having made any confession to the effect that the boy was abducted.
Notice of the arrest has been sent to the Argentine consul general in New York. The disposition of the pair will depend on instructions received from the consul.

ITEMS OF INTEREST AT

WOOLWORTH'S
The Best Oyster Broilers made, 25c
Lap Board, a good one, 49c
4-foot Step Ladder, 75c
6-foot Step Ladder, $1.00
8-foot Step Ladder, 1.25
2-hoop Wood Pail, 10c
Cedar Pail, 2 brass hoops, 25c
Ironing Boards on legs, folds up, $1.19
Folding Clothes Bars, 69c
Coal Hods, 15c
Stove Pipe, per joint, 10c
Stove Pipe, elbows, 10c
Jardiniere, an elegant assortment, from 10c. to $5.00 each.
Rice Root Horse Brush, a "corker" 10c
Celluloid Side Combs, imitation of shell, per pair 10c
Hair Ornaments, Spears, Daggers, etc., same quality as above, each 10c
New Glass Celery Tray, a beauty, 10c
Lots of New Goods arriving every day.

GET OUT THE VOTE.
The Democrats are on the run. Get out the vote.
Their campaign of abuse and vilification has reached its climax a week too soon; has burst in all its filthy fury before the ballot harvest could be garnered; and now the smut-throaters of the opposition are brought face to face with an indignant public reaction. Get out the vote.
It is time to bury scurrilous personal abuse as a method of campaigning. This will be done to the height of critical taste if Republicans everywhere will get out and vote.
SEWING MACHINE WAR.
Singer Company and Its Agent Ask an Alderman to Settle Their Differences. Agent Wins the First Suit.
On Saturday a suit was decided by Alderman Fuller of much interest in local sewing machine circles. It was the case of David R. Thomas against the Singer Manufacturing company, and was the latest step in a course of litigation which for some weeks has been raging between the Singer company and certain of its former employees.
During the summer several agents, of whom Mr. Thomas was one, severed connection with the Singer company and engaged with another sewing machine company. The Singer has had trouble with its ex-employees since. Mr. Thomas was sued in replevin for a horse and wagon he claims to have purchased from the Singer company; also for a sewing machine he is alleged to have lost. He is defending both suits, but in the meanwhile he brought suit against the Singer company for accrued commission. Much feeling was exhibited during the trial.
Mr. Mitchell, agent of the Singer company, claimed offset against Mr. Thomas of about $54, but his evidence was contradicted by five witnesses. The alderman gave judgment against the company for the full amount of plaintiff's claim. As Mr. Thomas says several hundred dollars of commissions are still to accrue, and declares he will sue the Singer company every time $1 due him is paid into the office of the company, the chances are that there will be plenty of law business among sewing machine men this winter.
Edward Merrifield, are you satisfied to appear as the abettor and silent beneficiary of blackguard journalism and political slime-squirling? If not, why not say so like a man?
FOR WINTER SKATING.
Rink and Ice Track Being Built at the Driving Park.
An enterprise, which, if properly continued, will meet with the support of a large number of persons, is the winter skating rink now being arranged by a number of business men. Work has been started at the Driving park on the rink proper and an ice track for horses.
It is hoped that the ground will be ready to flood by the time the first continued spell of freezing weather arrives. The grand stand will be altered to contain enclosed waiting and reception rooms and refreshment stand. A band stand will be erected and fourteen are lights distributed over various portions of the rink.
New Surgical Instrument.
Stephen Brodick, of Prospect avenue, was arrested on Saturday night for assaulting his wife. When Officer Coleman was called in Brodick displayed considerable acquaintance with the "vulgar tongue," and threatened to remove the officer's brains with a stove lid. He escaped with a $250 fine yesterday morning.
When You Sew
and it reminds you that you are in need of a thimble, do not forget Davidow Bros.
Political decency is not dead in Lackawanna county, the Democratic campaign management to the contrary notwithstanding.
DIED AT THE POOR FARM.
John J. Taylor and Hannah Madden Were Two Friendless Inmates.
Two inmates of the Hillside home died Saturday. John J. Taylor, an insane patient, died at the age of 30 years. He was recommended to the Home by W. B. Carr.
Hannah Madden, aged 80 years, died of senility. She was admitted Oct. 8, and for many years had been a domestic in a well known family. Her relatives are unknown.
Davidow Bros.
Banking establishment is the place to secure a loan.
RACING NOT A SUCCESS.
Saturday's Entries Absent and Impromptu Races Substituted.
Only a very small crowd of spectators gathered at the Driving park Saturday afternoon to witness the races of the Gentlemen's Driving Club. The card arranged had to be cast aside and two impromptu events arranged owing to the non-appearance of many expected starters.
Blue, Maggie Davis, Little Agnes and Abigail trotted three half-mile heats in 14.13, 13 and 14.4. Blue won the first and last heats, but Little Agnes made the fastest half in 13, driven by G. M.

YOUNG MRS. WINTHROP.
Presented in a Splendid Manner at the Academy Saturday Night.
"Young Mrs. Winthrop" was produced at the Academy of Music Saturday night by an excellent company. The performance was a most enjoyable one. The company contained such excellent artists as Ernest Dunbar, Robert McWade, Collin Kemper, Mrs. Annie Mortimer, Lansing Rowland, Lillian Scherwin.
Edward Merrifield, are you satisfied to appear as the abettor and silent beneficiary of blackguard journalism and political slime-squirling? If not, why not say so like a man?
BIG DAY FOR FOOT BALL.
Scranton College and Wyoming Seminary Beat the Wood's and Lackawanna.
Two games of foot ball were played Saturday which created more or less interest among Scranton admirers. The School of the Lackawanna eleven were beaten by the Wyoming Seminary team at Kingston, and Wood's Business college suffered defeat from the rival Scranton Business college at the base ball park. The latter defeat was in a measure compensated for by Professor Wood, who gave the Wood's Business College eleven a supper at the Wyoming House in the evening. The Scranton College team was banqueted at the Westminister.
The School of the Lackawanna team played gamely against the heavy Wyoming men, Watkins, Courson, Dyer and Reynolds deserving special mention. The teams lined up as follows:
Wyoming. Lackawanna.
Collyer.....right end.....Morgan
Nosier.....right tackle.....Pond
McDermott.....right guard.....Cleary
Johnston.....center.....Clark
Tingley.....left guard.....Trotter
Robertson.....left tackle.....Hull
Reese.....end.....Connell
Watkins, Cap.....quarter back.....Lynch
Courson.....left half back.....Horn
Dyer.....right half back.....Mott
Reynolds.....full back.....Lathrop
Umpire, Penstermacher; referee, Hunman; linesman, Miller.
At the base ball park there was no end of disputing and vocal kicking before the first kick off, which was finally settled at 2.45 o'clock, when the game began. About 300 persons, many of them ladies, were present and by yelling and hornblowing made manifest the intense rivalry between the two factions.
The Wood's men made several long kicks but before the game ended changed tactics and kept the ball on the ground. The Scranton men were the heavier, and when time was called had won by 4 to 0 in one of the cleanest and most exciting games of the season. The men lined up as follows:
Scranton. Wood's.
Thompson.....center.....Cleveland
Zang.....right guard.....Barrett
Barnes.....right tackle.....Williams
Constantine.....right end.....Corcoran
Hauk.....left guard.....Wright
Cummings.....left tackle.....Cram
Matthews.....left end.....Cramer
Kiple.....quarter back.....Owens
Marsh, Cap.....half back.....Steele
Peterson.....left half back.....Hunt
Beck.....full back.....Brug
Thayer, referee; Decker, umpire; Dr. Stein, linesman.
Unconscionable scurrility has overreached itself; watch the reaction tomorrow.
Do You Want Something
in silver metal you never heard of? We have it. Davidow Bros.
Mansfield State Normal School.
An effective training school for teachers. Very liberal provision made for post graduate work and for the preparation of students for college. Students admitted to the best colleges on our certificates. Much attention given to physical culture. Superior advantages for special instruction in music and art. Ample furnished reading room and cabinet. The best and most modern physical apparatus. Five flourishing literary societies. A strong athletic association and fine grounds for sport. Four large buildings all heated by steam. New furniture in the dormitories of both the ladies' building and gentlemen's halls. An elevator in the ladies' building. Prospective teachers receive material aid from the state. Expenses for the junior year (12 weeks) $18. Senior year $18.
Winter Term begins Dec. 2d.
For catalogue address
S. H. ALBRO, Ph. D., Principal,
Mansfield, Pa.
Solid Gold Rings.
Our line of ladies' solid gold rings at $1.00 is large and complete. Beautiful designs. Davidow Bros.
Annual commutation tickets for the use of the Nay Agt Falls and Elmhurst Boulevard for driving purposes can be procured at the office of the treasurer, room 7, Commonwealth building, Price, $14.
Reinhardt's market, 33 and 35 Lackawanna avenue, will receive car load of Catawba grapes this morning.
Ladies, Protect Your Neck
with one of Davidow Bros' sterling silver collarettes. Neat.

WOMAN PROFFESSES INNOCENCE
Disposition of the Trio Is Awaiting Advice from the Argentine Consul in New York—Between the Lines Is a Story of Romance and Better Days.
No recent police news has attracted a greater amount of interest than the case of the two South American kidnapers which appeared exclusively in Friday's Tribune. The publicity given the matter induced the police to arrest Simon Sacher, alias "Jacques," a Frenchman, and an Italian woman, Serafina Canate, Friday night. They are accused of abducting a boy from Montevideo, Uruguay, in January, 1893. The trio has been residing in the North End several months and since their confinement in the police station the woman is steadfast in maintaining that the child is hers by birth and that his father is a shoemaker of Buenos Ayres named Pettine.
The police department was notified Oct. 6 by the Argentine consul general in New York city that Jacques or Sacher and the woman, Canate, were living in Bull's Head and had placed the kidnapped child in some institution. Joseph Cassee, the Italian proprietor of a Lackawanna avenue saloon, was requested to locate the kidnapers. For some particular reason he detailed two countrymen to investigate the matter, and they reported that Jacques and the woman had left the city. Meanwhile, Officer Sartor and Mrs. Duggan, the Associated Charities agent, were asked to work on the case.
The abductors were finally found and Patrolman Sartor was instructed to arrest the pair the middle of last week. The arrest was not made, however, until the same day of the case was given by The Tribune.
Effort of the Detectives.
That the abduction of the boy aroused an intense effort to find him was shown in the presence in this city over a year ago of two Italian detectives. They scoured the charitable institutions and Italian quarters without finding even a slight clue. Jacques and the woman had been here previous to the arrival of the detectives, but had departed for Philadelphia, where they resided for a time, and later at Mansfield, returning to Scranton last June. To a Tribune reporter yesterday the woman reiterated her statement that the child is hers, and that his father, Pettine, has made repeated efforts to secure it since she left Montevideo, nearly two years ago. She alleged that he had been on the street and was a worthless fellow. When questioned as to the particulars of her life when she knew Pettine, she said she was a "show-woman" and had fallen. Evidence that the woman has seen better days is offered by Jacques, who carries in his pocket a photograph of her and the boy taken three of four years ago in South America. "The picture shows the woman seated in a chair and the boy standing at her side. She is dressed handsomely and stylishly, and it would be inferred from the photograph that she was a woman of caste and that the well-dressed little fellow at her side was happy and well provided for." If, as is supposed, the woman in the picture and the one under arrest are the same, further particulars of the case may contain interesting and romantic facts.
Take Their Arrest Coolly.
The pair have not been locked up in the cells, but have been kept under surveillance in the mayor's court room. They take their arrest coolly, protest their innocence and have the boy with them. Mrs. Canate denies having made any confession to the effect that the boy was abducted.
Notice of the arrest has been sent to the Argentine consul general in New York. The disposition of the pair will depend on instructions received from the consul.

WOMAN PROFFESSES INNOCENCE
Disposition of the Trio Is Awaiting Advice from the Argentine Consul in New York—Between the Lines Is a Story of Romance and Better Days.
No recent police news has attracted a greater amount of interest than the case of the two South American kidnapers which appeared exclusively in Friday's Tribune. The publicity given the matter induced the police to arrest Simon Sacher, alias "Jacques," a Frenchman, and an Italian woman, Serafina Canate, Friday night. They are accused of abducting a boy from Montevideo, Uruguay, in January, 1893. The trio has been residing in the North End several months and since their confinement in the police station the woman is steadfast in maintaining that the child is hers by birth and that his father is a shoemaker of Buenos Ayres named Pettine.
The police department was notified Oct. 6 by the Argentine consul general in New York city that Jacques or Sacher and the woman, Canate, were living in Bull's Head and had placed the kidnapped child in some institution. Joseph Cassee, the Italian proprietor of a Lackawanna avenue saloon, was requested to locate the kidnapers. For some particular reason he detailed two countrymen to investigate the matter, and they reported that Jacques and the woman had left the city. Meanwhile, Officer Sartor and Mrs. Duggan, the Associated Charities agent, were asked to work on the case.
The abductors were finally found and Patrolman Sartor was instructed to arrest the pair the middle of last week. The arrest was not made, however, until the same day of the case was given by The Tribune.
Effort of the Detectives.
That the abduction of the boy aroused an intense effort to find him was shown in the presence in this city over a year ago of two Italian detectives. They scoured the charitable institutions and Italian quarters without finding even a slight clue. Jacques and the woman had been here previous to the arrival of the detectives, but had departed for Philadelphia, where they resided for a time, and later at Mansfield, returning to Scranton last June. To a Tribune reporter yesterday the woman reiterated her statement that the child is hers, and that his father, Pettine, has made repeated efforts to secure it since she left Montevideo, nearly two years ago. She alleged that he had been on the street and was a worthless fellow. When questioned as to the particulars of her life when she knew Pettine, she said she was a "show-woman" and had fallen. Evidence that the woman has seen better days is offered by Jacques, who carries in his pocket a photograph of her and the boy taken three of four years ago in South America. "The picture shows the woman seated in a chair and the boy standing at her side. She is dressed handsomely and stylishly, and it would be inferred from the photograph that she was a woman of caste and that the well-dressed little fellow at her side was happy and well provided for." If, as is supposed, the woman in the picture and the one under arrest are the same, further particulars of the case may contain interesting and romantic facts.
Take Their Arrest Coolly.
The pair have not been locked up in the cells, but have been kept under surveillance in the mayor's court room. They take their arrest coolly, protest their innocence and have the boy with them. Mrs. Canate denies having made any confession to the effect that the boy was abducted.
Notice of the arrest has been sent to the Argentine consul general in New York. The disposition of the pair will depend on instructions received from the consul.

WOMAN PROFFESSES INNOCENCE
Disposition of the Trio Is Awaiting Advice from the Argentine Consul in New York—Between the Lines Is a Story of Romance and Better Days.
No recent police news has attracted a greater amount of interest than the case of the two South American kidnapers which appeared exclusively in Friday's Tribune. The publicity given the matter induced the police to arrest Simon Sacher, alias "Jacques," a Frenchman, and an Italian woman, Serafina Canate, Friday night. They are accused of abducting a boy from Montevideo, Uruguay, in January, 1893. The trio has been residing in the North End several months and since their confinement in the police station the woman is steadfast in maintaining that the child is hers by birth and that his father is a shoemaker of Buenos Ayres named Pettine.
The police department was notified Oct. 6 by the Argentine consul general in New York city that Jacques or Sacher and the woman, Canate, were living in Bull's Head and had placed the kidnapped child in some institution. Joseph Cassee, the Italian proprietor of a Lackawanna avenue saloon, was requested to locate the kidnapers. For some particular reason he detailed two countrymen to investigate the matter, and they reported that Jacques and the woman had left the city. Meanwhile, Officer Sartor and Mrs. Duggan, the Associated Charities agent, were asked to work on the case.
The abductors were finally found and Patrolman Sartor was instructed to arrest the pair the middle of last week. The arrest was not made, however, until the same day of the case was given by The Tribune.
Effort of the Detectives.
That the abduction of the boy aroused an intense effort to find him was shown in the presence in this city over a year ago of two Italian detectives. They scoured the charitable institutions and Italian quarters without finding even a slight clue. Jacques and the woman had been here previous to the arrival of the detectives, but had departed for Philadelphia, where they resided for a time, and later at Mansfield, returning to Scranton last June. To a Tribune reporter yesterday the woman reiterated her statement that the child is hers, and that his father, Pettine, has made repeated efforts to secure it since she left Montevideo, nearly two years ago. She alleged that he had been on the street and was a worthless fellow. When questioned as to the particulars of her life when she knew Pettine, she said she was a "show-woman" and had fallen. Evidence that the woman has seen better days is offered by Jacques, who carries in his pocket a photograph of her and the boy taken three of four years ago in South America. "The picture shows the woman seated in a chair and the boy standing at her side. She is dressed handsomely and stylishly, and it would be inferred from the photograph that she was a woman of caste and that the well-dressed little fellow at her side was happy and well provided for." If, as is supposed, the woman in the picture and the one under arrest are the same, further particulars of the case may contain interesting and romantic facts.
Take Their Arrest Coolly.
The pair have not been locked up in the cells, but have been kept under surveillance in the mayor's court room. They take their arrest coolly, protest their innocence and have the boy with them. Mrs. Canate denies having made any confession to the effect that the boy was abducted.
Notice of the arrest has been sent to the Argentine consul general in New York. The disposition of the pair will depend on instructions received from the consul.

WOMAN PROFFESSES INNOCENCE
Disposition of the Trio Is Awaiting Advice from the Argentine Consul in New York—Between the Lines Is a Story of Romance and Better Days.
No recent police news has attracted a greater amount of interest than the case of the two South American kidnapers which appeared exclusively in Friday's Tribune. The publicity given the matter induced the police to arrest Simon Sacher, alias "Jacques," a Frenchman, and an Italian woman, Serafina Canate, Friday night. They are accused of abducting a boy from Montevideo, Uruguay, in January, 1893. The trio has been residing in the North End several months and since their confinement in the police station the woman is steadfast in maintaining that the child is hers by birth and that his father is a shoemaker of Buenos Ayres named Pettine.
The police department was notified Oct. 6 by the Argentine consul general in New York city that Jacques or Sacher and the woman, Canate, were living in Bull's Head and had placed the kidnapped child in some institution. Joseph Cassee, the Italian proprietor of a Lackawanna avenue saloon, was requested to locate the kidnapers. For some particular reason he detailed two countrymen to investigate the matter, and they reported that Jacques and the woman had left the city. Meanwhile, Officer Sartor and Mrs. Duggan, the Associated Charities agent, were asked to work on the case.
The abductors were finally found and Patrolman Sartor was instructed to arrest the pair the middle of last week. The arrest was not made, however, until the same day of the case was given by The Tribune.
Effort of the Detectives.
That the abduction of the boy aroused an intense effort to find him was shown in the presence in this city over a year ago of two Italian detectives. They scoured the charitable institutions and Italian quarters without finding even a slight clue. Jacques and the woman had been here previous to the arrival of the detectives, but had departed for Philadelphia, where they resided for a time, and later at Mansfield, returning to Scranton last June. To a Tribune reporter yesterday the woman reiterated her statement that the child is hers, and that his father, Pettine, has made repeated efforts to secure it since she left Montevideo, nearly two years ago. She alleged that he had been on the street and was a worthless fellow. When questioned as to the particulars of her life when she knew Pettine, she said she was a "show-woman" and had fallen. Evidence that the woman has seen better days is offered by Jacques, who carries in his pocket a photograph of her and the boy taken three of four years ago in South America. "The picture shows the woman seated in a chair and the boy standing at her side. She is dressed handsomely and stylishly, and it would be inferred from the photograph that she was a woman of caste and that the well-dressed little fellow at her side was happy and well provided for." If, as is supposed, the woman in the picture and the one under arrest are the same, further particulars of the case may contain interesting and romantic facts.
Take Their Arrest Coolly.
The pair have not been locked up in the cells, but have been kept under surveillance in the mayor's court room. They take their arrest coolly, protest their innocence and have the boy with them. Mrs. Canate denies having made any confession to the effect that the boy was abducted.
Notice of the arrest has been sent to the Argentine consul general in New York. The disposition of the pair will depend on instructions received from the consul.

WOMAN PROFFESSES INNOCENCE
Disposition of the Trio Is Awaiting Advice from the Argentine Consul in New York—Between the Lines Is a Story of Romance and Better Days.
No recent police news has attracted a greater amount of interest than the case of the two South American kidnapers which appeared exclusively in Friday's Tribune. The publicity given the matter induced the police to arrest Simon Sacher, alias "Jacques," a Frenchman, and an Italian woman, Serafina Canate, Friday night. They are accused of abducting a boy from Montevideo, Uruguay, in January, 1893. The trio has been residing in the North End several months and since their confinement in the police station the woman is steadfast in maintaining that the child is hers by birth and that his father is a shoemaker of Buenos Ayres named Pettine.
The police department was notified Oct. 6 by the Argentine consul general in New York city that Jacques or Sacher and the woman, Canate, were living in Bull's Head and had placed the kidnapped child in some institution. Joseph Cassee, the Italian proprietor of a Lackawanna avenue saloon, was requested to locate the kidnapers. For some particular reason he detailed two countrymen to investigate the matter, and they reported that Jacques and the woman had left the city. Meanwhile, Officer Sartor and Mrs. Duggan, the Associated Charities agent, were asked to work on the case.
The abductors were finally found and Patrolman Sartor was instructed to arrest the pair the middle of last week. The arrest was not made, however, until the same day of the case was given by The Tribune.
Effort of the Detectives.
That the abduction of the boy aroused an intense effort to find him was shown in the presence in this city over a year ago of two Italian detectives. They scoured the charitable institutions and Italian quarters without finding even a slight clue. Jacques and the woman had been here previous to the arrival of the detectives, but had departed for Philadelphia, where they resided for a time, and later at Mansfield, returning to Scranton last June. To a Tribune reporter yesterday the woman reiterated her statement that the child is hers, and that his father, Pettine, has made repeated efforts to secure it since she left Montevideo, nearly two years ago. She alleged that he had been on the street and was a worthless fellow. When questioned as to the particulars of her life when she knew Pettine, she said she was a "show-woman" and had fallen. Evidence that the woman has seen better days is offered by Jacques, who carries in his pocket a photograph of her and the boy taken three of four years ago in South America. "The picture shows the woman seated in a chair and the boy standing at her side. She is dressed handsomely and stylishly, and it would be inferred from the photograph that she was a woman of caste and that the well-dressed little fellow at her side was happy and well provided for." If, as is supposed, the woman in the picture and the one under arrest are the same, further particulars of the case may contain interesting and romantic facts.
Take Their Arrest Coolly.
The pair have not been locked up in the cells, but have been kept under surveillance in the mayor's court room. They take their arrest coolly, protest their innocence and have the boy with them. Mrs. Canate denies having made any confession to the effect that the boy was abducted.
Notice of the arrest has been sent to the Argentine consul general in New York. The disposition of the pair will depend on instructions received from the consul.

WOMAN PROFFESSES INNOCENCE
Disposition of the Trio Is Awaiting Advice from the Argentine Consul in New York—Between the Lines Is a Story of Romance and Better Days.
No recent police news has attracted a greater amount of interest than the case of the two South American kidnapers which appeared exclusively in Friday's Tribune. The publicity given the matter induced the police to arrest Simon Sacher, alias "Jacques," a Frenchman, and an Italian woman, Serafina Canate, Friday night. They are accused of abducting a boy from Montevideo, Uruguay, in January, 1893. The trio has been residing in the North End several months and since their confinement in the police station the woman is steadfast in maintaining that the child is hers by birth and that his father is a shoemaker of Buenos Ayres named Pettine.
The police department was notified Oct. 6 by the Argentine consul general in New York city that Jacques or Sacher and the woman, Canate, were living in Bull's Head and had placed the kidnapped child in some institution. Joseph Cassee, the Italian proprietor of a Lackawanna avenue saloon, was requested to locate the kidnapers. For some particular reason he detailed two countrymen to investigate the matter, and they reported that Jacques and the woman had left the city. Meanwhile, Officer Sartor and Mrs. Duggan, the Associated Charities agent, were asked to work on