ERECTION OF A NEW CHURCH.

Members of the Calvary Reformed Church Have Awarded the Contract.
The building committee of the Calvary Reformed church held a meeting on Saturday evening, when the contract for erecting the new church was awarded to B. F. Dieml at the sum of $5,565.
The church has progressed materially, sufficiently so to urge the members to build a church worthy of their cause and led by their pastor, Rev. W. H. Stubblebine, they have displayed indomitable energy in carrying on the work in face of serious difficulties, which, however, seemed to urge them to increased efforts.
The congregation is but one year old, but thirty members have promised $2,250 toward the erection of the new church and, as the members are practically all working men, the effort has been a noble one. They have proved themselves worthy of public support and contributions will be gratefully received by the pastor at 620 Quincey avenue.
A brief service will be held this evening at 6:30 o'clock, when the ground for the new church will be broken and Rev. Charles E. Robinson will deliver the prayer of consecration. The new church will be located on the corner of Monroe avenue and Gibson street.

PROHIBITION REUNION.

It Will Be Held This Evening at Conservatory Hall.
The Prohibitionists of the county are going to hold a reunion this evening at Conservatory hall, 462 Lackawanna avenue, opposite the Wyoming house, when they will receive the complete election returns of all parties from all over the nation. The ladies will serve refreshments free of charge, and there will be vocal and instrumental music by Tallie Morgan's male voice glee club and Conrad's orchestra. The gathering will be entirely informal, and people can come and go from 8 o'clock until 12 the next morning.
It is the intention of the Prohibitionists to begin the next campaign tomorrow evening by the organization of a working league, or rather to have the Central league to hold public meetings, and to have every election district thoroughly organized. The county will be organized also on the same plan. The rooms tomorrow evening will be open to all friends of Prohibition, whether members of the Prohibition party or not.
Election officers are hereby notified that a plan has been discovered to change the marks on Republican ballots. The first person caught doing that should be instantly arrested. With a free ballot and a fair count the whole Republican ticket will win. Let no guilty man escape.

It is said to be a comedy in which fine humor and artistic musical ability are very agreeably combined. COMING DOWN THE STRETCH

Exciting Struggle of the Dominating Parties for Supremacy.

VICTORY FOR REPUBLICANS

It Is Practically Assured—Democrats, However, Claim That They Can Discern a Victory on the Horizon—So Can Members of the People's Party.

Old observers say that not in years has Lackawanna county seen such a fierce, stubborn and desperate political campaign as was the one which came to a close last night. Beginning in almost a supine fashion, it came down the home stretch in a regular Garrison finish of bold and daring management on both sides; and not until late tonight will it be known, to a certainty, which side has won. The ugliness which has characterized the Democratic portion of this contest—the lies and libels on the opposing candidates and the coarse utterances of Democracy's utterly unscrupulous organ—has been a conspicuous, but not necessarily a decisive feature. The profane pouring in of administration money would have meant a stubborn battle in any event, whether the smut mill had been leased or not. Then, too, there were other influences—but the enumeration of them all would take far too much space and time. It is sufficient to summarize the whole story by saying that the fight winds up in a spirited manner, with the Republicans well in the lead, but not yet safely under the wire.
Both headquarters were besieged all day yesterday by scores and even hundreds of impetuous hangers-on. In this particular, honors were even between the two parties. Many of these would-be "strickers" alternated with true non-partisan fairness between the rival headquarters, first "touching" a soft-hearted Republican candidate for a contribution to charity and then pursuing a parallel course toward one of Mr. Roche's candidatorial staff. The drift of opinion at both headquarters seemed to be that the "stricker" ought to go. But no one appeared to be quite able to get him to.

Predicts Republican Success.

Chairman Rippe, when asked for his opinion, replied: "I never predict. It will be time to do that when the votes are in. Every indication, however, is favorable to Republican victory. I cannot see why we should not elect every candidate, provided every Republican goes to the polls. Yes, the contest has been an earnest one, but I feel very confident we will win."
Mayor Connell was even more outspoken. "You can put it just as emphatically as you wish that I predict the election, by good pluralities, of every Republican nominee. I will be the most surprised man in Scranton if we do not."

Chairman Roche was found at Democratic headquarters last night, closed with Secretary Sands and others. He was figuring out majorities, he said: "I am confident of the result," Mr. Roche continued, "and firmly believe that the Democratic county ticket is going to be elected by decisive majorities. The reports we receive from every quarter indicate that fact."

Talle Morgan, secretary of the Prohibition county organization, was in charge at Prohibition headquarters and said that his party will poll a bigger vote today than ever before in the history of the county. He placed the figures at 1,500.

Peoples' Party Claims.

M. J. Coleman, chairman of the Peoples' party county committee, was interviewed. "We will surprise people tomorrow by the vote we will roll up," he said, he puffed at a very short cigar. "Our fight has been conducted on principle and every honest man in the county will vote with us, I feel sure. I do not think our entire ticket will be elected, but I believe that several of our candidates will pull through all right. This campaign is but preliminary to a great fight against the corruption that now exists in local politics, against which we propose to wage a vigorous battle in the future."
Boodle in Hyde Park.
The day was prolific in its revelation of Democratic tricks. Early in the afternoon it became known at Republican headquarters that the Democrats had planned in certain districts to erase the marks on Republican ballots and substitute other marks. Arrangements were at once made for a systematic notification of overseers and watchers. Such other precautions will be taken as occasion shall demand.
But one of the most daring of these cunningly planned schemes to pollute the ballot was discovered last night, when intelligence was received from a thoroughly trustworthy source that a large quantity of Democratic boodle had been taken to Hyde Park, for use in the attempted alienation of strong Republican wards. The names of the distributors, the amounts to be distributed and the name of the candidate in whose behalf it was contributed, as well as the name of the contributor, were made known to the proper authorities, and any attempt to carry out this plan will result, it is said, in immediate arrests.

A large number who have witnessed the production of this popular piece will avail themselves of the opportunity to see a correct and realistic representation of that gallantry and chivalry so prominent in Irish life. The Holmes-Forrester combination is a powerful one and will do justice on the stage to the work they have in hand. "The Counterfeiters" will be presented during the latter part of the week.

SLIP 'TWIXT CUP AND LIP.

She Took the Money but Would Not Marry Kasimer.
Anna Rollenavits and Kasimer Yarashavichs have found to their cost that the course of true love does not run smooth and have proved the truism that there is danger of a slip between the cup and the lip. Anna promised to marry Kasimer, who resides on Blair avenue, Providence, and things had progressed sufficiently to take out the marriage license, when Kasimer, full of devotion and implicit confidence in his Anna, bestowed upon her all his accumulated wealth for the purpose of furnishing her intended little cot, and the subject of his misplaced affection, in a cold-blooded manner announced to Kasimer that the match was off. Although he "loved her still" he was anxious about the money, and sought the aid of the law, in the person of a constable armed with a warrant, but his efforts were unavailing, and the subject of his misplaced affection, it is rumored, has used his savings in paying the railroad fare of another beau and herself in escaping from the wrath of Kasimer Yarashavichs.

HAD A COMFORTABLE HOME.

That Did Not Mean Everything to Mrs. Cyrus W. Dean and She Left Her Husband.
Testimony in the divorce case of Cyrus W. Dean against Kate E. Dean was taken by Stenographer Costen before Judge Edwards yesterday afternoon.
Mr. Dean is a farmer, who resides at La Plume, where he owns a fifty acre farm. On Sept. 23, 1885, he was married at Keystone Academy at Factoryville to the woman from whom he now wishes to be divorced. Rev. Dr. John H. Harris performed the ceremony.
In giving his testimony Mr. Dean said that two years ago last May his wife left him and went to reside with her parents. Why she did so he was unable to say. They had not always lived happily together, but he gave her a comfortable home. They have a son 8 years of age.
Fraud and Charles Chase testified that Dean had a very comfortable home, but could throw no light on the reason Mrs. Dean left her husband.

MEETING OF CITY PASTORS.

The sum of $3,702.93 had been expended and all liabilities were discharged. Rising votes of thanks were tendered the reverend gentlemen and the other officials of the mission committees.
The union also discussed the question of Sunday observance and the methods of carrying out the desires of the committee.

NEW USE FOR THE TROLLEY.

John R. Jones Advertis His Campaign from an Electric Car.
Another original feature of John R. Jones' business-like Republican candidacy for the office of district attorney was seen yesterday in a badly decorated electric car, which made a tour of the city and was run up and down the valley. It contained the German band, Mr. Jones and a party of friends. In giving his testimony Mr. Jones said that he had a very comfortable home, but could throw no light on the reason Mrs. Dean left her husband.
Solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Peter's cathedral, Rev. Father Millaine being celebrant, Rev. Father O'Reilly deacon, and Rev. Father Golden, sub-deacon. THEY ASK TO BE REUSED

Legal Steps on Behalf of the Persons Charged with Abduction.

HEARING TOMORROW MORNING

Joseph Church, of Bull's Head, Has Interested Himself in Behalf of Serafina Canate and Simon Saehar and Obtained Writ of Habeas Corpus.

Application for a writ of habeas corpus was made before Judge Edwards yesterday in the interest of the Frenchman and Italian woman, who are charged with kidnaping a child from Montevideo, South America, and who were arrested by the police Friday night. Tomorrow morning was set for the hearing, and until that time the abductors will be under police surveillance at the St. Charles hotel.
Joseph Church, of the North End, instigated the proceedings on behalf of the accused, and engaged as counsel Hulslander & Voshburg and John M. Corbett, who applied for the writ. It is expected that the police department will have received by Wednesday from the Argentine consul general in New York city, to whom has been sent photographs of Saehar, Serafina Canate and the boy supposed to have been stolen.
Neither the woman nor the man has been answered from their former statement that Serafina is the boy's mother. The little fellow is very fond of her and she displays an intense affection for him. During their confinement they have been very orderly and have won the sympathy of many interested in the case.

YOU'LL HAVE TO WALK

Many a long mile before you will find Shoes to equal our new lines of Fall and Winter Footwear.
WE HAVE EVERY STYLE and quality that is first-class and desirable. Our prices are as low, if not lower, than you are paying for poorer Shoes.
OUR NEW RAZOR or Needle Toes for Ladies and Gentlemen are the perfection of the Shoemaker's art. They cut their way into favor with every one who sees them.
OUR CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT will prove attractive to parents who are looking for reliable Shoes at the lowest possible prices.
