The prospects of a big Republican majority in this borough at the election today are very favorable, and judging from present indications and the amount of interest taken, there will be a large vote cast. A number of candidates from both parties have been working zealously during the campaign to procure the support and votes of our citizens. The Republican workers have awakened renewed interest in the breasts of the Republican voters, and have caused them to comprehend the necessity of casting their ballots for protection and the future welfare and prosperity of the country, at the same time dealing a crushing blow to Democracy and the men who have plunged the country into its present serious and deplorable condition. Every Republican should see that his vote is properly cast for the men who will carry out his cherished principles. The polls are open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.

The German element of Taylor borough has successfully organized a new home company at Taylor, which will be known as the "First German Home company."
