Passing Events of the Day on the West Side of the City Noted.

VERY ORDERLY ELECTION DAY

Funeral of William Lydiatt from his Late Residence on Eymon Street—David F. Morgan is in the Field for Common Council.

Election day, as it was observed on this side yesterday, was a very enthusiastic one. The morning passed off quietly owing to the cold wave and slight drizzling snow which fell.

William Lydiatt Buried.

The funeral of William Lydiatt, the man who suddenly died in the hotel of George Wachen, on West Lackawanna avenue, Saturday evening, took place at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his late home on Eymon street.

Brief Notes of Interest.

Mrs. Thomas Coleman, of Wilkes-Barre, visited friends here yesterday. The funeral of the young child of Mr. and Mrs. Needham, of Eymon street, will occur this afternoon.

IN LOCAL THEATERS.

The sale of seats for Mrs. Langtry promises that she will be greeted by a large audience at the Frothingham tonight. "A Wife's Peril," which is considered the most popular in the Jersey Lilly's repertoire, has been commented upon favorably by the foreign press and is the play selected for tonight.

Herbert Cawthorn, the entertaining comedian who will present his new play, "A Cork Man," at the Frothingham Thursday night, has established himself as a comedian of the first order.

John Kernell will entertain the patrons of the Academy of Music Thursday night. He has a new play, "McFadden's Employment," which is described as a very amusing skit.

Friday and Saturday evenings that popular melodrama, "The Stowaway," will be given at the Academy of Music. It is a melodrama of the modern English school in which the incidents parade as actual fact and are made doubly impressive by realistic features that compel admiration.

The American Players are billed for three performances at the Frothingham this week. Friday and Saturday nights they will be seen in "The Count of Monte Christo," and at the Saturday afternoon matinee "La Tentation, or Les Astres."

WORK DONE BY LADIES.

Satisfactory Report Presented at the Y. W. C. A. Meeting Last Night. A special meeting of the Young Woman's Christian association was held last evening, when Miss Mary S. Dunn, state secretary, delivered an admirable address.

NORTH END BRIEFS.

H. P. Woodward, of Monsey avenue, has returned home from a visit with his brother in Hawley. Mrs. Thomas Parry and children, of Richmond, are visiting friends in this part of the city.

The Ladies Aid society of the Park Place Methodist Episcopal church will hold a communion tea in the church tomorrow evening. A souvenir will be presented all who are present.

Randolph Crippen and Nate Thompson returned home Monday from New York city, where they attended a horse sale during the past week.

Marla Jennings swore out a warrant before Alderman Bailey last Friday charging Patrick Polan, sr., Patrick Polan, jr., and Mrs. Mary Polan, all of Pine Brook, with having committed assault and battery on her.

The Elm City Register company, which has been looking for a location in Scranton, is now an assured industry, and a gentleman who is well informed in the matter said yesterday morning that it would be established on the Green Ridge flats. It is also probable that the factory building and machinery of the Gregory Silk Braid works will also be put to good use within a few weeks.

A great musical treat was given before an enthusiastic and large audience at the Providence Methodist Episcopal church last night, when Professor George E. Carter, of Elm Park church, gave an excellent organ recital.

The following report was read, showing the work for the past three months: Total daily attendance, 15,825; lunches served, 7,848; new members, 91; renewals, 79; number of socials, 21; number of religious meetings, 28; attendance at religious meetings, 981; cost of rent, 18; night's lodging furnished, 32; positions secured, 15; boarding places secured, 16; pupils enrolled, gymnasium, 136; English, 29; writing, 17; millinery, 17; needlework, 24; dress-cutting, 8; Chautauqua, 17; Bible, 46; total, 284; girls given week's vacation, 16. The report was regarded as very satisfactory.

Attention! To the Public. If you have purchased goods of us that was not as represented call at Davidlow Bros. We will make it satisfactory.

RACKED WITH PAIN.

Tortured with Rheumatism for a Quarter of a Century.

Relief Came at Last to the Patient Sufferer—How She Was Cured.

Sarah H. Smith, Pineville, Bucks County, Pa., says: "I was a great sufferer from rheumatism. I had the disease for over twenty-five years, and the torture I have undergone the past quarter of a century no pen could describe. Every attack I had, my entire body was racked with pain, and I was in a terrible condition. I tried doctor after doctor and every remedy that could be suggested, but all with the same result. None of them ever gave me the slightest relief. I had had the disease so long that it had become chronic when I began to use Munyon's Rheumatism Cure. It was not long before I felt a great deal better, and after using it a short time the rheumatism left me. I have not had a trace of it since, and am convinced that I am permanently cured."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, legs, sides, back or breast, or soreness in any part of the body in from one to three hours. It is guaranteed to promptly cure lameness, stiff and swollen joints, stiff back, and all pains in the hips and loins. Chronic rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago or pain in the back are speedily cured. Munyon's Homeopathic Home Remedy Company, of Philadelphia, put up specifics for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents a bottle.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Michael Stepenski and John Robuski Arrested for Theft.

FUNERAL OF JOHN DOUGHERTY

High Mass of Requiem Celebrated at St. John's Church and Interment Made in Hyde Park Catholic Cemetery. Other Items of News.

Yesterday afternoon Michael Stepenski and his brother-in-law, John Robuski, were arrested by Constable Thornton, of the Twentieth ward, on a warrant sworn out by Michael Judge, of the firm of Mulhern & Judge, lumber dealers, charging them with stealing lumber.

During the past two weeks many pieces of lumber have been stolen from a house on Stone avenue, which is being erected by Mulhern & Judge, and the firm found it necessary to employ a watchman at the building. Monday evening the watchman secreted himself and watched for the thieves. Shortly before midnight he discovered the two Poles on their regular visit to the lumber piles.

The appearance of the watchman so astounded them that they stood in amazement and admitted their guilt. Before Alderman O'Malley they each entered bail to appear at court.

Funeral of John Dougherty.

The funeral of the late James Dougherty took place from the family residence on Irving avenue yesterday morning and was attended by a multitude of friends. A solemn high mass was sung at St. John's church by Rev. Father Walsh, who preached an eloquent funeral sermon. He spoke consolingly of the virtues and peaceful disposition of the deceased. Resting on the casket were many beautiful floral designs. The remains were laid to rest in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

General News Notes.

The Star Dancing class will conduct a social at Germania hall Nov. 14. Michael Golden, of Palm street, leaves today for a short visit with his parents in Ireland. G. A. Miller, the Cedar avenue liverman, received two handsome new coaches yesterday. John McGraw, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, is visiting his parents on South Washington avenue. One evening last week the chicken of Thomas Barrett, of Gibbons street, was entered by thieves and about twenty chickens were taken. The Rubens Foot Ball team will line up against the eleven representing the Scranton business college on the Stillwater grounds Friday afternoon. The funeral of Frank, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dolan, of Genet street, took place yesterday afternoon. Burial was made in Minozka Catholic cemetery. The attendance at St. Paul's church fair last evening was the largest since the opening night. Many valuable and beautiful household articles were disposed of. This evening a musical programme will be one of the features.

RAN AWAY FROM HOME.

Three Allentown Youngster Wanted Food and Sleep. There wandered into the office of Mrs. Duggan, Associated Charities agent, Monday a wan-faced lad about 19 years old, who said he was hungry and tired and wanted aid. Later investigation led to the belief that the boy is the same who ran away from his home in Allentown several weeks ago and whose description has been sent by circular to the police of many cities. The lad gave the name of Chapin and appears slightly demented. Do you need glasses? Do your eyes hurt you? Come to us. We examine eyes free of charge. Davidlow Bros.

Scranton's Business Interests.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES ARE DESIGNATED in this edition and explain its nature more fully. Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notices at the office.

SHAUN RICE LAST NIGHT.

Received with Much Enthusiasm at the Frothingham. "Shaun Rice" was produced at the Frothingham last night in a manner that called forth the warmest applause.

In the title role Mr. Murphy was equally as clever as he had been on the previous night in "The Kerry Gow," and his company gave him splendid support.

Between the acts the election returns, local and general, were read from the stage and were awaited with quite a much interest as the development of the plot of the play.

The Driving Park lots will be opened to the public some day next week. The date will be given in Tribune later. Best facilities offered, such as street railways, gas and water, etc. Watch The Tribune for the date of opening.

The $40,000 School House for Columbia avenue has been let and will be commenced immediately. There are still a few more lots left at a low price.

G. S. Maloney expects to sell out his stock and go out of the shoe business in a short time. He will deal in other lines of goods.

Thomas McDonnell, of Pine street, dropped dead at his home yesterday morning while making preparations to go to the polls to vote.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Silabe gave an enjoyable and informal dinner at their residence at Madisonville. The following guests were present: Mrs. Lucinda Ives, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ives, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ives, W. M. Ives, Mrs. Keen, of Madisonville; Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Ives, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ives, George Ives, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Fritz, of Scranton.

Dominick Hastings, of Sport Hill, met with what might have been a very serious or fatal accident at the Corners yesterday. Mr. Hastings was engaged with his team and three-seated light wagon in bringing in the untried voters to the polls. He had just arrived at the polling place at the Second ward, Second district, with a load of voters.

They all alighted, and Mr. Hastings started to go after another load. In turning around the wagon was upset, throwing Mr. Hastings out and under the wagon. The team started to run, but were soon caught. Mr. Hastings was picked up and taken into O'Donnell's hotel. He was not so seriously injured as he was thought to have been, and soon left for home after another load.
