RESOLVED

Resolved, That we continue to hold our beloved brother in the bonds of unfeigned respect and affection, and wish him in his new sphere of ministerial activities, the greatest prosperity and the richest benediction of our gracious Father in Heaven. NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Death of Mrs. Philip Roche of Fig Street After a Short Illness.

HIS SUFFERING IS NOW OVER

Charles Art, One of the Pioneers of the South Side, Passes Away—His Funeral Will Take Place Saturday Afternoon—Other Notes.

Mrs. Williams' Horsewhip. She Used It with Vigor Publicly on Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Morton Last Night.

Much excitement was created at Washington avenue and Pine street last night by a colored lady, who horsewhipped Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Morton, of Hitecock court, who are also colored. Mrs. Williams is a large woman, and for some time past she has been annoyed by the circulation of stories injurious to her reputation. One of these stories of a particularly offensive character she charges Mrs. Morton with circulating. She resolved to be revenged and last night visited Mr. and Mrs. Morton as they were on their way home from the Howard Place church. As they approached, Mrs. Williams came down on Mrs. Morton with her whip and then turned to Mr. Morton and administered several blows to him before bystanders intervened. Mrs. Williams broke away from those who held her, but Mr. and Mrs. Morton escaped before she could attack them again.

SIMPLY A CARICATURE.

Cordella's Aspirations Not Well Received at the Academy. "Cordella's Aspirations" was presented at the Academy of Music last evening by a character study company. If Mr. Harrigan's claims to fame rested solely on that production of his pen it is not at all probable that his name would go ringing down the corridors of time. The characters are grossly overdrawn and overacted in most instances, and instead of being a character study, such as most of Harrigan's dramatic works are, it degenerates into a caricature. Mr. Harrigan might well shelve "Cordella's Aspirations."

NORTH END NOTES.

J. J. Bonner visited friends in Old Forge yesterday. Edward O'Malley, of Market street, is visiting friends in Mahanoy City. The Big Four Social club will hold their first social in O'Malley's hall on Friday evening. There will be a game of foot ball between the North End and the Pittston eleven in Park Place on Saturday afternoon. An important meeting of the Frank H. Clemons Republican club will be held in Roger's hall tomorrow evening. All members are requested to be present. Division No. 6 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians held a social in Armyory hall last night which was well attended. The grand march was led by James J. Grier and Miss Phillips. R. M. Maloney acted as prompter. Henry P. Davis, of the West Side, lectured in the Welsh Baptist church last evening to a large number on his visit to Denver, Pike's peak, and the Garden of the Gods in Colorado and Salt Lake City. He thinks that the country is indebted to the Mormons for reclaiming that section, which was formerly a sandy plain, and that any person who wishes to see some beautiful scenery should go to Colorado. An invitation was given him to deliver another lecture in the near future at Yellowstone Park and Salt Lake City. The lecture was held under the auspices of Carriadawn lodge, No. 2, of the Order of American True Iovites, of which order Mr. Davis is one of the oldest members and has been grand treasurer.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

Fresh oysters received daily at Palmer's market. Miss Millie Angwin, of Blakely street, and George Dainty will be married this evening. Mr. Watson, of Moscow, is visiting his son-in-law, A. P. McDonough, on Drinker street. Miss Diana Capwell, of Mill City, will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Packard, on Cherry street. The weekly prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church will be held this evening instead of Wednesday evening, the regular meeting night. Arthur Glenness and Miss Martha Hadden, both residents of this borough, were married last evening at the residence of the bride's parents. The funeral of Patrick McDonald will be held today at 2 o'clock at St. Mary's church. Mr. McDonald was 46 years of age. He leaves a widow and six children to mourn his loss. Frank Winters, Otto Bresser and Michael Early will spend today on a hunting trip at South Canaan. They say they will not return until they have thirty-six rabbits. Mr. and Mrs. George Englert, of Butler street, celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary last evening. Many invited guests were present and enjoyed a very pleasant time. Mr. and Mrs. Englert have hosts of friends that wish them a long life of happiness.
