NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

ARCHBALD.

Michael Dunn, one of our most esteemed citizens, died in the Medical Institute at Albany, N. Y., early on Tuesday morning. One week ago he entered that institution to be treated for diseased muscles resulting from a long standing wound in his right arm, and his death followed an operation for their removal which his weakened system was unable to endure. His remains were taken to his late residence on South Main street on Tuesday evening by his son, Peter, and brother-in-law, J. H. White, who were his bed-side attendants. Mr. Dunn was 56 years old. He was born in Troy, N. Y., but came to this valley when only a child, and he spent the greater part of his life in this borough. He served with distinction in the civil war and received the wound which ultimately caused his death at the storming of Fort Gregg, a few days before Lee's surrender. Although modest in referring to his part in the great domestic tragedy, Mr. Dunn took an active interest in matters relating to it, and was one of the most valued members of the Loyal Legion of the United States. Mr. Dunn also held several offices in this borough and had always discharged his duties faithfully and well. Mr. Dunn's death occasions general and sincere sorrow. It was impossible for him without admiring him for his rare good nature and his kind and generous disposition. Seldom, indeed, is there found in one person such a combination of good qualities as those illustrated in his life, for he was a faithful friend, a good citizen and an upright man. His funeral takes place this morning, a high mass of requiem will be sung in St. Thomas' church at 10 o'clock, and interment will be in the Catholic cemetery.

Yesterday afternoon P. J. Kearney, of South Main street, and Miss Ella Gillespie, of Pine street, were married in St. Thomas' church by Rev. T. J. Cramer. A high mass of requiem was celebrated by the same man in the dedication service of the First Congregational church of Vandling, which will be celebrated on or about Dec. 1. Mrs. James Mulally, who has been seriously ill, is on the road to recovery. The Forest City correspondent of the Carbonate Herald says: "Another invention by the same man is a piece of strong wire attached to the bottom of the lamp and the spout in such a manner that the lamp cannot be battered in that place, as the miners in raising the light of their lamps, knock it against some solid substance to jar the cotton up in the spout and give them more light. They cannot break it or burn it out in a reasonable time. The father of this patent is M. O'Keefe, a tinsmith at Vandling. Mathias Speicher, of Archbald, chief mechanic of the Delaware and Hudson company mine department, was at the colliery Sunday inspecting the boilers, which received their semi-annual cleaning. Mrs. James Nicol and son, R. B. Nicol, of Archbald, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nicol, Sunday.

VANDLING.

Dr. McGuire has been visiting his brother at Parsons. A choir has been organized here under the leadership of Richard Llewellyn for the purpose of taking part in the dedication service of the First Congregational church of Vandling, which will be celebrated on or about Dec. 1. Mrs. James Mulally, who has been seriously ill, is on the road to recovery. The Forest City correspondent of the Carbonate Herald says: "Another invention by the same man is a piece of strong wire attached to the bottom of the lamp and the spout in such a manner that the lamp cannot be battered in that place, as the miners in raising the light of their lamps, knock it against some solid substance to jar the cotton up in the spout and give them more light. Mathias Speicher, of Archbald, chief mechanic of the Delaware and Hudson company mine department, was at the colliery Sunday inspecting the boilers, which received their semi-annual cleaning. Mrs. James Nicol and son, R. B. Nicol, of Archbald, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nicol, Sunday.

JERMYN.

The infant child of Andrew Gavin died at an early hour Tuesday morning. The funeral of the late Nathan Buckingham, of Mayfield, whose death took place on Sunday afternoon after a long illness of asthma, was held in the Methodist Episcopal church here yesterday afternoon. The annual reception of the Blessed Virgin and Angels' sodalities will take place in Sacred Heart church next Sunday evening. Kate McAndrew, of the South Side, is dangerously sick with typhoid pneumonia. Her recovery is doubtful. George S. Dunn, station agent of the New York, Ontario and Western here, has resigned his position on Nov. 15, to accept a lucrative position with the Safety Investment and Loan company, of Syracuse, N. Y. Mr. Dunn has been agent for the Ontario and Western for four years. The vacancy will be filled by F. C. Walters, formerly agent at Dickson for the New York, Ontario and Western.

MAYFIELD.

A Mr. Bolton, in attempting to step off Conductor Cook's train last night, slipped and fell striking his head on the rail, rendering him, unconscious for a few minutes, but he recovered. Mrs. P. F. Hughes, of Carbondale, was a Mayfield visitor yesterday. T. Raddigan was in Scranton Wednesday morning. P. F. Kiker visited Jermyn last night. Mrs. Smith and son, Frank, are spending a few days at their former home at Foster. Our borough should be divided into two wards. It took until 4 a. m. yesterday to count the votes at one polling place.

MINOOKA.

Thomas Mullen, of Glenwood, is seriously ill. Mrs. Morris Mangin, of Old Forge, visited friends in this place yesterday. Mrs. James Hart, of Sayre, P., is visiting her brother, Thomas Burke, of Main street, and will remain for about two weeks. Mrs. Anthony Kerrigan and Mrs. Mularky, of Bellevue, visited Minooka friends yesterday. The recently organized branch of the Young Ladies' Irish Catholic Benevolent Union in this place will hold a meeting Saturday night at the Young Men's Institute hall to effect a permanent organization. The society consists of about forty-five of the most talented

CARBONDALE.

Announcement is made of the coming marriage of Mrs. Rena Brooks and H. E. May. The event will take place at the former's home on Wednesday evening of next week. An elopement, which took place yesterday, was among the sensations of the day. The eloping parties were Joseph A. Murry, of Kingston, who is a grandson of A. K. Fuller, of Terrace street, this city, and Miss Katherine Pidgeon, who resided with her sister at No. 28 Terrace street. The pair went to Binghamton, where they were united in marriage by Rev. Frank McDonald. Yesterday morning at 2:15 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church, occurred the funeral of the late Charles Rogers, the pastor, Rev. Charles Lee, officiated. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, of which organization the deceased was an active member, had charge of the funeral. The remains were taken by a special car over the Delaware and Hudson railroad to West Haven for interment. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bassett and guests and Lyman Smith were in Scranton last evening to witness the production of "A Wife's Peril," at the Frothingham, by Mrs. Lily Langtry. Miss Myrtle Tallman leaves for Scranton this morning, being called there by the illness of her mother. An accident occurred at the Powderly mine in this city yesterday afternoon which resulted in instant death of David D. Lewis, a miner and a resident of South Church street, and his son-in-law, David Stidger, was also a victim in the accident, having his back broken. The fatality was caused by a fall of roof rock. The deceased miner is survived by a wife and a large family of children.

HALLSTEAD.

E. R. W. Scaris, of Susquehanna, is in town today. Theodore Hays, James T. DuBois and E. F. Berstein, of this place, were in Scranton yesterday. The new Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot is nearly completed. Miss Julia Caden, of Dalton, is visiting in this place. The Uncle Tom's Cabin company will exhibit in Great Bend this evening, Nov. 8. Remember the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor convention to be held in the Baptist church in this place on Wednesday, Nov. 14. The Susquehanna County Sunday school convention will be held at Susquehanna on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 20 and 21. The Misses Adah and Grace Shaw, who have been visiting their brother in Buffalo, have returned home. Mrs. Clyde Stowell and Mrs. J. S. Crompton, of Great Bend, will go to Scranton to attend the Epworth league convention. Mrs. C. P. Elderkin, of Forest City, called on friends here the first of the week. J. H. Van Loan's house, on Church street, is nearly completed. Master Robert Lamb, who has been visiting his grandparents in Clifford, has returned home. Stephen Angler's store at Snake Creek was broken into Monday night and a quantity of dry goods and other small articles were taken. The thieves broke the safe all to pieces, but could not get to the money. The robbery was probably committed by the same gang who have been operating in this place and surrounding towns for some time past.

PITTSTON.

After blooded along these many years content as a borough the citizens of this town have at last awakened to the fact that Pittston had long since outgrown its limits as a borough and by their vote on Tuesday pronounced themselves as being in favor of a city of the third class. Although the majority—forty-six—is small considering the large vote polled, it is as good as if it were a thousand. For reasons best known to themselves the saloon and liquor men were vigorously opposed to the measure. The defeat of P. A. O'Boyle for district attorney was one of the greatest surprises, to both Republicans and Democrats alike, ever heard of. His election was conceded all along and when the result became known there were many who would not believe it. George Llewellyn, prothonotary-elect, is one of the most pleased men to be found, and is busy thanking his friends for the handsome vote given him. He authorizes the announcement that Mr. Sahn will be retained as deputy in the office, and that the chief clerkship will go to L. P. Holcomb, of West Pittston. The civil action of M. J. Langan against Councilman J. M. Tighe for $5,000 is set down for trial tomorrow. The hearing takes place before a board of commissioners in the arbitration room in the court house at 10 o'clock. Among those subpoenaed to appear as witnesses are A. B. Cutler, John Conwell, Charles Taylor, Arnold Cohen, G. B. Resp and J. M. Patsy. Mr. Langan will be represented by John T. Lenahan and C. Frank Bohan. Mr. Tighe has retained James Lenahan.

MAYFIELD.

It took until 4 a. m. yesterday to count the votes at one polling place.

MOOSIC.

Robert Murrow, a miner employed in Mudtown shaft, Pennsylvania Coal company, was killed by a fall of rock yesterday morning (Wednesday). He leaves a wife and family. Peter McNally had a leg broken by the same fall of rock. Seth Hoover, of Bradford county, is calling on friends in town. Herbert J. Copp and Esther Parfrey were united in marriage yesterday. They will commence housekeeping in Ed. Ives' house on the flats. Choir practice this evening at the Methodist Episcopal church. After practice the committee will meet to make arrangements for the Christmas entertainment.

CHINESE FLEET IN A TRAP

Liable to Fall into the Hands of the Mikado's Marines.

JAPAN'S PEACE CONDITIONS

The Little Nation Proposes to Have the Difficulties Settled in a Manner That Will Prevent Future Friction—Chinese Soldiers Deserting.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. London, Nov. 7. A despatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Choo Foo, says the Japanese land and sea forces made a simultaneous and vigorous attack upon Port Arthur. The Chinese fleet is inside the harbor. The correspondent of the Central News at Shanghai says rumors are persistently circulated there that the Japanese squadron is in Port Arthur. If these rumors are founded on fact, it must be that the fleet went there under orders received direct from Peking, as Li-Hung Chang would never have allowed the squadron to be caught in such a rat trap. The Chinese report that the Japanese are rapidly advancing in the rear of Port Arthur and that a strong Japanese fleet, including thirty torpedo boats, is outside the harbor. It is expected that Port Arthur and the Chinese fleet will fall into the hands of the enemy. Japanese reports from New-Chang state that deserters from the Chinese army are arriving there by fifties, and that a great panic exists among the Chinese, hundreds of whom are leaving by every steamer. The Japanese flying squadron is reported to be a hundred miles off New-Chang, and the Chinese there are re-shipping their goods, considering it unsafe to remain there during the winter. It is understood that one of Japan's conditions of peace will be the founding of a buffer state between China and Korea.

A CHOCTAW EXECUTED.

Bungling Work of the Sheriff of South McLeister, L. T. By the United Press. South McLeister, Nov. 7.—Silas Lewis, the condemned Choctaw murderer, was shot at Wilberton at 10 o'clock yesterday morning by Sheriff Pursley. The bullet from the sheriff's Winchester missed the condemned man's heart, passing through his body an inch above the nipple, and he had to be strangled to his sufferings. Sheriff Pursley anticipated trouble, having just before the execution received a letter from Lewis' friends threatening vengeance, and had over 100 heavily armed deputies at the scene. Arriving at the place of execution, Lewis offered up a prayer, following it with a short talk. He then pulled off his coat, vest and boots, and the sheriff painted a cross just above his heart. Lewis then sat down and was blindfolded. While two men held his hands, the sheriff retraced his steps and fired. The bullet went clean through the murderer's body, but had missed its mark, and Lewis, throwing back his head, sank groaning to the ground, the blood spurting from the wound. To end the horrible work, the sheriff was finally compelled to take hold of the man's nose and smother him to death. He lived thirty minutes after being shot. Twenty-six other Indians are under indictment for the same murder, which Lewis was executed. When they come to trial trouble is anticipated, as their sympathizers are aroused. Lewis was 54 years old. He had been given frequent chances to escape, because of the sheriff's dread of carrying out the law, but refused to take advantage of them.

FRENCH LEAVE MADAGASCAR.

Preparatory to the Breaking Up of War Between the Two Countries. By the United Press. Tamatave, Madagascar, Nov. 7.—The Hova government having refused to grant the demands of France, M. Le Myre de Villeville, the special French envoy to Madagascar, and all the French residents of Antananarivo have arrived at Tamatave from the capital of Madagascar. The French warship Hugonin is steaming around the coast of Madagascar in order to pick up French refugees. All the British residents of Antananarivo will return there, as the Hova government has promised them full protection.

WAR ON YANKEE CATTLE.

German Agrarians Anxious to Rub It in on the Importers. By the United Press. Berlin, Nov. 7.—The Agrarian League has presented a memorial to Chancellor von Hohenlohe requesting him to exclude all American cattle shipped to Germany Oct. 28. The memorial demands that the cattle be returned to the United States, and that after unloading the ships that brought them to Germany be quarantined. The object of the memorial is to brand ex-Chancellor von Caprivi's decree as defective and so avoid being compelled to acknowledge that von Caprivi had the welfare of Agrarians at heart. Though the efforts of Theodore Runyon, the American ambassador, to obtain a repeal of the measure forbidding the importation of American cattle have failed, further attempts will be made to arrive at an understanding.

Hood's Saved My Life

I Can Honestly Say This. "For years I was in a very serious condition with catarrh of the stomach, bowels and bladder. I suffered intensely from dyspepsia, and in fact was a miserable wreck, merely a skeleton. I seemed to go from bad to worse. I really wished I was dead. I had no rest day or night. I did not know what to do. I had taken so much medicine of the wrong kind that it had poisoned me, and my finger nails began to turn black and come off. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had faith in the medicine and it did more for me than all prescriptions. I have gradually regained perfect health, am entirely free from catarrh of the bowels, and pain in my back. My recovery is simply marvelous." W. R. Young, Potter's Mills, Pa.
