

SOLID SOUTH IS NO MORE

Four States Are Freed from the Rule of Democracy.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS BURIED

Later Returns Swell the Republican Majorities at Every Hand--Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee and North Carolina in Line.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

New York, Nov. 8. The effect of the popular uprising against the administration of free trade has been emphasized by later election returns from every source. It is now evident that the Republican majority sentiment will be much larger than was expected by the most sanguine yesterday.

The Federalists carried the judicial and state ticket in North Carolina and six congressional districts, and the result in the other three districts is doubtful.

Missouri, Kentucky and Tennessee have also severed the bonds that united them with the solid south and have joined hands with the progressive party of industry and home protection.

Among the noted Democratic leaders who have been turned down are Chairman Wilson, of West Virginia, Messrs. Bland, Hatch and De Armond, of Missouri; Bynum and Holman, of Indiana; Springer, of Illinois, and Tom L. Johnson, of Ohio. The Populists lose Jerry Simpson in Kansas.

The United States senate will probably be made up as follows: Republicans, 42; Democrats, 41, and Populists, 5.

The Fifty-fourth Congress. A careful compilation of the next house according to the latest returns is as follows:

BAYARD'S BAD COUNSEL

He Advises the Democrats to Make All the Mistake Possible While They Remain in Power.

By the United Press. Baltimore, Md., Nov. 8.—Ambassador Thomas F. Bayard, speaking today about Tuesday's election, said: "I have had grave apprehension as to the result of the recent elections for some time. It was by no means an absolute surprise to me."

The ambassador said that he had no idea that the change of power was lasting or even meant to be lasting. "I do not want to run afoul of those gentlemen who were responsible for the delay in the passage of the tariff bill, but, as I say, the path of duty is unmistakable, and the necessity for pure Democratic tariff legislation was never so great as it is now. The bills for free raw materials should be passed immediately, and then the country will be able to contemplate the Democratic idea of the tariff in full working order for two years before another national election rolls around. If this is done, I have little fear that the verdict will be satisfactory in 1896."

HART IS ELECTED.

Pennsylvania Will Send Two Democratic Congressmen.

By the United Press. Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—The full official vote in the Eleventh congressional district is as follows: Northampton, Kirkpatrick, Republican, 9,172; Hart, Democrat, 8,495. Monroe, Kirkpatrick, 1,229; Hart, 2,260. Pike, Kirkpatrick, 651; Hart, 972. Carbon, Kirkpatrick, 5,522; Hart, 4,665. Total, Kirkpatrick, 14,567; Hart, 14,762. Hart's plurality, 197.

JOHNNY BULL IS RUFFLED.

The Triumph of Protection Is Not Relished by Mr. Wilson's English Chums.

By the United Press. London, Nov. 8.—The afternoon papers of this city continue the comments upon the recent elections in the United States.

The Westminster Gazette says: While McKinley has triumphed and Wilson has been defeated, the decision of West Virginia must be a source of great regret to many Englishmen. Wilson is a man of high character and broad views, and his non-success is a distinct loss to congress."

The Globe remarks: "The main cause of the Democratic collapse was the pitiable weakness displayed by that party over tariff reform. The Republicans will make a profound mistake if they interpret their astounding victory as a

RECEIVERS AND TRAINMEN

Important Case of Interest to Members of Railroad Societies.

GENERAL OLNEY TAKES A HAND

He Holds That as the Reading Road Is Now in the Control of the Court, Receivers Have no Right to Force Hands to Quit Brotherhood.

By the United Press.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8. The fight which the Reading railroad receivers have begun to force their employees to renounce all allegiance to the Brotherhood of Trainmen, or else retire from their present employment, assumed national importance and interest today. The case came up under argument before Judge Dallas in the United States circuit court in this city, upon the Brotherhood's appeal to the court to prevent the receivers, as officers of the court, from dividing the trainmen out of their order or else out of work.

In this connection a letter of advice from United States Attorney General Olney, taking sides with the men and against the receivers, was presented and was finally submitted by counsel for the trainmen as a part of his argument in their behalf.

Upon this point Lawyer Samuel Dickson, an attorney for the Reading receivers, attacked the attorney general severely for what he termed an unwarranted and utterly unprecedented outside interference with a case on argument and awaiting decision in a court of justice.

Before permitting Attorney General Olney's letter to be submitted even as a part of the argument of Lawyer Montague, of Washington, D. C. for the trainmen, Judge Dallas explained that he had received, but had not yet read, a copy of the letter and would not do so until it should come before him as part of the proceedings.

Argument in the case was finished today and Judge Dallas will render his decision in a few days.

Mr. Olney's Letter. Mr. Olney submits that the receivers of the road are wrong in this policy. He expresses a belief that Mr. Harris evidently forgets that the road is not in control of the company itself, but in the hands of the court. He put the question as being: "Will the court lay down the rule that members of the Brotherhood of Trainmen shall, because they are such members, be discharged from the service of the road?"

He says it cannot be ruled that there is no such thing as a legal strike. He reviewed the company's rule from the standpoint of business expediency, upon which the court would have to pass. This, he said, involved the right of labor to organize for the settlement of differences.

Any action by the court, he said, might work mischief and unfair confidence in the impartiality or capacity of the judiciary. He said that the mischief apprehended was probably in the future.

In summing up he said the rule is of doubtful value as a strike preventative, and when the court is the employer, it is positively injurious in engendering dislikes.

LIKE A TALE BY DUMAS. Mysterious Sailors Visit Florida and Dig Up Buried Treasure.

By the United Press. St. Augustine, Fla., Nov. 8.—A large foreign rigged sloop was sighted off a coast about sunset last Sunday night and twice since that. She has come into the harbor and a portion of her crew came ashore, but only for a few minutes. They were Spaniards apparently, but they spoke no nobody. Last night ten of them came ashore with picks, shovels, crowbars, etc., and dug up a large iron chest, supposed to be filled with treasure, on the old Christoval property, bounded by the Hospital, Charlotte, Fravo and Bridge streets. Mrs. Reddick, who lives on the premises, not knowing what the men were doing, appeared with a shot gun and drove them off, but not until they had loaded the box, which required several men to carry it, into a vehicle.

No trace of the men, who were under a gray-bearded leader, can be found—nothing but some old pottery, an iron hook and one silver coin was left by them.

The sloop left at daylight for the south. She is supposed to have carried the party to Santo Domingo, where the heirs of the original owner of the property, Davine, lives. A magnolia tree planted by the mother of Mrs. General Blake seventy years ago was taken for bearings to the location of the buried treasure, which the party seemingly understood. All their measurements before they began digging were taken from this tree.

LIGHT ON THE SUBJECT. The Meaning of Thanksgiving Day Is Explained to College Students.

By the United Press. Easton, Pa., Nov. 8.—As there will be no foot ball game between Princeton and Yale in New York city on Thanksgiving Day, this year, the managers of the field have been making an effort for a game to be played on that day between the Lafayette college and Brown university teams.

The students of Lafayette favored such a game, but the faculty would not permit it, President Warfield explaining that Thanksgiving day, having been set apart by the civil authorities as a day for the public recognition of the goodness of God to our country, and having for many years been consecrated to the purpose, and as a family festival, it is highly improper that a college founded for the education of youth in the principles of good morals should do anything to lower the traditions or undermine the public regard for such a day.

STATE NEWS NOTES. Resting on his gun barrel while conversing near Mahanoy City, Peter Brobst was killed by the discharge of the weapon.

The national convention of the Non-Partisan Woman's Christian Temperance union will meet at Washington on Nov. 13 and 14.

Having been erected subsequent to the split in the Evangelical church, the $22,000 edifice at Fleetwood, Berks county, will not be yielded up to Rev. W. K. Wiesel, of the victorious faction.

THE VANDERBILT DIVORCE

A Monetary Adjustment Said to Have Been Made.

SHE IS TO GET THREE MILLION

William K.'s Generosity—Had Given a Great Deal to the Smith Girls—The Wife's Suit Will Not Be Opposed by the Husband.

By the United Press.

New York, Nov. 8. Upon good authority it is reported here that an arrangement has been made between Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt by which the wife will get her divorce and something like $3,000,000. She is now in Newport, where she will continue to live until she acquires the legal residence necessary to procure a divorce. There appears to be no doubt that she intends to sue for divorce, and it is said Mr. Vanderbilt will not contest the suit.

W. K. Vanderbilt, who is now in Europe, is expected to arrive here the latter part of this month, or the first of December. Business is responsible for Mr. Vanderbilt's coming to New York.

An intimate friend of the Vanderbilt family who is in a position to know of the affairs of W. K. Vanderbilt said today:

"It is no secret that Mrs. Vanderbilt will seek a divorce from her husband and it has for some time been known that the conditions upon which the proceeding would be taken have been under consideration for some time past. Mrs. Vanderbilt at first asked for an annuity of $300,000. She has finally agreed to accept $3,000,000 outright. I do not believe Mr. Vanderbilt will defend a suit for divorce no matter what allegations may be made. The sympathies of the Vanderbilt family are entirely with William K. in this matter. Mrs. Vanderbilt was never a favorite in the family, and since the cruise of the W. K. Vanderbilts in the steam yacht Yachtsman which her husband built, furnished with a large iron chest, supposed to be filled with treasure, on the old Christoval property, bounded by the Hospital, Charlotte, Fravo and Bridge streets. FUNERAL OF THE EMPEROR

Services Over the Body of the Czar Before Removal from Livadia.

VERY IMPOSING PROCESSION

Nicholas, the Czarina and the Prince and Princess of Wales Accompany the Remains on the Journey to Sebastopol—The Ceremonies at Yalta.

By the United Press.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 8. The most solemn of religious services were held at noon yesterday in the church at Livadia, to which the body of Alexander III was removed the previous night. Masses were said in the presence of the body. The services were attended by Emperor Nicholas II, the czarina and the Prince and Princess of Wales, the representatives of various foreign powers and many others. At the conclusion of the services, and after the royal visitors present and the troops had viewed the body, the populace were formed in line and filed past the coffin to take a last look at their dead ruler.

The cortege left the church at 8 o'clock. The procession was headed by the chief of the palace police and the master of ceremonies, both mounted, followed by a numerous troop of soldiers, including the Crimean division, composed of Cossacks; then followed long files of servants of the imperial family, footmen and domestics. Next in line were representatives of the Zemstvo, or district assembly, the municipal authorities, the public schools and the public institutions of the Yalta district. Immediately behind them came the clergy, bearing lighted candles; then followed the coffin, borne by members of the imperial body guard and sailors from the imperial yachts. The cortege proceeded on foot from Livadia to Yalta, a distance of two miles along the coast.

Following the coffin came the czar and his suite, the Prince of Wales and the Russian grand dukes, then the czarina and the grand dukes in coaches. The entire route of the procession was lined with troops.

Upon the arrival of the cortege at Yalta, prayers were offered for the repose of the soul of the dead emperor and a salute was fired from the shore and from the ships in the harbor. The coffin was then placed on board the cruiser Pinnat Merkooria and the journey to Sebastopol was begun. The cruiser will be escorted by the iron clad Twelve Apostles and the cruiser Oriol. Sebastopol, Nov. 8.—The cruiser Pinnat Merkooria, bearing the body of Alexander III, arrived here this afternoon amid the firing of salutes and the tolling of bells. The funeral train started northward at once. High military officers will guard the body throughout the journey to St. Petersburg.

MIKE KELLY DEAD. The Celebrated Base Ball Player Succumbs to Pneumonia.

By the United Press. Boston, Nov. 8.—Mike Kelly, the base ball player, died here tonight at the Emergency hospital. He came here Monday morning to join the London Gaiety Girls theatrical company, and was taken sick that morning with pneumonia.

He rallied Monday evening, but since then has been failing until his death tonight.

Mike Kelly was probably the best known base ball player in America. He first came into prominence as a catcher several years ago when the managers of the Boston Base Ball club desired to have paid the Chicago club $100,000 for his release. He subsequently became identified with the theatrical profession. His last appearance in the base ball field was as captain and manager of the Allentown club in the Pennsylvania State league.

FLASHED FROM THE WIRES. Burglars ransacked County Treasurer C. F. Aycock, at Harrison, Ark., and looted the safe, getting little booty.

From wounds received from bullet-box thieves, Gus Colander, a Chicago election judge, died in a hospital.

Firing upon a crowd of children who were annoying him, Philip Rodenburg, a New York jeweler, shot Kate Boyer, aged 13, in the leg.

Carl Feigenbaum was yesterday at New York found guilty of murder in the first degree in killing Mrs. Julia Hoffman in September last.
