CITY NOTES.

Gentlemen's Driving Club races Saturday, 2 p. m. The members of St. Leo's battalion of the West Side, attended the fair of St. John's congregation at Music hall last night. County Treasurer D. W. Powell has removed from North Summer avenue to his new residence at Clay avenue and Linden street. John J. Manning, of Susquehanna county, was yesterday admitted to practice in the several courts of Lackawanna county. The Keystone Republican club will meet next Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the rooms of the Central Republican club. The meeting will be an important one. On account of the bad weather the game between the professional ball players of this vicinity which was to have been played at Hogan park today, has been postponed. Marriage licenses were granted yesterday by the clerk of the courts to John H. G. Dainy and Amelia T. Augvino, of Dunmore; John Kiggannon and Julia Marpell, Carbondale. David Hughes and William Watkins yesterday, through their attorneys, Ward & Horn, filed their answer in the equity suit instituted against them by the Delaware and Hudson Canal company. The Asbury Herald, the monthly organ of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church, is a bright number for November and contains much valuable information with regard to the work of that denomination. In the November number of "Young Men," the paper of the Young Men's Christian association, Secretary Mahy makes spirited reply to the charge that the association building was only patronized by young men of leisure, who did not need the privileges of membership. The article should be read by those interested in the work. Gentlemen's Driving club races Saturday, 2 p. m. Fabel's Milwaukee Beer, cool and sparkling, at Lohman's, Spruce street. COMEDIAN JOHN KERNELL. His Company of Clever Variety People Received with Favor. "McFadden's Elopiement," with Comedian John Kernell as interpreter of the title role, was presented to a fair sized audience at the Academy of Music last night. Kernell is still the natural and effervescent delineator of Irish character that first made him famous, and which characterized his late brother, Harry, such an extensive popularity. What is lacking in the plot of "McFadden's Elopiement" is compensated in the ability of the company. Their clever variety specialties save the farce from the death its name deserves and satisfied last night's audience. THAT SHADOW EXHIBITION. Interesting Entertainment Given in Y. M. C. A. Hall Last Evening. A crowd of about fifteen witnessed a novel entertainment at the Young Men's Christian Association hall last night, when the members of the gymnasium gave an excellent exhibition of their work. Shadow gymnastics were the main feature of the evening and the different feats were loudly applauded. The programme comprised fancy club swinging, wrestling, horizontal bar, fancy dumbbell drill, jumping athletes, heavy-weight tug-of-war, etc. Professor Weston is to be congratulated upon the good results achieved by his pupils. CARD FROM MANAGER DAVIS. He Has Closed His House for Remainder of Week. To the Public: For the first time in the history of my house, I am obliged to close my doors from Thursday evening for the remainder of the week. I feel this to be due to my patrons, who would not be pleased to witness such a performance as was presented on Thursday afternoon. On Monday afternoon we shall open with "Wild Rose," an excellent play, which I have already witnessed. GEORGE E. DAVIS, Manager Davis' Theater. Car of Apples for Sale. A car of choice, hand-picked apples are for sale today at the Erie and Wyoming street, Washington avenue.

HEART FAILURE THE CAUSE.

Result of the Inquest Regarding the Death of William Lydiatt. The adjourned inquest as to the death of William Lydiatt, late of Eynon street, was held at the court house last night, the jury being Dr. F. S. Douglas, Dr. D. G. Beckwith, Undertaker W. Taylor, John O'Meara and G. A. Williams. William Wuench said that the deceased and an elderly woman came to his hotel on Saturday night and were supplied with a lunch and drinks. His attention was called to the deceased, who was ill; they carried him out on a chair and in a short time he expired. Joseph Siler, bar tender, said he served the drinks, but deceased did not drink his beer. He did not know the woman and could not say where she escaped to. She was rather shabbily dressed and they had no quarrel in the saloon. William Evans, of 333 North Summer avenue, saw the couple coming into the house; the woman gave them to understand that she was the wife of the deceased and told them not to worry over his illness, as he was subject to faintness. After the doctor was called and the man was pronounced dead the woman ran away through the garden. The jury returned a verdict that death was caused by failure of the heart and that no suspicion was attached to the unknown woman. NO ONE TO BLAME. Joseph Noonan Met His Death in a Purely Accidental Manner Was the Conclusion the Coroner's Jury Arrived At. On Saturday, Oct. 27, Joseph Noonan, of Bellevue, was instantly killed in a trench that had been made to lay a sewer in Mineral street, Seventh ward. The sides of the ditch fell in while Mr. Noonan was working in it, and several hours later his lifeless body was dug out and removed to his home. The cause of the accident was somewhat of a mystery. One statement made was that the sides of the ditch were insufficiently protected, but this was denied by Ferguson & Rooney, the contractors who were laying the sewer. They asserted that the accident was caused by the bursting of a water main in the bottom of the trench. The officials of the Gas and Water company declared that such a statement was absurd and that it was beyond the range of probabilities that the main had burst in the manner suggested by Ferguson & Rooney. Coroner Kelly summoned a jury and the body of Joseph Noonan was consigned to mother earth. The jury met and heard evidence, but could not agree upon a verdict, and after several hours debate an adjournment was taken. Then the jury met again without the knowledge of the coroner, but that did not help matters any for the members were again unable to agree. The third meeting of the jury was held last night, and after considerable discussion the members decided that Joseph Noonan came to his death accidentally, and that no one was to blame. Then the jurors separated. QUIET HOME WEDDING. Miss Augusta Wright Married to William J. Lewers. A very quiet wedding took place last evening at the home of Alderman O. H. Wright, on Madison avenue, where his daughter, Miss Augusta, was married to William J. Lewers, of Wilkes-Barre. The wedding was quite informal. Rev. Dr. C. E. Robinson, of the Second Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony. Miss Corie Aberton, of North Main avenue, was maid of honor, and John H. Tonkin best man. The bride was dressed in white silk tulle, point lace trimming, with bridal roses, and the maid of honor in blue brocade silk and carried carnations. The wedding was attended only by relatives and near friends. The rooms were prettily arranged with flowers and other decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Lewers' bridal party left on the southern-bound train for Philadelphia and Washington, and after an extended wedding trip, will reside in Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Lewers is employed in the engineering department of the Susquehanna Coal company at Wilkes-Barre. Those present at the wedding from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Coolbaugh and Harry Ward, of Rahway, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wills Merriam, of Waverly, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ashton, William Keller, Miss Anna Lewers and Miss Sophia Heckman, of Easton; Dr. and Mrs. Howell of Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. C. S. Briggs, of Daiton; the Misses Sherman, of Waverly; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Snyder and Miss Snyder, of Avoca. CAWTHORN AS A CORK MAN. Appeared at the Frothingham Last Night Before a Small Audience. "A Cork Man," as produced by Herbert Cawthorn and company, amused a small audience at the Frothingham last night. The atmosphere in the house was very cold and the lightly clad, red nosed maidens who scampered about the stage looked far from comfortable. Mr. Cawthorn, as J. M. Looney, was the same mirth provoking individual as of yore, and he was assisted by a competent company that included several clever specialty artists. "A Cork Man" is superior to many of the farce comedies now before the public. CASE OF MYSTERY. Not a Hansom Cab Episode, but the Police Are Silent. A well dressed and apparently respectable prisoner was confined in the central police station yesterday. He was arrested on a warrant issued by Alderman Wright, but the cause of his arrest and other particulars the authorities refuse to give to the public at this time. The prisoner claims to be identified with a building and loan association in this city, where he has resided but a short time. He alleges that his arrest was caused through malice and concerns a business transaction of less than $50. A deputy constable from Lancaster arrived in the city last night and today will take the accused to that place, where he is wanted for embezzlement.

BALLOTS BEING COUNTED

Work of Compiling Them Was Begun Yesterday Afternoon. IT MAY BE COMPLETED TODAY

Exact Figures Can Then Be Obtained Regarding the Number of Votes That Were Cast for Clemons, Bailey, Davies and Schadt.

The official counting of votes cast in the county at Tuesday's election began at the court house yesterday at 1.30 p. m. before Judge Edwards in the main court room. The recording clerks were T. F. Penman, G. D. Taylor and P. W. Stokes; file clerks, H. W. Mulholland, W. F. Boyle, B. F. Akers and C. S. Woodruff; reading clerks, R. H. Holgate, David J. Davies, G. M. Watson and C. W. Dawson. Judge Edwards opened court precisely at 1.30, and the official returns were read in alphabetical order, beginning with A. A. Archibald, in a township, northwest district, the sealed and unsealed returns did not tally in the case of Mr. Schadt, and 199 votes were recorded in place of 114 votes announced in the published lists. In Carbondale city, First ward, Third district, four votes were deducted from the record of Collins, Democrat, candidate for congressman at large. Will Bring in Ballot Box. Considerable time was taken with the returns from Carbondale city, Sixth ward, First district. The Republican vote averaged about 175 and the recording clerk was announcing the figures as already published from the unsealed returns, when he was interrupted by Judge Edwards, who was reading from the sealed returns, which differed from the one in reading clerk's possession to the extent of fifty-eight votes. Considerable discussion took place as to the difference, and the returns for the district were left incomplete and an order made for the production of the ballot box in court this morning, when the ballots and return from the district will be examined in detail. One vote was also deducted in the returns from Dunmore, Fifth ward, which was taken from Mr. Clemons' list. The Democrats claim the returns from the Sixth ward of Carbondale, when properly adjusted in court today, will insure the election of James G. Bailey and Charles Schadt, and Mr. Bailey and Mr. Schadt were confident that the figures as first announced will stand. What the Democrats Claim. When court adjourned it was claimed by the attorneys representing the Democratic candidates that Mr. Bailey had a majority of ten, while Mr. Schadt had a majority of 109. Mr. Clemons' friends said that he had a "good, snug majority" and his election was sure, while the friends of Mr. Davies had not by any means lost hope of his election. The court will meet at 9 o'clock a. m. today, when the ballot box from the Sixth ward of Carbondale will be examined, after which the count will be resumed. Last evening when court adjourned the count had proceeded as far as Elmhurst borough. It will take all night possibly a considerable portion of Saturday to complete the count. F. H. Clemons, James G. Bailey and Charles Schadt were in court yesterday and watched the progress of the count intently. Mr. Clemons and Mr. Davies are represented by Attorneys James H. Torrey, H. C. Reynolds and Taylor & Lewis, and Mr. Bailey and Mr. Schadt by Attorneys Lemuel Amerman, Joseph O'Brien, C. C. Donovan and M. F. Sando. What the Figures Show. The court room was well filled yesterday all day by persons who watched the work of compiling the returns with great interest. Much figuring of an unofficial character was done by Democrats and Republicans, and both parties succeeded in figuring out pluralities for sheriff and treasurer. These pluralities were small and no two just alike. The exact result will not be known until the official count is completed. Unofficial figuring based on the returns so far as they have been compiled, in connection with the unsealed returns in the Prothonotary's office, would indicate that the vote stands as follows: Sheriff. Clemons ..... 12,611 Bailey ..... 12,513 Treasurer. Schadt ..... 12,862 Davis ..... 12,838 Schadt's plurality ..... 24 These figures are given for what they are worth. The official count may change them materially. Down to Business Again. The defeated Democratic candidates were in evidence about the court house yesterday. District Attorney Kelly was engaged for the greater part of the day with the grand jury and was as affable and pleasant as if the result of Tuesday's election had been different. Defeat had not apparently soured him in the least. "We ran against a land slide and couldn't expect anything else, I suppose," he said, "but not allowing the defeat to worry me." Down in the sheriff's office John J. Fahey appeared at his desk early in the day and made an attack on the business that had accumulated during the heat of the campaign. He had a pleasant word for his callers and entertained them with picturesque descriptions of incidents of the campaign. He was disposed to take his defeat philosophically, and remarked to his friends that reverses must be expected every now and then. During the afternoon James J. Healey, who was defeated for a reelection to the office of recorder of deeds by Charles Heuster, dropped into the sheriff's office. It was plainly evident that the result had been a disappointment to him. Will Not Run Again. "Will you be a candidate again," asked Sheriff Fahey. "No, indeed," responded Mr. Healey. "I have had enough of public life. No more of it for me." "This thing of offering oneself as a victim on the altar of party duty is not such a great role after all, is it Healey," queried the sheriff. The recorder made no response, but his look indicated that he wished that both Mr. Fahey and himself had remained true to their resolve, formed some time before the convention, not to accept a nomination this year. William Loftus, the People's party candidate for sheriff, did not vote today. He resides in the Second district of the Ninth ward, and when he appeared at the polls to cast his vote, W. H. Withers, one of the watchers, challenged him on the ground that he did not have his taxes paid. Mr. Loftus protested that such action was outrageous, but he did not vote.

IN LOCAL THEATERS.

"The Stowaway" will be seen at the Academy Friday and Saturday evenings. It is one of the most successful melodramas ever given in this country. It has remained secure in popular esteem for a dozen years, and still shows no signs of waning popularity. Its success may be attributed solely to its unquestionable merit and the excellent manner in which it has always been played and mounted. It belongs to the old melodramatic school and its stirring scenes and thrilling situations, all of which are worked up to fitting climaxes by the skillful hand of a practiced playwright, never fails to evoke the wildest applause. Tomorrow night the American Players will open an engagement at the Frothingham by presenting "The Count of Monte Cristo" in a superb manner. The performance will be repeated Saturday night, and Saturday afternoon "La Tentation, or Led Astray" will be seen. The popular favorite, Gus Williams, quaint in his humor, legitimate and neat in his acting methods, will present his new edition of his successful farce, "April Fool," at the Academy of Music Monday evening next. This play is full of funny dialogue and ludicrous situations, and affords Mr. Williams excellent opportunity for displaying his peculiar talents. As a German dialect comedian, Mr. Williams has a well earned reputation. This season he has chosen an excellent company for his support. Among them are Josephine Fenton, the operatic singer; Julia Chase, the character sketch artist; Joseph Cohen, the song and dance artist; Jerry Cohen and his funny dolls, Lenora Dohan, George Briar, Julia Barton and Ed Wideman. Altogether we are promised a rich treat of refined comedy. Willard Spaulding. Opera company, which is to present the great Philadelphia comic opera success, "The Princess Bonie," in this city at the Academy of Music on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next, is the same organization which will be heard this season for six weeks at the Tremont theater, Boston; six weeks at Abbey's theater, New York; and six weeks at Bowley's theater, Chicago. This city is therefore in being included in the Pennsylvania state tour, which Mr. Spenser is now making. It is said the running expenses of this company, which includes seventy people, and has for its principal members Miss Eleanor Mayo and Frank Daniels, are close to $4,000 per week. DEAN PUSHED BY A FRIEND. He Fell and Sustained a Fracture of the Leg. A curious accident happened to John Dean, a machine agent, last night. Dean was standing in a Penn avenue hotel when a friend accosted him and put his hand on his shoulder and playfully pushed him. Dean slipped and fell. He was unable to rise and upon being examined his leg was found to be fractured. He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital on a stretcher and it will take considerable time to insure his recovery. SAY COAL WAS TAKEN OUT. School District of Old Forge Sues John and James Jermyn. An action was begun yesterday against John Jermyn and Joseph Jermyn by Attorney Hammah acting on behalf of the school district of Old Forge township for the sum of $10,000. It is alleged by the plaintiffs that defendants on Dec. 8, 1892, caused a coal mine to be opened into their property from which 4,500 tons of coal valued at $5,735.17 have been carried away. This sum, with the damage caused by the mining operations, makes the total of $10,000 sued for. ASKING FOR BRIDGES. Petitions Considered by the Grand Jury Yesterday. The grand jury was engaged for the greater part of yesterday listening to reasons why it should direct the county commissioners to construct bridges in Glensburg, Ransom, Scott and North Abington townships. In the last named two bridges are asked for. The petitions appeared before the jurors represented by counsel and gave reasons why the bridges asked for were essential to the convenience of the traveling public. HENRY SULLIVAN INJURED. Sustained a Fracture of the Leg by Being Caught in an Elevator. Henry Sullivan, a boy of 15 years of age, residing on Seventh street, was hurt by being caught in an elevator yesterday and was conveyed to the Moses Taylor hospital in a cab, where it was ascertained that he had sustained a fracture of the leg. Last night he was reported to be in a favorable condition and will probably recover in a few weeks. FOOT BALL GAME SATURDAY. An interesting game will be played on Saturday between the foot ball clubs of Scranton and Wilkes-Barre. The game will be called at 2.30 p. m. at the base ball field. The two clubs have met once during the present season when the Wilkes-Barre won by a close score and every effort will be made by the Scrantonians to recover the game on Saturday. Expert Pool Playing. There will be an exhibition of pool playing and fancy shots at Keogh's billiard parlors tonight, commencing at 8 o'clock, between Grant H. Eby, champion of Ohio, and Jerome Keogh, G. C. Hills, of New York city, who also will give an exhibition of billiard playing. Admission free.

COMMON COUNCIL REPENTS

Contract Awarded by Select to Nichols & Fahey Is Conceded In. STREET WILL NOW BE PAVED

West Lackawanna Avenue Is to Be Made Passable for Loaded Vehicles—Contracts Awarded for Bridge and Substructures—No Quorum in Select.

A brief session of common council last night acted on a few measures, including the contract awards for paving West Lackawanna avenue and building the substructures of the two proposed bridges. It had been expected that common council would refuse to concur with the select body on the paving award, but now that they have concurred the work will soon begin. There was also to have been a meeting of the select council, but a quorum did not materialize. The report of the streets and bridges committee, submitted by Mr. Spenser, recommended that the contract for building the substructures and excavating for the Linden street and Roaring Brook bridges be awarded to Muldoon & Bowie. The bids were as follows: Muldoon & Bowie, $12,583.94; Paul Dunn, $14,774.50; Joseph Hender, $23,865. The engineer's estimate was $17,519.50. Linden street bridge—Burke Bros., $13,225.25; Muldoon & Bowie, $11,061.93; Broadhead & McConnell, $14,738.80; Paul Dunn, $13,195.75; Joseph Hender, $18,494.55. Engineer's estimate was $15,907. Majority Report Adopted. The majority and minority report of the joint conference committee appointed, to consider the West Lackawanna avenue paving contract created considerable discussion. The select members formed the majority and their resolution provided that the contract for grading, curbing and paving be awarded to Nichols & Fahey, Mr. Howe New York, the minority committee members, presented a resolution that Dunn Bros. be awarded the paving portion of the contract. Mr. Robathan's motion that the minority report be laid on the table was carried by a vote of 9 and 6, and the majority report adopted on the same motion after Mr. McLean's motion to amend to lay the motion on the table had been lost. The bids of the two firms were as follows: Nichols & Fahey, the successful bidders, $1.50 per square yard for paving and grading, 39 cents per foot for straight curbing, 89 cents per foot for circular curbing, 20 cents per foot for curbing; Dunn Bros., $1.97 per square yard for paving and grading, 79 cents per foot for new curbing, 17 cents per foot for re-laying present curbing. A resolution presented by Mr. Norton and directing the city engineer to furnish the Scranton Traction company with light on the grade on North Main avenue from Second street to Providence road was adopted. Passed on Third Reading. Common council ordinances passed third reading as follows: Providing for an electric light on Rebecca avenue and Swetland street and Filmore avenue and Swetland street; providing for the heating of the Franklin Engine company building; providing for an electric light on the corner of Custick avenue and Oak street. The session adjourned after a few minor matters had been acted upon. TOOK TOO MUCH MORPHINE. Mrs. Birmingham Says She Made a Mistake Handling the Drug. Lackawanna avenue, was taken to the Lackawanna hospital yesterday under peculiar circumstances. She stated that owing to a misapprehension she had taken a dose of morphine to cure a headache, but was too liberal in handling the drug. Yesterday afternoon, however, a different aspect was put on the matter when a constable appeared at the hospital with a warrant issued by Alderman Hore, of the Eighth ward, charging Mrs. Birmingham with stealing a watch from a young man. Owing to her illness, however, the warrant was not served, and a little later on in the day she was removed to the Hillside home, where it is expected that she will permanently recover. Night Schools Overcrowded. The night schools opened Monday in many of the city school buildings are in many cases overcrowded and several been made to the board of control.
