THE BOARD OF CHARITIES

Met and Listened to the Report of Officers for the Year. A SPLENDID SHOWING MADE.

Amount of Money That Has Been Expended During the Year—Good Work Accomplished Under the Direction of Mrs. Duggan.

A meeting of the Board of Associated Charities was held last night at which Colonel E. H. Ripple presided, there being also present Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cohen, W. T. Smith, J. T. Moore, E. J. Lynett, Rev. Rogers Israel, Mrs. Duggan and Mrs. Pettigrew.

It was decided to hold the annual meeting of the board at the Albright Memorial hall on Tuesday evening, when five directors will be appointed. The members of the board will be specially invited to attend.

W. T. Smith, treasurer, submitted his annual report stating that $3,185.34 was received and $2,826.38 had been expended, leaving a balance of $358.96 in hand.

The secretary, Rev. Rogers Israel, presented his annual report, which will be printed in full in a later issue of The Tribune. The thanks of the meeting were tendered to Mr. Israel for his valuable services.

Mrs. Duggan's report, which showed that 320 applications had been dealt with, out of which 496 were worthy and assisted accordingly, 324 were unworthy and were not assisted, 123 were not in need of assistance, 125 were impostors and 35 were confirmed imbeciles.

Mr. Harris, druggist, of Penn avenue, had supplied drugs, etc., for forty families and 150 blank forms still remained to the order of the board. The St. Vincent de Paul society, chief of police and patrolmen were also thanked by Mrs. Duggan for the kindness and assistance displayed during the last year.

Dr. James M. Walk, M. D., of the Philadelphia Society for Organizing Charity, will deliver a lecture at the Young Men's Christian Association concert hall on Nov. 29 on "The Benefits of Associated Charities."

Dr. Walk is an accomplished speaker and is thoroughly cognizant with the intricate question of charity dispensation, which forms a subject of deep interest to several citizens of Scranton as an essential part of church work.

MEETING OF DOCTORS. Interesting Cases of Surgical Operations Inspected and Discussed.

An important meeting of the Lackawanna County Medical association was held at the court house last night, Dr. M. J. Williams presiding.

ARE STILL MAN-HUNTING. Detectives Have No Clue of the Dunmore Murderer's Hiding Place.

The search for Joe Boschino, who murdered Francisco Cambort on Bunker Hill, Dunmore, Sunday, was continued yesterday by County Detective Shea and the Dunmore police.

FIRE AT GREENWOOD. Flames Are Responsible for Two Homeless Families.

Before it was discovered, at 7:30 last evening, fire, which had originated in the top story of the building owned and occupied by Mrs. Austin Mulhern, of Greenwood, broke through the roof and had gained such headway that, with the lack of facilities for fighting the fire, the building was speedily consumed.

MANGLED ON THE RAILROAD. Francis Moran, of Old Forge, Run Over and Killed.

IS NO FEAR OF EPIDEMIC

Health Officer Allen Says There is No Cause for Alarm.

PECULIARITY OF THE SEASON That is Reason Why Typhoid is So Prevalent at Present—Dr. Allen Keeping a Close Watch on Elmhurst Water Slick.

Twenty-three cases and five deaths from contagious or infectious diseases and twenty-four deaths from all causes were reported to the board of health last week.

This increase in infectious typhoid is attributed by the health officers to the peculiarity of the season, and no sense of alarm is attached to the large number of new cases.

Health Officer W. E. Allen, M. D., said to a Tribune reporter last night: "While the prevalence of typhoid is perhaps more general than usual even at this season of the year, the number of cases is not greatly in excess of previous similar periods."

As the state deputy health inspector and health officer of Scranton Dr. Allen has been keeping a close watch upon the general health of Elmhurst and the watershed of that region from whence comes Scranton's water supply.

SPENSER'S PRINCESS BONNIE. It Was Received with Enthusiasm at the Academy of Music.

The author of "Little Tycoon" needs no introduction to Scranton music lovers. It is, therefore, needless to state that a large and enthusiastic audience assembled at the Academy last evening to witness the first performance in this city of Willard Spenser's last opera, "Princess Bonnie."

There is no question that the anticipations of the most enthusiastic admirers of this well known American composer were realized in the presentation of the much-talked-of "Princess Bonnie." The opera in every way is superior to the "Little Tycoon," and the manner in which it was put upon the stage last evening showed that no expense had been considered in arranging the details of the magnificent stage settings and dazzling costumes.

THE DUTY OF A MAN. Willard Spenser, composer of "Little Tycoon" and "The Princess Bonnie," is among the most pleasant and sociable of American composers.

TO OUR FRIENDS AND THE PUBLIC. Replying to an article in yesterday's issue of this paper, saying that "we are no longer in the employ of the 'Princess Bonnie' we would say: We never have been in their employ. We have a service to offer as bill posters which is open to any one, and members of an association which imposes a penalty of $20 for non-fulfillment of a contract, we guarantee work. Mr. Frothingham accepted this service for his theater. Since the advent of a new manager, we have been constantly in hot water and subjected to insults and bluffs owing to a narrow-minded, jealous feeling on the part of this manager; that he was not getting equal advantages with other people in the same line of business.

ORIGIN OF AN OPERA. Willard Spenser, composer of "Little Tycoon" and "The Princess Bonnie," is among the most pleasant and sociable of American composers, and ever has an encouraging word for struggling musicians and authors who are at the foot of the ladder which he so successfully scaled years ago.

THE DUTY OF A MAN. The duty on diamonds has been raised 15 per cent. Davidow Bros. are selling them lower than ever.

EVERYBODY. Says our canned goods are, on most things, better than fresh.

WHY NOT? They are picked in the early morning and canned immediately. We guarantee our prices lower than elsewhere.
