PITTSSTON.

John Walsh, age 23 years, died at his home in Morgan Lane Sunday night from pneumonia. His illness was of short duration--a little less than a week. A wife and three children survive him. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Market Street cemetery.

The funeral of Charles M. Allen took place yesterday afternoon. The remains lay exposed to view at the family home on Swallow street, from 10 until 2 o'clock. The coffin in which the body lay was completely lost to view by the many floral tributes received from friends and societies to which he belonged. Brief services were held at the home, after which the remains were borne to the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. N. G. Parke conducted the services and they were impressive. At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne to Pittston cemetery, where the last sad rites were performed. The pall bearers were: John Thompson, Henry S. Grex, James Bone, Judson Tiffany, Alex. Bryden, M. J. Brennan, Owen Jones, John Doble. Among the societies that attended were: Pittston Canton, Patriarchs Militant, with a delegation of fifteen from the Scranton Canton, led by Brigadier General Ed. C. Deans, department commander; the Odd Fellows, including the Daughters of Rebecca; the school board, and the Order of the Golden Chain attended in a body; also large companies of Endeavorers and school teachers and their pupils.

The friends of Willard Garvey, a trained nurse in Philadelphia, are much concerned and mystified over his sudden disappearance in Philadelphia. He came to this place about a month ago with his little daughter and spent some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Garvey, who reside on Wyoming avenue.

He returned to Philadelphia the Sunday night before election in response to a telegram to take charge of a patient. A few days later his wife went to the house where her husband was engaged to take him some clothing, and was amazed to learn that he was not there, nor had been for two or three days. The lady of the house informed her that she and he disagreed about the medicine and he left election night. The disinterested parents went down to the city Sunday night, but friends here have heard nothing since.

The foot ball game with the Indians, of Carlisle, played on the college campus, Saturday, was interesting and exciting throughout. The Indians were heavier than our men and showed superior skill in tackling. The character of the game is indeed deserving of commendation; not a single dispute occurred during the entire game. Luckwell succeeded in making two touchdowns and kicking one goal in the first half. During the second half the ball was kept changing territory alternately, neither side scoring. This ended the contest with a score of 19 to 9 in favor of Bucknell. Thus far our record stands 132 points to our opponents' 12.
