CITY NOTES.

Teachers, janitors and substitutes of the public schools will meet today.

"Princess Bonnie" was produced at the Academy of Music last night to an audience that completely filled the house.

The ladies of the Second Presbyterian church will serve a supper on Friday evening, commencing at 6 o'clock. All are invited.

Samuel Williams and Mrs. Mary Kelly, both of Bellevue, were married at St. Peter's cathedral yesterday afternoon by Rev. J. A. O'Reilly.

The city engineer yesterday heard appeals on the assessments for the Money avenue lateral sewer between Green Ridge and Marion streets.

The next rehearsal of "Chimes of Normandy" will take place at the hall over Powell's music store at 8 o'clock this evening. Mr. Lindsay, conductor, will be glad to receive all new comers.

The Scranton Typographical union will hold its eighth annual ball at Turner hall on Thanksgiving night. Elaborate preparations are being made to render the celebration a thorough success.

The work of paving Pine street has been finished from Adams avenue nearly to Madison avenue. The first block is laid with asphalt, and above Jefferson avenue Belgian block is being used.

The women's guild of St. Luke's church will give their fall reception to the clergy of the parish this evening from 8 to 11 o'clock at the rectory. All members and friends of the parish are expected to attend.

The Germania Singing society, of Carbondale, will give a concert in the hall next Tuesday night, at which it will be assisted by the Saengerbund, of this city. Master Arthur Reese, Jean Stoeber and Mr. Schulz, all of Scranton, will also assist.

Rev. Mr. Ford, of Green Ridge, will speak to young women at the Young Women's Christian association Thursday at 12.6. There will be special music. These services last twenty minutes and are bright, helpful meetings. All young women are invited.

The marriage of Henry Vockroth, of Washington avenue, and Miss Marie Foin, of Gibson street, was celebrated at St. Peter's cathedral last evening in the presence of a large number of friends. Rev. Father Foin, of Hanover, Pa., officiated.

The fifth annual fair of the Girls' Friendly society will be held at the residence of William Hanley, 523 Monroe avenue, Friday evening and Saturday afternoon for the benefit of needy widows and orphans. A large assortment of useful articles will be offered for sale, with home made cake and candy.

A band, mandolin and guitar club was organized at the Young Men's Christian association rooms last night. A large number of young men were present and J. H. Davies, Evans and Professor Weston were appointed a committee to draw up a constitution and frame rules. Practice will begin on Wednesday and intending members may apply at the rooms.

The following marriage licenses were issued by Clerk Thomas yesterday: Frank Murphy, of New Albany, N. Y., and Mary Powderly, of Scranton; Charles M. Tilker, of Scranton, and Kitty C. Torpey, of Chicago, Ill.; Henry Bach, of Scranton, and Margaret M. Barber, of New York; James Price and Margie Young, of Moosic; Theophilus H. Richards and Anna Lewis, of Wilkes-Barre.

One member of John Smith, of the General Phinney company, was initiated at last night's meeting of the Volunteer Firemen's association at Durr's hall and four others were proposed for membership. The influx of new members is so great that there is hardly a fireman in the city who does not belong to the association. The report of the finance committee was not heard last night, but will be completed at the next meeting.

A large and representative company assembled at the Turners' hall last night at

WINTON EJECTMENT SUIT

It Will Be Given to the Jury for Consideration Today.

FACTS DEVELOPED ON TRIAL

Jennings Case Called but Had to Be Continued Because a Juror Had a Decided Opinion—Verdict Rendered in Moran-Leonard Case.

Lackawanna county's court has not in its experience had a more abstruse legal issue than the ejectment suit involving $50,000 that has been engaging the attention of Judge Gunster and a jury in the arbitration room for the past two days and which came to an end yesterday at adjournment. The testimony on both sides was heard but the arguments of counsels and the charge of the court will not be heard until today.

Away back in 1876, on April 5 of that year, A. B. Dunning, sr., of Elmhurst, then called Dunning, negotiated a loan of $9,000 from the Mutual Life Insurance company, of New York City, and as security executed a bond and mortgage on 285 acres of farm land owned by him and situated in Dunning.

W. W. Winton signed the bond as security. Mr. Dunning defaulted in the payment of the mortgages and the land was sold, but not being enough to cover the debt. Therefore twenty acres of coal land, owned by Mr. Winton, in the Thirtieth ward was levied upon by the insurance company and a sale made, the company purchasing it in. This was in 1880, but two years before that the same land was sold on a mortgage held by Mrs. W. W. Winton against her husband and she purchased it and leased it to O. S. Johnson, E. N. Willard and L. A. Watres. They were in possession of the land when it was sold under the mortgage of the insurance company and are still in possession of it and the coal company operated under the name of O. S. Johnson is mining the coal.

MAYBE ANOTHER MURDERER.

Evidence Implicates a Detained Witness of the Dunmore Killing—Developments at the Inquest.

At the inquest conducted by Coroner Kelley last night upon the murder of Francis Conforti on Banker Hill last Sunday, evidence was heard which seriously implicates one of the two witnesses now confined in the county jail, Joe Boschino, the chief assassin, has not been arrested.

Joseph Casassa, proprietor of the Roma hotel, on Lackawanna avenue, interrupted the evidence, which was given almost exclusively in the Italian tongue. The testimony showed, substantially, that the murdered Conforti and Tony Embriol, one of the eye witnesses of the shooting and now under arrest, were not good friends, and that Rocco Salvadori, the other eye witness under arrest, had told several Italians that Embriol, as well as the escaped Boschino, killed Conforti. Salvadori testified that he did not implicate Embriol, but possibly he (Salvadori) had insinuated such an idea while laboring under excitement. Salvadori admitted having pointed a revolver at Boschino previous to the murder during the quarrel on the bridge.

The other witnesses testified to the scene of the murder, finding of the body and other details. Boschino seemed to have been clearly proven the murderer, but the jury postponed their verdict until after they shall have met in Dunmore tomorrow night. In the meanwhile they will try to find the revolver which Salvadori had on the bridge and with which the killing may have been done.

GILDEA SAID NAY.

The Archbald Magistrate Makes Four Men Give Bail in Court.

When Chief of Police Max Koehler, of Priceburg, two deputy constables, Joseph and John Gereskie, and Jacob Ziarskie, a constable, all of the same place, offered to furnish bail for the offense of forcibly entering the house of John Stiles, Squire T. J. Gildea, of Archbald, before whom they were brought, refused to accept any bail.

He committed the four of them to the county jail. Yesterday the prisoners were brought to the court house and furnished bail in the sum of $300 each to appear at court. William Smith, L. K. Koehler and Jacob Ziarskie qualified as bondsman.

MICHAEL REAP KILLED.

Train of Coal Cars Passed Over His Body at Clark's Summit.

Michael P. Reap, brakeman, of 401 Eynon street, met with a fatal accident on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad yesterday afternoon near Clark's Summit, and was conveyed to the Moses Taylor hospital, but succumbed to his injuries within fifteen minutes after reaching the building.

Reap was on the train and slipped between two cars and fell on the rail, the train passing over his body, which was mutilated in a shocking manner. The remains were taken from the hospital last night to his home on Eynon street. Mr. Reap was about 41 years of age and leaves a widow but no children.

Davis' Theater.

"A Social Session" will be presented on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This play is conceded to be one of the brightest and best farce comedies now traveling. Music and song are combined together in a delightful way, and the many funny situations in the play keep you laughing from the rise to the fall of the curtain. It is seldom that a company visits us that is so highly endorsed as is Kate Sprague's comedians.

Art Sale.

This evening at 8 o'clock sharp Mr. Morse will offer at auction sale at Mr. Stewart's art gallery, Y. M. C. A. building, his entire collection of paintings. Mr. B. Scott, Jr., of New York, art auctioneer, will conduct the sale.

To the Prohibitionists of Scranton.

The members of the Central Prohibition League and others interested are requested to meet at Conservatory hall, 42 Lackawanna avenue, at 8 p. m. Friday, the 16th. By order of the Executive Committee. A. G. THOMAS, Secretary.

WORK OF TYPHOID FEVER

Six of the Fanning Children Ill with the Disease at Green Ridge.

ANOTHER IS NOW RECOVERING

House Turned into an Improved Hospital—Disease is Said by Attending Physician to Be Due to a Cess-pool Near the House.

At the last meeting of the board of health Dr. Allen, the medical officer, made a verbal report that there was but one case of typhoid fever in the city, while almost side by side with the report of the meeting in the columns of the Tribune was reported a case where seven persons were suffering from typhoid fever on Breaker street.

LITTLE SOO HOO DOO.

Two Chinese Baby Born in This City Yesterday—Kicks and Howls Alle Mance Like Melicann Baby.

Mrs. Soo Hoo Doo, wife of the Chinese merchant of that name who conducts a foreign novelty and bric-a-brac store on Washington avenue, has presented her husband with a baby girl. The family now enjoys the distinction of containing the only almond-eyed baby ever born in this city or portion of the state, as well as the only Chinese wife and mother.

FEAST OF GOOD THINGS.

Dinner and Supper at the Penn Avenue Baptist Church Today.

There are turkey dinners and turkey dinners, but, based upon experience of the past, those who partake of the annual turkey dinner and supper given by the ladies of the Penn Avenue Baptist church today will not be disappointed. For years the women of this church have sustained their good cooking and serving reputation and today's feast promises to be no exception.

AFTER THAT VIADUCT.

West Side Committee Tours the City Hall Yesterday.

A committee of the West Side board of trade visited the city hall yesterday afternoon for the purpose of satisfying itself of the present status of the West Lackawanna avenue viaduct ordinance. In the absence of Mayor Connell, the committee left a resolution with Private Secretary Edgar, urging that the ordinance become operative.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

To All Whom It May Concern: This is to advise all persons that Reese & Hill, bill collectors in the employ of the Frothingham, neither do they have any business transaction in any manner whatever with this house. The mansion of John G. Jennings, was then 15 years of age, and as a passenger on the ill-fated train received injuries, it is alleged, that rendered him a cripple for life.

Plans Were Defective.

The next case called before Judge Peck was that of Christian Alten, architect, against the Carbondale township school district. Attorneys Patterson and Wilcox represented the plaintiff, and Attorney ex-Judge H. K. Moore and J. E. Burr, the defendant. The plaintiff is suing for fees claimed to have been earned by drawing plans for two school buildings. The directors allege that Alten, through negligence made such a botch of the plans that the board was forced to pay over $3,000 for extra work.
