CITY NOTES.

On Monday evening, Nov. 12, the Scranton Turnverein will give a gymnastic exhibition at the Academy of Music. Mayor Connell yesterday signed the resolution providing for the building of a barn for Excelsior Horse company. An adjourned meeting of the members of the Lackawanna Institute will be held this afternoon at the board of trade rooms at 4:30 o'clock. Marriage licenses were granted yesterday to William H. Hull and Minnie M. Balles, and Robert N. Evans and Annie Schaffer, all of Scranton. In the estate of Elmer E. Scull, late of Madison township, letters of administration were granted to John Dunstan yesterday by Register of Wills Kohler. "The New South," which will be produced at the Academy of Music Monday, Nov. 19, under the auspices of Noy Aug House company, was played 109 nights in New York city. Diagram opens at 9 a. m. today. The comic opera, "Wang," will be presented at the Academy of Music Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for the special benefit of ladies and children. The prices will be: Gallery, 25c.; balcony, 50c.; orchestra and orchestra circle, 75c.; parlor chairs, $1. Scranton circle, No. 88, Companions of Forerunners, will give an enjoyable entertainment in German at the Academy of Music at Lackawanna avenue this evening at 8 o'clock. An attractive programme has been arranged and light refreshments will be served. An admission of 15 cents includes both. Michael Petrar, an employe at the Archibald mine, was seriously injured at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by being caught between the cars and a rope. He was taken to the Moses Taylor hospital where it was found that he had sustained a serious rupture, but hopes are entertained of his recovery. A full rehearsal with stage effects was held by the Scranton Operatic society last night at the rooms over L. B. Powell's store on Wyoming avenue. Professor Lindsay directed the rehearsal and described the stage movements. The chorus comprises many excellent voices and the parts were well rendered. The public performance will take place in December. Pabst's Milwaukee Beer, cool and sparkling, at Lohman's, Spruce street.

REDUCING THE INTEREST.

New Four and One-Half Per Cent. County Bonds to Be Issued. The county commissioners have arranged to redeem $40,000 of the outstanding bonds of the city from the sinking fund created for that purpose. This will leave the county debt at $120,000 which is bonded at 5 per cent. interest. Through the Scranton Savings bank, arrangements have been made with Blair & Co., of New York, by which the present bonded indebtedness will be wiped out by the issuing of bonds of the same amount, bearing interest at 4 1/2 per cent. By this arrangement the county saves $2,100.

SITZER WILL CONTEST.

Contest Instituted in the Wyoming County Judicial District. Up in Wyoming county they are going to enjoy the luxury of an election contest, too. The object is to determine who is entitled the fill the office of judge of that district. The candidates were Durham, of Sullivan county, and the present incumbent, Judge Sitzer, of Wyoming county, who has frequently held court in this city. After the vote had been counted it was shown that Durham was some thirty votes ahead of Sitzer, but later on mistakes were discovered in the count. A contest has been instituted.

VIADUCT HAS BEEN VETOED

Select Council Was Disposed to Ignore the Mayor's Action.

DAMAGES ARE TOO UNCERTAIN

Sweetland Street Approaches to the Linden Street Bridge Will Be Purchased at Once—Appointments by the Mayor Create Debates.

Last night's meeting of select council received Mayor Connell's veto of the West Lackawanna avenue viaduct ordinance and adopted a resolution recommending by the city solicitor providing that options be accepted on Sweetland street approaches to the Linden street bridge.

In his letter vetoing the viaduct ordinance Mayor Connell said that while a section of the ordinance refers to the plans and specifications "hereto attached," there is attached only a blue print of the ground plan and a section of the proposed viaduct and that "this involves an ordinance and resolution duly passed and approved, defining the character of the improvements proposed and naming such details and specifications as will fully inform the officers and agents of the city, etc." The letter further states that the blue print does not show sufficiently the exact location of the work and does not enable viewers to ascertain damages. The mayor writes that although the question of damages could be ascertained after the viaduct is built, exactness is of the utmost importance. He specifies as lacking: Material of the structure; location and size of supports and the character and extent of masonry, "all of which particulars are very material facts for the consideration of the viewers in the assessment of damages, and none of them can be supplied by evidence outside of the ordinance."

Resources Are Limited. The letter calls attention to the fact that the city's indebtedness has reached its limit and concludes with the statement that the viaduct ordinance is returned without approval.

Following the reading of the letter a motion was made by Mr. Williams and seconded by Mr. Schwenck that the ordinance be passed notwithstanding the mayor's veto. The motion was later withdrawn and the veto referred to the streets and bridges committee.

A letter from City Solicitor Torrey informed council that he had secured options from Sweetland street land owners and had been notified by the city engineer that his estimates for the bridge and approaches will leave an amount sufficient to pay the options. The letter also stated that the question of damages resulting to certain property owners on Sweetland street from the construction of approaches to the bridge from the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad is now before viewers appointed by the court and the further consideration by the viewers will be entirely obviated if the amount of the options is promptly paid. The city solicitor recommended that an enclosed resolution bearing on the matter be passed.

The resolution of the city solicitor was adopted and reads in part: "That the proper city authorities are authorized to draw warrants in favor of the owners of the land. . . . The persons and properties included in this resolution are the Pettebone estate, 25 cents and 1 1/2 cents per square foot; Finch Manufacturing company, 50 cents per square foot; Fellows estate, 25 cents per square foot; E. Robinson's Sons, for land and moving buildings $9,658, moving buildings between Sixth and Seventh streets, $6,664; estate of Samuel Price, $5,000.

Mayor's Action Questioned. When the appointment by the mayor of William F. Forney permanent man for Relief Engine company was received, Mr. Laufer moved that the matter be referred to committee. In the spirited debate which followed, it appeared that while the propriety of the appointment was not questioned, several members disapproved confirmation until the applicants had been investigated.

Those who supported the mayor argued that the chief executive is alone responsible for the appointee's character and ability. The appointment was confirmed by a vote of 11 and 5. The same debate followed the reading of the mayor's appointment of John T. McHale to succeed P. G. Walsh, resigned, on the police force. A motion to confirm was lost and the matter went to the police committee.

The appointment of R. B. Brockway as inspector of sewer work in the Fourth district went to committee without debate. Resolutions of the public building committee recommending contracts for supplying public buildings with coal were adopted as follows: Districts Nos. 3 and 4, Mountain Lake Land and Coal company, buckwheat coal, $1, pea coal $1.65, chestnut and larger sizes $2.45; Districts 1 and 2, Consumers' Ice company, chestnut and larger sizes $2.70.

The proposition of Martin Loftus to sell to the city for $200 a lot 50 by 140 feet on West Market street for use by the Cumberland Hose company was referred to committee. An adjournment was made to meet next Thursday evening.

TORTURED THIRTY YEARS.

His Sufferings Ended After Using Munyon's Rheumatism Cure.

Mr. George Smith, of Tacony, Pa., says: "I suffered from rheumatism for thirty years, and had so many severe attacks that some of my joints were twisted out of shape. At times I suffered terrible pain, and, although I tried many remedies, I never obtained any permanent relief until I procured Munyon's Rheumatism Cure. The action of this remedy was wonderfully quick, and, although I have only taken a small quantity, I consider myself permanently cured. Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, legs, sides, back or breast, or soreness in any part of the body in from one to three days. It is guaranteed to promptly cure lameness, stiff and swollen joints, stiff back, and all pains in the hips and loins. Chronic rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, or pain in the back are speedily cured. Munyon's Homeopathic Home Remedy company, of Philadelphia, put up specific for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents a bottle.

SOCIAL SESSION AT DAVIS'.

One of the Most Entertaining Performances of the Season.

Manager Davis has at present one of the successes of the season at his popular house. "A Social Session," as performed by Miss Kate Sprague's comedians, will draw crowded houses. Various scenes and oddities are introduced, which are a source of continual merriment, and the vocal music is of a very superior nature.

Miss Kate Sprague has a pleasing and refined voice and renders her songs in a charming manner. J. Francis Morgan is also a singer of great merit, and was heartily applauded. The burlesque quartette were awarded a double encore, to which they responded, and entertained their audience in a most humorous style. Miss Lisetta Eiland, as the Juvenile Daisy, is a good actress and deserved the applause which was bestowed upon her yesterday. The entire company and the selection rendered are to be highly commended.

SPECIAL TERM OF COURT.

Order Made by Judge Archbald for Two Weeks of Criminal Court Beginning Dec. 24.

Judge Archbald made an order yesterday directing that a special term of criminal court be held, beginning Dec. 24 and continuing for two weeks. This special term will give District Attorney Kelly an opportunity to clear up the calendar before he retires from office in January. It is not likely that Mr. Kelly will succeed in clearing the calendar to date, for the criminal trial list for the past two years has been unusually large, but the special term will enable him to dispose of the cases that have been on the list for several terms and allow the new district attorney, John R. Jones, to enter on the duties of his office with the business connected therewith well in hand. The order made by Judge Archbald is as follows: Now, Nov. 15, 1894, the public business requiring it, it is ordered, that an adjourned or special session of the court of quarter sessions for the purpose of trying issues in criminal cases and transacting the other business of such court, be held Monday, the 24th day of December next, and continuing for two weeks, and a venire for the summoning of sixty petit jurors is directed to issue, returnable on Monday, Dec. 24 next, at 10 o'clock a. m., and another venire for the summoning of sixty other petit jurors is directed to issue, returnable on Monday, Dec. 24 next, at 10 o'clock a. m. By the court, R. W. Archbald, J. J.

GRiffin ART EXHIBITION.

The opening of the Griffin studio of photography and art at 209 Wyoming avenue yesterday was an event that was greatly appreciated by lovers of the beautiful. All day the handsome apartments were thronged with ladies who inspected, with expressions of admiration, the novelties displayed. The studio fitted up by Mr. Griffin contains five apartments, including the art sales-room, reception rooms and photographic operating rooms; the latter, by the way, containing the most complete and magnificent apparatus and furniture of any gallery outside of the metropolitan cities. The parlors and exhibition rooms are luxuriously furnished and separated from each other by handsome partitions of grill work and artistic draperies. In these apartments are tastefully arranged a large and beautiful collection of studies in oil, water colors, engravings, etchings, photographs, prints, foreign photographs and all kinds of every description of work. In the collection were noticed the works of the best known foreign and American painters and etchers. The sales-room also contains neatly arranged samples of picture frame moulding in the greatest variety. In this branch of the business Mr. Griffin has made arrangements for doing first-class work, and the picture framing feature will be one of the most important of the establishment. Although having enlarged his business somewhat by the introduction of general art goods, as mentioned above, Artist Griffin will continue to serve patrons as usual in high class photography and, as heretofore, can execute India ink portraits, crayon and pastel orders with usual despatch and excellence. From the main salesroom on Wyoming avenue to the handsome operating studio extending to Oakford court, the Griffin art rooms are marvels of beauty and completeness throughout, and Artist Griffin is to be congratulated upon his new enterprise.

RECEPTION AT ST. LUKE'S.

Large Gathering of Parishioners Met the Clergymen Last Evening.

The annual autumn reception of the members of St. Luke's Episcopal church was held under the auspices of the Woman's Guild last night and was attended by over 200 members of the parish. Refreshments were served and an exceedingly enjoyable evening was spent by the large number who filled the rectory. A large number of members, who are deaf or dumb, were present during the evening, and formed a special feature of the reception.

THE Greatest Quantity of Almonds I Ever Saw at One Time.

This is what she said as she tripped along Washington avenue in front of the Scranton Cash store and looked in the window to see her beautiful self reflected there. Her eye rested on an enormous pile of Princess Paper Shell almonds just arriving from France. "The greatest quantity of almonds I ever saw in my life," she whispered as she glided out of sight. And she was right; there is over 700 pounds in the heap.

Death of Mrs. Margaret McNally.

Mrs. Margaret McNally, of 411 Fifth avenue, died yesterday morning after an illness extending over three months. Mrs. McNally has resided in Scranton for over forty years and is survived by her husband, Patrick McNally, and four children, Mrs. Stephen Matthews, Michael, John and Mrs. W. Henry. The funeral will be held on Saturday morning, when service will be held at St. Peter's cathedral, at 9:30 o'clock, interment being at the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

Miner Badly Burned.

James Walsh, a miner working at the Pine Brook shaft, was severely burned while at work yesterday. Walsh, who is a middle aged man, was taken to his home in Pine Brook.

Special Announcement.

We have just received the latest and most popular 19-cent books—and they will be on sale again today. Among the titles are "Imitation of Christ," "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and "Drummond's Addresses." Those who placed orders for them to arrive are advised to call early before this lot is sold out. This sale is unprecedented. We disposed of over 1,500 copies in two days.

HOLT MAKES HIS ESCAPE

The Would-Be Negro Murderer of Hamp Anderson Still Uncaught.

ANDERSON IN DYING CONDITION

Physicians at the Lackawanna Hospital Do Not Hold Out Much Hope of His Recovery—He May Live a Week, They Say.

William Holt, the colored would-be murderer, is still at large, but the police are covering all possible chances of his escape. The belief that he left the city immediately after the shooting is offset by the statements that he was seen at 3 o'clock yesterday morning on Scranton street.

His description as the police have it is as follows: He is 5 feet 6 inches tall, and weighs 135 pounds. His complexion is very dark, and, excepting a scar on his left cheek, he is an ordinary looking colored man, and has a slight mustache. He wore a gray and black striped cap.

The victim, William, or "Hamp," Anderson, lies in a pivotal condition at the Lackawanna hospital. He was shot three times. The wound that his death is liable to result from is near the base of the heart. At a late hour last night Dr. Rudasill, of the hospital, said that the chances are against Anderson's recovery. Each day that he lives, so much stronger does his likelihood of ultimate recovery become.

Wife Not Seriously Hurt.

The woman who was shot and is credited with being Holt's wife gave her name to the hospital authorities, where she was taken yesterday, as Rebecca Ann Mitchell. She is suffering from a bullet wound in the thigh, just above the knee, and will be out in a week.

It is thought that Holt had murder in his heart. His wife had been separated from him and she was living with the family of "Pink" Capney at 1522 Wyoming avenue. Holt arrived in town from Forest City and went to Capney's house about 8:30 in the evening. He appeared to be in strained circumstances and was hospitably invited to stay for the night.

Was Bent on Killing.

A little after Holt went upstairs Mrs. Capney heard loud talk. Holt was arguing with his wife and asking her to live with him again. She refused and he drew a revolver, firing two shots at her. One of them missed her and the other took effect in her leg. She crept under the bed and Holt discontinued firing. He forced her to tell where Anderson slept, as he alleged that Anderson had improper relations with her. Anderson slept in a room across the hallway and Holt burst in the door. He fired two shots at Anderson and then made a dash out of the house, going down the stairs and through the kitchen to the back yard. Anderson after being shot, jumped out of his window, fifteen feet to the yard. Holt reached the yard about the same time and came face to face with Anderson. He fired the last shot in the revolver at him and Anderson fell, shot through the breast.

LAST OF THE SEASON.

Game of Base Ball at the Park Saturday Afternoon.

Weather permitting, a game of base ball will be played at the ball park Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock between clubs representing Scranton and Wilkes-Barre. The teams will be made up as follows: Wilkes-Barre—Hess, catcher; Meekin, pitcher; Connolly, first base; Shannon, second base; Sales, third base; Jennings, short stop; (Baltimore); Betts, left field; Bonnard, center field; O'Brien, right field. Scranton—Rogers, catcher; Fee, pitcher; Clark first base; Tighe, second base; Schafer, third base; Cahill, short stop; Dwyer, center field; Meaney, left field; Mullarkey, right field.

VERY NOVEL PRESENT.

Given by Master Albert Devine to His Mother. Master Albert Devine, aged 14, of Washington avenue, gave his mother, Mrs. John J. Devine, a novel birthday present this week. It consisted of a rocking chair covered with postage stamps that had been gathered from various sources. The stamps were arranged on the chair with care that gave the rocker the appearance of having been inlaid. As the work upon the chair was all done by the donor, Mrs. Devine is naturally highly pleased with the gift.

NEW ROAD REACHING OUT.

Connections Being Made by the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern. Extensive improvements are being made by the Delaware and Hudson Canal company at Yatesville, says the Wilkes-Barre Leader. That company is now putting in an extra siding to hold about seventy-five cars. The depot is to be moved to the opposite side of the track to make room for a long siding to be put in by the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern railroad company to be used in holding empty cars. It is now evident the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern railroad will be the great route for transportation of coal to tidewater by both companies—Delaware and Hudson and Wilkes-Barre and Eastern.

fully an hour shorter than any other. Besides this the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern is surveying a route to connect with the Erie and Wyoming at the upper end of Yatesville. This new branch will lead from Yatesville to the point described and is an indication the Erie and Wyoming will send its coal to tidewater over the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern.

MR. HALL'S ROUGH VISITORS.

They Beat Him with a Black Jack and Used Steel Knuckles on His Wife. Charles E. Hall, of 329 Raymond court, tells a story of brutal treatment he was subject to last Saturday night at 10:30 o'clock. Saturday night his home was broken into and himself and wife dragged out of bed and brutally assaulted. He was awakened by hearing his name, but before he had time to investigate the cause he received a heavy blow on the forehead with a "black jack." His wife was struck over the eye with steel knuckles and fainted.

Although dazed Mr. Hall pursued his assailants to the street, but before one of them down. Another blow to the "black jack" rendered him helpless. There were three men in the party, but he was unable to identify any of them. Nothing was taken from the house, and he does not believe the object of his brutal visitors was burglary.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall still bear strong evidence of the rough treatment they received.

THE PRODIGAL SON.

Sir Arthur Sullivan's Oratorio to Be Performed in Scranton. The Catholic Choral union are preparing to produce Sir Arthur Sullivan's magnificent oratorio, "The Prodigal Son." Professor Hayden Evans, who will direct the chorus, will commence rehearsals on Wednesday evening at the college home.

"The Prodigal Son" is one of Sir Arthur's masterpieces, and without being pedantic is of a most classical nature. The arias are written in a brilliant manner, and there is no doubt but that the production of this work of England's great composer will be a treat for Scranton which will be well received.

Dalton Surprise Party.

William Smith, of Dalton, was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening by a number of his friends, it being his twenty-first birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent by the young people. Those present were: Bert Tillinghast, Harvey Marsh, E. J. Smith, W. H. Smith, Thomas Hall, Arthur Moore, Willard Smith and Leon Colvin, and Misses Anna Nebelung, Gertrude De-Play, Emma Pass, Elsie Oakley, Minnie Waldeman, Laura Smith, Blanche Griffin and Lula Swartz.
