CITY NOTES.

Charles Tropp was yesterday appointed a committee of the person of Eugene Kleberg.

Hugh Mallory, barber of Honolalee, was fined $10 yesterday for drunkenness and vagrancy.

The store of Simon Cohen, of Barberton, is open again. The execution of Rice, Levy & Co. against him has been settled.

The gymnastic exhibition of the Scranton Y. M. C. A. at the Academy of Music, Nov. 16, 1914, will be held at 7.30 p. m.

Marriage licenses were granted yesterday to Frank Carney and Barbara Gebhart, of Archbald; Frank Walker and May Clark, Carbondale.

Banjo and guitar club will meet at the Young Men's Christian association tonight to elect officers. All young men that can play are invited.

Work has been resumed at Meiers' building on the corner of Washington avenue and Spruce street, the additional iron having arrived this week.

Mrs. Davis will conduct meetings tomorrow (Sabbath) in the Methodist church in Taylor at 10.30 a. m. and 2.30 p. m. for men only, and at 7 a. m. Come.

An important meeting of the members of the Press club will be held tomorrow afternoon at the rooms on Spruce street, at which all members are requested to attend.

The executive committee of the Scranton Christian Endeavor union was held at the Young Men's Christian association rooms last evening, when a large amount of important routine business was transacted.

Members of Circle 19, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, are earnestly requested to be present at their rooms tonight, Mrs. Charles Baker, inspecting officer, of Honolalee, will be present to inspect the circle.

A special matinee of the comic opera, "Wang," will be presented at the Academy of Music this afternoon especially for women and children. Prices, gallery, 25 cents; balcony, 50 cents; orchestra and orchestra circle, 75 cents; parlor, $1.

The death is announced of P. J. Donahoe, editor of the sporting department of the New York Recorder. Mr. Donahoe contracted a cold while hunting which developed into a serious illness, to which he succumbed yesterday morning. He was well known in this city.

Rev. W. H. Brown, presiding elder of the African Methodist Episcopal church of New Brighton, Pa., will preach at the African Methodist Episcopal church Saturday at 2 p. m. and hold quarterly meeting Sunday, Nov. 18, preaching at 10.30 a. m. and 3 and 7.30 p. m. Rev. C. A. McEede, pastor.

William D. Roche, who has served with much ability as clerk in the mailing department of the Scranton postoffice, has been promoted to the position of superintendent of carriers. The salary attached to the office is $1,200 a year. Edward Jene, of the South Side, has been appointed as Mr. Roche's successor.

Joseph Norey, a boy about 14 years of age, was taken to the Moses Taylor hospital yesterday afternoon, having met with an accident in the Pine Brook shaft. Norey is a door tender and while following his usual occupation, the cars passed over his foot, which, however, was not amputated. It is anticipated that he will recover the use of his foot in time.

Miner Bertar, who was injured at the Archbold mine on Thursday, died at the Moses Taylor hospital yesterday morning. Strenuous efforts were made to save his life and an operation was performed early yesterday morning by Dr. Leet, Dr. Smith, resident surgeon, and Dr. Allen, but the attempt was of no avail, as Bertar died about four hours later. The remains were conveyed to the residence at Taylor, from where the funeral will take place.

Miner Johnson, of Chestnut street, was charged yesterday morning with a brutal assault upon his wife, and was remanded in order that further inquiries might be made as to the full extent of his wife's injuries, who was reported to be in a critical state yesterday. From the evidence it appeared that the assault took place about 5 o'clock Thursday night, when it is alleged Johnson, who was drunk, struck his wife with full force and kicked her while she was prostrate on the floor, finishing it by jumping on her.

The Central Prohibition league met at Conservatory hall last evening and laid plans for a most vigorous campaign to be inaugurated at once. Andrew Wellendine was made chairman of the meeting and C. H. Chandler secretary. The recent campaign was discussed and the increase in the vote in the county and through the nation was a matter for congratulation. The secretary reported a balance in the treasury of about $100, and made the announcement that W. H. Richardson has added to his subscription of $100 a few weeks ago another $100 for the new campaign.

Nelson Raymond was arrested last night upon the charge of stealing $15 from the store of Mr. Grove, butcher, on Jackson street. He was arrested and locked up in the West Side police station and will be given a hearing this morning.

The hawk which attracted such attention by its capture on Washington avenue Thursday, did not fly very far from home, as P. P. Price, of the Washington avenue cash stores, yesterday requested Draught D. S. Ryan to deliver up the bird, as it was his property. Mr. Ryan explained that he had given a dollar for the hawk and would give Mr. Price his property in exchange for the dollar. The matter could not be settled amicably and a summons was issued by Alderman Wright yesterday for "trevor and conversion" and the humble hawk will in all probability form the subject of a great legal controversy.

A crowded gathering attended at the Germania Odd Fellows' hall on Lackawanna avenue last evening to celebrate the organization of the Scranton circle, No. 38, Companions of Foreresters. The speakers of the evening were as follows: President, J. J. Ryan; vice president, J. J. Ryan; secretary, J. J. Ryan; and J. J. Ryan. The following programme was well performed: Instrumental duet, Edna Dunkerly and Jessie Smith; recitation, May Dorsey; address, Mr. Harris; duet, Mrs. Randolph Jones and Miss Virginia Jones; solo, John Clark; solo, Edwin Bowen, and selection by the Dickson Trio and Mandolin club. Miss Stella Starbuck acted as accompanist and Gabriel Augvin and Murti Dorsey assisted during the evening.

Pabst's Milwaukee Beer, cool and sparkling, at Lohman's, Spruce street.

THAT VETO OF THE MAYOR
 Reasons Why He Would Not Sign the Viaduct Ordinance.

THEY ARE ALL WELL GROUNDED
 In the Interests of the Financial Standing of the City, Mayor Connell Says He Would Be Compelled to Withhold His Approval.

The action of Mayor Connell in vetoing the viaduct ordinance caused much comment yesterday, especially on the West Side of the city, but in the shape in which the measure is at present it does not appear that any other course was open to the mayor. His communication to council in full is as follows:

While I believe we all fully realize the necessity and importance of a viaduct over West Lackawanna avenue it is a matter of so great consideration to the city from a financial standpoint that we can well afford to make haste slowly. I therefore desire to call the attention of your honorable bodies first to section 1. This section of the ordinance refers to the plans and specifications "hereto attached." These plans are at present in blue print, the ground plan and a section of the proposed viaduct, and in view of the argument of counsel and the opinion of the court upon the application of the city for review, this involves an ordinance or resolution duly passed and approved defining the character of the improvements proposed and naming such persons and organizations as will file in from the officers and agents of the city as well as the property owners affected of what is to be done and how it is to be accomplished. In fact, the plan call for, but exactness in these particulars is of the utmost importance where it is provided to assess the damage before anything had been done. The fact that we are lacking these might be mentioned in the material of the structure, the location and the site of the supports, the character of the material, etc., all of which particulars are very material facts for the consideration of the voters in the assessment of damages and notes that the amount to be supplied by evidence outside of the ordinance.

We must also bear in mind that the city's indebtedness is at its limit, and that the city cannot be bonded to the extent of $300,000. It is contemplated an expenditure that will exceed this amount without a vote of the people.

I therefore most respectfully return file of select council, No. 2, without my approval.

In conversation with a Tribune reporter, concerning his veto, last night, Mayor Connell said:

"In the interest of the financial standing of the city, if for no other reason, I would be compelled to veto the ordinance, for we know not what this improvement would cost us for damages to property. There is nothing to provide for the payment of these damages. If the money was taken out of the revenues of the city, it would render impossible any other improvements in the city, no matter how urgently needed. The city cannot be bonded to raise the money, for we have no more bonds than our present limit, and no more bonds can be issued without the consent of the voters of the city until after the city redeems $100,000 of its outstanding bonds in 1915. New bonds for viaduct or other purposes could then be floated.

"To go and construct the viaduct and let property owners secure such judgments as they could against the city and let them pile up and accumulate interest would ruin our credit and we would return to the era when city orders were peddled about the city and disposed of at a discount. While I am mayor of this city I would never give my approval to any measure that would tend to thus endanger the financial standing of the city."

SCOTT KNEW THE LAW.

He Gave a Judicial Opinion and the Coroner's Jury Thereupon Refused to Give Its Verdict for Publication—Owen Biglin Is Opposed to Scops.

Dunmore sets the pace. Lackawanna county has had many curious coroner's juries in its time, from the one at Carbondale which decided that a man died from "mechanical violence superinduced by atmospheric contamination," down to the recent Scopus jury, but it remained for the six good men and true who are trying to ascertain who is responsible for the death of Francesco Conforti, who was killed at Bunker Hill Sunday night, to make a new record.

The jurors held an adjourned session last night at the office of Justice of the Peace Robert J. Scott, on Chestnut street, Dunmore, who is one of the jurors. The others are Dr. J. R. Murphy, Patrick Cleary, Owen Biglin, Peter Petersall and Anthony Regan.

After deliberating for some time they agreed upon a verdict, but when a Tribune reporter asked permission to copy it for the benefit of the public, he was refused point blank.

Chief Justice Scott interviewed his law books and gave it as his opinion that the jury could not divulge the contents of the verdict until it was placed in the hands of the coroner.

That settled the matter.

It was explained to the jurors that the coroner was in Carbondale, and as it had always been the custom to give the verdict of publication as soon as prepared, the jury would only be following an established precedent. Argument was lost on those jurors, however.

"We know our business," remarked Mr. Scott, as his eyes wandered towards "Binn's Justice."

"You bet we do," echoed another of these distinguished gentlemen.

"You can't get no scoop through us for your paper," shouted Owen Biglin, who evidently can't appreciate journalistic enterprise.

When the sense of responsibility and importance that is now bearing down so heavily on these worthy gentlemen wears away an anxious public will probably be enlightened as to what form of verdict the prodigious intellects of the jurors has evolved.

No doubt it will be a wonder.

It is time that the present coroner's jury system was abolished. It is a farce at best, and a very expensive one, too.

CASES HEARD IN COURT.

Verdict Sealed in Two Cases After Court Adjourned.

The case of Michael Larkin against the city of Scranton was resumed before Judge Archbald in the main court room yesterday morning. Mr. Larkin sued to recover damages for the taking of a strip of his property 12 by 75 feet by the city in widening West Lackawanna avenue. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the case was given to the jury, which agreed at 5.30 and sealed its verdict.

In court room No. 3 the ejectment suit of William Moore against James Rowley was called for trial. It was brought to recover possession of a house and lot on Wyoming avenue, Green Ridge. After the case had been opened it was discovered that an important paper was missing and a juror was withdrawn and the case continued.

In the case of Christian Allen against the school directors of Carbondale township the jury yesterday morning returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Allen of $112.30.

The case of John P. Jones against Watson and others was given to the jury yesterday and it agreed at 6 o'clock last evening.

Before Judge Archbald yesterday the case of William McManus against George Cooper was tried. The plaintiff sued to recover for personal injuries sustained at the hands of the defendant. The case went to the jury at 4 o'clock.

The Scranton Business College is not yet three months old, but it has enrolled nearly 300 bona fide students. New ones have entered every day this week and others have arranged to enter later.

Extra seating capacity will soon be provided for the night school. A few vacant seats left in the day session.

Professor P. Don Yoder has already established for himself such a reputation as a teacher of shorthand that another school in endeavoring to secure his services. The shorthand department will soon have to be enlarged.

More calls for office help from business men. In order to supply the increasing demand the proprietors have been obliged to allow some to leave the departments before graduating.

The football team will play a game in a neighboring city this afternoon.

ANDERSON WILL RECOVER.
 Bill Has Been Removed and He Is More Comfortable.
 Latest reports from the Lackawanna hospital agree that Anderson, the colored man who was shot, will recover. Yesterday afternoon the surgeons removed the bullet that penetrated the man's body, below the heart. The missile was discovered close to the skin in his back. The bullet in his left arm was also taken out. Anderson is very weak, but still he is conscious.

As yet the police have got no trace of Holt, the assassin. Advice from Wilkes-Barre, Nanticoke and Binghamton states that the police of those towns had not seen him.

Holt may be the same man who figured as the wounded principal in a shooting affray at Smithville last January and lingered at death's door in the Pittsford hospital for three months, but finally recovered and was discharged on April 10.

He gave his name as William Holt, age 23 years, single, and his residence, Charleston, S. C. He has a record, it is said, of having killed two men in the south.

REPENTED HIS FOLLY.
 Patrick McDonald, of Pittston, Becomes a Husband Under Pressure.
 Between the lines of an apparently commonplace marriage ceremony performed yesterday by Alderman Bailey were hidden the details of a man's perjury and a woman's trust. The bride couple were Miss Kate Flannaghan, of Pittsford, and Patrick McDonald, of Pittsford.

Miss Flannaghan had earlier in the day procured from the alderman a warrant for the groom's arrest, alleging that he had betrayed her confidence under promise of marriage. McDonald was arrested in the Sagoehanna House in Pittsford, where he is employed as a bartender. On arriving in this city he regretted his folly and consented to become Miss Flannaghan's husband. A marriage license was procured from the clerk of the courts and the nuptial vows were pledged before Alderman Bailey.

CASE OF FANNING FAMILY
 It Was Discussed at the Meeting of Poor Board.
SHOTTEN'S ACTION APPROVED

Mrs. Swan Thought the Charges of the Professional Nurse Were Too High. Injured Colored Woman Taken to The Hospital—Relief Granted.
 At yesterday's meeting of the poor board the case of the Fanning family, of Breaker street, Green Ridge, was brought up and discussed. This is the family seven members of which have been suffering from typhoid fever.

Mr. Shotten reported that several members of the family were still suffering from typhoid fever, while others were progressing. The nurse had been engaged by him at the salary she named, as he was unable to secure a trained nurse at a less figure. He had arranged with some, but when they went to the house, and saw how matters were situated they declined to stay.

Mrs. Swan thought the charges were ridiculous, but the action of Director Shotten was confirmed as being the wisest under the circumstances. A suggestion was made that a nurse be detailed from the hospital. The duties at the house with the seven patients were described as peculiarly arduous, and Dr. Bentley had visited and approved of the work done.

Removed to Hospital.
 Director Tropp reported that a colored woman had been shot near the county jail in an affray on Wednesday night. Her male companion, who was also shot, was taken to the hospital, but the woman was left alone, and he ordered her removal also to the hospital.

Mrs. Bridget Gavin, of 1745 McDonough avenue, was granted $3 a month for three months, and Mrs. Castor, of Cedar avenue, $3 a month for a similar period. Mary Brivisko, of 829 Fig street, was granted a monthly allowance of $5 for three months; Eugene Schoepf, $5 for three months.

Mrs. Edward Toner, of South Washington avenue, caught a little "shivaree" with Mrs. Swan. Mrs. Swan explained that she had dealt liberally with Mrs. Toner, and allowed her to incur a milk bill of $2, but, instead of which, the lady presented an account of $7.32 yesterday. The case was dismissed, when the applicant warned Mrs. Swan that "there was a hard day of judgment in store; never mind its coming."

Mary Butterman, of Dunmore, was granted $10 to pay her fare to Indiana, to join her husband.
