CAUSED HIS WIFE'S DEATH. Mr. Pollack Makes a Peculiar Charge Against the City. A serious complaint has been entered by Joseph Pollack, of Eynon street, against the city, in which it is alleged that when the authorities graded Eynon street the work was performed in such a manner that the surface water was diverted from its original channel and left to flow into his cellar.

Scranton's Business Interests. THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES ARE DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully. Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

Dr. Gibbons, of New York city, will be in his Scranton office, 411 Wyoming avenue, every Monday from 8 in the morning until 3 in the evening. Buy the Weber and get the best. At Guernsey Bros.

ANNUAL SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY

Scranton Street Baptist Scholars Celebrate—Saturday's Foot Ball Game. Miraculous Escape of a Mother and Her Infant.

The annual rally of the Sunday school of the Scranton Street Baptist church was observed last evening in the church with appropriate services. Dr. B. G. Boddoe, superintendent of the Sabbath school, presided. The meeting opened at 7:30 o'clock with roll call. The members then sang and prayer was offered by assistant Superintendent G. W. Hutchinson; singing followed. Miss Grace Goodrich, a talented young elocutionist, gave a recitation entitled, "My Mother's Bible." The members of Miss Anna Morgan's class gave an entertaining dialogue entitled "Master Is Calling." A recitation was given by Miss Lizzie Jones. Responses were made by officers and teachers, and the good work done by the school was freely discussed. The primary exercises were given by the young people under the direction of Miss Mattie Watkins. The choir rendered the beautiful anthem, "I Am Glad," under the direction of Thomas G. Evans. The collection for home and foreign missionary work was then taken.

Rev. T. J. Collins preached a short sermon, taking his text from Hebrews, II, 1: "Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed, lest at any time we should let them slip." The closing hymn, "God Be With You," was sung. The accompanists were Misses Marion Hutchinson, Lillian Moore and Mrs. B. G. Boddoe.

William Powell Buried. Many friends of the late William Powell, who died on Wednesday last, gathered at the family home on Fourteenth street at 2:30 o'clock, where funeral services were held.

Among the many floral designs were a handsome "Gates Ajar" inscribed "Husband and Papa," and a pillow bearing the words, "Son and Brother." The flower bearers were David Evans and David Lewis. The attending lodges were: Bald Eagle tribe, No. 102; Pannocka tribe, No. 141; Navajo tribe, No. 105; Mingo tribe, No. 124; and Lechanna, No. 57, all Improved Order of Red Men; Hyde Park castle, Knights of the Mystic Chain, and Waco council, No. 45, Degree of Pochontas. Interment was made in the Washburn Street cemetery. The chaplains of the several lodges read the ritual at the grave. The pall bearers were Earl Hollister, Richard Thomas, Jonathan Jones, William Charles, William Lewis, Henry Hancock.

No. 14 School Wins a Foot Ball Game. A large number of people assembled on Gammon's hill on Saturday afternoon to witness a game of foot ball between the teams of No. 14 and Green Ridge schools. The No. 14 team had the advantage from the beginning. Although younger in years than their opponents, they were more agile and knew the scientific points of the game. Good work was done by Mott and Phillips, and Archie Brown made a brilliant dash of 109 yards, securing a touchdown. Final score, 22 to 4, in favor of No. 14 school. The teams lined up as follows: No. 14. Green Ridge. Mott, left end; Phillips, left tackle; Archie Brown, left guard; Smith, center; Hitchcock, right guard; Kinsey, right tackle; Jones, Joseph, right end; Coleman, E. Clark, quarter back; Williams, Anna and Maggie Harris, Kooles, G. Phillips, left half back; Wertz, Brown, full back; Gavel.

James P. Harris' Birthday. A pleasant surprise and birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Harris, 570 Evans court, Friday evening, the occasion being Mr. Harris' thirty-first birthday. Singing by a quartette, music by Isaac Price and Harry Edwards, recitations by Miss Hutchinson and dancing were in order for the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John M. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Ludwig, Mrs. Muir, Mrs. Lanman, and the Misses Jennie Jones, Lizzie Phillips, Lizzie and Mary Ellis, Mary and Norma Powell, Jennie Jones, Mary Watkins, Blanche and Ruth Davis, Lizzie Thomas, Anna and Maggie Harris, Margie Harris and Mary Ludwig, and Charles Keller, Jacob Pfeiffer, Chris and Daniel Robertson, David Jones, John Jenkins, William Ludwig, Wesley Walters, Isaac Price, Harry Edwards, Daniel Harris, Chester Ludwig and William Harris. Those from out of town were Miss Hutchinson, of Shamokin, and Miss Berkler, of Oliphant. Miss Hutchinson returned to her home in Shamokin, Saturday, after a visit of four weeks with Scranton friends. Miss Berkler accompanied Miss Hutchinson and will be her guest for a few weeks.

Mother and Baby Escape Death. The milk train which arrived in this city from Buffalo at 3:35 o'clock yesterday afternoon struck a buggy at Tripp's crossing. The vehicle contained two women and a child. The engine struck the rear portion of the buggy and knocked it from the track. The women and child were thrown out and by some miracle escaped with only a few bruises. The horse jumped a fence and dashed away, leaving the vehicle a total wreck. The women were taken to the home of Mr. Chase, near by, where their bruises were dressed. The parties' names could not be learned.

Married in Binghamton. Charles Stutter, the shipping clerk for John T. Porter, and Miss Jennie Jeffrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jeffrey, of Wright's court, were married in Binghamton Saturday. On their return a reception was tendered them at the home of the bride's parents. The bridal couple were accompanied on their trip to Binghamton by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benore, of Scranton street. The newly wedded couple are well known on this side. The bride is a prepossessing and talented young woman, and her husband a popular and industrious man. Their many friends wish them unmarred happiness.

Michael Reap Buried. The funeral of the late Michael Reap, of Eynon street, the brakeman who was injured at Clark's Summit on Wednesday last and afterward died at the Moses Taylor hospital, took place yesterday morning and was largely attended. Among those who attended the

DAY OF NUMEROUS FUNERALS

Funerals were many members of Moses Taylor Lodge, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Patrick's church by Rev. Father Dunne, assisted by Rev. F. P. McNally as deacon, and Rev. Father Fricker as sub-deacon. The floral contributions were many and beautiful, and comprised a large pillow and wreath from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and a cross from the employees of the train on which he worked. At the close of the services interment was made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Thomas Glynn, Stephen Connors, Richard Maxey, Miles Crossin, John Misman and John T. Mullarney, of Moses Taylor lodge. The flower bearers were E. L. Dorsey, Harry J. Martin, John Jennings and George Lantry.

Brief Notes of Interest. Mrs. John S. Harris, of Division street, is ill. E. D. Tyler, of North Main avenue, is visiting friends in Susquehanna. William C. Davies, of Lafayette street, has a relapse of typhoid fever. Miss Jennie Lawrence, of North Hyde Park avenue, is recovering from an illness of typhoid fever. James Clary, of Tunkhannock, returned home on Saturday from a visit with Mrs. James Butcher, on North Lincoln avenue.

At a meeting of the Welsh Philosophical society on Saturday evening E. P. Davis gave a talk on the subject, "What Coal Is Made Of." Evan Miles conducted the singing. A crowd of mischievous boys broke a large plate glass window for William Deckelnic, the hotel keeper, a few nights ago. Mr. Deckelnic gave chase, but was unable to capture them.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Louis E. Jones were conducted Saturday afternoon at the home of John E. Jenkins, in Oswald court, by Rev. David Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Congregational church. Interment was made in the Washburn Street cemetery.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Evan T. Morgan, of Division street, were held at the home of Mrs. Evan T. Morgan, on North Main avenue, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The funeral was held at the home of Mrs. Morgan, on North Main avenue, where the body was lying in state. NORTH END NOTES.

Miss Emma Wilson, of Oak street, is visiting her sister in Northumberland. John Wilson, of East Market street, spent Sunday with friends in Danville. Miss Rachel Griffiths and Elizabeth Thomas, of Wilkes-Barre, visited Seth Griffiths, of Spring street, last week. Camp 177, Patriotic Order Sons of America, expect to initiate eight new members Wednesday evening.

James Blise, of East Market street, in the dry goods department of Fenner & Chappell's store to go to Ashley, where he expects to open a general store. Randolph Crippen, of Main avenue, has recovered after a ten days' illness. William Bright, the carriage maker of Main avenue, has recovered from a serious illness. Randolph Crippen swore out a warrant Saturday charging David Lewis, David Hirtley, Bertie Davis, Merthan Edwards and Frank Richards, five small boys between twelve and fourteen years of age, with breaking a plate glass window of the store occupied by Mr. Stull, by pushing a wooden Indian, which she used as a cigar sign, through it on last Thursday evening about 6 o'clock.

The annual bazaar of the Puritan Congregational church, which was held in Company H armory, came to a successful close Saturday night. The main features of the evening were the announcing of the names of the successful contestants in the different contests, and the sang drill and march under the direction of Miss Margaret Davis to music furnished by Miss Mary L. Reese. The drill was given by Miss Mary Edwards, Alice Thomas, Alice Pearce, Margaret Williams, Harriet Richards, Elizabeth Leonard and Mabel Jenkins, thirty-four other girls being in the march. Armit Thomas announced the following as the successful ones in the contests, John Thomas, quilt; Mrs. Alfred Perry, gold watch; Margaret A. Williams, diamond ring; Henry John, chair. The bazaar suit contest was postponed until sometime in January.

Very interesting services were held in the Welsh Baptist church last evening by the Sunday school in observance of Bible day. They were in charge of George Davis, and consisted of songs and recitations by the scholars. A collection was taken for the benefit of the Baptist Home and Foreign Bible society. Owing to the bazaar being held in the armory Friday night, the Keystone Dancing class will meet tonight. A five o'clock tea was held on Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Mary Madely, daughter of George Mabey, proprietor of the Bristol House, by the members of a Sunday school class in St. Luke's church. The afternoon was spent in giving recitations, singing and other features, after which tea was served. Those present were Misses Anna Morton, Kate Lundy, Belle Mabey, Bessie Mabey, Ruby Lyons, and Ella Lundee.
