NORTH END NOTES.

Miss Quigley, of Pittston, is visiting Miss Kate Saltry, of Market street. Mrs. Sumner, of New York city, is visiting Mrs. Frank Pierco, of Providence road. The many friends of A. K. Detweiler, of Church avenue, are anxious to secure for him the office of county detective for the coming term. The rails of the extension connecting the Providence and Hyde Park lines have been laid as far as Court street and the ties are spread to the Bull's Head Hotel. The Ladies Aid society of the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church, will have a sale of fancy articles at the residence of E. E. Teal, on Sanderson avenue, tomorrow afternoon and evening. Rev. William R. Edwards, of Wayne avenue, recently pastor of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, has recovered from a two weeks' illness, and expects to leave today to visit friends in Onondaga county, New York. William Oldendike, of Throop, swore out a warrant before Alderman Horan, of the Second ward, yesterday afternoon charging his mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Jones, also of Throop, with being a common scold. At the trial a large number of witnesses testified of her quarreling frequently with her family. She was held in $400 bail to appear in court, John Burnett, of the Boulevard, becoming her bondsman. When it is time that you are in need of money do not forget Davidow Bros. banking establishment. Very Long Lived Family. Mr. and Mrs. David Ireland have returned from Glenwood, where they were summoned by the death of Mr. Ireland's father, who expired at the ripe age of 88 years, leaving a widow aged 90, and two sons and five daughters, the oldest being 77 years of age. We wish it distinctly understood that we are selling a stock of unadorned pledges at a big sacrifice. Davidow Bros.

BURGLAR WAS INTERRUPTED

Midnight Craftsman Discovered in the Residence of Mrs. E. Tison and Escapes—Mrs. Maggie Montgomery in Trouble Again.

One of the boldest burglaries which has ever been made on this side occurred yesterday morning at the home of Mrs. E. Tison, 115 South Sumner avenue. The house is occupied by Mrs. Tison and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shedd.

About 2:40 o'clock Mrs. Shedd was awakened by a noise near the side window of her room and was terrified to see a man standing within a few feet of her, rifling the bureau drawers. She called her husband and the burglar took alarm and hastily disappeared. Upon further investigation it was found that the burglar had ransacked the two top bureau drawers and taken Mrs. Shedd's pocketbook which contained $28. He had her gold watch and diamond ring on the stand and Mr. Shedd's trousers containing $68 ready at hand to take with him, when fortunately Mrs. Shedd's screams compelled him to escape before this action could be carried out. Mr. Shedd's money was scattered about the floor.

Mr. Shedd is employed at Duryea and is the treasurer of the mine accidental fund. The burglar evidently was aware of this fact and thought that considerable money was stowed away. Mrs. Shedd was greatly overcome by her fright, but is now nearly well. She described the perpetrator as being a tall man in dark clothes, but up to this time he has not been captured. When her husband went out to the porch yesterday morning to procure his Tribune, he found the pocketbook which had contained the $20 in the yard, but the money was gone.

Almost a tragedy. On Monday afternoon Mrs. Maggie Montgomery, a character well known to the police, entered the store of Michael Toohill on Jackson street, where she has a habit of loafing. Mr. Toohill has tolerated these actions for a long time and on Monday he resolved to stop it. He told her that she must not loaf there. Mrs. Montgomery refused to go out. A scuffle ensued, and as Mr. Toohill is old and feeble, he was in great danger. He rushed behind the counter and procured a revolver. The woman rushed at him and the revolver went off, the bullet just grazing Mrs. Montgomery's shoulder. She then left the premises.

Masons Will Meet. The Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will be instituted on this side today. The institution ceremonies will be in charge of the grand secretary of the general Grand Chapter of the United States, who comes here from Missouri.

At 10 o'clock the members of Martha Washington Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will meet in Masonic hall in special session for the exemplification of the work. The officers of the society held a meeting last evening at the home of James B. Eaton on Tenth street.

Lecture Last Evening. A large number attended the lecture of Ross F. Wicks, which was given in St. David's hall last evening under the auspices of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church. His subject was, "The Way to Get on in the World."

Mr. Wicks spoke in an eloquent manner on the trials of a Christian. He also gave excellent advice to young people, and spoke of the way in which they should live.

Brief Notes of Interest. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Price, of Academy street, are in New York city. Miss Annie Pasknell, of Newark, N. J., is visiting friends on this side. Mrs. L. P. Lang, of Wilkes-Barre, is the guest of Mrs. Fritz, on Jackson street.

Those brownies are very funny. They amuse the children. Part one now ready.

Editor D. L. Davis, of the Lansford Leader, was the guest of friends on this side yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Terwilliger, of Wilkes-Barre, have returned home from a visit with friends on this side.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a regular meeting of Moses Taylor lodge, No. 423, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, held at A. O. U. W. hall, Scranton, Pa., Nov. 18, 1894, the following resolutions and resolutions were unanimously adopted on the death of Michael Reap: Whereas, The members of this lodge are sorely grieved to learn of the death of our worthy and beloved brother, Michael Reap, who was suddenly called away from this world on the fourteenth day of November, 1894.

Resolved, That the members of this lodge tender their sincere sympathies to the bereaved family, and that they be allowed to remain in mourning, it having been the will of Almighty God to remove from our midst our worthy and beloved brother, Michael Reap, who was suddenly called away from this world on the fourteenth day of November, 1894.

Resolved, That the relations held by our deceased brother with the members of this lodge render it proper that we place on record our appreciation of his merits as a man and a worthy brother. Therefore be it

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of Almighty God, we none the less mourn the loss of our worthy brother, who was so early cut down in the full vigor of his manly life.

Resolved, That in the death of Michael Reap our order has lost a most worthy member, the railroad company a steady, sober and trustworthy employe, and his grief-stricken wife a loving and devoted husband.

Resolved, That we tender the members of the bereaved family, especially the wife and mother, our sympathy, knowing how inadequate are words to lessen the desolation of the heart, but earnestly wishing it were in our power to allay the grief and anguish of the ones deeply bereaved.

Resolved, That as a token of respect and esteem for our departed brother, our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, that a copy of these resolutions be published in the Scranton daily papers and spread on the minutes of this lodge, and a copy of the same furnished the wife.

Scranton's Business Interests. THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be found in book form, beautifully illustrated with photogravure views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new customers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES ARE DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature and fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.
