CITY NOTES.

Each branch of council will meet tomorrow night.

The funeral of Attorney Hugh McCollum will be held this afternoon in Montrose at 3 o'clock.

Taylor avenue property owners have been notified by the board of health to connect their properties with the sewer.

Staff Captain Watkins, of New York city, is conducting a series of meetings in the Salvation Army barracks on Price street.

Mrs. L. M. Gates will address the members of the Young Women's Christian association tomorrow at noon in the association rooms.

Thomas Redington qualified yesterday as bondsman in the sum of $500 for Mick Buskoff, of Frickville, who is charged with keeping a tipping house.

Banjo and guitar club meets tonight in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian association. All young men invited to come and bring their instruments with them.

The sale of seats for the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre Symphony orchestra concert at the Academy of Music on Friday evening will open this morning at the box office.

An interesting communication from Rev. J. C. Hogan, of Forest City, upon the Prohibition party's future has been received. It will appear in next Saturday's Tribune.

Marriage licenses were yesterday granted to Morris Jones, of Dunmore, and Bridget Walker, of this city; Eugene George Mott, of Oil Forge, and Mary Ann Bushkin, of Moscow.

Beginning the evening of Dec. 1, Saturday, Eugene Call, of The Tribune, will give a stereopticon display from the Tribune building. The displays will be continued during the winter.

The fire alarm sounded from box 62 last night soon after 9 o'clock was caused by the explosion of a can of benzine in the basement of L. W. Lewis' store on Dickson avenue. The damage was slight.

Attorney David J. Davis, representing F. E. Nettleton, yesterday began an assumpsit suit against Wholesale Merchant Howard W. Hull, of Lackawanna avenue, for an account of $25.18, due on the cost of two car loads of oranges, shipped from Lake Helen, Fla.

The views of Mayor Connell upon the board of trade's suggestion that the office of fire marshal be created could not be obtained yesterday. In any event a fire marshal could not be appointed until next April, when the appropriations for the fiscal year, 1895, go into effect.

A reception was given by the entertainment committee of the Young Women's Christian association to the members last evening, the special feature of the evening being the welcome extended to the 102 new members of the central branch and fifty from the South Side branch. The arrangements were splendidly carried out by Mrs. Frank Watts, Mrs. Mason, Miss Clara Richards and Miss Ruth Dale. Refreshments were served during the evening.

The home of Evan Jones, on Webster avenue, was the scene of a very enjoyable gathering Monday evening, it being the celebration of his seventy-ninth birthday anniversary. Mr. Jones was the recipient of numerous valuable presents. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jones, Jr., and family, Edward Jones, Mr. and Mrs. George Jones and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jones, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bushnell, Mr. and Mrs. Will Phillips, Rev. Richard Horns, Miss Jessie Horns, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heel, Bert Bushnell and Miss Emma Huber.

LARGE CONFIRMATION CLASS.
Bishop Nicholson Administers Membership Rites in Grace Reformed Church.

Bishop Nicholson last evening performed the important function of confirmation of candidates at the Grace Reformed church, Wyoming avenue, in the presence of a very large congregation.

The following candidates were confirmed: Miss Anna Staines, Herbert Staines, Mrs. Rosina Mincher, Miss Lucy Luckner, John H. Farrell, Robert Horace Bonney, Miss Mary Harkness, William H. Rowe, Mrs. Rowe, Miss Sarah Roberts, Miss Pearl Murray, William H. Prynn, George Charles Graves, Miss Mary Adelle Graves, Miss Anna Hoste, Miss Mary E. Deater, Miss Georgianna Williams, Miss Katie Bury, Daniel H. Powell, Horace C. Smith, Mrs. Martha Diehl, Miss Mamie Hurt.

At the conclusion of the solemn service of confirmation the bishop preached an impressive sermon. Last evening witnessed probably the largest number of candidates confirmed at any time in Grace Reformed church, and is a good indication of its progress.

Queer People Catch On.
Do they? Well, now, you just ought to see. Hundreds of 'em have been seen at 10 cents per part of thirty-six, and the week isn't half over. Do you see, they make the children split their sides with laughter and juvenile wit. That's why the "Queer People" catch on.

PROPERTY OWNERS ON RECORD.
Some of Them Are Willing to Allow the Traction Company to Change the Location of Its Tracks on Franklin Avenue.

Only two members, Kellow and Manley, of the street railway committee of select council responded to the call for a meeting to be held last night in the city clerk's office. The committee was to have considered an ordinance permitting the Scranton Traction company to change the location of its single track on Franklin avenue between Spruce street and Lackawanna avenue. Recently the property owners secured a permanent injunction restraining the company from double tracking the street. It is believed by a portion of the land owners and certain members of the committee that the present ordinance providing for a change in the single track hides an intention to double track the street. Nevertheless, the company's representative presented the following paper signed by a minor portion of property owners:

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 11.
To the Select and Common Council:
Gentlemen—We, the undersigned property holders, residents and tenants, residing and doing business on Franklin avenue, in the city of Scranton, do hereby record ourselves as being favorable to the location of a double track on said avenue.

In our opinion the double tracking of said avenue is a benefit not only to ourselves, but to the entire city of Scranton, in which we have a supreme interest.

M. Moses, Bro. & Co., P. Zetler, W. A. Beemer, Bittenbecker & Co., James Ferguson, O. A. Beemer, Mary Moore, W. H. Whyte, W. H. Jackson, Joseph Goff, Union Transfer company, limited, H. E. Hand chairman.

Owing to the absence of a quorum an adjournment was made until tomorrow evening.

TAYLOR'S NEW DIRECTORY.
J. James Taylor, son of the late W. H. Taylor, who for many years has compiled the Williams Scranton directory, is now canvassing the city for a new directory, which among other progressive features will include the block system. This is one of the newest and most complete systems and is now utilized in all the large cities and makes the directory much more valuable.

Mr. Taylor has for years been his father's trusted assistant and has had vast experience in compiling works of this class. He is a resident of Scranton and is thoroughly familiar with the city and its people. He will give the business fraternity a directory that will be complete in every particular.—Adv.

Gentlemen, have you seen the new style link cuff buttons that David Bro's has for sale?

Those Queer People.

Palmer Cox is the acknowledged poet laureate of children. Everybody knows how funny his "Brownies" were. In "Queer People" he has drawn pictures—quite funny and wedded them to verse even more droll. We have secured several thousand copies of this interesting child's book as a Christmas offering for the little ones. Part one is going rapidly. It costs 10 cents at our office, or 12 cents by mail. For juvenile delight, try "Queer People." It's un-failing.

It is useless for anyone to try and find a nicer assortment of link cuff buttons than David Bro's have.

Relief Came at Last to the Patient Sufferer—How She Was Cured.

Sarah H. Smith, Pineville, Bucks County, Pa., says: "I was a great sufferer from rheumatism. I had the disease for over twenty-five years, and the torture I have undergone the past quarter of a century no pen could describe. Every attack I had, my entire body was racked with pain, and I was in a terrible condition. I tried doctor after doctor and every remedy that could be suggested, but all with the same result. None of them ever gave me the slightest relief. I had had the disease so long that it had become chronic when I began to use Munyon's Rheumatism Cure. It was not long before I felt a great deal better, and after using it a short time the rheumatism left me. I have not had a trace of it since, and am convinced that I am permanently cured."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, legs, sides, back or breast, or soreness in any part of the body in from one to three hours. It is guaranteed to promptly cure lameness, stiff and swollen joints, stiff back, and all pains in the hips and loins. Chronic rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago or pain in the back are speedily cured.

Munyon's Homoeopathic Home Remedy Company, of Philadelphia, put up specifics for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents a bottle.

HARRY WOODS DEFEATED

The Pride Featherweight of the Excelsior Athletic Club Wins the Tournament at Music Hall.

McCoy Beats Schlosser in One Round. Nonpareil Athletic Club Sends on Good Men—Crowded House Greets the Tournament.

The Excelsior Athletic club is to be commended for the exhibition of boxing given at Music Hall last night. The last bout on the programme was decided unfairly, and the spectators did not hesitate to venture remarks upholding that opinion. Referee Robertson was pleased with a gusto for his decision. Aside from that each of his awards met with approval.

At 8.30 the tournament opened. Secretary John J. Collins addressed the spectators and announced that in the place of Jockey Fred Tural who was negotiating with to come on as referee the tournament would find a worthy substitute in W. H. Robertson, of New York. Fred W. Burns, of the Varuna Boat club, of Brooklyn, was secured as announcer, and John Kennedy, of South Washington avenue, as timekeeper.

Two lightweights, William Kane, of the Excelsiors, and Thomas O'Donnell, of the Nonpareils, of Trenton, met in the opening bout. O'Donnell had the best of the first round. He landed hard blows on Kane's nose and the latter's ribs suffered from some well delivered body blows. The second round was a better exhibition of science. Honors were equal. In the third round Kane showed signs of punishment and at times was not able to keep his guard in position. At the end of the bout the referee announced O'Donnell the winner.

O'Donnell will fight for the prize tonight with Thomas Monaghan, of the Excelsior Athletic club.

An Embryo Corbett.

The second bout was between Timothy McDermott, of the Nonpareils, of Trenton, and Ed Spink, of Professor Kohler's Physical Institute, New York. Spink charged after the fight that he was fifteen pounds out of weight, but at any rate he is not to be blamed for not putting up a better battle. McDermott is a living example of what is commonly termed "greased lightning." He has a quick style of fighting that resembles very much the tactics of James J. Corbett, and he looks a little like the champion. He had Spink at his mercy, and in the second round floored him with a full swinging blow. The third round was weak and Spink kept clinching to avoid punishment. This go was in the 125 pound class.

The 125 pound class was between Joe Lane, of the Greenwoods, of New York, and John Rice, of the Eureka, of Philadelphia. Lane showed an agility that was remarkable and punished his opponent badly with jabbing and uppercutting. The second round was a repetition of the first, and Lane was delivering his hard blows with dexterity and ease. When the round was about to wind up both men got close together and did some lively in-fighting. One of the ropes and he followed it up with a swinging right, but before it was delivered Rice went down in his corner and his friends claimed a foul.

The referee ordered the fight to go on, but Rice threw down the gloves and refused to fight. The bout was awarded to Lane, and the spectators applauded the decision. Professor Kohler, who presided, made a childish exhibition by declining against the decision.

"Batty" McCoy, of the Greenwoods, and L. Schlosser, of New York, competed in the 145 pound class. The first round ended the fight. McCoy punched his man so badly that he threw up his hands. Some one in the audience said that it was an unclean match, that McCoy was too heavy. Captain P. J. Durkin, of the Excelsior Athletic club, testified to the weights of both men and said they were evenly matched.

The fifth bout was to have been fought by Joe Willischek, of Philadelphia, and George Jones, of New York. Announcer Burns said that Jones "flew the coop" and the fight was awarded by default to Willischek.

Woods, of Scranton, Punished.

The sixth bout was between Harry Woods, of the Excelsior Athletic club, and John Clunan, of the Greenwood club. The result of the fight was a sore disappointment to all. Woods is one of the best amateur feather weight in the country and at the last tournament he defeated that clever boxer, Joe Willischek. He also sparred with Austin Gibbons and made a good mark. His friends were thinking of putting him in against George Dixon, the colored champion who will be at the Academy of Music on Thanksgiving day.

Woods met his downfall and goes down with a large amount of local sympathy. Clunan had his hands full but he demonstrated that he is a much better boxer. He had the best of each of the three rounds and was awarded the fight. The referee at the end of the third round ordered another round of two minutes but Woods only got more severely punished. Lots were drawn then to decide who would battle for the prize tonight. McDermott, who defeated Spink, was matched to fight Willischek but he withdrew as he did not want to meet a fresh man. Willischek and Clunan will fight tonight.

The last bout was in the 155 pound class. This is the one in which the referee was biased in his decision. It was a hammer and tongs go between John Curtin, of Philadelphia, and J. McGowan, of the Excelsiors. The latter is the stronger and displayed more brute strength and an ugly temper, but Curtin was the more scientific and won the fight by right, although the decision was given his opponent.

All of the visiting boxers are registered at the Columbia hotel on lower Lackawanna avenue.

Announcer Burns is a good one in his line, but he would be more popular if his head was reduced a few sizes. He exhibited a freshness that was more amusing than provoking. This likely is his first visit to Scranton.

MRS. J. J. O'BOYLE BURIED.

Impressive Funeral Services Held from St. Peter's Cathedral.

The funeral of Mrs. J. J. O'Boyle, late of Penn avenue, took place at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated at St. Peter's church by Rev. J. J. O'Reilly, assisted by Rev. J. A. McHugh and Rev. F. J. Golden. There were also present Rev. N. J. McManus, Rev. F. P. Walsh, Rev. F. McNally and Rev. M. J. Millane. Rev. Father McHugh paid an eloquent tribute to the memory of the deceased lady, and delivered a pathetic sermon based upon the parable of the talents and dwelt upon the faithfulness of Mrs.

OLD OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Mrs. Duggan Complimented for Work of the Past Year.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES MEET
Persons Cautioned Not to Give Charity Without Investigation—Five Directors Elected to the Board.

Enthusiastic proceedings made last night's annual meeting of the Associated Charities deeply interesting. The meeting was held in the Albright Memorial hall under the presidency of E. L. Worman, T. J. Moore acting as secretary.

A nomination committee consisting of E. J. Lynnot, William T. Smith and Luther Keller submitted the names of Dr. B. H. Throop, T. J. Kelly, P. J. Ruane, Philip Kirchner, W. Gayford Thomas as directors for a term of three years. The nominations were confirmed with acclamation.

Rev. Rogers Israel was unanimously re-elected secretary, William T. Smith being similarly re-elected to the office of assistant treasurer. Later in the meeting Colonel E. H. Ripple was re-elected president.

The annual reports of officers were received and ordered to be placed on the minutes, a vote of thanks being accorded to the press for publishing the same last Saturday.

Colonel Ripple read Mrs. Duggan's annual report and said that the result had been to diminish the number of frauds who had imposed upon the good people and church organizations of the city. Mrs. Duggan had carried on splendid work despite many insults and had supplied invaluable information, especially where charity had been misplaced and goods supposed to be given for relief of the poor had been wasted. Several young girls had been saved and sent to the various institutions. He wished to emphasize the fact that the object of the association were not to pauperize, but to help the poor in earning a living. Colonel Ripple paid a tribute to the work of the St. Vincent de Paul society and concluded by asking the meeting to tender of the assistance of Mrs. Duggan for a rising vote of thanks to Mrs. Duggan for her work during the past year.

Credulous People Imposed Upon.
Colonel Bojcs spoke upon the mistaken idea which prevailed as to the work of the association, which he contended was not of a charitable nature, but to prevent imposition upon regularly organized institutions and persons and suggested that the explanation should be made through the press, and he advised all persons not to give any relief without proper investigation.

T. J. Moore, president of the St. Vincent de Paul society, complimented Mrs. Duggan upon the valuable aid given by her to that society.

E. J. Lynnot, on behalf of the Poor board, said that the assistance given by Mrs. Duggan to the board in investigating the cases of relief had resulted in saving thousands of dollars. J. R. Cohen and E. B. Sturges followed and also complimented Mrs. Duggan.

Rev. Rogers Israel, secretary, and W. T. Smith, treasurer, made interesting speeches as to the work of the past year, and referred to the object of the association, which they emphasized was for the proper regulation of dispensing charitable assistance, and contended that the value produced was double the amount of good accomplished by money given by private persons with the best possible intentions.

Colonel Ripple was re-elected president and presided during the organization of the newly elected board. Rising votes of thanks were tendered the president and secretary for their services during the past year. E. J. Lynnot and J. R. Cohen seconded vice-president. Mrs. Duggan was re-appointed agent at a salary of $50 per month.

It was resolved that the regular meetings of the board be held on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month.
