Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church this year. Rev. S. C. Hodge, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preaching the sermon. The services begin at 11 a. m. It is said that forty-two Lehigh Valley conductors were discharged simultaneously with the change of time schedule. Big, good natured Conductor Kinney says he was aware that a "spottier" was going up and down on his train, but, as he was doing his duty faithfully, he felt no uneasiness, and his discharge was a surprise to him. It is alleged that the spotter is the Italian detective who ferreted out the Mafia-society criminals who were concerned in the well remembered tragedy at New Orleans a few years ago.

Clarence W. Fish and family, of Home's ferry, were guests of Lyman Ellsworth people the first of the week. The W. C. T. U. meets with Mrs. L. T. Burns Tuesday evening.

A series of wrecks, four in number, have occurred on the Valley road since Saturday morning, involving considerable loss of property and narrowly escaping the destruction of a passenger train in one instance. Several trainmen are taking a vacation in consequence.

W. E. Bullock has closed his shoe shop on account of ill health. Sheriff Knapp will go to Philadelphia the first of next week to convey Ben Sanders, the convicted horse thief to the Eastern Penitentiary. Sanders gets two years in solitary confinement at hard labor. W. A. Stark, of East Lemon, will accompany the sheriff.

It is hinted that E. J. Jordan, esq., will be the choice of the Wyoming county Republicans to fill the vacancy in congress. The personal property of E. G. Lott, of Forkston, has fallen into the hands of the sheriff and will be disposed of under the hammer Monday next.

The real estate of E. F. Keeney, lying in Moshoppen and Brashtim townships, which was advertised to be sold by the sheriff on Saturday, was not sold. A part of the indebtedness was paid and the sale was stayed.

The court has appointed George Cooke, G. P. Dersheimer and Asa H. Frear viewers on a proposed road in Clinton township. N. P. Wilcox, Augustus Colvin and David Goodwin will serve in a like capacity on a road in Tunkhanock township.

The grand jury refused to recommend that the county build a bridge near Wilson's mill in Monroe township. In their judgement the bridge is not too expensive for the township to build, hence there will be no county bridge at that point at present.

The grand jury found a true bill against the supervisors of Tunkhanock township for neglecting to repair the road near the outlet of Lake Carey. The case was continued to January term.

Mrs. Benj. Maxey and Mrs. F. M. Dolph were in Scranton yesterday. Sunday morning, about five o'clock, the alarm of fire was sounded. The fire was located in a house belonging to Jno. Radtke, a Poleander, on South Hudson street. Radtke and family occupied the upper story, where the fire originated, and John White and family lived in the basement and first floor. Owing to the distance from the fire companies' quarters the fire had made considerable headway before the Enterprise hose company, which was the first to arrive, had astream of water on the building.

The fire was extinguished, but not until the house was ruined. It looks very much as if it was of incendiary origin as this was the third time in a week that it had been on fire. The Hillside hose company also responded, but their services were not needed.

About three o'clock yesterday morning, the inhabitants from their stumblers by the whistles tooting an alarm for fire. The fire first time was in the one story building owned by H. W. Brown, and occupied by W. F. Davies as a shoe store, on Main street. The Enterprise hose company's rooms are near by, and that company soon had the burning building under control. The Hillside fire company were quick to respond and had a stream of water on the flames and the adjoining buildings. The interior of the store is completely ruined and Mr. Davies' stock spoiled. The fire was of a mysterious origin. Mr. Davies carried $1,000 insurance.

SCROFULA 12 YEARS

Always Sore. Face Burned Like Fire. Ashamed to be Seen. Four Doctors but Little Benefit. Cured by CUTICURA.

For about ten or twelve years I have been troubled with scrofula. My head was always sore, my face was dry and scaly, and burned like fire most of the time. My body had big red spots on it, and I did not know what to do. I went to four different doctors and they helped me at first. In the fall I got worse again; then I tried other remedies, but they did me no good. I was ashamed to go into public. I was a sight to look at. Every one would say, "What is the matter, why don't you take something?" Even at my daily labor I had to wear a sort of cap to keep the dirt from getting into the sores. After I would wash, I would be covered with big red pimples all over my neck and face. Some two or three people advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDY. I did try them, and am glad I have done so. Glad to say I am a well man, and in the best of health since. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDY too highly. I enclose my portrait.
