TUNKHANNOCK.
Isaac Freeman, who was hurt a couple of weeks ago by being thrown under a loaded wagon, is falling and it is thought that he cannot recover. It is claimed that his spinal column is broken in two places.

Farmer Otten, of Dutch Mountain, this county, is experimenting in raising Hamburg sheep. It is said that they stand the climate well, are very prolific, and shear as high as twenty-four pounds of unwashed wool at a clipping. If they prove to be all that is claimed for them they will become popular with Wyoming county farmers.

We have it from inside sources that boring operations at the Forkston oil well will be resumed within two or three weeks and the well put down 1,000 feet farther unless oil or gas should be struck at less depth. The well was put down about 2,500 feet last summer and then work suddenly abandoned and the tools shipped away. The movements of the prospectors are not fathomable to the uninitiated.

Mrs. Robert Atkinson, of Alford, is a guest of friends here.

Proposals to contest the election for president Judge of this district have been begun. The necessary petition is presented to the attorney general has been drawn and quite a number of signatures attached. The general sentiment in both counties seems to be that the contest is unwise.

James L. Vose and A. M. Eastman, esq., are each erecting fine new residences in the northwest quarter of the town.

NICHOLSON.
On Saturday last a surprise was tendered Miss Minnie Wilbur by her young friends. The hours from two to five passed off in a very pleasantly. The presents were numerous and useful. Refreshments were served and all went home wishing their young friend many happy returns of the day.

Little Daisy Cady is convalescing after a severe illness.

Mrs. C. E. Williams entertained a number of young people at her home last evening.

Our school was again opened last Monday morning. It had been closed for the past three weeks on account of the influenza scare.

Mrs. A. R. Rank, of Scranton.

Miss Anna Wilcox, our popular milliner, has gone to Brooklyn for a few days.

CLARK'S SUMMIT.
Another real estate transaction of considerable size and importance to the town of Clark's Summit has just taken place. For some time negotiations have been pending between Horatio M. Patrick, our enterprising young townman, (and in reality the prime mover of all the growth we have made in the past four years), and Mr. Atherton, the former owner of the plot known as Woodlawn, containing fifty-two acres, for the purchase of the same, which is now consummated. This will open up one of the finest plots for suburban residences to be found in Lackawanna county. It lies within one-quarter of a mile of the station adjoining Summit Park, and also the Patrick & Powell plot, overlooking the town and railroad, is a gentle slope with abundant drainage and has a large number of native trees and numerous springs of pure, soft water, which can be carried over the greater portion of the tract. It is also backed up on the west by a beautiful grove of natural trees. Mr. Atherton purchased the property a few years ago of George S. How for $4,000 and now realizes $10,000 for it, and with there is plenty of money in it with such an enterprising man as Mr. Patrick behind it. If the weather permits he will at once begin grading streets and have it ready for the spring opening. With a fine prospect for a new depot in the Democratic incompetence.

New York Special to Chicago Record.

A Tennesseean, who fought through the war in the confederate army and has been prominent in financial and industrial development in the south, told me today that he voted the Republican ticket yesterday for the first time in his life. "Ten years, five years ago, if any man had told me that I would ever vote that ticket, I should have resented it as an insult, but I added my drop to the deluge yesterday."

"Why did you do it?"
"Because I am convinced that the Democratic party is not competent to govern this country. That has been demonstrated in congress and in the executive administration, and the people are done with it. That is the reason why my state went Republican."

To Perfect Health and Strength After Four Years Suffering.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"Gentlemen—I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the grandest discovery yet made, and it fulfills even more than you claim for it. My wife has been sick for the past four years. For three years she has so bad that she was unable to do any of her household work. We had good physicians, but she did not recover her health. She was suffering from Bright's disease and
