Cured of Malaria and Dyspepsia of Five Years Standing.

Mr. G. B. Quick, one of our leading merchant tailors, writes:

Auburn, N. Y., Sept. 6, '91.

Dr. Potter Medicine Co., Gentlemen—Five years ago I had a severe attack of malaria which was followed by dyspepsia in its worst form. Every succeeding year the malaria has returned, and I was almost a total wreck. I have tried every remedy that I thought would lift me, but obtained no relief. One of my friends advised me to try your Dr. Larocque's Nerve Tonic and Dyspepsia Pills. I did so with the most beneficial results. I have been using them since June last. My dyspepsia is gone and the malaria has not returned—the first time in four years that it has not visited me annually. I think your pills have done wonders for me and would advise all sufferers of malaria and dyspepsia to try them. Dr. Larocque's Nerve Tonic and Dyspepsia Pills cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Nourishment, Headache, Catarrhal Headache, Sciatica, St. Vitus Dance, Female Weakness, Excess, Early Decay, Run down and wasted Vitality, Pale and Sallow people, and all Diseases having their origin in the nerve centers. They act direct upon the Stomach, Nervous System and Blood. 25 cents a bottle. For sale by Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail.

The $40,000 School House for Columbia avenue has been let and will be commenced immediately. There are still a few more lots left at a low price.

SOCIAL OF TRUE AMERICANS

Held in Rooms of the Organization on South Main Avenue—Entertainment and Tarr Social at Welsh C. M. Church—Peter Oliver Buried.

Electric Camp, No. 35, Patriotic Order of True Americans, conducted a delightful entertainment and social in its rooms on South Main avenue last evening. The ladies have given a large number of these affairs, and they have always met with approval. Last evening was no exception to the rule. The rooms were trimmed in good order and an enjoyable time was had. The programme opened with an organ and auto-harp duet by Isaac Price and Harry Edwards. It was received with applause. Miss Fannie Jones rendered a vocal solo, and an instrumental duet by Frank Genadee and Ernest Scott was given. James R. Hughes, principal at No. 14 school, gave an address and spoke in glowing terms on the success which the camp has already achieved.

Miss Alice Williams recited, and John Clark followed with a harp solo. Mrs. Randolph Jones and Mrs. Frank Beck sang a sweet duet. Miss Mary Dorsey recited, and a duet by Miss Fannie Jones and Mrs. Randolph Jones closed the entertainment. A pleasant social followed, during which cake and coffee were served.

Social Last Evening.

The lecture room of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church was well filled last evening at the entertainment and tarr social given by the members of the Christian Endeavor society. The rooms were prettily decorated with flags and bunting. Gwynn A. Williams presided. The programme opened with an address by the pastor, Rev. Hugh Davies, which was well given. Solos were rendered by Evan Miles, Miss Lydia Jones, Miss Lizzie Parry, Mrs. Dr. Roberts, Tudor Williams, Morgan Harris and Elias Williams. Those who gave recitations were: Emerson Owen, Miss Sarah Powell, Charles Cadogan and Mrs. George Howell. A dialogue given by Misses Minnie Parry, Kate Hawkins, Anna Phillips and Oliver Jones created great applause. Duets were rendered by Edith and Eddie Davies, Misses Mattie Thomas and Lizzie Williams. A tarr social followed, during which refreshments were served by the young ladies. The affair was a decided success.

Peter Oliver Buried.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Peter Oliver, of Twenty-second street, who died on Sunday, December 2, 1894, yesterday afternoon from the family home. The remains were removed to St. Patrick's church, followed by a large concourse of people, where services were conducted by Rev. P. E. McNally. The services were impressive. Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Board of Erin, attended. The flowers were of neat design. Interment was made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The flower bearers were: Thomas Connors and John Flynn. The pall bearers were: John Lavelle, Anthony McNulty, John J. Gallagher and Dominick Neuham.

Will Receive Donations.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church had a room open in St. David's hall yesterday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock to receive contributions for the poor, as Thanksgiving gifts. The Plymouth Congregational church contributions can be left in the chapel from any time today. At 3 o'clock this afternoon, gifts will be received at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church by a committee for that purpose. Last year this church gave away thirteen Thanksgiving dinners.

Struck with a Plank.

Michael Utt, an employe of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, and engaged as a carpenter on the new Oxford breaker, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon. A large timber on the roof became loosened and fell, striking Mr. Utt upon the head and shoulders. He was removed to his home at 716 Eynon street, where Dr. J. J. Roberts dressed his injuries.

Brief Notes of Interest.

Don't forget the raffle for fine turkeys tonight at Smith's hotel, 123 North Main avenue.

Mrs. Richard M. Harris, of Avenue D, Bellevue, is suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

Misses Mame Donohue and Mary Gougle, of this side, are visiting friends in Wilkes-Barre.

Big time tonight at Smith's hotel, 123 North Main avenue. Raffle for fine turkeys. Don't miss it.

Misses B. Padden and Nellie Loney, of Carbonate, have returned home from a visit with friends on this side.

Rev. Daniel Jones, of Wisconsin, a noted divine, visited Bezeloe Davies, of Washburn street, during the week.

A union Thanksgiving service will be held by the Christian Endeavor society of the Plymouth Congregational church tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. James P. Davies and son, Charles, and Mrs. John Armstrong and daughter, Rachel, of Edwardsdale, have returned home from a visit with friends here.

The dime entertainment and card social at the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church, which will occur this evening, promises to be a grand success.

The funeral of Mrs. James Ricketts, of 720 Eynon street, who died on Tuesday, will take place on Friday afternoon. Interment will be made in the Washburn Street cemetery.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church will hold its annual bazaar for the sale of Christmas presents at the parsonage on Washburn street, on Dec. 13 and 14.

Miss Gwenne Thomas and Rahel Powell, have been appointed delegates of the Christian Endeavor society of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church and will attend the convention at Carbonate on Friday.

A telegram was received here yesterday that a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Evans, of Salt Lake City, who visited here about a month ago, was dead. Mr. and Mrs. Evans have the sympathy of their large circle of friends here.

A drama entitled "False Pretensions" will be presented on Jan. 15 under the direction and management of Miss Belle Vipond. The following will participate: Misses Bertha Powell, Maud Vipond, Margaret Gibbs, Helen Mott and Emerson Owen, Myron Evans, Frank Hagen, George Vipond, George Peck and Edward Taylor.

Williams Evans, of North Garfield avenue, was arraigned before Alderman Blair for attacking Mine Foreman D. W. Moser, who was returning home a few evenings ago. Evans stated that he was mistaken in his man, as he supposed Mr. Moser to be his father-in-law. It was case of mistaken identity and the alderman imposed a fine and costs on Evans.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE.

Thanksgiving Exercises at the Young Women's Christian Association—Boxer Patrick Murphy Engaged as Instructor by the Scranton Athletic Club—Return of Patrick Casey.

Thanksgiving Day services at the Young Women's Christian association rooms will be especially interesting. The entertainment, which begins in the afternoon at the close of the religious exercises, will last until 9 p. m., and will vary every hour. All young women are invited and will be welcomed by the secretary and the members of the reception committee.

What the programme will be is as follows: The rooms will be thrown open at 3 o'clock and until 3:30 the reception will take place; from 3:30 to 4 a praise service will be conducted, and from 4 until 5, music, games and conversational pastime will be indulged in. From 5 to 7 something good to eat will be ready for all. After that for an hour there will be a gymnasium drill and art gallery and gypsy maid reproduction. The last hour of the evening will be devoted to music, charades and an elephant party.

Getting Ready for Battle.

Oftentimes the query has been asked, Why is it that the Scranton Athletic club does not hold a tournament? The reason advanced by the members of the club is because they do not belong to the Amateur association. But still that does not prevent them from having one, and in answer to the question in a positive way the club has decided to engage the services of Patrick Murphy, of the Excelsior Athletic club, a local athlete who is well up in the science of the sport, as an instructor for the coming winter months. As soon as the boys begin to get in form a date for a tournament will be decided upon.

Casey Again on Deck.

Patrick Casey, husband of Mrs. Maria May Gillard, of Pear street, is home again from Sparrow Point, and until he leaves again, which will be in about two weeks, taking as a criterion his past departures, the neighbors and the people of the Twentieth ward generally will be furnished with a topic for gossip.

Shorter Paragraphs.

Select Councilman Charles Westpfahl has returned from a visit to Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Anna Dunforth, of South Washington avenue, will spend Thanksgiving in Philadelphia.

The funeral of Mrs. Dorothea Bresser, of Cedar avenue, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Michael McDonnell, of Hawley, has returned home after a short visit with friends on this side.

Druggist Daniel G. Gelbert, of South Washington avenue, is around again after a spell of sickness.

Chicken thieves the other night broke open the coop of Martin Cannon, of Cedar avenue, and stole forty chickens.

This evening the annual entertainment of St. Mary's Glee and Dramatic association will be held at the church hall.

Since the South works suspended operations a few of the idle employes have secured employment with the gang that is repairing the street car tracks.

Tomorrow night at Germania hall the Scranton Athletic club will conduct a Thanksgiving ball. At Natter's hall the Mozart band will also hold forth.

Tomorrow morning at St. Peter's cathedral the marriage of Miss Kate Sweeney, of Hemlock street, to John McGraw, of Prospect avenue, will take place.

The Viola Social club will hold its first masquerade ball at Germania hall Monday evening, Dec. 10. Admission for ladies will be 10 cents and gentlemen 25. Professor Wahlers will furnish the music.

Rev. Mr. Schwender, of Chicago, who has been conducting revival services at the Hickory Street Baptist church for three weeks, ended his labors Monday night and left for home yesterday. His efforts succeeded in creating much spiritual enthusiasm in the church and are appreciated by Rev. Mr. Schmidt, the pastor.

Scranton's Business Interests.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new consumers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as a representation of the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES ARE DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring lists of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

I am prepared to receive a limited number of piano pupils. For terms, etc., address Richard P. Lindsay, 822 Mulberry street, Or at Powell's Music Store.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

(Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.)

Mr. Stubblebine Corrects.

Editor of The Tribune.
Sir.—In today's issue of your paper you make the statement that the funeral services of Charles Raffelt were under the auspices of Camp No. 242, Patriotic Order Sons of America, which is not true. As pastor of the family I attended Charles during his sickness and was with him when he died. As he was a member of the Patriotic Order Sons of America it was proper that that society should attend the funeral, but the services both at the house and at the grave were in my charge. None of the members attended the services at the house and all the service they conducted was a brief ritual service at the grave. You will confer a great favor on both myself and the family by publishing this statement and removing an erroneous impression that may be in the minds of some, that no minister was present.

W. H. Stubblebine.

Editor of The Tribune.

One of the most attractive signs in this part of the city is the illuminating motor which George Davis has had placed in position in front of the Lewis drug store. The motor is of sheet iron, studded with glass prisms of different colors and is lighted by two gas jets.

The Royal Family social club gathered at the home of William Jenkins, on Spring street, last evening in honor of his daughter, Miss Anna. Games were indulged in until a late hour, when refreshments were served, after which all went to their various homes.

Mrs. Michael Flood died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Rowley, on Washington avenue, at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon of apoplexy, at the age of 71 years. She is survived by two sons and a daughter. Her husband died about a year ago. Mrs. Flood was well known here, having resided in the North since 1854 until a few months ago. The funeral services will be held today. A requiem mass will be celebrated in St. Paul's church, Penn avenue at 9 o'clock; interment being made in the Hyde Park cemetery.

North End Notes.

Mrs. Rachel Davis (Rahel O'Fon), of Wisconsin, preached to a good sized audience in the Welsh Congregational church last night.

Rev. D. M. Kinter, of the Christian church, will preach at the union Thanksgiving Day services in place of Rev. M. D. Fuller, as has been announced.
