Judge Jessup will spend Thanksgiving with his family at Montrose. Pressman Charles J. Watkins has returned from an extended European trip. Jerome Keogh is in Honesdale on a short visit and will return home this afternoon. Judge and Mrs. R. W. Archibald entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Archibald, of Pottsville, last night at a dinner. Attorney B. F. Killam, who has been hunting in Pike county, returned yesterday with substantial tokens of his skill. Senator-elect J. C. Vaughan, has resigned his position as principal of No. 17 school, which will take effect at the beginning of the Christmas holidays. Coroner J. A. Kelly is in Honesdale attending the wedding of Peter Carroll, of Carbondale, who was married last night to Miss Regina Kelly, daughter of the Hon. Bernard Kelly, of this city.

DEATH OF MRS. M. A. GOULD.

She Had Reached the Advanced Age of 86 Years. Mrs. M. A. Gould died at the residence of her son, A. R. Gould, carriage manufacturer, of 408 Clay avenue, yesterday morning. Mrs. Gould was 86 years of age and had resided with her son for the past twelve years. She has been a faithful member of the Episcopal church and was greatly esteemed for her kindly disposition and Christian virtues. The funeral will take place from the Episcopal church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Brakeman Lost His Fingers.

Oscar Reynolds, of Dalton, a brakeman, met with an accident in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western yard yesterday afternoon. While engaged in coupling cars he placed his left hand between two buffers with the result that they were severely crushed. He was removed to the Moses Taylor hospital, where the fingers were amputated.

MISS VILLA SEELEY MARRIED

Becomes the Bride of George Warner, of Eynon Street—Card Social at Sumner Avenue Presbyterian Church—Entertainment of C. M. B. A.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Seeley, of 216 North Ninth street. The contracting parties were their daughter, Miss Villa Seeley, and George Warner, of Eynon street. The rooms were prettily decorated with potted plants and ferns. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. C. Hughes, pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church. The bride was attired in a pretty costume of white silk landsdown, and was unattended. After the ceremony, a wedding supper was served. The young couple left on the midnight train for New York and Philadelphia on a short honeymoon. On their return they will reside in a newly furnished home on North Main avenue. Many out of town guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Warner are well known. The former is employed as a book-keeper by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, and his wife is a pretty and attractive young woman.

A Card Social.

An excellent programme followed by a pleasant social time, were the features of an entertainment in the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church last evening, by classes of the Sunday school. Rev. R. G. Jones, pastor of the church, presided. Mrs. John L. James was organist. The programme, which included the best talent of the church, consisted of piano duet by Arthur Morse and Walter Davies. The Misses Helen Corbin and Jennie Hughes gave recitations, and a solo was rendered by Miss Stella Evans. Miss Alice Williams gave a splendid recitation, and Harry Holly followed with a tenor solo. Misses Esther Williams and Mattie Hughes gave recitations, and Mrs. Williams rendered a solo. A feature of the evening was a drill exercise, which was given by twenty-four small girls, under the supervision of Bezael Davies. A duet by Misses Fannie Jones and Clara Sanders won merited applause. Miss Lizzie Griffiths recited, and a solo was rendered by Miss Fannie Jones. A card social followed, at which the young ladies of the church served ice cream, cake and other refreshments.

Social Last Evening.

A very large number attended the entertainment and social which was given in Mear's hall last evening, under the auspices of St. Patrick's Ladies' branch, Catholic Mutual Benefit association. The rooms were prettily decorated with flags and bunting. The stage was set off with potted plants and ferns. Miss Nellie Curran opened the well prepared programme with a piano solo. Vocal solos were rendered by Miss Sadie Timlin, of Jermy, and Miss Loretta Jennings. A banjo solo, by Miss Annie Colligan, won great applause. Recitations were given by Miss Martha Davies, Misses Tessie McCoy and Nellie Chaves. The address of Rev. P. F. McNally, of St. Patrick's church was well received. The performance was graced with three charming duets. They were given by Mr. and Mrs. Jordan, Messrs. Connolly and Tierney, Mrs. Sullivan and Miss Livia Jones. At the conclusion of the programme, the chairs were removed and dancing was kept up until a late hour.

Generous Children.

The Thanksgiving season has awakened in the pupils of No. 23 school a spirit of charity. The pupils gathered together a large supply of provisions and teachers of the school, who were the promoters of this magnanimous action, are: Professor H. L. Morgan, the Misses Annie Kelly, Mary McDonnell, Mary Magrath, Annie Davies, Martha Davies, Lizzie Warner, Kate Lewis, Margaret Lewis and Miss O'Connor. In addition to the large amount of five sacks of flour were presented by the teachers.

Brief Notes of Interest.

Harry Smith, of Stroudsburg, is the guest of relatives on this side. The funeral of Mrs. James Brickley, of Eynon street, will take place tomorrow afternoon. Plumber William D. Griffiths, of North Sumner avenue, will visit relatives in Danville today. William Mallia, a boy, was injured yesterday morning in the Mount Pleasant mine by being squeezed between cars. He was removed to the Moses Taylor hospital. The Simpson Methodist Episcopal and Plymouth Congregational churches were opened yesterday to receive Thanksgiving donations which will be distributed among the poor. Many contributions were made, and today the poor of this side will receive the benefit of their generosity. John Nicholson, conductor on an Eynon street car, and Miss Lizzie Williams, of Eynon street, were quietly married at the home of Rev. D. C. Hughes, pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, on Tuesday. The bride was attended by the Misses Thomas and Williams, and the groom by John Williams. The funeral of Miss Mary Connor, of Luzerne street, occurred yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Patrick's church by Rev. Father Whelan. The floral decorations were very neat. Interment was made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. McAfferty, McGowan, Murphy, McNulty, Riely and Dryle.

IRISHMEN WILL ENJOY.

Social Session This Afternoon of Lackawanna Irish-American Societies. With oratory, song, music, and refreshments the afternoon and evening will be spent by the Irish-American societies of Lackawanna county at Sheridan armory over Finley's on Lackawanna avenue. It will be a social session, meant as a Thanksgiving celebration, and distinguished visitors from Wilkes-Barre, Pittston, Carbondale and other nearby towns will be in attendance. John Devoy, of Chicago, is expected in town this morning and his name is among the list of speakers. Rev. P. J. McManus, of Green Ridge, and Attorney T. V. Powderly will also deliver addresses. The session will be called to order at 3 o'clock by the presiding officer, Senator-elect J. C. Vaughan.

CONVENTION AT CARBONDALE

Christian Endeavorers Will Meet Tomorrow—Special Train Arrangements. Carbondale will, tomorrow, have a large number of visitors to the sixteenth semi-annual convention of the Tri-County Christian Endeavor union. The morning and afternoon services will be held in the Berean Baptist church and the evening session in the Methodist church.

W. C. Weeden, the eminent baritone, and Miss Weeden, of New York, will assist in the musical programme. Speakers will be present from various parts of the state and from New York city.

NORTH END NOTES.

Mrs. D. P. Thomas, of Church avenue, is visiting friends in Danville. Fred Sicker is visiting friends in Buttermaik Falls, Wyoming county. Rev. and Mrs. D. Savage expect to spend today with friends in Plymouth. Miss Minnie Mason, of Olyphant, is visiting A. H. Kiesling, of Short avenue. James Gilboy, of Gilboy's cafe on West Market street, is visiting friends in San Antonio, Tex. The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold a package social in the church parlors next Tuesday evening.

Very interesting exercises were held in No. 21 school yesterday afternoon under the direction of Miss May Powell and Miss Mary Shields.

There will be three services today in the Welsh Congregational church. The collection will be for the benefit of the Home of the Friendless.

Miss Kate Connolly, of Market street, was married to William Harrington, of Charles street, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Holy Rosary church by Rev. J. J. O'Toole.

Special exercises were held in No. 25 school yesterday afternoon, which consisted of recitations and songs by the pupils, all of which were appropriate to Thanksgiving.

The annual convention for Thanksgiving evening in the Green Ridge Presbyterian church by the American Mendelssohn society, has been postponed to next Monday evening, Dec. 3. The choir, nevertheless, will meet for rehearsal Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Mary Rougan, of Market street, was married to William Harrington, of Charles street, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Holy Rosary church by Rev. J. J. O'Toole. The bride was attended by Miss Bridget O'Malley and Charles Boland acted as groomsmen. They left on the noon train for New York city.

Yesterday was donation day at the Methodist Episcopal church. A large quantity of food and clothing was left at the parsonage, which will be distributed under the direction of the Woman's Home Missionary society and the mercy and help committee of the Epworth league. The food will be given to the worthy poor in this vicinity today as a Thanksgiving gift, while the clothing will be sent to different home missionary stations in the south and west.

A large number of people gathered at the Green Ridge library Tuesday evening to witness the living pictures which were given by a number of the young ladies of Green Ridge under the direction of Mrs. R. E. Hearley, Mrs. W. H. Rockwell and Miss Edna Y. Davidson. The pictures were all representations of famous pictures and statues except some, which advertised several of the prominent business houses of this city. Music was furnished by Miss Sallie Becker and Miss Cora Long. Miss Mame Monies sang a solo during the intermission.

George T. Burdick, of Chinchilla, a gate keeper for the Providence and Abington Turnpike company at that place, swore out a warrant yesterday afternoon before Alderman Horan charging Giles Rozelle, of Newton, with defrauding the company. He claims that Giles is in the habit of entering the turnpike at Clark's Summit and when passing the tollgate to say that he entered it at the culvert under the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad at Chinchilla, thus beating the company out of 2 cents each trip. As he has done this for some time Burdick is anxious to put a stop to it.

Scranton's Business Interests. THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photogravure views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results, those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES are DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

I am prepared to receive a limited number of piano pupils. For terms, etc., address Richard P. Lindsay, 82 Mulberry street, or at Powell's Music Store.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Thanksgiving Services at All of the South Side Churches Today.

HICKORY STREET CAR LINE

It is Being Put in Shape—Marriage of Miss Kate Sweeney and John McGraw—Preparing a Map of Minoaka District Looking Toward Annexation.

All of the churches of this side will have services this morning, but none of them have made an effort to have anything out of the ordinary. It will be just as the usual Sunday services with the sermons to suit the occasion. At St. Mary's German Catholic church, on River street, and St. John's Catholic church, on Pig street, masses will be read. At the Hickory Street Presbyterian church Rev. August Lange will preach an evening Thanksgiving sermon and the same rule will apply to St. Paul's Evangelical church on Prospect avenue, where the pastor, Rev. Edward Lang, will conduct services. Rev. F. Holter at the Cedar Avenue Christ church will preach, Rev. J. C. Schmitt at the Hickory Street Baptist church will also preach, and at the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church Rev. E. L. Santee will address his congregation. At the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association there will be special services.

Getting Things Ready. Workmen were yesterday set at putting in the curved rails to connect the Hickory street line with the regular South Side line on Cedar avenue. Linemen are busy stringing the trolley and feed wires and roughly estimating it. Foreman Andrew J. Conlon thinks that the Hickory street line will be open for operation in a week. Two cars will be put on the line when it is opened and they will make at least half hour trips. Ground has been broken by the residents of the upper end of the Twelfth, Nineteenth and Twentieth wards that those people will appreciate and no doubt the line will prove a paying one for the company. The repair gang on the South Side line is making good headway in its work of reconstructing the road, and a trip over the road now recalls memories of the past when the rails and ties were new and first laid.

Shorter Paragraphs. Miss Annie Gibbons, of Pittston avenue, is home from Archibald, where she spent a pleasant visit. Ground has been broken by the Meadow Brook Brewing company for the erection of a barn in the rear of the brewery.

The Scranton Athletic club will run its anniversary ball at Germania hall on Jan. 21, 1895. It will be the eleventh annual affair.

The ball of the Mozart band at Natter's hall last night attracted a select gathering of young people who enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

The 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Tisdale, of Cedar avenue, was painfully burned about the face and hands yesterday by falling into a pan of hot water.

Yesterday morning at St. Peter's cathedral, with a nuptial mass, the marriage ceremony uniting Miss Kate Sweeney, of Hemlock street, and John McGraw, of Prospect avenue, was performed by Rev. Father Galden. In the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride and all the young and old friends of the couple came and offered congratulations.

The funeral of Mrs. Dorothea Bresser, of Hickory street, took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in Pittston avenue cemetery. At the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, where the burial services were conducted, Rev. August Lange preached an effective sermon and eulogized the Christian life of the deceased. The funeral procession was a very large one.

The Frothingham bill boards at the Robinson property on the corner of Cedar avenue and Alder street have been torn down in consequence of the quarrel between the management of the theater and the bill posters, Reese & Long. Common Councilman Robert Robinson ordered the boards demolished and will not allow their replacement until an amicable settlement has been made.

For a little while the question, Who will succeed Representative-elect Alex. T. Connel in the select council? has been having a rest. An individual who can give a correct guess will possess no less than a very large meed prophetic genius in view of the fact that there are about nineteen candidates for the honor. But the fight, according to the seers, has slizzed down among Thomas J. Coyne, Mark P. Cahill and Peter Haggerty, their respective chances at this outlook being according to the order in which they are named.
