P. J. Collins and Mr. McGovern, of Wilkes-Barre, were visitors in the city yesterday.

Theodore Connell, who is attending the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, spent Thanksgiving at the home of his father on Clay avenue.

W. C. Weeden and Miss Van Dervoort, of New York city, are at the Hotel Terrace. Mr. Weeden is well known in this city as the soloist that accompanied Evangelist Schiverea and Miss Van Dervoort in the soloist of the Yatsman Metropolitan meetings. Both will sing at the Christian Endeavor convention at Carbondale today. They will be assisted by H. H. James and Miss Lily Joseph.

MAKE-UP OF NEXT HOUSE.

Will Contain 234 Republicans, 104 Democrats, 6 Populists and 1 Silverite. By the United Press.

Washington, Nov. 29.—There will be in the next house 24 Republicans, 104 Democrats, six Populists, one silver man, and there is one vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Wright, Republican, of the Fifteenth Pennsylvania district. There are 218 Democrats in the present house, and of these only seventy-six were re-elected. One hundred and eleven were succeeded by Republicans, three by Populists and twenty-eight by other Democrats.

Of those who voted for the Wilson bill as it passed the house in February, six Populists were defeated for re-election, with fifty-nine Democrats. One Democrat who supported the Wilson bill, and was not re-nominated, will be succeeded by a Populist, while forty-two Democrats who voted for it and did not seek re-nominations have Republican successors. There were sixteen Democrats who opposed the Wilson bill, and of these seven were defeated, one by a Tammany Democrat, and six by Republicans. Five did not seek re-election, four will find Republicans occupying their places, while one gives way to another Democrat. But four of that sixteen were re-elected.

The Populists came from Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Alabama and North Carolina, each of which states sends one, except North Carolina, which elects two.

HOW THE DAY WAS OBSERVED

Religious Services Were Well Attended. Entertainment of the Chi Upsilon Society—Death of Abram Thomas, of Decker's Court—Other Notes.

Thanksgiving day as it was observed on this side yesterday was a typical one. The stores were all closed and everything assumed a holiday appearance. The extreme cold weather on the evening before converted the brick-yard pond into a skating rink, and a very large number amused themselves by gliding over its smooth surface. In the afternoon the theaters and foot ball games were the attractions, and in the evening the splendid entertainment at Mear's hall brought the people out in crowds. Services were held in all the West Side churches during the day, and many attended.

Chi Upsilon Entertainment. Mear's hall resounded with the mirth and laughter of young people yesterday afternoon at the pantomime entertainment, which was presented under the auspices of the Chi Upsilon society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church. The programme was designed especially for the amusement of children and it succeeded admirably. The first number was an overture by the "Harlequin band" (burlesque), which was well given. Miss Long recited and the "Babies in the Wood" was presented.

Miss Edith and Master Eddie Davies sang a very pretty duet, which was followed with "Nickel in the Slot," a very amusing scene. A recitation was given by Miss Ossie Phillips. The cataphone, an ingenious instrument for the reflection of sounds, followed. Harold Miller rendered a vocal solo, and a drill by Miss Sarah Jones' class of girls closed the successful affair.

The evening programme was an excellent one, each number being very carefully selected. The hall was crowded with an appreciative audience. Solos were rendered by Philip Warren, Miss Lydia Sailer, Mrs. Charles Metzgar and Professor William Jones. The mandolin solo by Arthur Morse won much applause. Recitations were given by Charles Cadwgan and Miss Adele Breakstone, of Wyoming seminary. Both were given in an artistic manner. A guitar solo was given by Miss Anna La Shelle, and a duet by Misses Grace and Anna Rose. The performance closed with a charming comedy, entitled, "Who Shall Win Him." It was presented in an excellent manner.

Those who participated were Misses Margaret Phillips, Maude Fisher, Myrtle Van Gorder, May Elsing, Mary Fisher and Charles Frazier, Charles Blume and Wallace Moser.

Death of Abram Thomas.

Abram Thomas, a well known resident of this side, died at 4.20 o'clock yesterday morning after an illness of several months at his home in Decker's court. Deceased was born in Aberdare, South Wales, and was 35 years of age. He has been a resident of this side for the past thirty years. Mr. Thomas had innumerable friends among his Welsh brethren and was known for his estimable qualities and genial disposition. He was a member of Silurian lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Lodge No. 107, American Protestant association and Uniformed Rank No. 336, Knights of Pythias. He was employed at the Bellevue mine and was associated with the Bellevue Accidental fund. He is survived by a wife, Margaret, and four children, namely, Arthur, Jennie, Zurlah and Abel Thomas. The funeral will occur on Sunday afternoon. Interment in the Washburn Street cemetery.

Little News Notes.

Will D. Griffiths, of North Sumner avenue, was in Danville yesterday.

John J. Davies gave a talk on "Chemistry" on Wednesday evening at Dalton.

Professor Charles Hughes, of New York city, visited friends on this side yesterday.

Miss Lavina Tague, of Nicholson, is visiting at the home of her brother, P. W. Tague, on North Main avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robertson, of North Rebecca avenue, gave a tea party yesterday in honor of Miss Carry Robertson and her friends, Mr. and Miss Kohl, of Wilkes-Barre, and Miss Hill, of Division street.

Anthony McGoff, of Archbold street, while attending his sister's wedding on Railroad avenue last Wednesday evening, had his shoulder dislocated by falling on the ice, while throwing out a pail of water. He was put under an anesthetic by Drs. Robert and Paine and the limb was replaced.

The funeral of Miss Loretta Burke, of Ninth street, occurred yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Patrick's church by Rev. P. F. McNally. Father Dunne was deacon and Father Enright, sub-deacon. A large number attended. Interment was made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

A social was held at the home of Miss Cassie James, on South Rebecca avenue, last evening. The rooms were decorated with an array of ferns and chrysanthemums. The evening was devoted to games and music. A prominent feature was vocal solos by Tom Beets and John A. Wetling. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

The many friends of the late William Tyler, of North Sumner avenue, who died on Monday from a stroke of paralysis, assembled at the family home yesterday afternoon, where funeral services were held. After a short meeting of prayer, the funeral cortege moved to the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. The pastor, Rev. L. C. Floyd, D. D., officiated, and preached an impressive sermon. The floral tributes consisted of a large number of neat designs. Silurian lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and Encampment No. 81 of Odd Fellows were in attendance. Interment was made in the Washburn Street cemetery.

Nearly all of the West Side churches were represented yesterday morning in the Plymouth Congregational church at the sunrise prayer meeting, which occurred at 7 o'clock. The services were in charge of the pastor, Rev. Thomas Bell. The meeting was opened with singing. Nearly all present quoted verses of scripture and gave testimonies of faith. The members of the Plymouth church decided to assist the family of Abram Thomas, who died at 4.20 o'clock yesterday morning, and two wagon loads of provisions and considerable money was sent to the house. The bereaved family have the sympathy of their large circle of friends.

TYPOGRAPHIST'S BALL.

Great Success at Turner Hall Last Evening.

Turner's hall was filled to overflowing last evening by those who attended the eighth annual ball of the Scranton Typographical Union. A large number were unable to participate in the dancing owing to the over-crowded condition of the hall. Bauer's band was in attendance and played several selections during the evening.

A. J. Langan acted as general manager, and John J. Donnelly, assisted by William Holtham, as master of ceremonies. The reception committee were: John R. Farr, chairman; Isaac Harris, B. F. Moore, S. A. Cahoon, Edward Watres, T. R. Phillips, Jay H. Eaton, H. W. Dushner, W. D. McFadden, Alfred Twining, M. W. Watton, W. A. Browning, Joseph Hamm and William Corless.

Visitors were well pleased with the excellent arrangements provided for their reception and a very pleasant evening was spent by all, despite the crowded state of the ball-room.

VERY LIVELY WIND UP.

Game of Foot Ball at Park Place Ends in a Fight.

An exciting game of foot ball was contested by the North End Crescents and the Park Place club yesterday afternoon on the ground of the latter. The game closed seventy minutes and resulted in a victory for the Crescents, the score being 24 to 0.

As soon as the game concluded matters assumed a more lively aspect among the 200 spectators who had shouted themselves hoarse in supporting their favorite team, and after some indecible language was hurled at each other, an open light ensued. Fists were used at first, but soon the battle warmed, when sticks and clubs were freely used and finally stones were resorted to.

Several emerged from the fray with altered physiognomies and will bear for some time a memoir of the memorable Thanksgiving game at Park Place.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Ninth Anniversary of the Marriage of Mrs. Maria Mulherin, of Minooka.

BRIDGET LALLY WINS WATCH

Contest Was Under the Auspices of the Twilight Social Club, of Taylor-Engineer District at Work on the Map of the Minooka District.

All the near relatives of Mrs. Maria Mulherin, of Minooka, received an invitation from her yesterday, which was the ninth anniversary of her marriage, and a family reunion was held at her residence. The day was pleasantly spent and at 5 o'clock a sumptuous Thanksgiving supper was served.

Those who had the pleasure of Mrs. Mulherin's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Cusick, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Mulherin, Mr. and Mrs. Martin P. Judge, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Burke, Michael G. Cusick, Peter F. Cusick, Michael Judge and Peter Judge.

The Successful Contestant. For some time the friends of Miss Bridget Lally, of Pittston avenue, have been canvassing in her interest as she was one of the contestants for a gold watch offered by the Twilight Social club, of Taylor. The contest closed last night and the club ran a social at Weber's rink. When the purses were counted it was found that Miss Lally had won by a handsome margin. She received congratulations on all sides.

Thanksgiving Services. The Young Woman's Christian association rooms were tastefully arranged and decorated for the Thanksgiving services which were held yesterday held. The programme began with prayer, followed by special music and religious exercises. At 6 o'clock supper was served, from 7 to 8 o'clock music and games, and until 9 o'clock the time was taken up with an elephant social. A merry time was enjoyed. At the different churches services were held, devoutly attended by the members of the congregations.

Charles Scheiber's Promotion. The many friends of Charles Scheiber, this side, who has for two years been assistant superintendent of the Carbon-dale district of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, with his office at used at first, but soon the battle warmed, when sticks and clubs were freely used and finally stones were resorted to.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

John Langan is visiting Wilkes-Barre friends.

Mrs. M. E. Tucker, of Howell, Mich., is visiting relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Frost, of Drinker street, spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Marsh Camp.

The Epworth league held a very interesting and successful missionary entertainment in the Methodist Episcopal church last evening.

The Pastime Social club held their annual ball Wednesday evening in Koch's hall. It was one of the largest and most successful held in Dunmore.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church, at the residence of Fred Stevens' Wednesday evening, held one of the most pleasant and successful socials and suppers that they have ever had.

Miss Maggie Reardon has been appointed by the school board as teacher, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Lizzie Cullen. There was a large number of applicants for the position. Miss Annie McDonald, of Main street, was appointed teacher for night school.

The extra meeting at the Baptist church will be continued every evening until further notice. Thus far the attendance has not been what it should be. Rev. Fred Dreyer, who conducts the meetings, is giving his life to Christian work. He deserves the support and co-operation of our people.

The Loyal Legion will hold an unusually interesting meeting next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. The programme is being prepared by the committee having the matter in charge; J. P. O'Connor, of the Scranton Trust, will address the meeting. A general invitation is extended to all to attend.

Rev. J. W. Williams is ill with a severe cold and cannot preach the union Thanksgiving sermon in the Baptist church as announced. He secured in his place Rev. Dr. S. C. Logan, of Scranton, who preached a very interesting sermon on the wonderful growth and development that we enjoy as a nation and the dangers that threaten us.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS.

Comet Social club held a social last night at Workmen's hall.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Cavanaugh, of River street, spent yesterday in Wilkes-Barre. The South Side Choral union will rehearse at Phillips' hall Sunday afternoon.

D. J. Clearwater, of William Connell & Co.'s Meadow Brook store, is visiting in Bellefonte.

Fred Carr, of Wyoming seminary, is at home for the week with his parents on Elm street.

Mrs. A. Weinschenck and her daughter, Mrs. D. L. Kenniman, are visiting in Bethlehem.

Miss Mollie Lundy, of Orchard street, was tendered a surprise party at her home Wednesday night. A number of her young friends had a most enjoyable evening.

The $40,000 School House, for Columbia avenue has been let and will be commenced immediately. There are still a few more lots left at a low price.

Arthur Prothingham, Office, Theater Lobby.

SCRANTON'S BUSINESS INTERESTS.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and printing concerns of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES ARE DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

Attention Everybody. We want your co-operation by calling our store and securing packages of the world-famous food absolutely free of charge. Colonial Food stands without a rival. C. T. MILLER, Court street and Diamond ave.
