NEWS OF THIS VICINITY TUNKHANNOCK.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hungerford spent Thanksgiving with Springville friends. Mrs. Burt Hutchins, of Buffalo, is being entertained by Mrs. G. M. Heckman.

The season for duck hunting along the river is on, but ducks are wild and hunters are getting few as yet. The most successful time for that sport is when the river is closed with ice.

News comes from La Grange that Hon. John Jackson was thrown out of a wagon while returning from the Jenkins funeral Wednesday and badly injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Clark, of Elmira, N. Y., are guests of their daughter, Mrs. F. F. Drake.

Harry and Roe Alger are the wide-awake boys who deliver The Tribune here this week. The town people are now getting the benefit of reading the best daily paper in northeastern Pennsylvania.

The friends of ex-Sheriff George W. Stark presented him with an easy chair at his birthday party this week. He had reached his sixty-seventh mile post.

Rev. S. C. Hodge delivered an eloquent and interesting sermon at the union meeting at the Baptist church yesterday. A goodly number were present.

Dr. Barfield and his bride are expected home from "down east" Saturday.

A keen, biting winter blast swept over Sunnyside cemetery Wednesday afternoon as carefully and reverentially the friends of the late Austin Moore lowered his remains into the tomb.

S. C. Hodge, of the Tunkhannock Presbyterian church, conducted the brief but solemn service as the earth received her own; and then, with a tearful farewell, the company hurried to the congenial warmth of the fireside.

The party took lunch at the Packer House, and shortly afterward boarded the milk train, which, by special order of Superintendent E. Esser, made a detour to Lehigh and Bloomsburg junction in order to reach there in time to connect with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train for Scranton.

The following people composed the party: Mrs. Moore and family, John Devine, J. R. Mucklow, J. W. Oakford, J. D. Clark, J. D. Williams, Joseph Austin Mellon, all of Scranton; O. O. Esser, Waverly, N. Y.; George Keiser, William Mucklow, C. E. Clark, of Dupont, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Weaver, N. G. Moore, of Johnstown, Pa.; E. H. Moore, of Lambertville, N. J.; W. A. Stevenson, of Sayre, Pa.; George L. Houser, of Bethlehem; M. G. Moore, R. D. Moore, of Roselle, N. J.; A. J. Thompson, of Austin, Pa.; F. S. Coyne, of Old Forge. Their train collided with another at Falling Spring with but slight damage.

HAWLEY.

On Wednesday at 12 o'clock Miss L. Maud Woodward and Charles A. Cramer were united in marriage at the home of the bride's father, R. B. Woodward, by Rev. J. C. Leacock, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Dunmore. The bridesmaid was Miss Ella Cruse, of this place, and the groomsmen were James A. Cramer, of Dunmore, a brother of the groom. After the ceremony was performed a most elegant and substantial dinner was provided, to which the company, numbering about thirty near relatives and friends, were invited to partake, and an hour was very pleasantly passed by all.

The young couple left on the evening train for Dunmore, where they will make their home. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vickers and Miss Minnie Dexter, Dunmore; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Compton, Honesdale; Miss Edith Woodward, Hoadleys; Frank Killam and Miss Maggie Killam, Paupack; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ames, E. D. Ames and Miss Nellie Woodward, Hawley.

BUCKNELL NOTES.

Thanksgiving recess extends to 9.15 a. m. Monday. Frank Harkness, '92 of Philadelphia; E. M. Green, ex-'95 of Huntington, and Charles Follmer, '92, are visiting friends at the college and in town.

H. C. Downing, class of '98, who is feared, is coming down with a fever left for his home in Lehman, Luzerne county, on Wednesday. He was accompanied by Bromley Smith.

Edward Flint and B. B. Ware are spending a few days at their home in Philadelphia. This season has been famous among colleges for the number of games that have been cancelled, and Bucknell with the rest has had her share.

Three important games have been cancelled, and finally the much-anticipated game with Dickinson at Harrisburg has been recalled.

KEYSTONE ACADEMY.

This morning finds all in quietness at Keystone. Most of the students and teachers have laid aside the cares of school life for a few days, and are spending their Thanksgiving vacation at home.

FOREST CITY.

Arthur May, a student at Allegheny college, Meadville, is spending his vacation with his parents in this place. The fifth annual ball of Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, occurred Wednesday evening. It was largely attended and proved to be a social and financial success.

Miss Gertrude Deary, of Olyphant, is the guest of Miss Mary Deary. The pupils and teachers of the graded school are enjoying a vacation until Monday. The following teachers who live at a distance spent their vacation at their respective homes: Misses Anna Doran and Cella Lanning, at Susquehanna; Miss Potter, at Jackson; Miss Mary Reynolds, at South Gibson.

Rev. F. Marshall conducted Thanksgiving service in the Episcopal church yesterday morning. An excellent sermon was preached. Union Thanksgiving services were held yesterday in the Baptist church. The attendance was large.

Rev. P. B. Kennedy preached a highly interesting discourse. The clergymen present were: Rev. J. R. Egan, of the Baptist church; Rev. J. C. Hogan, of the Methodist church, and Rev. J. G. Evans, of the Congregational.

William D. Bryden, Alex. Bryden, J. M. Brown and H. Edwards, of Taylor, saw Joe Jefferson in "Rip Van Winkle" at Scranton last evening. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Aldrich spent Thanksgiving with relatives in New York state.

Will Watkins, Howell Davis, Professor John H. Cousins and R. J. Reese, of Peckville, were in Forest City yesterday to enjoy their Thanksgiving. Mr. Watkins and Mr. Davis, with Professor Cousins as pianist, delighted a large number of their friends at the Davis House by the rendering of some choice solos and duets in a pleasing manner.

The board of trade will hold a special meeting tonight in Maxey's hall. A number of important committees will report, among them being the committee that went to Bloomsburg in the interest of the new car manufactory. A large attendance is desired.

Tuesday evening the members of the Hillside Fire company and a number of the Hillside employees tendered a farewell reception to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Caryl and family, who will soon remove to Scranton. John F. Gallagher, in a neat speech, presented to Mr. and Mrs. Caryl, on behalf of the company employees and fire company, a Mexican onyx parlor lamp and stand, also a very valuable silver set interlined with gold; also in behalf of the firemen a handsome gold watch chain and charm set with a valuable diamond.

Mr. Caryl, in behalf of his family, expressed their regret in leaving such a large number of friends, and thanked all kindly for the valuable presents. Refreshments were served, after which the light fantastic was tripped to the music furnished by O'Brien & Clume, Wednesday evening a public reception was tendered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Caryl. The attendance was large, showing the appreciation in a slight degree in which Mr. and Mrs. Caryl are held. The evening was enjoyably spent in social talks and games, and lovers of the terpsichorean art enjoyed themselves to their heart's content. The presents Wednesday evening consisted of elaborate silver ware and a beautiful center table. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Caryl, of Scranton, were present, and other out-of-town visitors graced the occasion.

Dr. Hileman, the attending physician at the hospital for the past two months, retires today. Dr. J. J. Walsh will tomorrow assume the duties laid down by Dr. Hileman.

The funeral of Thomas Cooney, who was killed at Richmond, Va., a few days ago, occurred yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. Interment was made in Market Street cemetery.

The Wilkes-Barre foot ball eleven, which were expected to play a club from this place yesterday, evidently lost their courage, as they failed to put in an appearance, greatly to the disgust of a large number of people, who had anticipated a fine day's sport.

A fellow, with no visible object in life but to make himself obnoxious to the community by getting intoxicated, was taken care of and locked up by the police yesterday afternoon.

The United Press dispatch sent out from Tunkhannock purporting to give an account of the drowning of Henry Polen, of this place, was one more garbled report which has appeared in print in a long time. Instead of the drowned man being J. C. Polen, it was Henry Polen, a well known carpenter, and not a "teller of the Second National bank of Pittston." There was scarcely a fragment of truth in the report from beginning to end.

TAYLOR.

Miss Sarah Davis spent yesterday with friends in Pittston. William H. Gordon has been spending the past few days with William Toole at the Stroudsburg State Normal school. W. L. Van Buskirk, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with relatives here.

The ball of the Twilight Social club at Weber's rink on Wednesday evening was largely attended. The evening was most enjoyably spent by the young people and the club was pronounced to be excellent entertainers. Professor T. R. Davis furnished the music for the occasion. The contest for a watch between Miss Kate Rutabaugh, of this place, and Miss Bridget Lally, of Minooka, was won by the former.

Rev. F. A. King received a barrel of oranges from a friend in Florida this week. The hotel of H. A. Dougherty, esq., at Rendham, is nearing completion. Miss Gwenno Rosar and Edward D. Davis, two well and favorably known young persons of this town, were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Rosar, on Ridge street, by Rev. H. H. Harris, of the Calvary Baptist church. The young couple receive the hearty congratulations of a host of friends. They are enjoying a wedding tour of different interesting points.

Miss Anna Hodge, of Bath, N. Y., is visiting friends here. Misses Williams and Thomas, of Pittston, spent the fore part of the week in this place. Mr. and Mrs. John Owens spent yesterday with relatives in Parsons.

The meeting of the Price Library elocution class was postponed on Wednesday evening owing to the illness of the teacher, Miss Tillie Lewis. F. B. Winslow made a trip to Wyoming on Wednesday. M. C. Judge is visiting in New York city. David E. Jones is able to be around again after his recent severe illness.

Miss Sarah Davis has accepted a position in the store of Judge & Co. The fair of the Welsh Congregational church last evening at Weber's rink was largely attended. It will be continued tonight. Thanksgiving services were held in the Calvary Baptist church yesterday morning. Rev. F. A. King, of the Methodist church, preached the sermon. The theaters at Scranton were well represented by Taylor people yesterday.

Almost Blind

Inflamed Eyes and Running Sores. The Success of Hood's Causes Great Rejoicing--A Perfect Cure.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: I feel it a duty to state what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I was almost blind, being compelled to stay in a darkened room on account of inflammation of the eyes. I also suffered with running sores on my body. I was in terrible condition. My mother tried every thing she knew about and I was attended by two doctors but without helping me. Finally Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I had not taken two bottles before I began to get better. The inflammation left my eyes and the sores healed, and the result was that and was restored to perfect health. At that time I was only twelve years old; now I am nineteen and I have not since been troubled with my eyes or noticed any sign of a return of the sores on my body. I can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as an excellent blood purifying medicine." Miss CORA B. EBERT, Barnesville, Pa. Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c.
