Morning Services Will Begin with a Mass at 6 O'clock-Evening Sermon at 7.30 -Mission Conducted by Rev. E. Bucholtz, S. J.

A retreat or mission for the members of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin began yesterday afternoon at St. Peter's cathedral and will continue during the week. It is in charge of Rev. L. Bucholtz, of Cleveland, O., who will preach each morning at 6 o'clock and again at 7.30 in the evening. The mission will be continued next week for the benefit of the women of the parish in general, but will be in charge of local priests, as Father Bucholtz leaves next Sunday for Waterbury, Conn., to opena similar mission there.

He preached the sermon at the 10.30 mass at the cathedral yesterday morning, taking his text from the gospel of the day. He is both an intellectual and physical giant, standing 6 ft. and 7 in. in height. His command of language is easy and he has an eloquent delivery. although his speech is touched noticeably with the German ascent. Yesterday being the first Sunday of Advent the gospel of the mass was on the subject of a preparation for the coming of God.

Opening of the Retreat. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the church was filled with the members of the Blessed Virgin's Sodality. Father Bucholtz addressed them for an hour in an introductory sermon, the tenor of which was an appeal to them to make the mission well. He urged each one to make a resolution now that she would attend each day on both occasions and derive the grace which God promises to all who show a disposition to hear His teachings. He said that when our Savior looks down from the tabernacle in the altar and sees a soul that is sick, he yearns to extend the hand of grace and heal that soul just as He did when He raised Lazarus from the dead. Lazarus had been in his grave and the odors of decay and decomposition were exhaling from his flesh, but Jesus raised him to life.

Whoever is in the state of mortal sin is spiritually dead. As soon as the first mortal sin is committed it kills the soul, when a succession of sins is recorded against the soul it is dead absolutely and burled like Lazarus with the vile odors of vice emanating therfrom. It is sealed up in the sepulchre of bad habits and nothing but the grace of God can infuse new life into that soul and lift the stone of sin from the tomb. The mission is the channel that God's graces flow through and on such occasions there is a bountiful store of mercy ready for those who wish to partake of the invitation to be spiritually healed. Father Bucholtz said that it was unnecessary for him to remind his hearers that this was a season of penance. The fulfillment of God's commands always is not an easy task. The way of piety and sanctity is narrow and travel along it entails self-abnegation and self-cru-

ANOTHER MINOOKA FIRE.

Burned Down Saturday Afternoon. By the most remarkable good luck what might have been another conflagration in Minooka was averted Saturday afternoon. The house owned by John Kane and tenanted by the family of Michael O'Neill caught fire and was consumed. The side of the street on which the house is situated is built up solidly of frame houses, not more than a few feet apart. And there is not a fire hydrant in the place; so that when one house becomes enveloped in flames there is scarcely little hope of checking the fire until it eats up everything ahead of it.

O'Neill's house was only ten feet from the house of Peter Waish and how the latter place did not catch fire is at-
