OLD PETER LYNCH'S SAD STORY
Reverses That Have Reduced a Former Indiana Business Man--Funeral of J. C. Freese--Marriage of Miss Thomas to John R. Summers.

A sad tale of privation and suffering was told last evening by Peter Lynch, a former resident of Indiana, who applied at the station house for food. Lieutenant Williams brought the old man in and complied with his request. Mr. Lynch is a gray haired man of 65 years, and came here from Scotland. He was formerly the proprietor of a boiler factory at Indiana and in comfortable circumstances. One night, about five years ago, the factory burned to the ground, and as the works were not insured, Mr. Lynch and his family were thrown out into the cold world. He moved to Syracuse, but has failed to secure steady employment and is now seeking something to do. His wife and five children are at Syracuse. His eldest boy, who should now be able to support his aged father, is a cripple and unable to work. The family is in very reduced circumstances.

J. C. Freese Buried.
Funeral services over the remains of the late John C. Freese, of Jackson street, occurred yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family home. A very large number of friends assembled. A brief service was conducted at the home, after which the remains were removed to the Sherman avenue mission, where Rev. Thomas Bell, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, preached an eloquent sermon. The West Side Cornet band, of which Mr. Freese was a member, attended and played a dirge as the hearse slowly proceeded to the Washburn cemetery. The Continental Mine Accident, which resulted in the deaths of a number of men, was the subject of a discourse by Rev. Thomas Bell, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, who preached an eloquent sermon. The West Side Cornet band, of which Mr. Freese was a member, attended and played a dirge as the hearse slowly proceeded to the Washburn cemetery. The Continental Mine Accident, which resulted in the deaths of a number of men, was the subject of a discourse by Rev. Thomas Bell, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, who preached an eloquent sermon.

Wedding Bell.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 10:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. Llewellyn Jones, on North Main avenue. The contracting parties were John R. Summers and Miss Jennie Thomas, both of Spring Brook. Rev. Hugh Davies, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, performed the ceremony in the parlor, which had been neatly decorated for the occasion. Only a few intimate friends and relatives of the bride couple witnessed the ceremony. An excellent wedding dinner was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Summers left for a two weeks' visit at Buffalo, Niagara Falls and other places of interest. On their return they will enter a newly furnished home at Spring Brook. Mr. Summers is a progressive business man and his bride a popular young woman.

Brief Notes of Interest.
Mrs. Joseph Z. Lamber, of Kessler avenue, is confined to her home with illness.
Palmer, Williams, of South Main avenue, a student at Bucknell, is visiting his parents.
Tallie Phillips, of Academy street, is recovering from a severe illness of typhoid fever.
W. Scott Bevan, of North Main avenue, a student at Lafayette college, is home for the holidays.
Harry Peck, a student at Lehigh university, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Peck, on Price street.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Davies, of Meridian street, have left the city for a visit with friends in Connecticut.
Hessie F. Rosen, of Washburn street, has gone to Mahanoy City, where she will spend the holidays with friends.
H. D. Tiffany, of Nicholson, has returned home from a visit with his sister, Mrs. Gideon Moser, on Lafayette street.
The Misses Morgan, Freeman and Brown, students at Bloomsburg State Normal school, are visiting their parents on this side.
The members of the Old Druid Glee club are requested to meet this evening at 8 o'clock at Main avenue and Jackson street.
A quarterly meeting will be held at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church this evening. Preceding Elder Eckman will preside.
W. Haydn Evans, of South Sumner avenue, is being prevailed upon to accept the candidacy for common council in the Fifth ward at the next election.
The Young People's society of the First Welsh Baptist church will hold a meeting this evening. All members should be present, as an interesting programme will be rendered.
Miss Alice James, of Clark's place, and N. Scott, of North Filmore avenue, were married at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at their newly furnished home on North Sumner avenue.
A dime social was held on Wednesday

SAYS LIL WAS HIS WIFE
"Doc" Smith Anxious to Secure Miss Howard's Property.

RELATIVES DISPUTE HIS CLAIM
Smith Admits That No Ceremony Was Performed, But Claims That They Lived Together as Man and Wife. An Unseemly Spectacle.

Last September Miss Lil Howard, after a short and sudden illness, died at the Boulevard House, possessor of considerable property, and leaving no will. In due course of time "Doc" M. D. Smith had letters of administration granted, claiming the sole right to her estate. He is now in possession of the property, and is being sued by the relatives of the deceased. The case is being tried before Judge W. H. C. Smith, who is expected to render a verdict in favor of the relatives. The case is being tried before Judge W. H. C. Smith, who is expected to render a verdict in favor of the relatives.

Common Law Marriage.
"Doc" Smith was the first to testify. He swore that he was the husband of Miss Howard, whose proper name was Esther M. Walters. He lived with her as his common law wife. The case is being tried before Judge W. H. C. Smith, who is expected to render a verdict in favor of the relatives.

NORTH END NOTES.
Mrs. George J. Sanders, of Wayne avenue, is seriously ill.

Kullick's Death Supposed to Have Been Caused by Suffocation.
Coroner Kelly held an adjourned inquest yesterday as to the death of Anthony Kullick, who was found dead on Wednesday morning in a shanty on the culm dump of Jersey, No. 3, colliery, Piceburg.
The coroner reported upon his post-mortem examination and stated that from the indications found he arrived at the opinion that death was caused by suffocation by the sulphur fumes arising from the culm dump which was on fire. Evidence was given that deceased was addicted to drink and left his home this morning previous. No testimony was offered as to his whereabouts before he went to the shanty. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the coroner's report.

THE PRINCESS BONNIE.
A Successful Return Engagement Played at the Academy.
The "Princess Bonnie" company played a return engagement last night to an audience that taxed the capacity of the Academy of Music.
Miss Mayo was as charming as on her former visit and Frank Daniels quite as humorous. The opera was staged in the same superb manner as when seen here before.

THE VETERAN
A DRAMA OF THE STREET
BY ELIZABETH STUART PHELPS-WARD.
On Saturday, Dec. 22, The Tribune will begin the publication of a Christmas drama in two acts by Mrs. Elizabeth Stuart Phelps-Ward. It is entitled "The Veteran," and tells in simplest, yet most pathetic fashion of the sorrows of a hero of the war, wounded by a bursting shell, blind, forgotten by his country, and reduced to singing in the streets for a livelihood until rescued from poverty by a friendly hand. It is a story of Christmas time, touching the heart and triumphing in justice. It is an appeal to sympathy, but the tears it starts are tears of joy.
Mrs. Elizabeth Stuart Phelps-Ward is one of the foremost figures in American literary life, and has been regarded for years as our strongest woman writer. This study in the dramatic form is almost unique; it is probably her masterpiece in its direct appeal to the emotions and in its terse strength.
