

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT.

Matchless Coat Values

Another Rare Opportunity Is Presented This Morning in Stylishly Made Ladies' Coats—The Prices Are the Lowest of the Present Season.

Right from a maker who was glad to avail himself of our offer. He had too many garments and too little money, and thus we purchased upon our own terms. Each wrap is exquisitely made and trimmed in the latest fashionable style; the materials are the best and such as have found great favor among the ladies of taste. Such offerings as these have not been shown in Scranton this year, 49 inches long, double-breasted, large sleeves and tight-fitting.

$7.50, $8.50 and $9.50 the Garment

Regular prices until now were $12, $17, and $20.

USEFUL CHRISTMAS GIFTS

HANDKERCHIEFS.

Remarkable varieties and values have been brought here for the holidays. The prices are conspicuous for their smallness, while the qualities and styles occupy the highest place known to handkerchief manufacturers.

Appropriate services were held in all the churches here on Tuesday. Masses were celebrated in St. Thomas' church at 6, 8, 9 and 10:30 o'clock by Rev. T. J. Comerford. At the Lutheran church there were services at 10:30 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Schwaburger, who delivered a sermon explaining the significance of the day. In the evening there was a cantata entitled "The Shepherd at Bethlehem," given by young members of the congregation, which was well presented. Afterwards presents were given to the children from a Christmas tree. In the Presbyterian church services were held on Christmas evening. Addresses were delivered by Thomas Law and Rev. Mr. Shaw. The pastor also spoke. After the services the children were entertained and delighted with Christmas tokens.

The fair of St. Thomas' congregation was crowded Christmas afternoon and evening and there was a large attendance from out of town. Mrs. Van Doren sang two solos with her accustomed excellence and Mr. Coyne, of South Scranton, also favored his audience with several pleasing selections. There were national songs sung by the children of Miss Quinlan's room. The fair will be open all week.

Mrs. James White, of Wayne street, spent Christmas with friends in Scranton.

HONESDALE.

As the clock on the mantel-piece struck five Christmas evening a bridal party passed under a beautiful canopy of laurel and evergreen, and the solemn ceremony of the Methodist church was pronounced that united for life Miss Myra Woodward and Dr. Edward Ward Burns. The bridal party consisted of the ushers, Joseph Crandall, Fred Crossley, Dr. W. B. Powell and O. B. Haddell; the flower girls, Misses Alice Simons and Bessie Brown, and the bride and groom. The wedding march was played by the groom's sister, Miss Emma Burns, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. C. A. Benjamin, assisted by Rev. William B. Swift. The bride wore a handsome gown of cream colored bengaline and carried bride roses. The home of the bride on Maple avenue was beautifully decorated with green branches and potted plants. Holly and mistletoe also abounded. Refreshments were served by the young lady and gentlemen friends of the bride and groom, and at 6:45 Dr. and Mrs. Edward Burns left in a heavy storm of rain to take the Erie and Wyoming train for Scranton. Among the guests present were Miss Blanche Wood, who wore cream silk; Miss Adelaide Dodge, blue crepe de chene; Miss Elizabeth Bentley, white satin; Miss Irene Tibbets, lavender silk; Miss Louise Harndenbergh, figured silk gown; Miss Susan Jenkins, canary crepe de chene; Miss Ida Barnes, cream satin, Honesdale; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crossley, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall, Dunmore; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rodman; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Marshall, Mrs. John Bell and Mrs. Fowd, Hawley; George Bell, Ardel; Mrs. Mary Bell, Hamilton; Fred B. Crossley, Harvard college; Ed P. Clark and Joseph Crandall, Philadelphia; Ernest Brown, New York, and Edwin B. Twitmyer, Lafayette college.

Miss Hattie B. Lake was married to W. Fay Langdon, of New York City, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. C. A. Benjamin. The ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreen formed in the bay window of the parlor. The bride was attired in white china silk and carried bride roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Nellie Woodward, of Hawley, wore cream silk. Gus Langdon, of Brooklyn, brother of the groom, was best man. R. W. Lake, brother of the bride, and Naboth Osborne, of Syracuse, were ushers. The flower girl was Sarah Knapp, of Hawley. Miss Hattie Spears, of Hawley, played the wedding march. A wedding supper was served after which the bridal couple left for New York. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Carlisle; Mr. and Mrs. Knapp, Hawley; Mrs. A. C. Langdon, Port Orant; Gus Langdon, Jersey City; Rev. Edward Martin and Miss Nellie Woodward, Kingston; Miss Rollison, Miss Collum, Mr. Vicker and Mr. Carlson, Hawley.

OLYPHANT.

Three masses were celebrated at St. Patrick's church on Christmas morning, at 8, 9 and 10 o'clock respectively. At the 6 o'clock mass Rossi's celebrated mass in D was sung by the juvenile choir under the leadership of Sister M. Sholaetia. The singing was sublime and touching, and it reflects much credit on the choir, who had only a few weeks to practice, and shows the efficient and untiring work of the good sister. At the 10 o'clock Van Bross' mass was sung by the large choir under the leadership of Professor Watkins.

Nerves and Blood

Strengthened and Purified by Hood's Sarsaparilla

Scrofula Humor and Distress in the Stomach Cured.

The following testimonial comes from Mr. D. Sterling Mitzel of Wintertown, Pa., who conducts a printing office and collecting agency and is the youngest justice of the peace in the state: "O. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."

"Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful health-restorer, nerve-strengthening and blood-purifier. For the last four or five years I have been troubled with humor and scrofula in the blood, breaking out all over my body, which caused itching and kept me from rest at night. I was also, at the same time, troubled with a Sour Stomach, which was anything but pleasant. I could not even take a swallow of water but what I suffered from distress and acidity. I did not enjoy a good meal until after I commenced to use Hood's Sarsaparilla. I could see the good effect of Hood's Pills not easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c."
