

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT.
DEEPLY CUT PRICES
IN
LADIES' COATS AND CAPES

The overcrowded and overstocked condition of our Coat Department makes it absolutely necessary for us to mark down prices at once without considering the losses that must inevitably follow. We therefore plunge to the bottom immediately by offering such values as has never before been shown in this country. The garments are all new, superbly made and finished in the latest fashionable styles.

SEASONABLE DRESS GOODS
AT CUT PRICES.

The one thought in the Dress Goods Department is to reduce stock irrespective of money-cost. If you wish to take advantage of this rare opportunity do not procrastinate. Bargains wait for no one.

The old furnace removed from the basement of St. Peter's church will be shipped to Springville, where it will do service for the Episcopalian of that village.

Archibald Bannatyne, one of the oldest residents at Vose--and a rigid Democrat, by the way--avers that the decision in the matter of the county line between Susquehanna, Wyoming and Lackawanna, low injustice to the latter counties. His version of the latter is that the original survey took the strip in controversy into Wyoming and Lackawanna, but as interested parties were anxious to preserve the Democracy of Wyoming, and the survey took in a lot of Whigs on the northern boundary that they were anxious to exclude, they re-surveyed the line and shut them out. It is his opinion that the injustice then wrought should now be made right by restitution.

Joe Furman hung up his stocking on Christmas and now rejoices in a robust baby boy. A lot of his envious neighbors will try it next year.
The ice harvest on Tunkhannock creek has begun and ice houses will be filled as rapidly as possible.
