Passing Events of the Day on the West Side of the City Noted.

HOW THE DAY WAS OBSERVED

Business of All Kinds Generally Suspended—Fire in the Weisenfuh Residence—Dinner by Ladies of the Presbyterian Church.

New Year's day, as it was observed on this side, was one long to be remembered. With the ringing out of the old year and ringing in of the new, there were numerous big parties which continued the old time practice of rendering vocal selections in front of many prominent residences. Horns were blown and the year of '95 was ushered in with warmth and welcome. Everything assumed a holiday appearance yesterday. All work shops and places of business, with the exception of saloons, were closed for the day, and the West Side people enjoyed themselves in various ways.

A large number attended the Bellevue elated, a complete report of which is given in another column of this paper. Others sought amusement at the Scranton Driving park, where there was excellent skating. Cutters were at a premium yesterday and the Main avenue driveway was crowded continually. The entertainments, dinners and weddings on this side were well attended.

Railroad Torch Was the Cause.

The alarm of fire which sounded from box 34 at Market and Lackawanna avenues at a few minutes before 10 o'clock yesterday morning was caused by a slight blaze at the home of Andrew Weisenfuh, who resides on Chestnut street. Mr. Weisenfuh had been using a railroad torch to thaw out some water pipe, and the sparks from the wood work underneath the kitchen floor. The blaze was soon discovered and an alarm sent in. The Franklin and Columbia engine companies responded, but their services were not required, as the blaze was extinguished with a few pails of water.

New Year's Dinner.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church held their annual New Year's dinner yesterday from 12 to 2 o'clock in the basement of the new church, which is now nearly completed. The large room had been made very comfortable by means of heat from large gas stoves, and the place was neatly decorated with evergreens. Ten large tables were placed and were kept filled during the progress of the dinner. A very enjoyable time was had. The menu was excellent.

The following ladies had charge of the affair: Mrs. A. M. Morse, Mrs. Vipond, Mrs. Eslieman, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Robert Williams, Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. George W. Jenkins, Mrs. Laffey Staples, Mrs. William Staples, Mrs. Boldry, Mrs. Poland, Miss Jennie Shannon, Mrs. E. D. Follows, Miss Harris, Mrs. S. M. Reynolds, Miss Clark and Mrs. Parker.

Brief Notes of Interest.

Moses Evans, of Forest City, visited friends in town yesterday.

Miss Edna Williams, of South Main avenue, is visiting friends in Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Edward O'Brien, of North Redbank avenue, is seriously ill at her home with her family.

Mrs. J. T. Morris and son, William, of South Main avenue, have returned home from Wilkes-Barre.

John E. Davies announces himself as a Republican candidate for common council in the Twenty-first ward.

A 10 o'clock service was conducted by Rev. M. H. Mill in St. David's Episcopal church yesterday morning.

Mrs. Charles T. Edwards and Mrs. John Law, both of Wilkes-Barre, spent yesterday with friends on this side.

David Johnson, of South Main avenue, who for many years was financial secretary of the First Welsh Congregational church, has resigned.

The Plymouth church choir serenaded A. B. Bynon at his home on North Hyde Park avenue on Monday evening. Mr. Bynon invited the party into his home and an enjoyable evening was the result.

Miss Emilie Evans, of North Hyde Park avenue, entertained a few friends at her home on Monday evening. Games and other diversions were indulged in. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Small Carrier Eleazer Evans, of Lafayette street, is suffering from a sprained ankle which he received on Monday while delivering mail on North Main avenue. Mr. Evans will be unable to attend to his duties for a few days.

David E. Evans, of Eynon street, and Miss Lettie L. Thomas, of the continental, were married a few evenings ago by Rev. Thomas A. Bell, of the Plymouth Congregational church. They now reside on Eynon street.

The members of Electric Camp, No. 32, Patriotic Order of True Americans, held an entertainment and social last evening in Red Men's hall on South Main avenue. An interesting literary and musical programme, which included addresses by Harry Bradshaw and P. J. Stanton. An enjoyable time was the result.

Chapter No. 533, of Epworth league, connected with the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church, have elected the following officers: President, M. W. Prestwood; first vice president, Charles Bennett; second vice president, Mrs. F. Stone; third vice president, William Cadogan; fourth vice president, John T. Rendell; secretary,

F. J. Walker, treasurer, John George, organist, Miss Estella Stubblebine, chorister, H. C. Hittman.

Services were conducted in the Salvation Army barracks yesterday morning at 7 and in the evening at 3 and 7.30 o'clock. The meetings were of an unusually interesting nature. Among the speakers were Ensign Harris, of Philadelphia, and Captain Mott, of Wilkes-Barre. A large number attended the services.

NORTH END NOTES.

William Davis, of Green street, spent yesterday with friends in Oliphant.

Miss Mary Davis, of Spring street, visited friends in Oliphant yesterday.

Job Nichols, of Plymouth, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William H. Davis, of Wayne avenue.

A report of the wedding of Miss Anna C. Roche to Dr. G. Colville will be found in another column.

William Shepperd, of Adrian, Mich., is visiting friends here.

Miss Nellie DeGraw, of Main avenue, returned yesterday from a short visit with friends in Jersey.

Thomas L. Williams, of William street, was suddenly taken seriously ill at his home yesterday morning.

Mrs. M. G. Stevens, of Hartford, Conn., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Harris, of Brick avenue.

Howard Geddes, of Binghamton, but formerly of this city, is visiting his father, William Geddes, of Main avenue.

Miss Gwendolyn Griffiths, of Forest City, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Tidd, of Main avenue, returned home yesterday.

Misses Margaretta and Viola Williams, of William street, spent New Year's with friends in Kingston and Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. James Plopp, of Price place, died yesterday morning. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon; interment in Forest Hill cemetery.

A large number of friends gathered at the residence of J. J. Chenoweth, on Wayne avenue, last Monday night, for the purpose of watching the changing of the years. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games. Light refreshments were served before the guests departed.

The self denial committee of the Primitive Methodist church conducted a social in the church parlors last evening, which was well attended. After light refreshments were served Rev. Daniel Stevens delivered a short lecture on "Lazy Young Men." During this social enough money was raised to pay a half year's interest, which falls due tomorrow, and $100 on the principal, which will leave a standing debt of only $75.

The Welsh Congregational church was well filled all day yesterday when refreshments were being served by the ladies of the church. All taking part were dressed in the ancient Welsh costumes. The refreshments were the old national foods, including faggots, oatmeal bread and foyce. From 12 to 2 o'clock the Sunday school scholars were served with a free dinner and at 2.30 the evening entertainment began with the customary choir marching into the building and singing "March of the Men of Harlech," which was followed by the female party and the "Jolly Welsh Boys," consisting of Thomas Evans, William Fyfe, William Evans and David Smith, who rendered a number of selections and each time were encored. A recitation by Mildred Williams entitled "A Talk with Santa Claus" followed. Evan Jones, Morgan H. Williams and John T. Evans read appropriate original poems. Miss Margaret Price gave a recitation in an excellent manner and was encored, as were Maggie Crans and Roger Williams, who recited an original humorous dialogue and were dressed in the ancient costumes. The entertainment closed by the choir singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

A reception of members was held in the Ashburton Episcopal church last night under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society. A short entertainment was given which consisted of an address of welcome by R. W. Kellow, a piano duet by Misses Roney and Jurish, a tenor solo by L. H. Langdon, a violin solo by Miss Bonnie Stackhouse, a selection by the Ashburton quartette, which consisted of Messrs. Colin Mansyoun, Treverton and Dr. Treverton; a recitation by Miss Lillian Peck, violin solo by Arthur Teal, and a piano solo by Miss Lillian Peck, who was accompanied by Arthur Teal on the violin. Miss Bertha Swinge acted as accompanist and was assisted by Mrs. John Taylor. The members were received by Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Seward and Messrs. T. H. Holly, R. W. Kellow and E. E. Teal. At the close of the entertainment refreshments were served by a large number of young members in charge of Mrs. E. E. Teal, Mrs. T. H. Holly, Mrs. R. W. Kellow, Mrs. Charles Stackhouse, Mrs. Brookshier and Mrs. Woodhall. A free will offering was collected for the benefit of the organ fund which amounted to over $50, making a total of $500 which has been raised for the 1894 payment on their new pipe organ.

VALLEY HOUSE ON FIRE.

Prompt Action Yesterday Noon Prevented a Serious Conflagration.

A fire discovered in the Lackawanna Valley House at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon might have done untold damage had it not been found and quenched before gaining much headway. The flames started among a pile of papers in a bell boy's room, and though a regular alarm was responded to, the guests at dinner did not know until later of the danger which had threatened them.

A bell boy asleep in a room adjoining that in which the fire started was aroused by the smoke and after locating the flames gave the alarm to the clerks in the office. Proprietor Godfrey and Clerks Carter and Ford, after sending in a regular alarm, smothered the flames with water. A number of guests ran from their rooms and assisted them.

WOMEN FULL OF PAINT.

Painting their faces is a favorite pastime of the women of this city. A number of guests ran from their rooms and assisted them.

Shorter Paragraphs.

John Farrell, of Palm street, has returned after a visit with friends in Nanticoke.

Thomas Kearney, of Buffalo, spent New Year's Day with his parents on Prospect avenue.

Rev. E. J. Moley and Dr. J. A. Manley enjoyed a spring ride on the Elmhurst boulevard yesterday afternoon behind a span of feet-footed steeds.

Michael J. Coyne, of Locust street, was resting easily yesterday at his home and will be able to return to his desk at the Delaware and Hudson depot in a few days.

Arthur A. Woloshenk spent the holidays with his parents on Cedar avenue and returned yesterday to resume his studies in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania.

A slight injury to Isaac Couden, of Prospect avenue, occurred yesterday at PUBLIC VISITS THE Y. W. C. A.

Last Year's Work is Reported for the Benefit of the Visitors Another Couple Elopes to Binghamton.

At the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association yesterday afternoon and evening the exercises were exceedingly interesting. At 3 o'clock the doors were thrown open to the public, and shortly afterward all the committee of the association reported the doings of each for the past year. They show the visitors what the association had been doing.

Under the secretaryship and management of Miss Florence Tompkinson, the association has thrived and has done much good. After the committees had reported, the musical part of the occasion was brought out. The Christmas programme was repeated. From 6 to 8 o'clock supper was served. Business and 9 p. m. prayer and praise services was conducted and then the services for the day were concluded.

Eloped to Binghamton.

Eugene Tandler, of Pittston avenue, and Miss Minnie A. Bahr, of Maple street, celebrated the New Year by eloping yesterday morning to Binghamton and getting married. This was denied by the girl's parents, but they are positive that the young couple are parties of this romantic episode. Miss Bahr's father could not object to the attentions of Mr. Tandler to his daughter on any grounds arising from the questionable habits of the young man, because he is a most careful and prudent gentleman, and his worldly welfare and possesses attributes of character that are invaluable. Mr. Bahr did not want to see his daughter married so young.

James Fitzsimmons, aged 28 years, of 106 Stone street, died yesterday morning at 9.30 o'clock, after two week's illness from pneumonia. He leaves a wife and three children; funeral notice later.

Prof. John P. Quinnan Upset.

Near the corner of Maple street and Pittston avenue yesterday morning the cutter driven by Professor John P. Quinnan, of Crown avenue, was upset and the horse started to run away and pulled the sleigh bottom side up for about a block; then it became righted and the animal continued on until it reached Cherry street, where a bystander prevented it from going further. No damage was done to the harness or sleigh. The upset was caused by a high snow bank close to the curb upon which Professor Quinnan played the sleigh and was accompanied to pass just about the time one of the street cars was coming along. Beyond a severe shaking up and an unceremonious loss in the snow, Professor Quinnan was not any ways injured.

Y. M. I. Entertainment at Minooka.

Many visitors were attracted to the nicely furnished rooms of Daniel O'Connell, yesterday afternoon. The public was invited and a very fine programme of music was furnished for the entertainment of the guests. Miss Katie Reardon, of Crown avenue, played the piano and accompanied the singers. Local talent performed the singing. Attorney M. A. McGinley, of John Boyle O'Reilly council, was chairman of the occasion and he delivered a most entertaining ten-minute address in opening the exercises. A gift of a gold pen was bestowed upon Michael McGinley, who is a resident of this city, and manager and patron of the Hillside home will be elected for terms of one year each. There is an interesting fight on for tax collector between the present incumbent, Arja Williams, and Wade M. Finn.

COAL DUST BRIQUETTES.

A Possibility of the Future as a Source of Fuel Supply.

From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

How many years must elapse before we are compelled to use briquettes of coal dust and pitch as fuel it is impossible to predict, but it is highly probable that in the east, at least, this practice will come into vogue before long. Over in England such briquettes are already in common use, and one enterprising manufacturer of machinery has recently brought out an apparatus by which the retail coal dealers may make up the dust of their yards into these cases at the rate of half a ton an hour. The machine does not occupy much room, requires little power and is largely automatic. The coal dust and pitch, which is usually pitch, are fed into a mixing and mauling machine, which mixes them together in the proper proportion. Then the mass falls into a disintegrator, where it is ground up and mixed some more. From this disintegrator a belt conveyor lifts the paste into a vertical heater, where steam is used to raise the temperature of the mass until it is sticky. Then it is fed along to still another pulverizing and grinding apparatus, which finally discharges it into molds. Here it is subjected to a pressure of about two tons to the square inch, which is sufficient to turn out a square cake of fuel weighing anywhere from three-quarters of a pound to three pounds, as may be desired. The briquettes are usually sold to small consumers by number rather than weight, and on this account the builder of the machine has taken particular care to produce an apparatus which, though small, will turn out a uniform product.

ENTERPRISE SOCIAL.

Prof. Taylor's Third Annual New Year's Hop in Excelsior Hall.

One hundred young people, members of Professor George F. Taylor's Enterprise Dancing class, and their friends, participated in the second hop of the season and the third annual New Year's social in Excelsior hall, Wyoming avenue, last night.

The dancing space was severely taxed, which is an evidence of the popularity of the hops generally and of that of last evening particularly. Among the favorite dances were the "Harvard Gavotte" and the "Valse-vaiana Waltz." Music was furnished by Miss Nellie Kern, pianist.

DOGS TRACK ROBBERS.

Several Thousand Dollars Stolen in an Alabama Hold-Up.

By the United Press.

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 1.—Two masked robbers held up the Alabama Great Southern passenger train near York, Ala., last night and looted the express car of its contents. The passengers were not molested. Dogs and detectives are on the track of the robbers. The quantity of money stolen is supposed to have been several thousand dollars, although the precise amount is not known. The supposition is that the robbers were local talent.

AMONG THE POLITICIANS.

Councilman E. E. Robathan will enter the sheriff's office as a deputy under Sheriff E. H. Clemen.

David Reese is mentioned as the probable successor of Councilman P. H. Golden from the First ward.

Ex-School Controller George T. Thompson is mentioned as a candidate in the county jail under the new sheriff.

Adjutant W. S. Millar is making an earnest and promising canvass for the Republican nomination for alderman in the Eighth ward.

Elmer Daniels, of Taylor, will be chief deputy in the recorder of deeds' office under Charles Huester. Miss Hattie Taylor will continue to fill the position of chief clerk.

Attorney John M. Harris is removing his effects from his office in the Commonwealth building to the district attorney's office in the court house, which he will occupy for the next three years as the assistant of District Attorney-elect John H. Jones.

C. S. Seamans is frequently spoken of by the Republicans of Green Ridge as an available candidate for common council in the Thirtieth ward. He is a successful business man, possesses the confidence of his neighbors and is very popular with them.

The poor board will meet for reorganization next Friday, at which time a tax collector, treasurer, secretary, outdoor physician, resident physician and manager and patron of the Hillside home will be elected for terms of one year each. There is an interesting fight on for tax collector between the present incumbent, Arja Williams, and Wade M. Finn.

TESTIFIES TO DR. HACKER'S TREATMENT OF NERVOUS DISEASES OF YOUNG MEN

ASTORIA, AS I AM.

I give the following statement unaltered. I have been a sufferer for so long a time and have spent so much money with so-called specialists and each time have been disappointed and misled, that I was with a good deal of hesitancy called on DR. HACKER. But knowing of some of the cures he made in this city four years ago, and the confidence of the people of Scranton in him then, I resolved to try him. It was a lucky move for me. I was troubled with dyspepsia, indigestion, nervousness, depression, melancholy, and a host of other ailments, which I was unable to exert myself and tired on the least exertion, especially in the morning; had no pleasure in company; very nervous and altogether was a complete wreck. But thanks to DR. HACKER, I am today a well man. I would advise all who are suffering as I did to call immediately; in 48 days I feel like a new man. My medical institute, he will furnish my name and address.

Miss Bahr's father could not object to the attentions of Mr. Tandler to his daughter on any grounds arising from the questionable habits of the young man, because he is a most careful and prudent gentleman, and his worldly welfare and possesses attributes of character that are invaluable. Mr. Bahr did not want to see his daughter married so young.

James Fitzsimmons, aged 28 years, of 106 Stone street, died yesterday morning at 9.30 o'clock, after two week's illness from pneumonia. He leaves a wife and three children; funeral notice later.

Prof. John P. Quinnan Upset.

Near the corner of Maple street and Pittston avenue yesterday morning the cutter driven by Professor John P. Quinnan, of Crown avenue, was upset and the horse started to run away and pulled the sleigh bottom side up for about a block; then it became righted and the animal continued on until it reached Cherry street, where a bystander prevented it from going further. No damage was done to the harness or sleigh. The upset was caused by a high snow bank close to the curb upon which Professor Quinnan played the sleigh and was accompanied to pass just about the time one of the street cars was coming along. Beyond a severe shaking up and an unceremonious loss in the snow, Professor Quinnan was not any ways injured.

Y. M. I. Entertainment at Minooka.

Many visitors were attracted to the nicely furnished rooms of Daniel O'Connell, yesterday afternoon. The public was invited and a very fine programme of music was furnished for the entertainment of the guests. Miss Katie Reardon, of Crown avenue, played the piano and accompanied the singers. Local talent performed the singing. Attorney M. A. McGinley, of John Boyle O'Reilly council, was chairman of the occasion and he delivered a most entertaining ten-minute address in opening the exercises. A gift of a gold pen was bestowed upon Michael McGinley, who is a resident of this city, and manager and patron of the Hillside home will be elected for terms of one year each. There is an interesting fight on for tax collector between the present incumbent, Arja Williams, and Wade M. Finn.

Have your topic cards printed at The Tribune office, where it will be done better and at a fairer price than elsewhere. There are many reasons why your patronage for the next three years should be placed with us.

I am prepared to receive a limited number of piano pupils. For terms, etc., address Richard F. Lindsay, 122 Cherry street, or at Powell's Music Store.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

A GRATEFUL PATIENT

TESTIFIES TO DR. HACKER'S TREATMENT OF NERVOUS DISEASES OF YOUNG MEN

ASTORIA, AS I AM.

I give the following statement unaltered. I have been a sufferer for so long a time and have spent so much money with so-called specialists and each time have been disappointed and misled, that I was with a good deal of hesitancy called on DR. HACKER. But knowing of some of the cures he made in this city four years ago, and the confidence of the people of Scranton in him then, I resolved to try him. It was a lucky move for me. I was troubled with dyspepsia, indigestion, nervousness, depression, melancholy, and a host of other ailments, which I was unable to exert myself and tired on the least exertion, especially in the morning; had no pleasure in company; very nervous and altogether was a complete wreck. But thanks to DR. HACKER, I am today a well man. I would advise all who are suffering as I did to call immediately; in 48 days I feel like a new man. My medical institute, he will furnish my name and address.

NO CURE, NO PAY.
