TO PREVENT HYPNOTISM.

Only Physicians Will Be Allowed to Practice It in England.

It is said that next session there will be a bill brought in, in the house of commons to prohibit the practice of hypnotism by any but medical practitioners.

At first it was sought to condemn hypnotism as charlatanism; however that may be, in future only the medical fraternity will be allowed to practice it.

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

TAYLOR.

Miss Elsie Carry, of Union street, is recovering from a slight attack of diphtheria.

Miss Della Brace, of Luzerne, who has been visiting Misses Lena and Grace King, on Main street, for the past few days, returned to her home yesterday.

A sunrise meeting will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church this morning at 7 o'clock. Fred W. Winslow, president of the Christian Endeavor society, will conduct the meeting.

Everett Campbell is quite seriously ill.

It was not until last evening that the street car tracks were cleared sufficiently to admit the running of street cars.

W. F. Courtwright and daughter, Miss Ida, were in Avoca on Sunday.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Methodist church will hold a turkey supper in the Sunday school room this evening. This society has been noted ever since its organization as one of the best entertainers in this place, and everything undertaken by them meets with success.

The affair this evening will not prove an exception to the general rule, but on the contrary will be even more successful than any others previously held. Preparations have been going on for some time and everything has been secured to suit the tastes of all who desire to come.

Admission for supper, 25 cents. The watch meeting at the Price Library hall last evening was one of the most interesting events that has been held by the association for some time.

A mock trial was had and a roll-call, at which all members read or spoke something on the new year. A lunch was served.

William Rundle returned yesterday from a few days' visit at Nicholson.

Miss Gertrude Simons, of Elmhurst, is visiting friends in Rendham.

A sunrise meeting was held at the Methodist church yesterday morning. New Year's day passed away quietly in this place yesterday.

A majority of the young people spent the day in skating on the ponds, while others attended the theaters in Scranton.

Miss Gertrude Freeman, of Hyde Park, spent the past few days visiting friends here.

Miss Gertrude Rees, who has been spending the Christmas holidays with her mother on Grove street, will return to her studies at the Bloomsburg State Normal school.

William Connell division, Knights of Pythias, held a delightful ball and supper at Weber's rink last evening.

The Taylor Choral union will meet tonight at Weisenbuh's hall for the purpose of dividing the money which they won at the elsteddoff in this place on Christmas, and to consider the advisability of continuing the choir.

The Taylor mines will work today after being idle for nearly a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reynolds, of Hyde Park, were visitors here last evening.

No complaints can be made of the number of appointments that have been given to men residing in this place recently. First John M. Harris was appointed assistant district attorney by John B. Davis, district attorney-elect.

Then Sheriff Clemons selected John W. Reese, the druggist, as one of his deputies, and now James E. Watkins has been appointed as chief reading clerk of the house of representatives at Harrisburg. The appointment given Mr. Watkins is a gratifying inducement to his numerous friends in this borough, and they are especially elated over the fact that he received the appointment when many others worked hard to secure it.

Mr. Watkins is a young man whose abilities have been watched with a great deal of interest by his townspeople, and the important position which he has just secured indicates that his popularity extends a great way.

Mrs. Cobleigh and Mrs. Edward D. Davis attended the elsteddoff in Providence.

Miss Lilly Coombs, of Plymouth, was visiting Miss Lena King yesterday.

William Toole, of the Stroubsburg State Normal school, is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Powell, of Main street, visited their daughter, Mrs. David J. Powell, in Hyde Park yesterday.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day. "Mytic Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and its effects are permanent. It removes the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 25 cents. Sold by Matthews Bros., Druggists, Scranton.

HALLSTEAD.

A service was held in the Baptist church on Sunday evening under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance union of this place. A fine address was given by Rev. L. W. Church, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and recitations were given by Master Corwin, Miss Carrie Sumner, and Miss Myrtle Swartz, of the Bloomsburg State Normal school, who are now spending the holidays with their parents here.

good things and enjoy a good sleigh ride as well should not fail to attend. School re-opened on Monday and there was school on New Year's Day. A very good way for the boys and girls to begin the year.

Mrs. Lawson, an aged lady, died at her home, on lower Main street, early this morning, of pneumonia. Mrs. Lawson has resided with her daughter, Mrs. Brown, in Hallstead, for several years, but formerly she lived in Upsonsville, and was well known in that locality.

Constable Furman, of Uniondale, was in town on Tuesday.

CARBONDALE.

Last evening Miss Mary Watt entertained the Young Ladies' Literary club and their gentleman friends by a high tea at her home on Washington street.

Monday evening a merry party of young people from this city enjoyed a sleighride to Olyphant.

The ice skating craze is again the rage in this city and most everywhere that ice can be found it can be seen crowded with lovers of the healthful exercise. Yesterday several skaters from this city enjoyed the sport in Scranton.

On Thursday evening the regular monthly business meeting of the Baptist Christian Endeavor society will occur in the chapel at the close of the weekly prayer meeting. All members are requested to be present.

Yesterday morning a reception and profession of vocation was held in St. Rose convent at 6:30 o'clock. Right Rev. Bishop O'Hara officiated and administered the vows to the young ladies. Six received the white veil and five took their final vows and received the black veil.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Anthracite Social club served a New Year's dinner for the benefit of the club's members and their lady friends. In the evening a masquerade ball was given under the auspices of this entertaining club, which proved a very happy event. A pleasing feature of the evening was the rendition for the first time of a new march which was composed by Professor Renne, and is called the "Anthracite March."

Many residents complain of frozen water pipes. As a consequence our plumbers were kept busy yesterday.

The talent school held Monday evening at the home of Arthur Spencer, passed very pleasantly. Games were indulged in until nearly midnight, when the refreshments were served. After this several young people joined in singing appropriate pieces to close the last moments of the old year and the ushering in of the new.

NICHOLSON.

The Presbyterian society gave an excellent concert at the Opera house last Friday evening. Selections were rendered by Miss Clara Long, of Scranton; Walter Manchester, of Factoryville; Mrs. C. R. Newton, the Misses Susie Black and Grace Warner and Ralph Williams, of this place.

Peter Winnie is sick of rheumatism. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Benjamin, of Scranton, spent New Year's day with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Henninger, of Weatherly, Pa., have returned to their home, accompanied by their little niece, Esther Williams.

Frank Pratt, Jr., of Scranton, spent New Year's day with his parents.

Leland Walker, of Scranton, spent last Sunday with his grandmother, Mrs. A. E. Walker.

The Universalist society served dinner and supper at the Opera house on New Year's day. In the evening gave a concert. Solos were rendered by J. T. Watkins, of Scranton; Will W. Watkins, of Peckville; Ralph Williams and Llewellyn Shields, of this place. The quartette, the Messrs. Watkins, Howell Davis and Curtis Colvin, of Scranton, rendered several selections. Preferred to Pour His Own Drink.

From the New York Tribune. A southern judge, who was in a New York cafe the other evening, ordered for his drink whisky. The waiter brought it in a glass. The judge looked around, probably for a doctant, and then, pointing to the glass with whisky in it, asked: "What's that?"

"Whisky, sir," answered the waiter. "Wasn't that what you ordered?" The judge pushed the glass away impatiently.

"My son," he said gravely, "when I take a drink of whisky I leave more than that in the glass."

That Dreadful Prostration Cured.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Gentlemen—A little over a year ago, I was attacked by the grip and, after the crisis had passed, I was left so weak and with that dreadful prostration, that I was unable to dress myself for almost nine months. Some friends who knew my merits, persuaded me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and I am now taking my fourth bottle. I am so thankful to be able to say that I can do my housework, and am gaining fast."
