On motion of Mr. Laubach a committee of five, composed of Senators Laubach, Green, Saylor, Gobin and Brewer, was appointed to draft suitable resolutions of the late Senator George Ross, and Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 23, was fixed as the time for hearing the committee's report.

World's Fair Printing Bill.

Senator Gobin presented a resolution calling upon the auditor general and superintendent of public printing to inform the senate of the amount of money paid for printing and binding for the World's fair commission, and whether It was paid from the money appropriated to the commissions' use or from another fund. Mr. Gobin declared that $15,000 had been expended in this way, but he could find nothing in the commission's papers to indicate how it had been paid.

At 11.15 the senate took a recess for half an hour. When the session was resumed, Senator Gobin was appointed deller on the part of the senate to assist in counting the the vote on Jan, 19 and then at 11.45 o'clock the senate adjourned until Wednesday next at 4 p. m.
